Bacon Chicken Alfredo Lasagna Roll 6 servings

Fusion · Tasty

INGREDIENTS

- 16 slice Bacon — thick-cut
- 15 ml Butter
- 4 clove Garlic — minced
- 480 ml Heavy cream
- 50 g Grated parmesan cheese
- 60 ml Fresh parsley — finely chopped
- 5 ml Salt
- 2.5 ml Black pepper
- 0.5 rotisserie chicken — or 2 cooked chicken breasts, shredded
- 5 Lasagna noodles — cooked
- 6 slice Mozzarella cheese
- 240 ml Spinach

1. Over a long sheet of saran wrap, lay 8 of the bacon strips down back to back. Lifting up every other strip, fold about 1-inch (2 cm) the bacon back on itself. Lay another slice of bacon perpendicular to the strips and fold the flaps back over the horizontal strip of bacon. Rep...
2. In a medium saucepan, add the butter and garlic over medium heat, cooking until aromatic, about 30 seconds.
3. Add the cream, and bring to a boil.
4. Add in the Parmesan, parsley, salt, and pepper, stirring constantly until the cheese has melted and there are no lumps remaining.
5. Pour half of the mixture over the shredded chicken, reserving the other half to use a sauce in the end.
6. Mix the chicken with the sauce until thoroughly combined.
7. On a separate sheet of saran wrap, lay down the lasagna noodles, overlapping them slightly.
8. Spread the chicken mixture over the noodles, making sure that you leave about a 1-cm (½ inch) gap at the bottom so the noodles have room to roll on themselves.
9. Preheat oven to 204°C (200°C).
10. Place the cheese slices evenly across the chicken, then press the spinach into a row centered between the cheese slices.
11. While one hand keeps the spinach flat, use the other hand to lift the saran wrap up and over, causing the noodles to roll on themselves. Make sure to roll tightly until the entire thing has come together into a neat rolled bundle.
12. Transfer the lasagna roll to the bottom of the bacon weave, and repeat the saran wrap rolling process until the bacon has tightly and completely wrapped the lasagna roll.
13. Unwrap and transfer to a baking tray.
14. Bake for about 25 minutes until the bacon is starting to get crispy but not too dark.
15. Cool for about 15 minutes, then transfer the roll to a cutting board.
16. Slice generous 1-inch (2 cm) thick portions, then serve with the remaining alfredo sauce.

Cavatelli Pasta 4 servings

Italian · Allrecipes · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 540 ml Durum wheat semolina flour — such as Bob's Red Mill®
- 1 pinch Salt
- 240 ml Water — or as needed

METHOD

1. Mix semolina flour and salt in a large bowl or on a marble work surface. Make a well in the center.
2. Pour water into the well a little at a time, mixing it with flour. Add as much water as needed to make a sticky but compact dough.
3. Knead dough with your hands by flattening the ball, stretching it, and folding top toward center. Turn 45 degrees and repeat until dough is elastic and smooth, but not too soft, about 10 minutes.
4. Shape dough into a ball. Place in a bowl and cover with plastic wrap. Let rest at room temperature for about 30 minutes before using. If you are using cavatelli within a few hours or the following day, wrap in plastic wrap and chill in the refrigerator.
5. Work with one portion of dough at a time, keeping remaining dough covered to keep it from drying out. Dust a work surface with semolina flour; roll out dough to make a rope, about 1/3 inch thick.
6. Cut off little 1/3-inch-thick pieces. Press and gently drag a small piece of dough toward you with your index and middle finger. The two sides will curl inwards, leaving hollow spaces.
7. Proceed the same way with rest of dough. Transfer cavatelli to a floured surface and sprinkle with more semolina flour. Do not overlap cavatelli or they will stick together. Let dry for about 30 minutes before cooking.

- 1 sprig Fresh thyme — leaves picked and roughly chopped
- 0.5 lemon — zested
- 0.5 lemon — juiced

- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 30 ml Fresh parsley

METHOD

1. Prep the cacio e pepe filling: Add the ricotta to a strainer (or wrap in cheesecloth) and set inside (or hang over) a medium bowl. Refrigerate overnight to drain excess moisture (this step is optional, but will result in an extra creamy filling).
2. Make the pasta dough: Add 1¼ cups plus 1 tablespoon of flour to a clean surface and make a well in the center. Add 1 whole egg, 3 egg yolks, and a pinch of salt to the well and slowly beat with a fork, gradually incorporating flour from around the edges. When the dough starts ...
3. Cut the dough into thirds. With a rolling pin, roll one portion of the dough out to a ½-inch-thick rectangle and pass through a pasta maker on the widest setting 3–5 times. Alternatively, roll the pasta out by hand with a rolling pin.
4. Fold the dough so that the short ends touch, then fold in half again where the dough edges meet. Run the pasta through the pasta maker on the widest setting 3–5 more times to make an even rectangle.
5. Pass the dough through the pasta maker on the next widest setting once, then continue to narrow the setting, passing the dough through one time each, until you reach setting 8 or 9. Dust the pasta sheet with flour and cover with plastic wrap. Repeat with the remaining portions...
6. Make the colored pasta: On a clean surface, mix together the remaining 1¼ cups plus 1 tablespoon flour and the beet powder. Make a well in the center and add the remaining egg, 3 egg yolks, and a pinch of salt. Repeat steps 2–5 to make 2 flat pasta sheets, then use the wide no...
7. Place a sheet of plain pasta on a floured surface, then arrange a third of the colored noodles on top in a stripe pattern. Gently press the colored noodles down with a rolling pin to adhere.
8. Carefully run the striped pasta sheet through the pasta maker until your desired thickness is reached. Repeat with the remaining sheets.
9. Lay out the striped pasta sheets on a floured surface and use a 2½-inch square cutter to cut out squares. Set aside.
10. Make the cacio e pepe filling: In a food processor, combine the drained ricotta, spinach, nutmeg, Parmigiano-Reggiano, and mozzarella and blend until smooth and rich. Season with salt and pepper to taste.
11. Assemble the ravioli: Take a square of pasta dough, striped side out, and spoon 1–2 tablespoons of the filling onto the center. Wet the outside edges with water, then fold to make a triangle, gently pressing the edges down to seal. Repeat with the remaining pasta and filling.
12. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil over medium heat. Add the ravioli and cook until they float to the surface, 60–90 seconds, then remove with a slotted spoon.
13. Make the brown butter sauce: In a large skillet, melt the butter over low heat. Simmer until lightly browned and aromatic, 8–10 minutes. Remove the pan from the heat and add the rosemary, sage, thyme, lemon zest and juice, salt, and pepper, swirling the pan to combine.
14. Toss the pasta in the skillet with the brown butter sauce to coat. Plate and garnish with the parsley.

Creamy One-pot Pasta With Peas And Mint 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- Kosher salt
- 1 10 -oz. bag frozen peas — no need to thaw
- 450 g . medium shell pasta
- 120 ml Mint leaves — divided
- 1 Garlic clove
- 1 Lemon
- 120 ml Heavy cream
- 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for drizzling
- 240 ml Store-bought grated parmesan
- Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Bring a large pot filled with water to a boil over high heat. When water starts to steam, add a palmful of salt.
2. When water has reached a rolling boil, add 10 oz. frozen peas. Cook until peas start to float and are tender, about 3 minutes. Using a spider or slotted spoon, transfer peas to a large bowl, allowing water to drain back into pot.
3. Bring water back to a boil and add 1 lb. pasta shells, stirring once or twice with a wooden spoon to prevent sticking. Cook according to package instructions until pasta is tender but still al dente.
4. While pasta is cooking, assemble your pea mixture. Start by setting aside about ¼ cup mint leaves for serving; finely chop remaining ¼ cup mint. Add chopped mint to bowl with peas.
5. Using a microplane, finely grate 1 garlic clove and zest of 1 lemon into bowl with pea mixture. Reserve zested lemon for serving.
6. Add ½ cup cream, 2 Tbsp. oil, and ½ cup cheese to bowl with pea mixture and mash with a potato masher to break up peas. You want a mix of whole peas and smooth, mushy parts.
7. When pasta is finished cooking, transfer to bowl with peas with spider (it's okay if some pasta cooking liquid piggybacks into bowl—in fact, it's a good thing!).
8. Season mixture generously with pepper and more salt, if needed, and toss with a wooden spoon vigorously so hot pasta melts cheese and thickens to a creamy sauce.
9. Divide pasta among bowls. Top with remaining cheese and reserved mint. Drizzle with oil.
10. Cut reserved lemon into wedges and serve alongside for squeezing over.

INGREDIENTS

- Scant 0.5 cup water
- 1 large Egg
- 250 g Pasta flour (“00” flour) — or all-purpose flour, plus more to dust
- 450 g 5 oz. onions
- 55 g Clarified butter or regular butter
- Splash of vegetable oil
- 300 g Any dark green leaves — or 3 0.5 ounces each nettles, wild garlic, and spinach
- Sea salt and black pepper
- 175 g Yogurt
- 1 Garlic clove — crushed
- Sumac
- Fine crispy breadcrumbs

METHOD

5. If the pasta diamonds are not to be used immediately, you can freeze them to be used another time. If you freeze them, again make sure they are well-floured so they don’t merge and form a giant pasta monster.
6. If you are using nettles, have a bowl with cold water and ice ready. Put them into a saucepan and cover with boiling water, boil for 3 minutes, then take out with tongs or a spider strainer and plunge into the iced water. Now that the nettles are disarmed, cut off any of the t...
7. Now add the nettles and sliced wild garlic and spinach to a pan and cook over medium-low heat in the remaining clarified butter for 5–10 minutes.
8. If using other greens, there’s no need to blanch them, just put them into a pan sliced and raw with the remaining clarified butter. Season well with salt and pepper and cook until they look soft and wilted (kale will take longer than spinach). Mix together the yogurt and garli...
9. Cook the pasta in well-salted water for 2–3 minutes. Then drain, but not too vigorously, you want a little bit of the pasta water. Put them into the pan with the cooked greens, add half of the caramelized onions (save the rest for later) and mix them through thoroughly as well...

Fresh Beet Pasta 6 servings

INGREDIENTS

- 2 small Beets (approximately 7 ounces) — rinsed and trimmed
- 275 g All purpose flour
- 5 Yolks from 5 large eggs
- 1 Whole large egg
- 60 ml Beet purée — see note
- 5 g Kosher salt — plus more for salting water

METHOD

1. Bring a pot of water to a boil. Add rinsed and trimmed beets and cook until easily pierced with a fork, approximately 40 to 45 minutes. Drain and let cool. Peel beets and purée with a hand-blender or food processor until smooth.
2. To Make the Dough: On a large, clean work surface, pour flour in a mound. Make a well in the center about 4 inches wide. Pour whole egg, egg yolks, beet purée, and salt into well and, using a fork, beat thoroughly. When combined, gradually incorporate flour into the eggs until...
3. Using a bench knife, scrape excess dough from fork and fingers. Begin to fold additional flour into the dough with the bench knife, turning the dough roughly 45 degrees each time, until dough feels firm and dry, and can form a craggy-looking ball, 2 to 5 minutes.
4. Press the heel of your hand into the ball of dough, pushing forward and down. Rotate the ball 45 degrees and repeat. Continue until dough develops a smooth, elastic texture similar to a firm ball of Play-Doh. If dough feels too wet, add flour in 1 teaspoon increments. If dough...
5. Wrap ball of dough tightly in plastic wrap and rest on countertop for 30 minutes.

8. Place dough on a lightly floured work surface. Fold both ends in so that they meet at the center of the dough, and then fold the dough in half where the end points meet, trying not to incorporate too much air into the folds. Using rolling pin, flatten dough to 1/2-inch thick. ...
9. Narrow the setting by 1 notch and repeat Step 8. Repeat once more (the dough should now have passed through the third widest setting). Continue passing the dough through the rollers, reducing the thickness by 1 setting each time until it reaches the desired thickness. It shoul...
10. Place rolled dough onto a work surface or baking sheet lightly dusted with flour or lined with parchment paper, folding the dough over as necessary so that it fits; sprinkle with flour or line with parchment between folds to prevent sticking.
11. Cover dough with plastic wrap or a kitchen towel to prevent drying, then repeat Steps 6 through 10 with remaining dough quarters. If making noodles, cut dough into 12- to 14-inch segments.

How To Make Handmade Pasta 4 servings

Tasty · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 250 g All-purpose flour — plus more for dusting
- 1 pinch Kosher salt
- 2 large Eggs
- 6 large Egg yolks
- 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 250 g "00" pasta flour — plus more for dusting
- 1 pinch Kosher salt
- 3 large Eggs
- 5 large Egg yolks
- 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 240 ml Semolina flour
- 240 ml All-purpose flour
- 1 pinch Kosher salt
- 2 large Eggs
- 6 large Egg yolks
- 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil

METHOD

1. On a clean, sturdy work surface, turn out your chosen flour(s) and salt and make a large well in the center with your hands.
2. Whisk the eggs, egg yolks, and olive oil together in a medium bowl until combined, then pour the mixture into the well.
3. Using the same fork, whisk the eggs, slowly incorporating more and more flour into the eggs by moving your fork along the edges of the well.
4. Once almost all of the flour is incorporated, start bringing the dough together with your hands. (The dough should be malleable, but not sticky–add more flour if the dough is sticking too much to your hands or the surface. Alternatively, if it's too dry and tough, whisk anothe...
5. Knead the dough for 7–10 minutes, until smooth and elastic. When you poke the dough, it should spring back.
6. Wrap the dough in plastic wrap and let rest at room temperature for 30 minutes to an hour, or until the dough does not spring back when poked.
7. Unwrap the dough and cut into 8 equal pieces so that it's easier to work with. Take 1 piece and wrap the rest in the plastic wrap so that they don't dry out.
8. Lightly flour your work surface and begin rolling out the piece of dough into one long piece. Then, fold the top third down, and the bottom third over that, like a letter. Rotate the dough 90■ and roll the piece back into a long shape. This helps form a more even rectangular s...
9. Continue rolling out the dough until it is very thin. When you lift the dough, you should be able to see your hands through it.
10. Fold the top and bottom of the rectangle to meet in the middle, then fold over again--this will make the dough easier to cut. Cut the dough to your ideal shape. Loosen or unravel the cut dough immediately, so it doesn't stick, sprinkle with a bit of extra flour, or semolina, i...
11. Bring a large pot of heavily salted water to a boil. Add the pasta and stir to ensure it doesn't clump. Cook for 2–3 minutes, or 30–60 seconds after the pasta comes to the surface (fresh pasta will cook much faster than dried pasta!). Take out a noodle and taste for doneness. ...
12. Add the cooked pasta into your preferred sauce and stir to coat, adding some of the reserved pasta water if needed to add a bit of body and silkiness to the sauce.
13. Enjoy!

Noodle Kugel 10 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 350 g . extra-wide egg noodles
- 10 ml . diamond crystal or 1 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
- 125 g (1 stick) unsalted butter — plus more for pan
- 8 large Eggs
- 100 g Sugar
- 450 g . full-fat cottage cheese
- 450 g . full-fat sour cream
- 10 ml . vanilla extract
- 5 ml . ground cinnamon

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 350°. Cook 12 oz. extra-wide egg noodles in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until al dente, about 4–5 minutes. Drain, leaving a little bit of water clinging to the noodles.
2. Generously butter a 13x9" baking dish (we prefer glass for even heating, but metal is okay, too).
3. Make the creamy sauce: Cut 1 stick butter into a few big pieces and transfer to a small heatproof bowl. Microwave until butter is melted, about 1 minute. Let cool slightly. Whisk 8 large eggs and ½ cup (100 g) sugar in a large bowl until sugar is dissolved and eggs are frothy,...
4. Add hot noodles to bowl and toss to coat with a spoon or spatula.
5. Transfer noodle mixture to prepared baking dish, tipping dish to evenly distribute. For a really crispy top, pull a few noodles to the surface so that they're poking out over the sauce.
6. Bake kugel, rotating pan halfway through, until custard has soufflée d, top is browned, and noodles on the surface are crispy, 50–55 minutes.
7. Let cool at least 20 minutes before slicing. Fight over those almost-burnt noodles on top. Editor's note: This noodle kugel recipe was first printed in September 2019 as 'Basically Noodle Kugel.' Head this way for more of our best recipes for Rosh Hashanah →

- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 55 g . (0.25 cup) vodka
- 180 ml Heavy cream
- 450 g . rigatoni

METHOD

1. Fill a stock pot or other large pot three-quarters full with water and heat over high. Toss in a handful of kosher salt and bring to a boil while you do your other prep.
2. Peel and finely chop 1 medium onion.
3. Firmly smash 4 garlic cloves with the flat side of a chef's knife and remove peel.
4. Grate 4 oz. Parmesan on the smallest holes of the box grater.
5. Warm 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil in a Dutch oven or other heavy large pot over medium heat (position it next to pot of water). Add onion and garlic and cook, stirring constantly, just until onion is starting to brown around the edges, 5–7 minutes.

Pasta With No-cook Tomato Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

· 700 g Tomatoes — any shape (larger than cherry), preferably slightly overripe so they feel like full water balloons
· 1 Garlic clove
· 30 ml Unsalted butter
· 20 ml Red wine vinegar
· 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
· 60 ml Extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for drizzling
· 125 g Finely grated parmesan — about 1 cup
· Kosher salt
· 350 g Strand pasta — such as bucatini, spaghetti
· 240 ml Basil leaves

METHOD

1. Cut 1½ lb. tomatoes in half through the equator (in other words, not through the core, but across the midline). Hold halves in your palms and gently squeeze over a bowl to squeeze out seeds and surrounding juice/jelly. → How to get the seeds out of tomatoes
2. Casually and imperfectly chop seeded tomatoes so you have some pieces that are very small and some pieces that are a bit larger, but everything should be smaller than an acorn.
3. Transfer tomatoes to a large bowl and mash mixture several times with the back of a large spoon or potato masher to release more juices (you can also just use your hands).
4. Finely grate 1 garlic clove into bowl with tomatoes with a microplane or fine grater, then add 2 Tbsp. butter, 4 tsp. vinegar, ½ tsp. red pepper, ¼ cup oil, and half of Parmesan. Season with several pinches of salt, then toss with a large spoon to combine.
5. Cover bowl with plastic and let sit at room temperature at least 30 minutes and up to 5 hours. This lets the flavors marry and tomato juices exude (because we want a saucy pasta).
6. Bring a large pot of water to a boil (4–6 qt.) and add a small fistful of salt. Cook 12 oz. pasta until al dente (follow package instructions).
7. As soon as pasta is ready, use tongs to transfer noodles to bowl with tomatoes and TOSS TOSS TOSS. You want the hot pasta to melt the cheese and butter, which will thicken the sauce.
8. Taste pasta and season with more salt, if needed, then toss in 1 cup basil.
9. Using tongs, portion pasta into shallow bowls, then spoon remaining tomatoes and juices over.
10. Top with remaining 2 oz. Parmesan, then drizzle with oil.

- 15 ml . mirin
- 700 g Boneless pork shoulder — Boston butt
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 30 ml . vegetable oil
- 900 g . chicken necks — backs, and/or wings
- 450 g . pork spareribs
- 2 bunch Scallions — chopped

- 120 ml Menma — fermented bamboo shoots
- 6 Scallions — thinly sliced
- 3 Toasted nori sheets — torn in half
- Chili oil — toasted sesame oil, and shichimi togarashi (for serving)

METHOD

1. You can find all the Asian ingredients listed here at Asian markets, in the Asian foods section of some supermarkets, and online. Look in the refrigerated section of Asian markets for fresh noodles. Ask your butcher for chicken necks and backs.
2. Two days ahead: For the dashi, combine kombu and 4 quarts cold water in a large bowl. Cover and let sit at room temperature at least 8 hours and up to 12 hours. For the tare, combine soy sauce, sake, and mirin in a small bowl; cover and chill.
3. One day ahead: Season pork shoulder with salt and pepper. Roll up and tie with kitchen twine at 2” intervals. (This helps keep the meat intact while cooking and makes for round, compact slices.)
4. Heat oil in a large heavy pot (at least 8 quarts) over medium-high heat Cook pork shoulder, turning, until brown all over, 10–12 minutes. Add chicken, spareribs, scallions, carrots, garlic, ginger, and bonito flakes. Remove kombu from dashi; discard. Add as much kombu dashi as...

6. Bring a medium pot of water to a boil. Carefully add eggs one at a time and boil gently for 7 minutes. (Egg yolks should be shiny yellow and almost jammy; egg white should be just set.) Drain eggs and transfer to a bowl of ice water to stop cooking; let cool. Peel; set aside.
7. Remove string and thinly slice pork; cover and set aside.
8. When ready to serve, bring stock to a simmer; it should be very hot. At the same time, cook noodles in a large pot of boiling water according to package directions until al dente; drain (no need to salt the water, as ramen noodles contain more salt than pasta).
9. Just before serving, divide noodles among 6 deep bowls. Top with sliced pork, placing it off to one side. Add tare to hot stock and ladle over pork to warm through (stock should come up just to the level of the noodles).
10. Place a small pile of menma next to pork. Halve eggs and place next to menma. Place a small pile of sliced scallions next to egg. Tuck half a sheet of nori between side of bowl and noodles so it’s just poking out.
11. Serve ramen with chili oil, sesame oil, and shichimi togarashi.
12. DO AHEAD: Eggs can be cooked 1 day ahead. Keep unpeeled eggs covered in cool water. Cover and chill.

Spaghetti Carbonara, Step-by-step 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 45 g Diamond crystal or 1 tbsp. plus 2 0.25 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
- 125 g Guanciale (salt-cured pork jowl) — pancetta (Italian bacon), or bacon
- 55 g Parmesan or pecorino romano
- 2 large Eggs plus 3 large egg yolks
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 30 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 350 g Spaghetti

METHOD

1. Heat 6 qt. water in a large pot over high heat. When water starts to steam, add 3 Tbsp. Diamond Crystal or 1 Tbsp. plus 2¼ tsp. Morton kosher salt and cover pot with a lid (this will bring water to a boil faster).
2. While you are waiting on the water, do a little prep. Slice 4 oz. guanciale, pancetta, or bacon into about 1x¼" strips. Finely grate 2 oz. Parmesan or Pecorino Romano and set aside a quarter of the cheese for later.
3. Whisk 2 large eggs plus 3 large egg yolks in a medium bowl until no streaks remain, then stir in bulk of the grated cheese. Add several cranks of freshly ground black pepper and set aside.
4. Working next to pot, heat 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil in a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot over medium. Add sliced guanciale, pancetta, or bacon and cook, stirring occasionally, until crisp around the edges, 7–10 minutes.
5. Remove pot from heat. Using a wooden spoon, scoop out pork and transfer to a small bowl. Pour fat into a heatproof measuring cup, then add 3 Tbsp. of rendered fat back to pot. (Discard any remaining fat or reserve for another purpose; it’s great for frying eggs.)
6. Cook 12 oz. spaghetti in salted boiling water, stirring occasionally, 2 minutes shy of package instructions. Just before pasta is finished, scoop out 1¾ cups pasta cooking liquid with same heatproof measuring cup.
7. Add 1 cup reserved pasta cooking liquid to Dutch oven and bring to a boil over medium-high. Drain spaghetti in a colander, then transfer to Dutch oven.
8. Cook pasta, stirring constantly and vigorously, until al dente and water is reduced by about half, about 2 minutes. Remove pot from heat.
9. Whisk ¼ cup reserved pasta water into egg mixture, then very slowly stream into Dutch oven, stirring constantly, until cheese is melted and egg is thickened to form a glossy sauce. Season with kosher salt, if needed. Thin sauce with remaining ½ cup pasta cooking liquid, adding...

Springy Ricotta Gnocchi With Peas And Herbs 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 90 ml . unsalted butter
- 1 large Bunch chives or 0.5 cup tender herbs like mint — basil, or dill
- 1 Garlic clove
- 10 ml . diamond crystal or 1 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
- 450 g . whole-milk fresh ricotta
- 1 large Egg
- 2 large Egg yolks
- 8 ml Freshly ground black pepper — plus more, or 0.25 teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes
- 50 g Pre-grated parmesan — plus more for serving
- 240 ml All-purpose flour
- 275 g . frozen peas
- 1 Lemon

METHOD

1. Cut 6 Tbsp. unsalted butter into small pieces. Place in a small bowl and chill in the fridge until ready to use. (It's important that the butter is cold because that will help it to emulsify into the sauce later on.)

2. Thinly slice 1 large bunch of chives crosswise into rings. You should have about ½ cup. (If you're using another herb—like mint, basil, or dill—roughly chop.) Peel 1 garlic clove. Set both aside separately.

3. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Cover with a lid and keep hot over low heat while you make the gnocchi.

4. Line a rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper or a silicone mat and dust lightly with flour.

5. To make the gnocchi dough, scrape 16 oz. whole-milk fresh ricotta onto a clean flatweave towel or a double layer of paper towels; wrap up to enclose cheese or place more paper towels on top and forcefully press down on ricotta to draw out excess moisture. If you don't draw out...

6. Transfer ricotta to a medium bowl. Add 1 large egg, 2 large egg yolks, 2 tsp. Diamond Crystal or 1 tsp. Morton kosher salt, and several generous grinds of black pepper and mix well with a heatproof rubber spatula to combine. Then mix in ½ cup pre-grated Parmesan followed by 1 ...

7. Transfer dough to a floured work surface and knead a couple of times to bring together. Cut into 6 pieces. Roll out each piece to make a ¾"-diameter strand, dusting with more flour as needed if dough is too sticky to work with.

8. Using a chef's knife or a bench scraper, cut strands into ¾" pieces (flour your knife or scraper to make the process easier). Transfer gnocchi to prepared baking sheet as you go.

9. Now it's time to cook your gnocchi. Bring the reserved water back to a vigorous boil over medium-high heat, then use parchment paper underneath gnocchi to gently, delicately, and carefully (did we mention to be gentle?) add gnocchi to boiling water (it's okay if some flour get...

10. Stir gnocchi gently with a slotted spoon to make sure they aren't sticking to the pot or one another. Shake out parchment paper and save it for the next time you bake. Place clean baking sheet near your pot. Cook until gnocchi rise to the surface, about 45 seconds, then cook 1...

11. To make your sauce, pour out pasta cooking liquid, reserving 2 cups, and wipe pot clean.

12. Set pot over medium heat and pour in ½ cup reserved pasta cooking liquid; add 10 oz. frozen peas and a big pinch of kosher salt. Cover pan and cook until peas are bright green and warmed through, about 3 minutes.

13. Remove lid and bring water to a simmer over medium-high heat. Using spatula, vigorously stir in reserved chilled butter a piece at a time, adding the next piece only after the previous piece is melted. You should have a smooth buttery sauce when you are done.

14. Finely grate reserved garlic into sauce. Slice 1 lemon in half. Cut 1 half into wedges and set aside for serving. Finely grate zest from remaining half into sauce, then squeeze in its juice. Add 1½ tsp. freshly ground black pepper or ¼ teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes and mi...

15. Divide gnocchi and sauce among shallow bowls and top with remaining chives or herbs and more Parmesan and pepper or crushed red pepper flakes. Serve with reserved lemon wedges for squeezing over.
16. Do ahead: Gnocchi can be formed 1 month ahead. Freeze on baking sheet until firm, then transfer to a freezer-safe airtight container. Cook from frozen.

Zucchini Noodles With Basil Pesto And Bacon

Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

· 8 slice Turkey bacon
· 120 ml Basil pesto — such as Classico® Traditional
· 3 large Zucchini — ends trimmed
· 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
· 2 clove Garlic — minced
· 30 ml Freshly grated parmigiano-reggiano cheese
· 240 ml Fresh arugula

METHOD

1. Set an oven rack about 6 inches from the heat source and preheat the oven's broiler. Lay bacon slices on a large baking tray.

3. Crumble the cooled bacon into smaller pieces and combine with pesto sauce.
4. Use a spiralizer or julienne peeler to cut zucchini into noodles, snipping midway to prevent them from getting too long.
5. Heat olive oil in a saute pan over medium heat. Add zucchini and garlic and cook until tender, 3 to 4 minutes. Add pesto-bacon mixture and heat for 2 minutes longer. Toss well so the noodles are evenly coated. Taste and season with salt if needed.
6. Top with freshly grated Parmiggiano-Reggiano cheese so it can melt while the dish is still warm. Season with freshly ground black pepper. Top with arugula, but do not mix it in. Serve immediately.

Zucchini Noodles With Basil, Lime, And Ginger

Allrecipes · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

· 1 large Zucchini
· 2.5 ml Salt
· 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
· 5 large Basil leaves
· 1 pcs Ginger root — peeled and sliced
· 0.5 Lime — juiced

METHOD

1. Cut zucchini in half to help it fit in the spiralizer. Run each half through the large teeth of a vegetable spiralizer. Put zucchini noodles into a glass bowl and sprinkle with salt. Toss with your hands to mix. Let rest for 10 minutes to remove excess water. Rinse and pat dry.
2. Heat oil in a skillet over medium-high heat. Add zucchini noodles, basil leaves, and ginger. Cook, tossing occasionally, until the noodles are tender but not mushy, about 5 minutes. Do not stir so zucchini noodles stay intact. Drizzle with lime juice and toss to coat. Serve hot.
