50 Garlic Clove Shrimp Scampi 4 servings

Tasty

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Fettuccine pasta
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 900 g Jumbo shrimp
- 240 ml Unsalted butter
- 50 Garlic cloves — minced
- 5 ml Red pepper flakes
- 120 ml Dry white wine
- 1 Lemon — juiced and zested
- 60 ml Fresh parsley — chopped

METHOD

1. Bring a large pot of salted water to a rapid boil. Add the pasta and cook until al dente. Reserve about 1 cup of the pasta water then drain into a colander and set aside.
2. Pat the shrimp dry with paper towels and generously season with creole seasoning.
3. Heat olive oil in a large stick over medium heat. Add the shrimp and cook until about 1 to 2 minutes per side, or until they just begin to turn pink. Remove the shrimp and set aside.
4. Add butter to the skillet the shrimp was cooked in. Once the butter is melted, add the minced garlic and red pepper flakes. Cook until garlic is fragrant and softened, about 5 minutes.
5. Increase the heat to medium high then add in the wine and lemon juice. Use a spatula to scrape up any of the browned bits on the bottom. Continue to cook until the mixture is reduced by half, about 2 to 3 minutes.
6. Add the seared shrimp, cooked pasta and ½ cup reserved pasta water. Cook over high heat until everything is evenly combined and the sauce has thickened. Add more pasta water as needed to achieve desired consistency.
7. Remove from heat and stir in the parsley and lemon zest. Serve immediately.
8. Enjoy!

Air Fryer Cod 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian

· 1 large Egg
· 1 pinch Salt
· 180 ml Panko bread crumbs
· 30 ml Ranch seasoning mix
· 4 Frozen cod fillets
· Nonstick cooking spray

METHOD

1. Preheat an air fryer to 204°C (200 degrees C) for 5 minutes. Line the air fryer basket with a perforated parchment round.
2. Meanwhile, whisk egg in a shallow dish until lemon colored and frothy. Season with a pinch of salt. Combine panko and ranch seasoning in another shallow bowl.
3. Dip cod fillets into egg mixture, then into panko mixture to coat. Carefully place breaded cod into the prepared basket and spray with nonstick spray.
4. Air-fry in the preheated air fryer for about 8 minutes. Carefully flip fillets, spray again with nonstick spray, and air-fry until cod flakes easily with a fork, about 7 more minutes.

Air Fryer Crab Cakes

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

· 1 large Egg — beaten
· 30 ml Mayonnaise
· 5 ml Worcestershire sauce
· 5 ml Dijon mustard
· 5 ml Seafood seasoning
· 2.5 ml Hot pepper sauce
· 30 ml Finely chopped green onion
· 450 g Lump crabmeat
· 45 ml Milk
· Salt and ground black pepper to taste
· 11 Saltine crackers — crushed
· 5 ml Baking powder
· 4 Wedges lemon
· Olive oil cooking spray

METHOD

1. Combine beaten egg, mayonnaise, Worcestershire sauce, mustard, seafood seasoning, and hot pepper sauce in a large bowl. Stir in green onion and set aside.
2. Place crabmeat in a medium bowl and break up with a fork. Add milk, salt, and black pepper; toss to coat. Add saltine crackers and baking powder; toss lightly to combine. Add to egg mixture, stirring gently and being careful not to break apart crab lumps.
3. Scoop crab with a 1/3-cup measure and form into 8 patties. Place patties on a plate, cover, and refrigerate until firm, 1 to 8 hours.
4. Preheat an air fryer to 204°C (200 degrees C).
5. Spray crab cakes on both sides with cooking spray and place in the air fryer basket.
6. Cook in the preheated air fryer for 5 minutes. Turn crab cakes over gently and continue cooking until crispy brown, about 5 minutes more.

Air Fryer Lobster Tails With Lemon-garlic Butter

New England · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 2 Lobster tails
· 60 ml Butter
· 5 ml Lemon zest
· 1 clove Garlic — grated
· Salt and ground black pepper to taste
· 5 ml Chopped fresh parsley
· 2 Wedges lemon

METHOD

1. Butterfly lobster tails by cutting lengthwise through the centers of the hard top shells and meat with kitchen shears. Cut to, but not through, the bottoms of the shells.
2. Spread tail halves apart. Place tails in the air fryer basket with lobster meat facing up.
3. Melt butter in a small saucepan over medium heat. Add lemon zest and garlic; heat until garlic is fragrant, about 30 seconds.
4. Transfer 2 tablespoons of butter mixture to a small bowl; brush this onto lobster tails. Discard any remaining brushed butter to avoid contamination from uncooked lobster. Season lobster with salt and pepper.
5. Cook in the preheated air fryer until lobster meat is opaque, 5 to 7 minutes.
6. Spoon reserved butter from the saucepan over lobster meat. Top with parsley and serve with lemon wedges.

Air Fryer Smoked Salmon Wontons

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pkg Cream cheese — softened
- 85 g Cold-smoked salmon
- 20 ml Minced capers
- 20 ml Finely minced red onion
- 48 Wonton wrappers
- Water as needed
- Cooking spray

METHOD

1. Combine cream cheese, salmon, capers, and red onion in a bowl. Fill a second small bowl with water.

2. Working with 6 wonton wrappers at a time, separate them out onto a clean work surface. Place 1 teaspoon of salmon mixture in the center of each wonton. Do not overfill, as the mixture may ooze out.
3. Dip your finger in the bowl of water, and lightly wet the 4 edges of each wonton wrapper. Gently fold in half diagonally to make a triangle, and seal the edges. Try not to leave excess air in the wonton, which can cause them to burst. Lightly wet the bottom of the triangle, an...
4. Preheat the air fryer to 166°C (166 degrees C). Generously mist both sides of wontons with cooking spray.
5. Place as many wontons in the air fryer basket as will fit, without overcrowding.
6. Air-fry for 5 minutes, flipping halfway through. Remove to a cooling rack and let cool while you cook the remaining wontons in batches. Best served slightly warm or at room temperature.

4. Spoon 1 tablespoon refried beans and 1 tablespoon shrimp mixture into the middle of each tortilla and roll up. Working in batches, place a single layer of taquitos in the air fryer basket, seam-side down. Spray the tops with cooking spray.
5. Air fry for 6 minutes. Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate. Repeat with remaining taquitos.

Air-fryer Crispy Fish Fillet Sandwiches 4 servings

Epicurious

INGREDIENTS

- 480 ml Plain panko breadcrumbs
- 2 large Eggs
- 1⁄4 cup regular or low-fat mayonnaise — do not use fat-free
- 15 ml . dijon mustard
- 15 ml . all-purpose flour
- 1⁄2 tsp. mild paprika
- 1⁄2 tsp. onion powder
- 1⁄2 tsp. tablespoon salt
- 1⁄2 tsp. ground black pepper
- Four 4- to 6-oz. (115- to 140-g) cod fillet sections — thawed if frozen
- Nonstick spray
- 4 White burger buns — preferably potato buns
- Tartar sauce — as a condiment

METHOD

1. With the basket in the machine or the tray set at the center level in a toaster-oven-style model, heat an air fryer to 204°C on the air fryer setting.
2. Spread the bread crumbs in a shallow soup plate, small pie plate, or medium food storage container. Whisk the eggs, mayonnaise, mustard, flour, paprika, onion powder, salt, and pepper in a second shallow soup plate, small pie plate, or medium food storage container until uniform.
3. Set all of the fish fillets in the egg mixture and turn them to coat. If your containers or bowls are small, you'll need to work in batches in this step.
4. Pick up one coated fillet from the egg mixture and set in the breadcrumbs. Turn repeatedly, pressingly gently, to coat all sides with the bread crumbs. Transfer to a cutting board and repeat with the remaining fillets.
5. Generously coat the fillets on all sides with nonstick spray.
6. Set the fillets without touching in the heated machine and air-fry undisturbed for 10 minutes, or until browned with a crisp coating. Gently transfer the fillets to a wire rack. Be careful to keep the coating intact. Lightly coat the cut side of the buns with nonstick spray. S...
7. Transfer the buns cut side up to a cutting board. Slather the bottom halves with tartar sauce and top each with a fish fillet. Close the buns and serve with more tartar sauce on the side for dipping.

Air-fryer Sea Bass With Dilly Potato Chip Crust 2 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 160 ml Mayonnaise
- 15 ml . fresh lemon juice or apple cider vinegar
- 15 ml . chopped dill — plus more
- Kosher salt

- 2 6 -oz. fillets skinless sea bass — cod, or other flaky white fish
- Freshly ground pepper
- 360 ml Thin potato chips — not kettle-cooked
- Nonstick olive oil spray — for basket
- Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Heat air fryer to 400°. Mix together 2 garlic cloves, finely grated, ■ cup mayonnaise, 1 Tbsp. fresh lemon juice or apple cider vinegar, 1 Tbsp. chopped dill, and a pinch of kosher salt in a medium bowl. Transfer 3 heaping Tbsp. to a small bowl; set aside for serving.
2. Pat two 6-oz. fillets skinless sea bass, cod, or other flaky white fish dry with paper towels; season both sides with salt and freshly ground pepper.
3. Place 1½ cups thin potato chips (not kettle-cooked) in a resealable plastic bag and close. Using a measuring cup or rolling pin, crush into small pieces.
4. Add crushed chips to mayo mixture in medium bowl; mix to form a thick paste. Immediately divide among fillets and spread into a smooth, even layer that covers each one from edge to edge.
5. Lightly coat air-fryer basket with nonstick olive oil spray. Arrange fish, paste side up, in basket and lightly coat sides with nonstick spray. Bake until fish is golden and crisp on top and flakes easily with a fork, 12–15 minutes. Remove basket from heat. Let fish rest 3 min...

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 10 ml Olive oil — divided
- 700 g Fresh albacore tuna — mahi-mahi, or ono, cut into 1 0.5" chunks
- 30 ml The greenest tahini sauce
- 15 ml Sesame seeds
- Kosher salt — freshly ground black pepper
- 480 ml Mustard greens — torn into bite-size pieces
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- Chopped fresh parsley — mint, or dill (for serving; optional)
- Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Special Equipment: Presoaked bamboo skewers
2. Heat broiler to high. Lightly oil a rimmed baking sheet.
3. Gently toss fish with tahini sauce, sesame seeds, and 1 tsp. oil; season with salt and pepper. Thread onto skewers. Set skewers on baking sheet and broil, turning once, until fish is just barely pink in the center, 6–8 minutes (longer for well-done tuna).
4. Toss mustard greens with lemon juice and remaining 1 tsp. olive oil; season with salt and pepper. Serve tuna skewers on mustard greens, topped with herbs, if using. Serve with lemon wedges.

Albacore Tuna Sliders 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Albacore tuna loin
- 30 ml Soy sauce
- 30 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 30 ml Northwest seafood seasoning
- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- Slider buns — brioche, if possible
- 1 medium Heirloom tomato or other ripe beefsteak tomato — thinly sliced
- Arugula leaves — rinsed and dried
- Tartar sauce — such as Pike Place Fish Smoked Walla Walla Onion Tartar Sauce

METHOD

1. Remove the skin from the tuna and score the flesh every inch with a knife, as if you were making steaks. Repeat on all sides, but make sure not to cut all the way through.
2. Mix the soy sauce, olive oil, seafood seasoning, and red pepper flakes in a small bowl. Using a basting brush, brush the mixture on all sides of the tuna, making sure to get some marinade inside the scored parts of the fish, so it's well coated. Marinate at room temperature fo...
3. Preheat a grill to high. Make sure the grates are clean and well oiled. Put the tuna directly on the grill and cook for about 2 to 3 minutes on each side, or 6 minutes total for rare. During the last minute of cooking, toast the buns on the grill. Slice the tuna into four sect...

Almejas Con Alguashte 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml . coriander seeds
- 3 medium Tomatoes (about 1 lb.) — coarsely chopped
- 1 medium Onion — coarsely chopped
- 6 Garlic cloves
- 3 Jalapeños — coarsely chopped
- 1 bunch Cilantro — stems and leaves separated
- 15 ml . achiote (annatto) seeds or 2 tsp. powder
- 45 ml . vegetable oil
- 120 ml Plus 2 tbsp. alguashte
- 120 ml Dry white wine
- 1.8 kg . manila or littleneck clams — scrubbed
- 2 Limes — halved
- Kosher salt — optional

METHOD

1. Toast coriander seeds in a dry small skillet over medium heat until very fragrant and just beginning to smoke, about 1 minute. Let cool slightly.
2. Transfer seeds to a food processor and pulse until coarsely ground. Add tomatoes, onion, garlic, jalapeños, cilantro stems, and achiote seeds and pulse until a coarse purée forms, about 1 minute.
3. Heat oil in a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot over medium-high. Add purée and ½ cup Alguashte. Cook, stirring often with a wooden spoon, until thickened (spoon will leave a trail) and a few shades darker, 12–15 minutes. Add wine and cook until evaporated and spoon again le...
4. Add clams to pot and stir to coat. Reduce heat to medium-low, cover pot, and cook until clams have opened, 8–12 minutes. Fish out and discard any clams that have not opened after 15 minutes.
5. Squeeze limes over clams and toss to incorporate. If broth looks too thick, add a few tablespoonfuls of water. Taste and season with salt if needed.
6. To serve, sprinkle remaining 2 Tbsp. Alguashte over clams and top with cilantro leaves.

2. Strain sauce through a fine sieve into a heat-proof bowl. Stir in chives, lemon juice, salt, and pepper. Set the bowl into a larger container full of hot water to keep warm until needed.
3. Start the halibut: Set an oven rack about 6 inches from the heat source and preheat the oven's broiler. Pat halibut fillets dry; season with salt and pepper.
4. Heat oil and butter in a large skillet over medium-high heat until butter melts. Add halibut and cook until lightly browned on the outside and fish flakes easily with a fork, 2 to 3 minutes per side. Transfer to a baking sheet and let rest for 5 minutes.
5. While the halibut is resting, make the topping: Stir almonds, bread crumbs, and melted butter together in a small bowl.
6. Brush beaten egg over fillets, then cover with topping.
7. Broil fillets in the preheated oven until browned, 1 to 2 minutes, watching closely so they don't burn.
8. Transfer fillets to individual plates, and spoon beurre blanc around them.

Almond-crusted Halibut With Vegetable Curry 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml Olive oil
- 240 ml Chopped carrots
- 240 ml Chopped celery
- 240 ml Chopped onion
- 60 ml Chopped peeled ginger
- 4 large Garlic cloves — chopped
- 45 ml Thai yellow curry paste
- 960 ml Carrot juice
- 240 ml Canned unsweetened coconut milk
- 720 ml 1-inch pieces mixed vegetables — such as bell peppers and squash
- Fine sea salt — freshly ground pepper
- 120 ml Slivered almonds
- 4 4 -ounce skinless pacific halibut fillets
- Fine sea salt
- 1 large Egg white
- 30 ml Olive oil
- Fresh basil leaves

METHOD

1. Heat oil in a medium pot over medium-low heat. Add carrots, celery, onion, ginger, and garlic. Cook, stirring occasionally, until vegetables are fragrant and softened, 10–15 minutes.
2. Increase heat to medium-high; add curry paste. Cook, stirring continuously, until paste begins to caramelize, 2–3 minutes. Add carrot juice; increase heat to high. Bring to a boil; reduce heat to medium-low. Simmer until juice is reduced by half, 15–20 minutes.
3. Strain curry through a sieve into a large bowl; discard solids in sieve. Return to same pot; add coconut milk and mixed vegetables. Cook over medium-high heat, stirring occasionally, until vegetables are tender, 8–10 minutes. Season with salt and pepper.
4. Preheat oven to 350°. Grind almonds in a food processor until largest pieces are 1/8" (do not grind to a paste). Transfer to a wide shallow bowl. Season both sides of each fillet with salt. Whisk egg white in another wide shallow bowl until just frothy. Dip top of each fillet ...
5. Heat oil in an ovenproof skillet over medium-high heat. Place fish, crust side down, in pan. Cook until nuts are golden brown, 3–4 minutes. Turn over fillets and transfer skillet to oven. Bake until fish is just opaque in center, 4–5 minutes.
6. Divide curry base among wide bowls. Top with fillets, crust side up. Garnish with basil.

Almond-crusted Parmesan Salmon 2 servings

American · Tasty · gluten-free

- 350 g Salmon
- 1 Egg
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 50 g Almond — crushed
- 35 g Grated parmesan cheese
- 15 ml Dried basil
- 5 ml Garlic powder
- 3 g Salt
- 2.5 ml Pepper

METHOD

1. Mix breading ingredients together in large bowl. Set aside.
2. *NOTE: You can crush almonds by pulsing them in a food processor or high-speed blender, or by carefully cutting almonds with a sharp knife.
3. Whisk egg in a separate bowl.
4. Dredge the salmon in the egg, then the breading mixture.
5. Heat olive oil in a skillet on medium heat.
6. Once the pan is ready, add the salmon and let cook on one side for 3-4 minutes until golden brown. Flip and cook for an additional 2-3 minutes on the other side.
7. Serve salmon with a side of your favorite veggies. We used asparagus.
8. Enjoy!

Almond-crusted Trout With White Grits And Swiss Chard

4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml White grits
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 240 ml Whole skin-on almonds
- 1 large Egg — beaten to blend
- 4 6 -oz. trout fillets
- 30 ml Vegetable oil
- 1 bunch Swiss chard — thick ribs and stems removed, torn into pieces
- 1 small Shallot — finely chopped
- Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Bring grits and 4 cups water to a boil in a medium pot. Reduce heat to medium-low and gently simmer, whisking occasionally, until liquid is absorbed and grits are tender and creamy, 20–25 minutes. Season with salt and pepper.
2. Meanwhile, pulse almonds in a food processor until texture of coarse breadcrumbs. Transfer to a shallow baking dish; season with salt and pepper.
3. Place egg in another shallow baking dish. Season trout with salt and pepper. Working one at a time, dip skin side of fillets into egg, then in almonds, pressing to adhere. Transfer to a plate as you go.
4. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium-high until very hot but not smoking. Cook 2 fillets, almond side down, pressing with a spatula occasionally to ensure contact with skillet, until almonds are well toasted and fish is nearly cooked through, about 3 minutes. Turn and cook ...
5. Wipe out skillet. Add chard and shallot and season with salt and pepper. Cook, tossing, until chard is wilted, about 2 minutes. Serve chard and trout over grits with lemon wedges.

Anchovy And Sardine Toasts With Chile Butter 8 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 8 0.5 -inch-thick small slices country-style bread
- Extra-virgin olive oil — for drizzling
- 125 g (1 stick) salted butter — room temperature
- 30 ml Finely chopped oil-packed calabrian chiles
- 8 Oil-packed anchovy fillets
- 1 4.4 -ounce can sardines — drained, fillets cut in half
- 1 Lemon — halved
- 240 ml Parsley leaves with tender stems
- Flaky sea salt — optional

METHOD

1. Place a rack in upper third of oven; heat broiler. Cut or tear bread slices in half, then arrange on a rimmed baking sheet. Brush or drizzle with oil (about 1 Tbsp. total). Broil until golden brown on top and just golden underneath, about 3 minutes (watch carefully; each broil...
2. Mix butter and chiles in a small bowl. Swipe some butter evenly over each toast (you may have some left over). Place an anchovy on 1 toast. Top remaining toasts with sardines.
3. Squeeze juice from a lemon half into a small bowl. Add parsley, season with salt, if desired, and drizzle a little oil over (it doesn't need much). Toss well.
4. Scatter parsley salad over toasts and finely grate some zest from remaining lemon half on top.
5. See the rest of the Feast of the Seven Fishes menu here.

Anchovy Pasta With Garlic Breadcrumbs 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 8 Garlic cloves — divided
- 150 g Sourdough or other crusty bread — crust removed
- 5 ml Finely grated lemon zest
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 60 ml Plus 3 tablespoons (or more) olive oil
- 4 Oil-packed anchovy fillets
- 4 Oil-packed calabrian chiles — very finely chopped, or 0.5 teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes
- 15 ml (or more) fresh lemon juice
- 350 g Bucatini — spaghetti
- 55 g Finely grated pecorino
- 120 ml Finely chopped parsley
- 30 ml Unsalted butter

METHOD

1. Very thinly slice 4 garlic cloves (a mandoline works great) and set aside. Pulse remaining 4 garlic cloves in a food processor until finely chopped. Add bread and lemon zest and pulse until coarse crumbs form; season with salt and pepper.
2. Heat ¼ cup oil in a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot over medium. Cook breadcrumb mixture, stirring often, until golden brown and crisp, about 5 minutes. Transfer breadcrumb mixture with a slotted spoon to a small bowl.
3. Heat remaining 3 Tbsp. oil in same pot over medium-low. Cook reserved sliced garlic, stirring occasionally, until golden at edges, about 1 minute. Add anchovies and chiles and cook, stirring, until anchovies are dissolved, about 1 minute. Stir in lemon juice.
4. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until very al dente, about 3 minutes less than package directions.
5. Using tongs, transfer pasta to pot with sauce along with 1 cup pasta cooking liquid. Cook, tossing often, until pasta is al dente. Add 3 Tbsp. pasta cooking liquid, then gradually add cheese, tossing until melted and emulsified. Remove from heat, add parsley, butter, and half ...
6. Divide pasta among bowls. Top with remaining breadcrumb mixture.

6. Combine Meyer lemon juice, butter, grated onion, brown sugar, dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon salt, and black pepper in a small saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until sauce is smooth, 3 to 5 minutes. Pour sauce over bundles.
7. Bake bundles in the preheated oven until heated through, about 20 minutes. Sprinkle paprika on top before serving.

Asparagus With Mussel Beurre Blanc 6 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 0.5 medium Onion — chopped
- 1 small Carrot — peeled, chopped
- 120 ml Dry white wine
- 450 g Mussels — debearded
- 2 bunch Asparagus (about 1 0.5 lb.) — trimmed, stalks peeled
- Kosher salt
- 175 g (1 0.5 sticks) chilled unsalted butter — cut into pieces
- 15 ml Sherry vinegar
- 240 ml Locust flowers

METHOD

1. Bring onion, carrot, and wine to a boil in a medium saucepan. Add mussels and return to a boil. Remove from heat, cover, and let sit 10 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, cook asparagus in a large pot of boiling salted water until bright green and crisp-tender, about 5 minutes. Using tongs, transfer to a bowl of ice water. Let cool, then drain and set aside. Reserve pot with water.
3. Strain mussel mixture through a sieve into another medium saucepan (you should have about ½ cup). Discard (or eat!) mussels and vegetables. Bring cooking liquid to a boil, reduce heat, and simmer until reduced to ¼ cup.
4. Whisking constantly, add butter, a piece at a time, incorporating before adding the next piece. Whisk until sauce is emulsified. Whisk in vinegar; season with salt.
5. Just before serving, warm asparagus in reserved pot of hot water. Drain, pat dry, and transfer to a platter. Gently mix locust flowers, if using, into sauce and spoon over asparagus.

Bacon Shrimp Scampi Pasta

Italian · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pkg Spaghetti — such as Barilla® Spaghetti Rigati
- 4 slice Bacon — chopped
- 2 clove Garlic — minced
- 350 g Jumbo shrimp
- 0.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 120 ml Chicken broth
- 120 ml Heavy cream
- 80 ml Freshly grated parmesan cheese
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 60 ml Chopped fresh parsley
- 3 Wedges fresh lemon

METHOD

1. Bring a large pot of lightly salted water to a boil. Cook spaghetti in the boiling water, stirring occasionally, until nearly tender, about 8 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, cook bacon in a large skillet over medium heat until crisp, about 4 minutes. Drain on paper towels, leaving about 1 1/2 tablespoons grease in the skillet.
3. Add garlic to hot grease and cook until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add shrimp and sprinkle with red pepper flakes. Cook until just cooked through and pink, about 2 minutes per side. Remove from the skillet and set aside.
4. Pour chicken broth into the hot skillet, and cook for about 1 minute. Stir in heavy cream, and bring to a simmer, about 2 minutes. Reduce heat to low, whisk in Parmesan cheese, and cook until sauce starts to thicken, about 2 minutes.
5. Drain spaghetti, reserving 1/2 cup of pasta water.
6. Return shrimp and bacon to the skillet and simmer until heated through, about 1 minute. Add spaghetti and toss all ingredients together. Whisk in some of the reserved pasta water if sauce is too thick. Season with salt and pepper.
7. Garnish with chopped parsley and serve with a fresh lemon wedge to be squeezed over the pasta.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 large Red onion — halved lengthways, thinly sliced
- 2 small Green jalapeños
- 160 ml Rice vinegar
- 15 ml Lime juice
- 1 Heaped teaspoon sea salt
- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 120 ml Sour cream
- 10 ml Lime juice
- 5 ml Finely grated lime zest
- pinch Of sea salt
- 30 ml Mayonnaise
- 3.5 ml Lime juice
- 2 drop Jalapeño tabasco sauce
- 0.5 small Head green cabbage — thinly sliced
- Sea salt and ground black pepper
- 60 ml Olive oil
- 2.5 ml Chili powder
- 8 ml Dried oregano
- 2.5 ml Ground cumin
- 60 ml Cilantro leaves
- 1 Green jalapeño — chopped
- 450 g Flaky white fish filets
- Sea salt and ground black pepper
- Corn tortillas — for serving

METHOD

1. To make the pickled red onion, place the onion and jalapeño in a heatproof medium bowl. In a small saucepan, combine the vinegar, lime juice and salt. Bring to the boil over high heat, stirring until the salt dissolves, then pour over the onion and jalapeño. Allow to stand at...
2. To make the Baja cream, whisk the mayonnaise, sour cream, lime juice, lime zest and salt in a small bowl, then taste for seasoning and lime juice.
3. To make the cabbage slaw, mix together the mayonnaise, lime juice and Tabasco in a bowl. Toss the cabbage with the mayonnaise mixture, season to taste and refrigerate.
4. To marinate the fish, mix the olive oil, chili powder, oregano, cumin, coriander and jalapeño in a non-reactive dish. Add the fish and marinate for 20 minutes.
5. When ready to cook the fish, heat a non-stick frying pan over medium–high heat. Remove the fish from the marinade, place in the hot pan and season with salt.
6. Cook the fish for 4 minutes, then turn over, season again with salt and cook for another 2 minutes or until just cooked through, depending on the thickness.
7. Remove the pan from the heat and flake the fish with a fork, scraping up and mixing in any marinade that has stuck to the bottom.
8. Heat the tortillas according to the directions on the packet. To assemble the tacos, place a heaped spoon of the fish onto the centre of a warm tortilla. Top with the pickled onion and jalapeño, Baja cream, Baja cabbage slaw and tomato salsa.

Baja-style Tempura Fish 10 servings

Epicurious

INGREDIENTS

- 360 ml Water
- 120 ml Fresh lime juice
- 10 clove Garlic — sliced
- 2 Serrano chiles — stemmed and sliced
- 10 ml Dried mexican oregano
- 15 ml Fine sea salt
- 900 g Young shark fillet
- 180 ml Plus 1 tablespoon ice water
- 12 ml Yellow mustard — optional
- 240 ml Bleached all-purpose flour
- Vegetable oil — for deep-frying
- 10 Soft white corn tortillas (page 13) — for serving
- Garnish: baja cabbage slaw (page 145) — lime wedges, and pickled jalapeño rings

METHOD

1. To make the marinade, in a large bowl, combine the 1 1/2 cups water, lime juice, garlic, chiles, oregano, and salt. Add the fish strips and let marinate for at least 20 minutes.
2. To make the tempura batter, in a separate bowl, whisk together the ice water and mustard. Gently stir in the flour, but don't overmix; a few small lumps are okay. Cover and refrigerate for 30 minutes.
3. Drain the shark pieces and pat them dry with a paper towel.
4. Have a plate lined with paper towels ready. In a large, heavy-bottomed pot, heat at least 2 to 3 inches of oil over medium heat until it reaches 182°C on a deep-fat thermometer. Remove the batter from the refrigerator and stir once more. Dredge the fish pieces in the batter, a...
5. Fry them until crisp, light golden brown, and floating in the oil, about 2 1/2 minutes per batch. With a fine-mesh skimmer, transfer the fish tempura to the paper-towel-lined plate to absorb the excess oil. Repeat with the remaining pieces of fish. During frying, be sure to re...
6. To serve, lay the tortillas side by side, open face and overlapping on a platter. Divide the slaw and filling equally between the tortillas and top with salsa and garnish. Grab, fold, and eat right away. Or build your own taco: lay a tortilla, open face, in one hand. Spoon on ...

Baked Bourbon And Brown Sugar Salmon Nuggets

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Honey roasted peanuts
- 15 ml Ground black pepper
- 90 ml Butter
- 240 ml Packed brown sugar
- 160 ml Bourbon whiskey
- 80 ml Soy sauce
- 15 ml Crushed garlic
- 5 ml Onion powder
- 700 g Salmon fillet
- 1 Serving cooking spray

METHOD

1. Place peanuts in a large resealable bag and pound into fine crumbs with a rolling pin, meat mallet, or flat side of a can. Add pepper; mix well.
2. Melt butter in a nonstick saucepan over medium heat. Add brown sugar, bourbon, soy sauce, garlic, and onion powder. Bring to a boil; cook until sauce thickens and has a syrupy consistency, 20 to 30 minutes. Remove from heat and let cool until it is still hot to the touch but n...
3. Cut thinner parts of salmon fillets into strips and place in a small bowl. Coat with a little bit of the sauce. Cut thicker parts of salmon fillets into 1-inch cubes and place in the saucepan; stir to coat with sauce. Let sit until flavors combine, about 10 minutes.
4. Preheat oven to 232°C (230 degrees C). Grease a large glass baking dish with cooking spray.
5. Place strips of salmon on one side of the baking dish and cubes on the other, making sure all pieces are coated with sauce but not overlapping. Sprinkle peanut and black pepper mixture evenly on top.
6. Bake in the preheated oven until strips flake easily with a fork, 5 to 6 minutes. Remove from the dish and continue baking until cubes flake easily with a fork, about 5 minutes more.

2. Place salmon fillets in a baking dish and pour brown sugar sauce over top. Allow to sit at room temperature for 1 hour.
3. Preheat the oven to 204°C (200 degrees C).
4. Bake in the preheated oven until salmon flakes easily with a fork, about 10 minutes.

Baked Cod In Foil 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Tomatoes — cubed
- 1 Red bell pepper — seeded and cubed
- 1 Onion — minced
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 30 ml Chopped fresh basil
- 1 clove Garlic — minced
- Aluminum foil
- 4 Cod fillets
- 1 Lemon — juiced
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Combine tomatoes, bell pepper, onion, olive oil, basil, and garlic in a bowl and mix well.
2. Lay 4 sheets of aluminum foil on a work surface and place 1 cod fillet in the center of each.
3. Spoon tomato mixture evenly on top of the 4 fillets.
4. Drizzle with lemon juice and season with salt and pepper.
5. Place a second sheet of foil on top and seal the edges to make a parcel.
6. Repeat with the remaining fillets and tomato mixture.
7. Bake in the preheated oven until cod flakes easily with a fork, about 20 minutes.
8. Remove from the oven and carefully unwrap the parcels. Spoon onto warmed plates to serve.

Baked Cod With Golden Breadcrumbs And Raisins 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 35 g Raisins
- 60 ml Dry white wine
- 1 0.5–2 lb Skinless — boneless cod or other firm white fish fillets
- 5 ml . diamond crystal or 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
- Freshly cracked black pepper
- 100 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided
- 120 ml Breadcrumbs
- 35 g Pine nuts
- 15 ml . finely grated lemon zest
- 5 ml . dried oregano
- 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
- Parsley and lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 350°. Place raisins in a small bowl and pour wine over (wine should cover raisins).
2. Pat fish dry with paper towels and season on both sides with salt and pepper. Drizzle bottom of a broilerproof baking dish large enough to fit fish with 3 Tbsp. oil. Arrange fish in baking dish.
3. Mix breadcrumbs, pine nuts, lemon zest, oregano, garlic, and 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton kosher salt in a small bowl.
4. Holding back raisins, drizzle wine evenly over fish. Stir raisins into breadcrumb mixture, then spoon mixture over fish, patting to adhere. Drizzle remaining 4 Tbsp. oil over top.
5. Bake fish until flesh is opaque and beginning to flake, 13–16 minutes.
6. Heat broiler. Broil fish until breadcrumbs are crisp and golden brown, about 2 minutes.

7. Scatter parsley over fish; serve with lemon wedges for squeezing over.

Baked Crawfish Dip

- 1 bunch Green onions — chopped
- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 120 ml Sour cream
- 5 ml Dried dill weed

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 246°C (245 degrees C).
2. Grease a 9x13 inch baking dish.
3. Season halibut with salt and ground black pepper.
4. Place halibut in the greased baking dish.
5. Combine green onions, mayonnaise, sour cream, and dill in a bowl.
6. Spread green onion mixture evenly over each halibut piece.
7. Bake in the preheated oven until fish is opaque and flakes easily with a fork, about 20 minutes.
8. Remove from the oven and let stand for 5 minutes before serving.

Baked Lemon-pepper Shrimp

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 900 g Uncooked medium shrimp
- 1 Drizzle olive oil
- 45 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 45 ml Minced garlic
- 15 ml Lemon-pepper seasoning
- 0.5 medium Lemon — zested
- 120 ml Unsalted butter
- 15 ml Chopped fresh parsley

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 232°C (230 degrees C).
2. Place shrimp in a single layer in a glass baking dish. Drizzle with olive oil. Sprinkle with lemon juice, garlic, lemon-pepper, and lemon zest. Top with slices of butter. Sprinkle parsley on top.
3. Bake in the preheated oven until shrimp are bright pink on the outside and the meat is opaque, 5 to 10 minutes.

Baked Lobster Tails 2 servings

Tasty · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Lobster tail
- 45 ml Butter
- 5 ml Salt
- 5 ml Black pepper
- 5 ml Garlic powder
- 5 ml Paprika
- 5 ml Fresh parsley
- 5 ml Lemon juice
- 2 Wedges lemon — to serve
- Broccoli — cooked, to serve

METHOD

1. Using a clean pair of scissors or kitchen shears, cut along the middle of the top of the shell towards the fins of the tail, making sure to cut in a straight line. Do not cut through the end of the tail.
2. Using a spoon, separate the meat from the two sides of the shell, then lift the meat up and out from inside the shell.
3. Press the two sides of the shell together, then lay the meat over the seam where the two shells meet.
4. If you are having difficulty opening the shell up to lift out the meat, flip the tail over and make cuts along the carapace where the legs meet the bottom part tail. This will help break the rigid structure of the shell and allow it to be more flexible.
5. While cutting through the shell, you may have also cut into the meat, which is perfectly okay. Make a shallow cut through the middle of the lobster meat so that you can peel down the thin layer of meat over the sides. This gives the lobster tail its signature look.
6. Preheat the oven to 232°C (230°C).
7. In a small bowl, combine the butter, salt, pepper, garlic powder, paprika, lemon juice, and parsley, then brush the mixture evenly over the lobster meat.
8. Place the tails onto a baking sheet, then bake for approximately 12-15 minutes, until the lobster is fully cooked but not rubbery.
9. Serve with a side of broccoli and a lemon wedge.
10. Enjoy!

Baked Octopus 4 servings

Asian · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Whole octopu
- 80 ml Soy sauce
- Lemon juice
- 4 clove Garlic
- 30 ml Cayenne pepper
- Chicken broth
- 1 pkg Baby spinach
- Salt — to taste

METHOD

1. Add octopus to a large, deep pot and fill with broth until octopus is covered. Add cayenne pepper, salt, garlic, and lemon juice to taste.
2. Bring to a boil, then simmer for 1 hour. Add 2 tbsp soy sauce and additional lemon juice while simmering.
3. Once done, blanch octopus in a bowl of ice. Once chilled, chop into small pieces.
4. Line an oven-safe pan with baby spinach and top with octopus pieces. Pour soy sauce/lemon juice mixture atop this.
5. Bake in an oven at 163°C for an hour.
6. Remove and serve.

Baked Old Bay® Salmon

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Serving cooking spray
- 1 Salmon fillet

Baked Pasta And Leeks With Anchovy Cream 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g . short pasta (such as rigatoni — penne, or conchiglie)
- Kosher salt
- 60 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 3 large Leeks (about 1 0.5 lb.) — white and pale green parts only, trimmed, sliced 0.5" thick
- 15 Oil-packed anchovies — drained (from a 1.5-oz. tin)

- 6 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 5 ml . mild red pepper flakes or 0.5 tsp. crushed red pepper flakes
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 480 ml Heavy cream
- 85 g . parmesan — finely grated, plus more for serving
- 1 10 -oz. bag frozen baby peas — thawed in warm water, drained

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 400°. Cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until very al dente, about 2 minutes less than package directions. Drain and set aside.
2. Meanwhile, heat oil in a large Dutch oven or large high-sided skillet over medium. Add leeks; season with a couple pinches of salt. Cover and cook, stirring occasionally, until tender and golden around the edges, 6–8 minutes. Uncover and add anchovies, garlic, red pepper flake...
3. Add cream and 3 oz. Parmesan. Bring to a simmer; season with salt and black pepper (it should taste a bit salty because the pasta will absorb some seasoning as it bakes). Add peas and reserved pasta and toss gently to coat; top with more Parmesan. Transfer pasta to oven; bake ...

Baked Potatoes 8 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 8 medium Russet potatoes (about 9 oz. each) — scrubbed, patted dry
- Vegetable oil — for potatoes
- Kosher salt
- Freshly ground pepper
- 480 ml Sour cream
- 240 ml Finely chopped chives and/or scallions
- 240 ml Finely chopped dill and/or parsley
- 240 ml (2 sticks) unsalted butter
- 45 g Jar trout or salmon roe or caviar
- Flaky sea salt

METHOD

1. Place a rack in middle of oven and preheat to 500°. Prick potatoes all over with a fork (this allows the steam to escape, which helps the insides of the potatoes cook evenly and the skins crisp).
2. Working one at a time, drizzle a bit of oil over each potato and rub all over with your hands to cover in a thin, even layer; season with kosher salt and pepper. Set potatoes directly on oven rack and bake until the outsides are deeply browned and crisp and the insides are ver...
3. Using tongs or oven mitts, transfer potatoes to a platter. Set out along with bowls of sour cream, chives, dill, butter, roe, sea salt, and pepper—and whatever else you feel like—and let guests slice open and top to their hearts' content.

Baked Red Snapper With Garlic, Lime, And Cilantro

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- Cooking spray
- 900 g Skin-on red snapper fillets
- 2 clove Fresh garlic — minced
- 1 pinch Garlic salt — or to taste
- 1 pinch Ground red chile pepper — or to taste
- 120 ml Chopped fresh cilantro
- 1 Lime
- 30 ml Butter

METHOD

1. Spray a baking dish with cooking spray. Place red snapper skin-side down in the baking dish. Sprinkle evenly with garlic, garlic salt, and red pepper. Spread cilantro evenly over the fish; squeeze lime evenly on top.
2. Marinate in the refrigerator, 30 minutes to 1 hour.
3. Preheat the oven to 218°C (220 degrees C). Melt butter and pour evenly over the fish.
4. Bake in the preheated oven until flesh flakes easily with a fork, 15 to 18 minutes. Serve with juices spooned over the fish, if desired.

- 45 ml Sherry
- 45 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 2.5 ml Dried basil
- 2.5 ml Ground thyme
- 5 ml Salt
- 5 ml Ground black pepper
- 60 ml Shredded mozzarella and cheddar cheese blend
- 1.4 kg Red snapper fillets
- 700 g Medium-large shrimp
- 2.5 ml Seafood seasoning
- 1 pkg Sliced fresh mushrooms
- 60 ml Shredded parmesan cheese

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 177°C (175 degrees C). Spray a 9x13-inch baking dish with cooking spray.
2. Melt butter for cream sauce in a large skillet over medium-low heat. Add onion, celery, bell pepper, and garlic. Cook and stir until vegetables soften and onion turns translucent, 5 to 7 minutes.
3. Whisk flour and Creole seasoning into onion mixture to make a paste. Slowly add half-and-half, whisking constantly. Whisk in sherry, lemon juice, basil, and thyme. Season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens, 3 to 4 minutes. Remove from heat. A...
4. Lightly season snapper and shrimp on both sides with seafood seasoning. Arrange snapper in a single layer in the prepared baking dish. Top with shrimp and mushrooms. Pour cream sauce over top. Sprinkle with Parmesan.
5. Bake, uncovered, in the preheated oven until fish flakes easily with a fork and shrimp are bright pink on the outside and the meat is opaque, about 30 minutes.

Baked Snapper With Harissa, New Potatoes, And Spring Onions 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 90 ml Olive oil
- 30 ml Harissa paste
- 6 Spring onions — halved lengthwise, or 8 scallions (left whole)
- 450 g New potatoes or small potatoes — scrubbed
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 700 g Skin-on snapper fillets — 3–4
- Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Place an oven rack in upper third of oven; preheat to 425°. Combine oil and harissa in a small bowl; adjust flavor with more harissa if needed (spiciness and flavor vary from brand to brand).
2. Toss onions and potatoes with half of harissa mixture in a large baking dish; season with salt and pepper, then add ¼ cup water. Roast, tossing once, until potatoes are fork-tender, 20–25 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, score skin side of fillets about ¼" deep; season with salt and pepper. Rub remaining harissa mixture all over fish, getting into the score marks.
4. Remove onions and potatoes from oven and heat broiler. Place fish skin side up on top of vegetables and broil until onions and potatoes are tender and fish is cooked through and starting to brown on top, 8–10 minutes.
5. Serve fish and vegetables with lemon wedges for squeezing over.

Baked Stuffed Shrimp 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- Cooking spray
- 2 pkg Crushed buttery round crackers — such as Ritz®
- 120 ml Chopped parsley
- 5 Saltine crackers — crushed
- 2.5 ml Celery salt
- 1 clove Minced garlic
- 4 Sea scallops — chopped
- 120 ml Chopped imitation crabmeat
- 60 ml Butter
- 60 ml White cooking wine
- 20 Jumbo shrimp — peeled and deveined

METHOD

1. Mix crushed round crackers, parsley, saltines, celery salt, and garlic in a large bowl. Add scallops, crabmeat, melted butter, and wine; mix stuffing well.
2. Place a shrimp on a flat work surface. Slice horizontally through the middle, careful not to cut through to the other side. Open the 2 sides and spread them out like an open book. Repeat with remaining shrimp.
3. Stuff each shrimp with a heaping tablespoon stuffing and place back-side up in the prepared baking dish. Add 1 to 2 tablespoons water to the bottom of the baking dish to keep shrimp moist during baking.
4. Bake in the preheated oven until shrimp are opaque and stuffing begins to brown, 15 to 18 minutes.

Baked Tilapia Sandwiches

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 Tilapia fillets
- 30 ml Olive oil — divided, or as needed
- 2.5 ml Cajun seasoning — or to taste
- 1 pinch Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 2 medium Onions — thinly sliced
- 1 can Diced tomatoes — drained
- 30 ml Capers
- 4 Submarine sandwich rolls — split

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 204°C (200 degrees C).
2. Brush tilapia lightly with 1 tablespoon olive oil and then sprinkle with Cajun seasoning. Season both sides with salt and pepper and place on a baking sheet.
3. Bake in the preheated oven until fish flakes easily with a fork, about 15 minutes.
4. While fish is cooking, heat remaining olive oil in a pan over medium-high heat. Add onions and saute until tender, 5 to 7 minutes. Season with salt and pepper. Add tomatoes and capers; cook until heated through, 3 to 5 minutes.
5. Place fish on rolls and top with onion, tomato, and caper mixture.

· 60 ml Mint leaves — torn if large
· Lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Combine rice, coconut milk, and 3 cups water in a medium saucepan, season lightly with salt, and bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Reduce heat to low, cover pan, and cook rice until tender, 17–20 minutes.
2. Remove pan from heat; let coconut rice sit (still covered) 15 minutes. Fluff rice with a fork, then cover and keep warm until ready to serve.
3. Preheat oven to 400°. Place each fish on a banana leaf or two (you many need to use a few, overlapping as needed, depending on the size of the fish; you just need to make sure each fish is enclosed when wrapped) or 2–4 pieces of parchment paper, depending on the size of the fi...
4. Divide packets between 2 large baking sheets, arranging seam side down, and bake fish just until flesh is cooked through and flakes easily with a fork (open a packet to check), 15–20 minutes if using 2½-lb. fish or 25–40 minutes if using 5-lb. fish.
5. While the fish is roasting, toast coconut in a dry large skillet over medium heat, shaking pan often, until golden brown, about 4 minutes. Transfer coconut to a medium bowl and set aside.
6. Return skillet to medium-high heat and pour in oil. As soon as oil shimmers, add chickpeas and cook, stirring often, until golden brown, about 3 minutes. Add jalapeños and garlic and season with salt. Cook, stirring often, until chiles and garlic are softened and chickpeas are...
7. Sprinkle in coriander and turmeric and cook, tossing, until turmeric turns chickpeas a deep golden hue and mixture is fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add lemon juice and vinegar and season with more salt if needed. Transfer to a serving bowl and fold in cilantro and mint. Top with...
8. Open up banana leaves and transfer fish to a platter. Transfer warm coconut rice to a serving bowl. Serve fish with chickpeas, coconut rice, and lime wedges alongside.

Bangus (milkfish) Sisig As Made By Señor Sisig 1 servings

Asian · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Boneless bangu — milkfish - butterflied and backbone removed
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 2.5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 8 clove Garlic — smashed
- 30 ml Soy sauce
- 60 ml Sugar cane vinegar
- 480 ml Canola oil — for frying
- 0.5 stick unsalted butter
- 120 ml Scallion — chopped, plus more, sliced, for garnish
- 1 medium Red onion — chopped, plus more for garnish
- 5 ml Fresh ginger
- 5 ml Garlic
- 240 ml Crushed chicharrones — (fried pork rinds)
- 15 ml Red thai chile — plus more, chopped and whole
- 15 ml Soy sauce
- 8 ml Mayonnaise
- 1 Lemon wedge — for garnish
- Jasmine rice — steamed, for serving

METHOD

1. Marinate the bangus: Place the bangus in a shallow pan or plate. Season the flesh side of the fish with the salt and pepper. Top with the garlic, soy sauce, and vinegar. Flip the bangus so the flesh side is down and transfer to the refrigerator to marinate for 2–3 hours.
2. Make the sisig: Heat the canola oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat until shimmering.
3. Remove the bangus from the marinade. Carefully transfer to the hot oil and fry on each side, starting with the skin side down, for 3–4 minutes, until golden brown and crispy. Remove the fish from the pan and transfer to a wire rack set over a baking sheet. Let cool for about 1...
4. Once cooled, gently flake the flesh of the milkfish and transfer to a medium bowl, leaving the skin intact. Reserve the skin for serving.
5. Melt the butter in a medium nonstick skillet over medium heat. Add the reserved bangus flesh, chopped scallions, the red onion, ginger, and garlic. Stir and sauté for 1–2 minutes, until fragrant. Add the chicharrones, thinly sliced Thai chile, and soy sauce, stir to combine, a...
6. Place the reserved bangus skin on a serving platter and top with the bangus sisig.
7. Garnish with red onion, the sliced scallions, chicharrones, chopped and whole Thai chiles, and a lemon wedge. Serve with steamed jasmine rice.
8. Enjoy!

- 125 g (1 stick) plus 1 tbsp. unsalted butter — divided
- 350 g . dried curly egg noodles
- Kosher salt
- 1 large Onion — finely chopped
- 1 medium Leek — white and pale green parts only, finely chopped
- 275 g . mushrooms (such as crimini — shiitake, and/or button mushrooms), chopped
- 60 ml White wine
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 15 ml . worcestershire sauce
- 10 ml . finely chopped thyme
- 30 g All-purpose flour
- 600 ml Homemade chicken stock or low-sodium chicken broth
- 240 ml Heavy cream
- 175 g . white cheddar — grated
- 10 ml . hot sauce — preferably tabasco
- 2 6 -oz. jars oil-packed tuna — drained, broken into small pieces
- 480 ml Potato chips
- 1 Lemon
- 120 ml Dill — coarsely chopped
- 30 ml . finely chopped chives

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 400°. Grease a 13x9" baking dish with 1 Tbsp. unsalted butter.
2. Cook 12 oz. dried curly egg noodles in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until very al dente, about 2 minutes. Drain pasta; let cool.
3. Melt 4 Tbsp. unsalted butter in a large skillet over medium heat. Add 1 large onion, finely chopped, and 1 medium leek, white and pale green parts only, finely chopped; cook, stirring, until soft but not brown, 8–10 minutes. Increase heat to medium-high and add 10 oz. mushroom...
4. Melt remaining 4 Tbsp. unsalted butter in a medium pot over medium-low heat. Whisk in ¼ cup (31 g) all-purpose flour and cook until roux is golden and looks shiny and smooth, about 2 minutes. Whisking constantly, add 2½ cups homemade chicken stock or low-sodium chicken broth a...

Black Bass With Coconut-herb Salad 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 40 g Unsweetened shredded coconut
- 45 ml . virgin coconut oil or a neutral oil — such as grapeseed or vegetable
- 2 medium Shallots — thinly sliced into rings
- Kosher salt
- 1 2 " piece ginger — scrubbed, thinly sliced lengthwise
- 4 Garlic cloves — crushed
- 15 ml . double-concentrated tomato paste
- 60 ml Tamarind concentrate
- 30 ml . honey
- 15 ml . low-sodium soy sauce
- 2 1 0.5–2-lb. head-on whole black sea bass or red snapper — cleaned
- 3 Thai chiles or 2 serrano chiles — thinly sliced
- 240 ml Mint leaves
- Lime wedges — for serving
- Tamarind concentrate — often labeled “concentrate cooking tamarind,” can be found at Asian and Thai markets and online. We like Tamicon Tamarind Concentrate, $7. You can also use tamarind paste, a dense brick of dried tamarind pulp that isn’t as concentrated in flavor and needs to be thinned with water until spoonable. Use the same amount as you would concentrate.

METHOD

1. Toast coconut in a dry medium saucepan over medium heat, stirring often, until golden brown, 5–7 minutes. Transfer to a small bowl.
2. Wipe out saucepan. Combine oil and shallots in saucepan and set over medium-high heat. Cook, stirring often, until shallots are golden brown and crisp, 8–10 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer shallots to paper towels to drain; immediately season with salt.
3. Reduce heat to medium and add ginger and garlic to saucepan. Cook, stirring occasionally, until browned in spots, about 4 minutes. Add tomato paste and cook, stirring constantly, until paste splits and color darkens slightly, about 2 minutes. Add tamarind concentrate, honey, a...
4. Place a rack in upper third of oven; preheat to 425°. Place 1 fish on a cutting board and thoroughly pat dry inside and out with paper towels. Using a sharp knife, make slashes crosswise on a diagonal about every 2" along length of body (make sure to cut all the way down to th...
5. Season both fish all over with salt. Brush both sides with about half of the glaze, leaving the garlic and ginger behind. Roast fish, brushing with remaining glaze halfway through, until glaze is sticky and flesh flakes easily with a fork, 16–20 minutes.
6. Arrange fish on a large platter or 2 smaller platters and scatter toasted coconut, crispy shallots, chiles, and mint evenly on top. Serve with lime wedges alongside for squeezing over.

Bourbon-glazed Fried Salmon Nuggets 3 servings

Epicurious

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Skinless salmon — cut into 1- to 2-inch cubes
- 240 ml Buttermilk
- 120 ml Hot sauce
- Neutral oil — for frying
- 250 g All-purpose flour
- 15 ml . garlic powder
- 15 ml . lemon pepper
- 15 ml . onion powder
- 15 ml . smoked paprika
- 5 ml . black pepper
- 5 ml . cayenne
- 100 g Brown sugar
- 60 ml Apple cider vinegar
- 85 g Honey
- Juice of 0.5 orange
- 30 ml . soy sauce
- 1 Garlic clove — minced
- 5 ml . minced ginger
- 180 ml Bourbon

METHOD

1. In a large bowl, combine the salmon, buttermilk, and hot sauce. Place in the refrigerator and let marinate for at least 30 minutes.
2. Make the coating: In a large bowl, combine the flour, garlic powder, lemon pepper, onion powder, paprika, black pepper, and cayenne. Mix well.
3. Make the glaze: In a medium saucepan over low heat, combine the brown sugar, vinegar, honey, orange juice, soy sauce, garlic, and ginger. Bring to a simmer.
4. Add the bourbon and cook out the alcohol, 5 to 8 minutes. The sauce should begin to thicken slightly, enough to coat the back of a spoon. Remove from the heat and let cool.
5. Heat 2 to 3 cups of oil to 191°C in a medium pot.
6. Add the salmon, a few pieces at a time, to the flour mixture until all pieces are thoroughly coated and you can no longer see the salmon underneath.
7. Add the salmon to the oil and fry, in batches if needed, until golden brown, 5 to7 minutes. Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate.
8. While the salmon is still hot, lightly toss in a bowl, coating the nuggets with the glaze. Enjoy!

Braised Artichokes With Tomatoes And Mint 8 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 28 -ounce can whole peeled tomatoes — preferably Italian San Marzano, drained
- 360 ml Dry white wine
- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 10 ml Kosher salt
- 240 ml Olive oil
- 12 Salt-packed anchovy fillets — rinsed, patted dry
- 8 Garlic cloves
- 240 ml (lightly packed) mint leaves
- 6 medium Artichokes
- 2 Lemons — halved

METHOD

1. Place tomatoes in a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot, crushing with your hands; add wine, red pepper flakes, 2 tsp. salt, ½ cup oil, and 2 cups water; set aside.
2. Pulse anchovies and garlic in a food processor until finely chopped. Add mint and pulse until coarsely chopped. With the motor running, stream in remaining ½ cup oil; process until a coarse paste forms. Set pesto aside.
3. Remove several layers of dark-green outer leaves from artichokes (keep going until you get to the tender light-green leaves). Using a serrated knife, cut off top 1" of artichokes and trim stem ends. Rub cut ends with lemon halves to prevent browning. Working with 1 artichoke a...
4. Bring to a simmer over medium-low and cook, turning artichokes occasionally, until hearts are fork-tender, 55–65 minutes. Transfer artichokes to a platter and tent with foil to keep warm.
5. Increase heat to medium, bring sauce to a boil, and cook until slightly thickened, 10–15 minutes. Taste and season with more salt if needed. Spoon over artichokes.

British Fish Pie With Mashed Potato Topping

English · Allrecipes · gluten-free

· 700 g Potatoes
· 80 ml Cubed butter
· 50 ml Milk
· 2 large Eggs
· Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
· 45 ml Butter
· 30 ml Olive oil
· 1 medium Onion — peeled and diced
· 5 ml Dry thyme leaves
· 60 ml Dry vermouth
· 60 ml All-purpose flour
· 240 ml Fish stock
· 240 ml Milk
· Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
· 60 ml Half-and-half
· 30 ml Chopped fresh parsley
· 175 g Salmon fillet
· 250 g Skinless cod
· 150 g Uncooked medium shrimp
· 15 ml Lemon juice
· 180 ml Grated medium cheddar cheese

METHOD

1. Place cubed potatoes into a large pot and cover with salted water; bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer until tender, about 15 minutes. Drain.
2. Transfer potato cubes to the bowl of a stand mixer. Blend gently, adding cubed butter and milk. Add in eggs and mix only until mashed potatoes reach your desired consistency, or finish by hand if needed;overmixing will yield gluey potatoes. Season with salt and pepper.
3. Preheat the oven to 204°C (200 degrees C).
4. While potatoes are boiling, heat butter and olive oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add onion and thyme and saute until onions are soft and browned, about 5 minutes. Deglaze with vermouth and cook until alcohol has evaporated, about 2 minutes. Whisk in flour. Slowly whi...
5. Scatter salmon, cod pieces, and shrimp onto the bottom of a 2-quart baking dish. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper. Drizzle lemon juice over the top of the seafood.
6. Pour prepared sauce over seafood and stir gently to combine. Spread prepared potatoes over the top and fluff with a fork, then sprinkle Cheddar cheese over the top.
7. Bake in the preheated oven for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 177°C (175 degrees C) and bake until potatoes are evenly browned all over, seafood is cooked through, and pie is bubbly and piping hot, about 20 more minutes.
8. Remove from the oven and allow to rest for 10 minutes before serving.

but Why Is The Rum Gone?' Grilled Shrimp

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Chopped fresh mint leaves
- 80 ml White sugar
- 1 Shallot — minced
- 80 ml White rum
- 60 ml Fresh lime juice
- 5 ml Freshly grated lime zest
- 5 ml Salt
- Ground black pepper to taste
- 700 g Peeled and deveined medium shrimp
- 30 ml Fresh lime juice

METHOD

1. Combine mint leaves, sugar, and shallot in a bowl; pound with a spoon to crush coarsely. Whisk rum and 1/4 cup lime juice into mint mixture to make a marinade. Stir lime zest into the marinade; season with salt and black pepper.
2. Pour marinade into a resealable plastic bag. Add the shrimp, coat with the marinade, squeeze out excess air, and seal the bag. Marinate at room temperature 15 to 20 minutes.
3. Preheat an outdoor grill for medium-high heat and lightly oil the grate.
4. Remove shrimp from marinade and thread onto 6 bamboo or metal skewers, all facing the same way. Discard marinade.
5. Cook the skewers on the preheated grill, turning frequently until nicely browned on all sides, and the meat is no longer pink in the center, about 5 minutes. Drizzle 2 tablespoons fresh lime juice over the skewers to serve.

Butter-basted Salmon With Hazelnut Relish 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 70 g Blanched hazelnuts
- 1 Garlic clove — chopped
- 240 ml (packed) fresh cilantro leaves with tender stems
- 120 ml (packed) fresh flat-leaf parsley leaves with tender stems
- 15 ml Capers
- 5 ml Finely grated lemon zest
- 120 ml Olive oil
- Kosher salt
- 15 ml Vegetable oil
- 4 6 -oz. pieces skin-on salmon fillets
- 30 ml Unsalted butter
- 2 head Little gem or other small lettuce — leaves separated

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 400°. Toast hazelnuts on a rimmed baking sheet, tossing occasionally, until golden brown, 6–8 minutes. Let cool.
2. Pulse garlic, cilantro, parsley, capers, lemon zest, and ¼ cup hazelnuts in a food processor until finely chopped. With machine running, gradually add olive oil; season relish with salt. Coarsely chop remaining hazelnuts.
3. Heat vegetable oil in a large ovenproof skillet over medium-high heat. Season salmon with salt and cook, skin side down, until skin is crisp (do not disturb), about 4 minutes. Add butter and cook, basting constantly, 1 minute. Transfer to oven and roast salmon, basting once, u...
4. Serve salmon, skin side up, with lettuce, topped with relish and chopped hazelnuts.
5. DO AHEAD: Relish can be made 6 hours ahead. Cover and chill.
6. Pick a wine that can match the brightness of the relish, like the Cristom 2013 Pinot Gris ($19).

Butter-poached Lobster With Asparagus And New Potatoes 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Very small waxy potatoes
- 2 1 1/4-lb. lobsters
- 1 bunch Asparagus — trimmed
- Kosher salt
- 120 ml (1 stick) unsalted butter
- 30 ml Chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
- Flaky sea salt — such as Maldon

METHOD

1. Place a metal steamer basket in a large pot; add water to a depth of 2" and bring to a boil. Place potatoes in steamer basket; cover and cook until tender, 12–15 minutes. Transfer to medium bowl; set aside.
2. Add more water to pot if needed to reach a depth of 2" and place lobsters in steamer basket. Cover pot and steam lobsters until shells are bright red and meat is cooked through, 8–10 minutes. Remove from pot with tongs and let cool 5 minutes before cracking.
3. Pick lobster meat from tail, claws, and knuckles and halve tails lengthwise; set aside.
4. Meanwhile, cook asparagus in a large pot of boiling salted water until just tender, about 4 minutes. Drain; transfer to a large bowl of ice water. Drain; set aside.
5. Bring 2 Tbsp. water to a simmer in a medium skillet over medium heat. Gradually whisk in butter, a piece at a time, until melted and completely emulsified; season with kosher salt.
6. Add reserved potatoes, lobster, and asparagus to skillet and cook, tossing occasionally, just until warmed through, about 2 minutes.
7. Serve lobster and vegetables topped with parsley and sea salt.

Butter-poached Shrimp And Orzo 4 servings

European · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml Water
- 120 ml Butter
- 10 ml Lemon
- 1 sprig Fresh thyme
- 225 g Shrimp
- 2 clove Garlic
- 1 Shallot
- 240 ml Orzo

· 480 ml Chicken stock
· Salt — to taste
· Pepper — to taste
· 960 ml Spinach
· Fresh parsley — for garnish

METHOD

1. Over low heat, add water to your saucepan and slowly incorporate the butter, a few tablespoons at a time. Whisk together to make sure the water and butter combine and doesn't separate.
2. Add the lemon zest and sprig of thyme and give it a stir. Add the shrimp and poach for eight to 10 minutes. Remove shrimp and set aside. Discard the sprig of thyme.
3. In the same saucepan and over low heat, add garlic, shallots and the orzo. Salt and pepper to taste. Stir until all the liquid has been absorbed.
4. Pour in the chicken stock and cook until the orzo is al dente. Stir occasionally to make sure nothing is sticking to the bottom of the saucepan.
5. Once the orzo is al dente, add the spinach. Stir in until just wilted. Remove from heat.
6. Serve the spinach and orzo, place a few shrimps on top and garnish with chopped parsley.
7. Enjoy!

Butterflied Trout With Spicy Lettuce, Celery, And Herbs 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 0.5 jalapeño — with seeds, very finely chopped
· 15 ml Finely grated lime zest
· 15 ml Finely grated orange zest
· Kosher salt
· 1 small Shallot — thinly sliced into rings
· 60 ml Fresh orange juice
· 45 ml Fresh lime juice
· 15 ml Fish sauce
· 15 ml Soy sauce
· Freshly ground black pepper
· 2 14–16 -ounce whole butterflied rainbow trout
· 30 ml Vegetable oil
· 4 Little gem — butter lettuce, or romaine hearts, leaves separated
· 2 Celery stalks — preferably with leaves, leaves reserved, stalks thinly sliced on a diagonal
· 240 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems
· 120 ml Mint leaves

METHOD

1. Using the side of a chef's knife, mash jalapeño, lime zest, and orange zest with a pinch of salt on a cutting board to a paste. Transfer to a medium bowl and mix in shallot, orange juice, lime juice, fish sauce, and soy sauce. Season dressing with salt and pepper.
2. Season trout with salt and pepper. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet over medium-high. Cook 1 trout, skin side down, until golden brown and crisp, about 4 minutes (flesh will be nearly cooked through). Remove from heat, turn fish, and let sit until cooked through, about 1 mi...
3. Toss lettuce, celery, celery leaves (if using), cilantro, mint, and 3 Tbsp. dressing in a large bowl; season with salt and pepper. Top trout with salad and spoon remaining dressing over.

Buttery Shrimp Rolls 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 3 Lemons — divided
· Kosher salt
· 450 g . large shrimp — peeled, deveined
· 60 ml . salted butter — cut into small pieces
· 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
· 1 Celery stalk — finely chopped
· 80 ml 0.75"-long pieces chives
· 80 ml Mayonnaise
· 10 ml . dijon mustard
· 6 Hot dog buns — split
· 1 small Head of butter lettuce — leaves separated

METHOD

1. Pour 12 cups water into a large pot. Cut 2 lemons in half and squeeze juice into pot through a sieve or your hand to catch the seeds; toss in spent lemon halves. Season water with kosher salt; bring to a boil.
2. Remove pot from heat and add 1 lb. large shrimp, peeled, deveined. Let sit, uncovered, until shrimp are pink and cooked through, 1–2 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer shrimp to a medium bowl of ice water. Drain shrimp. Coarsely chop, then place in a large bowl.
3. Finely grate zest from remaining 1 lemon to yield 2 tsp., then cut lemon in half and squeeze out 1 Tbsp. juice. Reserve any remaining juice for another use.
4. Heat 4 Tbsp. salted butter, cut into small pieces, and 1 garlic clove, finely grated, in a small microwave-proof bowl in a microwave until butter is melted, about 30 seconds. Pour half over shrimp and toss to coat. (Don't worry if butter solidifies.) Add lemon zest and juice, ...
5. Heat a dry large skillet, preferably cast iron, over medium. Brush insides of 6 hot dog buns, split, with remaining garlic butter. Working in batches, toast buns, cut side down, in pan until golden brown underneath, about 30 seconds per batch.

2. Make the Cajun spice mix: In a small bowl or resealable container, mix together the paprika, black pepper, salt, garlic powder, onion powder, cayenne, oregano, and thyme until well combined. The spice mix will keep in an airtight container for up to 1 month.
3. Make the pasta: Cook the pasta in the boiling water according to the package instructions until al dente. Reserve ¼ cup of the pasta water, then drain the noodles.
4. While the pasta cooks, toss the shrimp in a medium bowl with 2 tablespoons of Cajun spice mix. Toss the scallops in a separate medium bowl with 1 tablespoon of the Cajun spice mix as well.
5. Heat 1 tablespoon of the olive oil in a large, deep skillet over medium-high heat until nearly smoking. Add the shrimp to the pan and cook, flipping once until they just turn pink, 2–3 minutes per side, being careful not to overcook. Transfer the shrimp back to the bowl and wi...
6. Heat the remaining tablespoon of olive oil in the same pan until nearly smoking. Add the scallops to the pan and sear on each side for about 2 minutes, until they are easy to flip without resistance. Transfer the scallops to the bowl with the shrimp. Wipe out the pan.
7. Melt 2 tablespoons of butter in the same pan over medium heat. Add the yellow and orange bell peppers, season with 1 tablespoon of Cajun spice mix, and cook for 7–10 minutes, until the peppers are soft and tender. Add the red bell peppers and scallions and cook for another 5 m...
8. In the same pan (do not wipe out!), combine the remaining 2 tablespoons of butter, 2 tablespoons Cajun spice mix, and the heavy cream. Bring to a boil and cook for 7–10 minutes, or until reduced by at least half, scraping up any browned bits from the bottom of the pan.
9. Remove the pan from the heat and stir in the Parmesan cheese. Add the cooked linguine, sautéed vegetables, shrimp, and scallops and toss to coat in the sauce, adding 1–2 tablespoons of the reserved pasta water if the sauce is too thick. Garnish with the parsley.
10. Enjoy!

Cashew Nam Prik 3 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml Raw cashews
- 6 Thai chiles or 4 fresno chiles — chopped
- 2 medium Shallots — chopped
- 1 Lemongrass stalk — tough outer layers removed, white and pale green parts coarsely chopped
- 5 Garlic cloves — coarsely chopped
- Finely grated zest from 2 limes — about 3 tsp.
- 5 ml . kosher salt — plus more
- 45 ml . canola oil
- 15 ml . tomato paste
- 225 g . cherry tomatoes — halved
- 15 ml . fish sauce
- 15 ml . fresh lime juice
- 15 ml . coarsely chopped cilantro leaves with tender stems
- Bibb or little gem lettuce leaves — sliced cucumbers, sliced mango, and soft-boiled eggs (for serving)

METHOD

1. Pulse cashews in a food processor until pieces are no larger than ¼". Transfers cashews to a medium bowl (it's okay if some of the cashews have gone all the way to powder, which will thicken the dip).
2. Pulse chiles, shallots, lemongrass, garlic, lime zest, and 1 tsp. salt in food processor until very finely chopped. Scrape down sides and continue to pulse until a coarse paste forms. Transfer curry paste to a small bowl.
3. Heat oil in a medium saucepan over medium. Add cashews and cook, stirring often, until golden brown in most spots, 4–6 minutes. Add curry paste and cook, stirring often, until slightly darkened, about 3 minutes. Add tomato paste and cook, stirring, until mixture starts to stic...
4. Remove from heat and stir in fish sauce and lime juice. Taste and adjust seasoning with salt.
5. Transfer nam prik to a medium bowl. Top with cilantro. Serve nam prik warm with lettuce, cucumbers, mango, and eggs alongside.

- 1 can Clams — liquid drained and reserved and clams chopped
- 30 ml Butter
- 60 ml Cornstarch
- 240 ml Milk
- 120 ml Heavy whipping cream
- 120 ml Corn

METHOD

1. Heat bacon grease in a cast iron Dutch oven over medium heat; cook and stir potatoes, carrots, onion, and garlic until onion is soft, 5 to 10 minutes. Add flour, salt, garlic powder, liquid smoke flavoring, and black pepper; stir until vegetables are evenly coated.
2. Pour chicken broth and reserved clam juice over vegetables; cook at a simmer over low heat until potatoes and carrots are tender, 15 to 20 minutes.
3. Melt butter in a saucepan over low heat; stir in cornstarch until smooth, 1 to 2 minutes. Add milk and cream; cook, stirring constantly, until thickened, about 5 minutes.
4. Stir butter mixture into vegetable-broth mixture; cook and stir over low heat until chowder is thickened, 5 to 10 minutes. Add corn and cook for 5 minutes. Mix chopped clams into chowder and cook until heated through, about 5 minutes more.

Cast Iron Skillet Seared Salmon

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 3 Center-cut salmon fillets — with skin
- 5 ml Garlic-pepper seasoning
- 2.5 ml Dried dill weed
- 15 ml Salt
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 30 ml Butter

METHOD

1. Pat fillets dry with paper towels; set in a baking dish, skin-sides down. Sprinkle with garlic-pepper seasoning and dill. Flip fillets; generously rub salt only over skin. Cover the baking dish; set aside for 15 to 20 minutes.
2. Heat oil in a large cast-iron skillet over high heat until it just starts to smoke; reduce heat to medium-high and add butter. Add fillets, skin-sides down, as soon as butter melts. Cover the skillet; cook until fish flakes easily with a fork, 7 to 9 minutes, depending on thic...

Cast-iron Mushrooms 3 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Crimini mushrooms
- 225 g White button mushrooms
- 225 g Oyster mushrooms
- 2 King oyster mushrooms
- 1 Portobello mushroom
- 2 Shallots — sliced paper thin
- 15 ml Butter or margarine
- 2 clove Garlic — minced
- 30 ml Parsley
- Sea salt and pepper to taste

METHOD

1. 1. Place your trusty cast-iron skillet in the middle of your oven and preheat to 500 degrees. This will take thirty minutes.
2. 2. Prepare the mushrooms. With a damp towel wipe off any dirt. If you must rinse them, do so gently and pat dry.
3. 3. Create various shroom shapes. Slice crimini and button mushrooms in half. Remove the bottom tuft of the king oyster mushrooms and discard, then slice lengthwise into four or five long pieces before cutting down the middle so you have short rectangles. Rip the oyster mushroo...
4. 4. Remove the pan and add all the mushrooms. Return it to the oven for five minutes. Then remove again, and stir the shrooms so that any sides unexposed to the hot iron can't help getting a good sear. Cook for an additional five minutes.
5. 5. Remove the pan and add the shallots, butter, and toss. Return to the oven for another five minutes.
6. 6. Final removal: add the garlic and parsley. Let sizzle in front of your drooling friends for three to five minutes. Salt generously, pepper profusely, and signal the attack.

Catfish Curry 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 900 g Catfish fillets
- 960 ml Water
- 2 medium Onions — finely chopped
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 30 ml All-purpose flour
- 10 ml Curry powder
- 30 ml Butter
- 15 ml Chopped fresh parsley
- 750 g Hot cooked rice

METHOD

1. Rinse fillets under cold water and cut into 2-inch pieces.
2. Place catfish into a medium saucepan and add water, onions, salt, and pepper. Bring to a boil; reduce heat, and simmer until fish is tender but not breaking apart, about 8 minutes. Transfer fish to a serving platter using a slotted spoon and cover with foil to keep warm.
3. Bring the cooking liquid in the saucepan to a boil; continue to boil until it reduces to 1 cup, then keep warm over low heat.
4. Combine flour, curry, and butter in a small bowl. Mix with a fork or fingertips to form a smooth paste. Roll teaspoon-sized bits of paste into balls.
5. Return the cooking liquid to a simmer. While stirring slowly and continuously, drop the balls into the liquid one at a time, letting each one dissolve before adding the next. Cook until the sauce returns just to a boil and thickens to the consistency of gravy, about 5 minutes....
6. Pour the gravy over the fish and boiled rice, sprinkle some parsley on top, and serve hot.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Untreated cedar plank
- 120 ml Butter
- 15 ml Lemon juice
- 10 ml Herbes de provence
- 10 ml Dried dill weed
- 10 ml Dried tarragon
- 5 ml Paprika
- 3 clove Garlic — minced
- 4 Halibut steaks
- Ground black pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Place the cedar plank in water to soak, about 30 minutes.
2. Preheat an outdoor grill for medium-high heat and lightly oil the grate.

3. Stir butter, lemon juice, herbes de Provence, dill, tarragon, paprika, and garlic together in a small bowl.
4. Place halibut steaks on the cedar plank. Season to taste with pepper; spoon half the butter mixture onto the halibut.
5. Place the cedar plank into the grill; cook, with grill lid closed, for 20 minutes. Open grill; baste halibut with remaining butter mixture. Continue grilling until fish flakes easily with a fork, about 10 minutes.

Cedar Planked Salmon 6 servings

U.S. · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 3 Untreated cedar planks
· 80 ml Soy sauce
· 80 ml Vegetable oil
· 20 ml Rice vinegar
· 5 ml Sesame oil
· 60 ml Chopped green onions
· 15 ml Grated fresh ginger
· 5 ml Minced garlic
· 2 Salmon fillets — skin removed

METHOD

1. Soak cedar planks for at least 1 hour in warm water. Soak longer if you have time.
2. Stir soy sauce, vegetable oil, rice vinegar, sesame oil, green onions, ginger, and garlic together in a shallow dish.
3. Place salmon fillets in soy mixture and turn to coat. Cover and marinate for at least 15 minutes, or up to 1 hour refrigerated.
4. Preheat an outdoor grill for medium heat. Place planks on the grill grate. Heat planks until they start to smoke and crackle just a little.
5. Remove salmon from marinade and place on planks; discard marinade.
6. Close grill cover. Grill salmon until it flakes easily with a fork, about 20 minutes; salmon will continue to cook after you remove it from the grill.

Celery Caesar Salad 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

· 2 slice 2-inch-thick country-style bread — crusts removed, torn into bite-size pieces
· 120 ml Olive oil
· Kosher salt
· 1 medium Celery root (celeriac) — peeled
· 0.5 lemon
· 1 large Egg yolk
· 1 Garlic clove — peeled
· 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
· 3 Oil-packed anchovy fillets — divided
· Freshly ground black pepper
· 4 Celery stalks — sliced in half lengthwise, thinly cut on a diagonal, plus about 0.5 cup celery leaves (from about 1 head of celery)
· 55 g Parmesan

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 400°. Toss bread with 2 Tbsp. oil on a rimmed baking sheet; season with salt. Bake, tossing halfway through, until golden brown and crisp, 8–10 minutes; set croutons aside.
2. Thinly slice celery root into thin matchsticks. Place in a large bowl and add enough water to cover; squeeze in juice from lemon (this keeps the celery root from discoloring).
3. Purée egg yolk, garlic, lemon juice, and 1 anchovy fillet in a blender until smooth. With motor running, gradually drizzle in 3 Tbsp. oil, then 1½ Tbsp. water, followed by remaining 3 Tbsp. oil. Season dressing with salt and pepper.
4. Drain reserved celery root and toss with celery in a large bowl. Chop remaining 2 anchovy fillets and add to bowl along with celery leaves, Parmesan, croutons, and dressing and toss to combine.
5. Do Ahead: Dressing can be made 3 days ahead. Cover and chill.

Ceviche Verde

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 450 g Fresh pacific halibut or other firm-fleshed fish
· 5 ml Kosher salt
· 45 ml Fresh lime juice
· 2 Ripe avocados — peeled and pitted
· 180 ml Green olives
· 120 ml Tomatillos
· 60 ml Onion
· 60 ml Fresh cilantro leaves
· 1 Jalapeño — stemmed, seeded, and minced (optional)
· 30 ml Olive oil
· Tostadas or torilla chips

METHOD

1. Chop fish into 1/2" cubes; place in medium bowl. Add kosher salt; toss to coat. Add lime juice; toss to coat. Marinate until the edges of the cubes begin to turn opaque, tossing occasionally, about 30 minutes.
2. Dice avocados; add to bowl along with green olives, tomatillos, onion, cilantro, and jalapeño. Add olive oil and season to taste with salt.
3. Serve over tostadas or with tortilla chips for dipping.

Ceviche Verde With Pepitas 6 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 6 Corn tortillas
· 15 ml . plus 1 0.5 tsp. avocado oil
· 2 g Diamond crystal or 0.25 tsp. morton kosher salt
· 1 small Red onion — thinly sliced (about 1 cup)
· 450 g . skinless fillet mild white fish — such as halibut or sea bass
· 8 g Diamond crystal or 0.75 tsp. morton kosher salt — divided
· 2 Serrano chiles — stemmed, seeded
· 120 ml Fresh lime juice — from about 5 limes
· 80 ml Lightly packed chopped cilantro — plus whole leaves for serving (optional)
· 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
· 30 ml . mint leaves — from about 2 small sprigs
· 150 g Unsalted — roasted pepitas, divided
· Freshly ground black pepper
· 300 ml Peeled — seeded, cut into half-moon cucumbers (from about 1 medium English hothouse cucumber or 2 Persian cucumbers)
· 2 Avocados — quartered, sliced lengthwise 0.25" thick, divided

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 375°. Arrange 6 corn tortillas in a single layer on a baking sheet. Brush with 1 Tbsp. plus 1½ tsp. avocado oil and season with ½ tsp. Diamond Crystal or ¼ tsp. Morton kosher salt on both sides.
2. Bake tortillas until starting to dry out, 5–7 minutes. Using tongs, turn and continue to bake until lightly browned and crispy, 5–7 minutes more.
3. In a small bowl, cover 1 small red onion, thinly sliced (about 1 cup), with cold water to remove some of the onion's sharpness, about 20 minutes. Drain well and reserve.
4. Meanwhile, cut 1 lb. skinless fillet mild white fish, such as halibut or sea bass, into ■" pieces (about the size of a large navy bean). Transfer to a large bowl and season with ½ tsp. Diamond Crystal or ¼ tsp. Morton kosher salt.
5. Purée 2 serrano chiles, stemmed, seeded, ½ cup fresh lime juice (from about 5 limes), ■ cup lightly packed chopped cilantro, 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil, 2 Tbsp. mint leaves (from about 2 small sprigs), ¼ cup unsalted roasted pepitas, remaining 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ t...
6. Add onions to fish along with 1¼ cups peeled, seeded, cut into half-moon cucumbers (from about 1 medium English hothouse cucumber or 2 Persian cucumbers). Chill ceviche at least 10 minutes or up to 30.
7. Toss remaining ¼ cup unsalted roasted pepitas with ceviche until combined. Top with 1 avocado, quartered, sliced lengthwise ¼" thick and whole cilantro leaves (if desired).
8. Serve ceviche on tostadas (about ¾ cup ceviche per tostada). Top with remaining 1 avocado, quartered, sliced lengthwise ¼" thick.

Char-grilled Oysters 6 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 18 Fresh oysters in shells
· 240 ml Butter
· 20 ml Sriracha sauce
· 20 ml Minced garlic
· 15 ml Chopped green onions
· 15 ml Chopped cilantro
· 15 ml Fresh lime juice
· 120 ml Grated parmesan cheese

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 204°C (200 degrees C). Place oysters in a baking pan, flat-side up.
2. Stir butter, sriracha sauce, garlic, green onions, cilantro, and lime juice together in a bowl.

3. Bake oysters in the preheated oven until they open slightly, about 10 minutes.
4. Remove the top shell of the oysters using a towel and an oyster knife, being careful not to spill the liquor. Gently cut the muscles that attach the oysters to the shell.
5. Divide the butter mixture among the oysters, placing a dollop on each. Sprinkle Parmesan cheese on top.
6. Set oven rack about 6 inches from the heat source and preheat the oven's broiler.
7. Broil oysters in the preheated oven until butter melts and Parmesan cheese is golden brown, about 5 minutes.

6. Stir in Parmesan cheese, 1 tablespoon tarragon, and pepper. Return scallops to the cheese sauce, stir, and reheat briefly.
7. Remove top of the puff pastry shell, and fill with cheesy scallops, overflowing slightly to serve. Garnish with additional fresh tarragon if you like.

Cheesy Tomato Beans With Broccoli Rabe 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 4 Garlic cloves
· 45 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for serving
· 4 Oil-packed anchovy fillets
· 30 ml . double-concentrated tomato paste
· 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes — plus more for serving
· 1 bunch Broccoli rabe — trimmed, cut into 3" pieces
· Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
· 1 14 -oz. can whole peeled tomatoes — drained, tomatoes torn into pieces, liquid reserved
· 2 15 -oz. cans cannellini (white kidney) or other white beans — rinsed
· 240 ml Shredded low-moisture mozzarella
· Finely grated parmesan and toasted country-style bread — for serving

METHOD

1. Cook garlic and 3 Tbsp. oil in a large ovenproof skillet over medium, reducing heat as needed to keep garlic from burning, until golden brown, 6–8 minutes. Add anchovies, tomato paste, and ½ tsp. red pepper flakes.
2. Cook, stirring with a wooden spoon, until tomato paste is darkened in color and anchovies are dissolved into mixture, about 2 minutes.
3. Add broccoli rabe to skillet and stir to coat; season with salt and pepper. Cook until broccoli rabe leaves are wilted and stems begin to soften, 6–8 minutes. Mash garlic cloves with spoon and stir into broccoli rabe to incorporate. Add tomato pieces and cook until broccoli ra...
4. Heat broiler. Evenly scatter mozzarella over bean mixture and transfer skillet to oven. Broil until cheese is melted, bubbling, and browned in spots, about 2 minutes (watch carefully so cheese doesn't burn).
5. Serve beans, topped with Parmesan and more oil and red pepper flakes, with toast alongside for dipping.

Cheesy Tuna And Zucchini Noodle Casserole

American · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

· 2 medium Zucchini — spiralized

- 30 ml Thinly sliced basil
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 6 slice French bread
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 2 Swordfish steaks
- 5 ml Grapeseed oil

METHOD

1. Stir tomatoes, balsamic vinegar, extra virgin olive oil, basil, cayenne pepper, salt, and black pepper together in a bowl. Let sit until flavors blend, at least 30 minutes.
2. Preheat an outdoor grill for medium-high heat and lightly oil the grate. Brush bread slices with olive oil.
3. Cook bread slices on the preheated grill until browned and crispy, 2 to 3 minutes per side.
4. Brush swordfish steaks with grapeseed oil and season with salt and black pepper.
5. Cook swordfish steaks on the preheated grill until fish flakes easily with a fork, about 4 minutes per side.
6. Divide bread slices between two plates and top each plate with 1 swordfish steak. Spoon 1/2 of the cherry tomato mixture over each steak.

Chef John's Lobster Mac And Cheese 2 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 10 ml Vegetable oil
- 2 Lobster tails — split in half lengthwise and deveined
- 30 ml Butter
- 20 ml All-purpose flour
- 360 ml Cold milk
- 1 ml Paprika
- 1 pinch Ground nutmeg
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper — or to taste
- 2.5 ml Salt
- 3 drop Worcestershire sauce — or to taste
- 125 g Grated sharp white cheddar cheese
- 30 g Grated gruyere cheese
- 240 ml Elbow macaroni
- 2.5 ml Fresh thyme leaves
- 45 ml Panko bread crumbs
- 15 ml Melted butter
- 30 ml Grated parmesan cheese

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 204°C (200 degrees C). Butter two gratin dishes.

2. Heat oil in a skillet over high heat. Cook lobster tails in skillet until slightly golden and about halfway cooked through, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer tails to a plate to rest. When cool enough to handle, remove lobster meat from shells and chop meat. Reserve shells.
3. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in the same skillet over medium heat. Whisk in flour; cook and stir until a paste forms and raw flour taste cooks off, 1 to 2 minutes. Add cold milk to flour mixture; whisk until completely incorporated. Bring to a simmer; reduce heat to low, and stir...
4. Stir Cheddar cheese and Gruyere cheese into milk mixture until cheese is melted. Remove from heat and stir Worcestershire sauce into cheese sauce.
5. Bring a large pot of water with reserved lobster shells and a pinch of salt to a boil. Cook elbow macaroni in the boiling water, stirring occasionally, until cooked through but firm to the bite, about 8 minutes. Remove lobster shells and set aside, or discard. Drain pasta.
6. Stir macaroni into cheese sauce with thyme leaves. Divide macaroni mixture between the two prepared gratin dishes. Top macaroni with chopped lobster meat, poking meat down into the macaroni mixture with a fork.
7. Stir bread crumbs and melted butter together in a bowl. Add Parmesan cheese and stir. Top each gratin dish with bread crumb mixture.
8. Bake in the preheated oven until golden and bubbly, 15 to 20 minutes.

Chef John's Manhattan Clam Chowder

American · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 2 can Whole baby clams — undrained
- 2 can Chopped clams — undrained
- 4 strip Thick-cut bacon — cut into 1/2-inch pieces
- 240 ml Diced yellow onion
- 3 clove Garlic — minced
- Kosher salt to taste
- 30 ml Tomato paste
- 30 ml All-purpose flour
- 240 ml Bottled clam juice
- 480 ml Chicken broth
- 2 medium Carrots — cut into 1/2 inch pieces
- 2 Ribs celery — sliced into 1/2-inch pieces
- 120 ml Diced italian tomatoes
- Freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 3 pinch Cayenne pepper
- 720 ml Peeled — diced Yukon Gold potatoes
- 10 ml Minced fresh tarragon
- 30 ml Chopped fresh italian parsley

METHOD

1. Drain baby and chopped clams. Reserve liquid in the refrigerator until needed and set clams aside.
2. Place bacon in a soup pot over medium-high heat; cook and stir until well-browned and almost crispy, 7 to 10 minutes. Add onion, garlic, and a pinch of salt; cook and stir until onions start to soften and turn translucent, 5 to 7 minutes.
3. Add tomato paste; cook and stir for 2 minutes. Don't worry if some of the tomato paste sticks to the bottom of the pot; we want that to happen. Sprinkle in flour; cook and stir for 2 to 3 minutes.
4. Dump in reserved clam juice plus bottled clam juice and chicken broth. Stir with a spatula, scraping the bottom of the pot to deglaze any caramelization.
5. Add carrots, celery, clams, diced tomatoes, pepper, and cayenne; stir and bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer for 15 to 20 minutes, skimming off some bacon fat if desired.
6. Add diced potatoes and cook until tender but not falling apart, about 20 minutes. Taste and adjust for salt, if needed. Stir in fresh tarragon and parsley just before serving.

Southern · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Colossal shrimp
- 20 ml Vegetable oil
- 15 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 1 ml Smoked paprika
- 0.5 ml Cayenne pepper
- 0.5 ml Seafood seasoning
- 15 ml Butter
- 480 ml Chicken stock
- Lemon — juiced
- 30 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 2 dash Hot sauce — or to taste
- 45 ml Cold butter
- 6 clove Garlic — minced
- 15 ml Minced fresh rosemary
- 1 sprig Fresh rosemary for garnish

METHOD

1. Peel shrimp and place into a mixing bowl; set shrimp shells aside in a saucepan.
2. Drizzle vegetable oil over shrimp and season with black pepper, smoked paprika, cayenne pepper, and seafood seasoning. Mix shrimp to coat with spices and cover bowl with plastic wrap; refrigerate shrimp to absorb flavors, at least 1 hour.
3. Place reserved shrimp shells in saucepan over medium-high heat with 1 tablespoon butter; cook and stir until shells are pink and fragrant, 1 to 2 minutes. Pour in chicken stock, bring to a boil, and reduce heat to low; simmer until shrimp shells have given off their flavor, 20...
4. Strain shrimp stock through a fine mesh strainer into a bowl and add lemon juice, Worcestershire sauce, and hot sauce. Stir to combine.
5. Place a large skillet over high heat until pan is very hot; sear shrimp in the very hot, dry pan until shrimp are browned, about 1 minute per side.
6. Stir 3 tablespoons cold butter, garlic, and minced rosemary into shrimp; cook and stir until shrimp are opaque in the middle and garlic is fragrant, 1 minute. Pour in shrimp stock.
7. Transfer shrimp from skillet to a bowl, using a slotted spoon; reserve sauce in skillet. Bring sauce to a boil and cook until reduced slightly, about 5 minutes. Adjust seasoning to taste. Return shrimp to pan, reduce heat to low, and warm through, about 1 minute. Serve shrimp ...

Chef John's Salmon Loaf

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Salted butter
- 80 ml Diced onion
- 2 can Red salmon — drained
- 120 ml Finely crushed saltine cracker crumbs
- 10 ml Rice vinegar
- 2.5 ml Kosher salt
- 1 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 0.5 ml Cayenne pepper
- 3 large Eggs

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 163°C (165 degrees C). Generously butter a loaf pan.
2. Melt 1/4 cup butter in a skillet over medium heat until bubbling. Add onion; cook and stir for 1 minute. Turn off the heat; cool.
3. Place salmon in a large bowl; mash with a fork. Add cracker crumbs, vinegar, salt, Worcestershire sauce, cayenne pepper, and onion mixture; mix and mash with a spatula or spoon until smooth.
4. Separate eggs, adding yolks to salmon mixture and adding whites to a clean glass, metal, or ceramic bowl. Stir egg yolks into salmon mixture until well combined.
5. Whisk egg whites to medium stiff peaks; gently fold into salmon mixture in 2 additions.
6. Transfer salmon mixture into the prepared pan. Smooth top with a spatula to even out; shake and tap the pan to remove any air bubbles.
7. Bake in the center of the preheated oven until a toothpick inserted into center comes out clean, about 45 minutes. Rest for 5 minutes, then carefully invert loaf onto a cutting board. Slice and serve.

7. Ladle grits into a bowl; top with shrimp and sauce.

Chef John's Shrimp Cocktail 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 3 Quarts cold water
- 0.25 Onion — sliced
- 0.5 Lemon
- 2 clove Garlic — peeled and bruised
- 2 sprig Fresh tarragon
- 15 ml Seafood seasoning
- 5 ml Whole black peppercorns
- 1 Bay leaf
- 120 ml Ketchup
- 60 ml Chili sauce
- 60 ml Prepared horseradish
- 5 ml Lemon juice
- 5 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 3 drop Hot sauce — or to taste
- 1 pinch Salt
- 900 g Shell-on deveined jumbo shrimp

METHOD

1. For the poaching liquid: Stir water, onion, lemon, garlic, tarragon, seafood seasoning, peppercorns, and bay leaf together in a large pot; bring to a simmer and cook until flavors blend, about 15 minutes.
2. For the cocktail sauce: Whisk ketchup, chili sauce, horseradish, lemon juice, Worcestershire sauce, hot sauce, and salt together in a bowl; refrigerate until chilled, at least 15 minutes.
3. For the shrimp: Bring poaching liquid to a rapid boil. Cook shrimp in the boiling liquid until they are bright pink on the outside and the meat is no longer transparent in the center, about 5 minutes.

Chef John's Shrimp Tempura

Japanese · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 12 large Shrimp — peeled and deveined
- Canola oil for frying
- 60 ml Self-rising flour
- 60 ml Potato starch
- 2.5 ml Kosher salt
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper
- 120 ml Cold sparkling water
- 120 ml Prepared dashi stock
- 60 ml Mirin
- 60 ml Soy sauce
- 1 pinch White sugar — or to taste
- Grated daikon radish

METHOD

1. Dry peeled and deveined shrimp on paper towels. Flip each shrimp over and make shallow cuts through to make sure they won't curl up when frying. Refrigerate until needed.
2. Heat oil in a deep fryer to 191°C (190 degrees C).
3. Combine self-rising flour, potato starch, salt, and cayenne in a bowl with a whisk. Add cold water and whisk until flour disappears and a crepe-like batter is achieved. Coat shrimp in batter.
4. Fry shrimp in small batches, no more than 6 at a time, making sure they don't stick together, until golden brown and crisp, about 3 minutes. Drain on paper towels.
5. Stir together dashi broth, mirin, soy sauce, and sugar for sauce. Grate daikon radish over. Taste and adjust as needed.
6. Serve shrimp with dipping sauce.

Chef John's Shrimp Étouffée 4 servings

Southern · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 3.5 ml Paprika
- 1 ml Ground thyme
- 1 ml Dried oregano
- 1 ml Cayenne pepper
- 1 ml Garlic powder
- 1 ml Onion powder
- 1 ml White pepper
- 1 ml Ground black pepper
- 900 g Shrimp
- 2.5 ml Salt
- 15 ml Vegetable oil
- 420 ml Chicken stock — or as needed
- 45 ml Butter
- 80 ml Diced onion
- 80 ml Diced green bell pepper
- 80 ml Thinly sliced celery
- 30 ml All-purpose flour
- 120 ml Diced tomatoes
- 2.5 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 1 dash Hot sauce — or more to taste
- Salt to taste
- 60 ml Sliced green onions
- Cayenne pepper for garnish
- 375 g Cooked rice — or to taste

METHOD

1. For the spice blend: Whisk paprika, thyme, oregano, cayenne, garlic powder, onion powder, white pepper, and black pepper together in a small bowl.
2. For the étouffée: Drain shrimp in a colander for at least 15 minutes. Transfer to a bowl lined with paper towels and dry shrimp for about 3 minutes. Remove paper towels from the bowl. Season shrimp with salt and 1 teaspoon spice blend; toss to coat.
3. Heat oil in a large heavy skillet over high heat until oil is smoking. Cook shrimp in hot oil without stirring for 1 minute; stir, and cook 1 minute more.
4. Transfer shrimp to a large bowl. Let stand until juice collects in the bowl. Strain shrimp juices into chicken stock to total 2 cups, adding more chicken stock if necessary. Set aside.
5. Melt butter in the same skillet over medium heat until butter begins to turn tan at the edges. Sauté onion, bell pepper, and celery in hot butter until softened, about 5 minutes. Stir in remaining spice blend.
6. Sprinkle flour into vegetable mixture and sauté until combined, 3 to 4 minutes. Stir in tomatoes; cook until tomato juices begin to brown on the bottom of the pan, about 3 minutes. Whisk in chicken stock mixture, stirring until smooth. Bring to a simmer and cook until slightly...
7. Stir shrimp into étouffée sauce; let simmer until shrimp are cooked all the way through and no longer translucent, about 1 minute.
8. Garnish with green onions and a dusting of cayenne pepper. Pour over rice in large, shallow bowls.

Chicken And Shrimp Carbonara 8 servings

Italian · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Olive oil
- 450 g Boneless — skinless chicken breast halves
- 30 ml Minced garlic
- 30 ml Italian seasoning
- 450 g Large shrimp
- 8 slice Smoked bacon — diced
- 1 pkg Linguine pasta
- 360 ml Heavy whipping cream
- 150 g Grated parmesan cheese
- 4 large Egg yolks
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 1 medium Onion — diced
- 60 ml Sauvignon blanc wine

METHOD

1. Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add chicken, 1 tablespoon garlic, and 1 tablespoon Italian seasoning; cook and stir until chicken is no longer pink in the center and the juices run clear, 6 to 8 minutes. Transfer to a bowl.
2. Heat 1 tablespoon oil and 1 tablespoon garlic in the same skillet until fragrant, about 1 minute. Add shrimp and cook until bright pink on the outside and the meat is opaque, 2 to 3 minutes per side. Transfer to the bowl with chicken.
3. Cook bacon in the same skillet until just crispy (not crunchy), about 6 minutes. Drain on a paper towel-lined plate; leave grease in the skillet.
4. Bring a large pot of lightly salted water to a boil. Add linguine and remaining 2 tablespoons oil; cook until tender yet firm to the bite, about 11 minutes. Drain and keep warm.
5. Mix cream, Parmesan cheese, egg yolks, remaining 1 tablespoon Italian seasoning, salt, and pepper together in a bowl.
6. Sauté onion in bacon grease over medium heat until translucent, about 5 minutes. Add wine, increase the heat, and bring to a boil.
7. Add cream mixture, reduce the heat, and simmer until sauce begins to thicken, 3 to 5 minutes. Stir in chicken, bacon, and shrimp until coated, then serve over linguine.

1. Combine shallots and red chile peppers in a food processor; pulse until a very fine paste forms.
2. Crack the crab claws and the big legs slightly.
3. Heat oil in a wok or large skillet over medium-high heat until very hot; add crabs and cook until shells change color and meat is cooked through, about 10 minutes. Transfer crabs to a plate, reserving oil in the wok.
4. Reduce heat under wok to medium-low and add chile pepper paste; cook and stir until fragrant, 1 to 2 minutes. Add garlic and ginger. Whisk ketchup, vinegar, and sugar together in a bowl; pour over garlic-ginger mixture and stir until sauce is well mixed.
5. Return crab to sauce in the wok; cook and stir for 3 minutes more, seasoning with salt and pepper. Pour eggs into wok while continuously stirring to create strands in the sauce. Add water if sauce gets too dry. Remove wok from heat and garnish crabs with cilantro.

Chile-lime Clams With Tomatoes And Grilled Bread 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 90 ml Unsalted butter — cut into pieces
- 2 large Shallots — chopped
- 4 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 15 ml Tomato paste
- 240 ml Beer
- 240 ml Cherry tomatoes
- 1 15.5 -ounce can chickpeas — rinsed

- 15 ml Fresh lime juice
- 4 Thick slices country-style bread
- 30 ml Olive oil
- Kosher salt
- 120 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems
- Lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for medium, indirect heat (for a gas grill, leave one or two burners off; for a charcoal grill, bank coals on one side of grill). Place a large cast-iron skillet on grill over direct heat (move it around to cooler part of grill as you cook if needed) and melt 4...
2. While the clams are cooking on the grill, drizzle bread with oil and season lightly with salt. Grill until golden brown and crisp, about 2 minutes per side.
3. Transfer toast to plates and spoon clam mixture over; top with cilantro. Serve with lime wedges for squeezing over.

Chile-marinated Squid Toasts 8 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 240 ml Olive oil
- 60 ml Finely chopped parsley
- 15 ml Fresh lime juice
- 15 ml Flaky sea salt
- 5 ml Ground chiles de árbol or cayenne pepper
- 450 g Medium squid — about 12
- 2 large Egg yolks
- 2 small Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 80 ml Vegetable oil
- 80 ml Olive oil — plus more for drizzling
- 30 ml Fresh lime juice
- Kosher salt
- 8 0.5 -inch-thick slices country-style bread
- Finely chopped parsley and lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Whisk garlic, oil, parsley, lime juice, salt, and ground chiles de árbol in a small bowl to combine and transfer to a resealable plastic bag and add squid. Chill at least 4 hours and up to 12 hours.
2. Whisk egg yolks and garlic in a medium bowl to combine. Combine vegetable oil and ■ cup olive oil in a large measuring cup and, whisking constantly, gradually drizzle into yolk mixture; whisk until thickened and emulsified. Stir in lime juice; season with salt.
3. Remove squid from marinade and pat dry with paper towels. Let sit until room temperature, about 30 minutes.
4. Prepare a grill for high heat. Grill squid until just charred, about 1 minute per side. Transfer to a cutting board and let cool slightly, then slice bodies into rings and halve tentacles.
5. Drizzle bread with olive oil and grill until lightly charred, about 30 seconds per side. Spread aioli over grilled bread and top with squid and parsley; serve with lime wedges for squeezing over.

Clam Chowder Shell Pasta

Allrecipes · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

· 4 slice Bacon — cut into 1/4-inch pieces
· 15 ml Butter
· 120 ml Diced onion
· 1 ml Kosher salt
· 15 ml All-purpose flour
· 1 can Whole clams
· 1 can Minced clams
· 1 bottle Clam juice
· 1 pkg Shell pasta
· 120 ml Peeled
· 80 ml Diced celery
· 1 sprig Fresh tarragon
· 1 pinch Cayenne pepper — or to taste
· 120 ml Heavy cream
· 15 ml Finely chopped italian parsley
· 30 ml Freshly grated parmigiano-reggiano cheese

METHOD

1. Place bacon in a large skillet and cook over medium heat, turning occasionally, until crisp, about 10 to 12 minutes. Pour bacon and grease into a strainer set over a bowl to let the grease drain out. Reserve bacon until needed and discard grease or set aside for another use.
2. Place the skillet back over medium heat and add butter, onion, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Cook and stir until onion starts to soften and turn translucent, about 5 minutes. Add flour and cook and stir for about 1 minute to create a roux.
3. Drain both cans clams and set clams aside for later.
4. Pour clam juice from the cans and the bottle into the skillet; whisk to scrape off any bits from the bottom of the skillet. Raise heat to medium-high and let come to a simmer.
5. While the clam juice is coming to a simmer, bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Add shells and cook, stirring occasionally, until tender yet firm to the bite, 9 to 12 minutes.

6. Add potatoes, celery, tarragon, and cayenne to the simmering clam juice mixture. Let simmer for 5 minutes. Reduce heat to medium-low and add the reserved clams, cream, and all but 1 tablespoon of the reserved bacon. Simmer gently for another 10 minutes, then remove and discard...
7. Drain pasta well and add to the clam sauce; mix until well combined. Turn off the heat and let sit for 1 minute.
8. Stir in parsley and Parmesan cheese. Taste and adjust salt if necessary.
9. Ladle into warm bowls. Sprinkle with more Parmesan, crumbled bacon, and parsley.

Clams Arrabbiata 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 45 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 55 g . thinly sliced pancetta (italian bacon) — chopped
- 1 medium Onion — finely chopped
- 4 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 4 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 1 28 -oz. can whole peeled tomatoes
- 24 Littleneck clams — scrubbed
- 125 g . ditalini — about 1 cup
- Handful of torn basil leaves
- Country-style bread — for serving

METHOD

1. Cook oil and pancetta in a medium Dutch oven over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until pancetta begins to crisp, about 5 minutes. Add onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until softened but not browned, 6–8 minutes. Add garlic and cook, stirring occasionally, until soft...
2. Add tomatoes, crushing with your hands as you go; increase heat to medium-high. Bring to a simmer and cook, stirring often, until tomato liquid is reduced by half and tomatoes take on a jammy consistency, 12–15 minutes. Add clams and 2 cups water. Cover pot and cook, stirring ...
3. Add ditalini to pot and cook, stirring often (pasta will want to settle and stick to the bottom of the pot), until al dente, 8–10 minutes. Add clams back to pot.
4. Ladle clams and sauce among bowls; top with basil. Serve with bread alongside for dipping.

Clams In White Bean Sauce 4 servings

Mediterranean · Bon Appetit · Pescatarian, Dairy-Free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 15 -ounce can baby lima or cannellini beans or other medium white beans — rinsed
- 60 ml Olive oil — plus more for drizzling
- Kosher salt
- Freshly ground pepper
- 1 Fennel bulb
- 3 Garlic cloves
- 1 sprig Rosemary
- 1 Lemon
- Handful of parsley leaves
- 36 Littleneck or manila clams — scrubbed
- 4 Thick slices country-style bread — toasted

METHOD

1. Toss beans in a medium bowl with a drizzle of oil; season with salt and pepper. Set aside.
2. Halve fennel and remove fronds (don’t toss the fronds!). Thinly slice one half of fennel and transfer to a medium bowl along with fronds. Place a damp paper towel directly on fennel to help prevent browning and set aside. Finely chop remaining half of fennel, then thinly slice...
3. Heat ¼ cup oil in a large heavy pot over medium. Add chopped fennel, garlic, and rosemary sprig and cook, stirring often, until fennel is translucent and tender but still has some bite, about 5 minutes.
4. While that’s happening, remove 2 wide strips of zest from lemon with a vegetable peeler. Halve lemon and pick out seeds. Coarsely chop parsley.
5. Add clams and lemon zest to pot, squeeze in juice from a lemon half, cover pot, and cook until some clams start to open, 5–7 minutes. Toss and stir clams; use a slotted spoon to transfer any open ones to a medium bowl. Cover pot and cook until remaining clams open, checking sp...
6. Add reserved seasoned beans to pot and stir to combine; loosen sauce with water if it looks too tight. Return clams to pot, add half of parsley, and toss well.
7. Add remaining parsley to bowl with reserved sliced fennel and squeeze remaining lemon half over. Season fennel-herb salad with salt and pepper and toss to coat. Drizzle with a very small amount of oil and toss again.
8. Serve clams topped with salad and toasted bread for dipping into sauce.

Clams With Soba 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 36 Littleneck clams — scrubbed (about 4 lb. total)
- 8 Garlic cloves
- 1 2 " piece ginger — peeled
- 10 Scallions — divided
- 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 175 g . dried soba noodles
- 15 ml . black sesame seeds
- 240 ml Dry sake
- 70 g White miso
- 55 g (0.5 stick) unsalted butter — cut into pieces

METHOD

1. Fill a large bowl with cool water and add a handful of salt, swishing with your hands to dissolve salt. Place clams in a colander, lower into bowl of salted water, and let sit 15 minutes to get rid of any grit. Drain and rinse clams, then repeat with fresh cool water and salt.
2. If a lot of grit remains after the second round, repeat once more. Set drained clams aside.

3. Meanwhile, thinly slice garlic, ginger, and 8 scallions. Heat oil in a medium pot over medium-low. Add garlic, ginger, sliced scallions, and a small pinch of salt and cook, stirring occasionally, until tender but no color has developed, 6–8 minutes.
4. Cook soba in a large pot of boiling water, stirring occasionally, according to package directions. Drain and rinse under cool water, gently tossing to get rid of any excess starch. Drain well and transfer to a medium bowl. Add sesame seeds and toss to combine. Divide soba amon...
5. Add sake and clams to garlic mixture, increase heat to high, and cover with a tight-fitting lid. Steam clams, covered and occasionally shaking pan back and forth just like when you pop popcorn, 5 minutes. Uncover pot and transfer opened clams among serving bowls, dividing even...
6. Meanwhile, thinly slice remaining 2 scallions on a diagonal and reserve for garnish.
7. Whisk miso into clam broth until dissolved. Add 2½ cups water and bring to a boil. Taste and add more water to broth if it's too salty. Whisk in butter until combined.
8. Divide broth among bowls. Garnish with reserved scallions.
9. Do Ahead: Clams can be soaked and cleaned 12 hours ahead. Chill on a damp towel-lined baking sheet.

Clams With Tomato Broth 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

· 0.5 lemon
· 5 Garlic cloves — 1 whole, 4 thinly sliced
· 120 ml Mayonnaise
· Kosher salt
· 60 ml Plus 3 tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil
· 2 large Shallots — thinly sliced
· 1 Red chile (such as holland or fresno) — thinly sliced, or 0.5 tsp. crushed red pepper flakes
· 30 ml . tomato paste
· 480 ml Cherry tomatoes
· 240 ml Dry white wine
· 36 Littleneck clams — scrubbed
· 90 ml . unsalted butter — cut into pieces
· 45 ml . finely chopped chives
· 4 Thick slices country-style bread

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for medium heat. Finely grate zest from lemon half into a small bowl, then squeeze in juice. Finely grate whole garlic clove into bowl and mix in mayonnaise. Season garlic mayo with salt and set aside.
2. Place a large cast-iron skillet on grill and heat ¼ cup oil in skillet. Add sliced garlic, shallots, and chile and cook, stirring often, until just softened, about 2 minutes. Add tomato paste and cook, stirring often, until paste darkens slightly, about 1 minute. Add tomatoes ...
3. Add clams and butter to skillet and cover (if you don't have a lid that fits, use a sheet of foil). Cook until clams have opened, 6–10 minutes, depending on size of clams and heat level. Remove skillet from grill; discard any clams that don't open. Sprinkle with chives.
4. Meanwhile, drizzle bread with remaining 3 Tbsp. oil and season lightly with salt. Grill until golden brown and crisp, about 3 minutes per side.
5. Serve clams with toasted bread and reserved garlic mayo.

· Flat-leaf parsley leaves — for serving
· Toasted country bread — rubbed with garlic and olive oil (for serving)

METHOD

1. Heat oil in a large heavy pot over medium heat. Add onion and cook, stirring occasionally, until softened, 8–10 minutes. Add garlic, basil, oregano, and red pepper flakes; stir until fragrant, about 3 minutes. Remove pot from heat and add wine. Return pot to heat, bring to a b...
2. Cook, stirring occasionally, until thickened, 15–20 minutes. Add clam juice, parsley, bay leaves, and 8 cups water; season with salt and pepper. Bring to a boil, reduce heat, and simmer until flavors meld, 10–15 minutes more. Discard parsley sprigs and bay leaves.
3. DO AHEAD: Broth can be made 2 days ahead. Let cool slightly; chill until cold. Cover and keep chilled. Reheat before continuing.
4. Heat oil in a large heavy pot over medium heat. Add shallot; stir often until softened, about 3 minutes. Add garlic; stir until fragrant, about 1 minute. Remove from heat; add mussels and wine. Set over medium-high heat, cover, and cook, stirring occasionally, until shells ope...
5. Add reserved broth; bring to a simmer. Add fish and shrimp. Cover; cook just until opaque, about 4 minutes. Stir in butter; season with salt and pepper. Divide among bowls; top with parsley. Serve with toast.

Clean-out-the-fridge Kimchi 1 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

· 1 head Of napa cabbage (about 2 lb.) — outer leaves removed, cut into 2" pieces
· 60 g Diamond crystal or 2 tbsp. plus 2 tsp. morton kosher salt
· 1 2 " piece ginger — peeled, finely grated
· 5 Garlic cloves — finely grated
· 30 ml . fish sauce
· 15 ml . soy sauce
· 6 g Sugar
· 50 ml Gochugaru (coarse korean red pepper powder) or other mild red pepper flakes
· 2 Scallions — cut into 2" pieces
· 450 g . mixed firm vegetables (such as radishes — carrots, cauliflower, fennel, green beans, and/or turnips), cut into bite-size pieces
· Three 1-pint glass jars or two 1-qt. glass jars

METHOD

1. Place cabbage in a large bowl and sprinkle salt over. Massage into leaves with your hands until cabbage starts to release its liquid. Pour in cold water to cover and let cabbage soak 1 hour.
2. Drain cabbage, reserving 2 cups brining liquid. Rinse cabbage in 3 changes of water, then drain well and transfer back to bowl.
3. Mix ginger, garlic, fish sauce, soy sauce, and sugar in a small bowl to form a smooth paste. Stir in gochugaru (use 2 Tbsp. for a mild kimchi and up to 5 Tbsp. for an extra-spicy one).
4. Add paste, scallions, and mixed vegetables to bowl with cabbage. Toss everything together with your hands (foodsafe gloves are welcome here) until cabbage and vegetables are evenly coated with paste.
5. Tightly pack kimchi into jars, pressing down firmly to eliminate air bubbles and release more liquid from vegetables, leaving 1" headspace at the top. If there isn't enough liquid to completely submerge vegetables, top off with reserved cabbage brine. Cover jars tightly with l...

Cocoa-orange Catfish 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml . diamond crystal or 3 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt
- 15 ml . unsweetened cocoa powder
- 10 ml . benne seeds or sesame seeds
- 10 ml . maple sugar or light brown sugar
- 2.5 ml Caraway seeds
- 1 ml Dried bird chile flakes or other crushed red pepper flakes
- 2 medium Oranges
- 900 g . catfish or other skinless whitefish fillets
- 75 ml . extra-virgin olive oil

METHOD

1. Mix salt, cocoa powder, benne seeds, maple sugar, caraway seeds, and chile flakes in a large bowl until well combined. Do Ahead: Cocoa rub can be made 2 weeks ahead. Store airtight at room temperature.
2. Place a rack in top of oven; preheat to 400°. Cut oranges into 6 rounds each and set aside.
3. Rinse catfish and pat dry with paper towels. Place fillets on a rimmed baking sheet and sprinkle liberally on both sides with rub. Drizzle with oil, then arrange orange slices on top of fillets.
4. Roast catfish until flesh flakes easily when gently pressed with your finger, 7–9 minutes. (For thicker varieties of fish, increase the cooking time to 10–12 minutes.)
5. To serve, transfer orange slices to a platter and arrange fish on top.

Coconut Broth Clams 4 servings

Asian · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 900 g Littleneck clams — or 1 0.5 pounds manila clams
- Cold water — for soaking
- 45 ml Sea salt
- 1 Sourdough baguette
- Olive oil — for brushing
- Sea salt — to taste
- 15 ml Coconut oil
- 0.5 medium Red onion — thinly sliced
- 2 large Stalks lemongrass
- 45 ml Minced fresh ginger
- 4 clove Garlic — minced
- 5 ml Red pepper flakes
- 240 ml Dry white wine
- 15 ml Brown sugar
- 15 ml Fish sauce
- 480 ml Vegetable broth — or chicken broth
- 375 g Full-fat coconut milk
- Thinly sliced scallion
- Chopped fresh cilantro

METHOD

1. Pick through the clams and discard any that are open and do not close when firmly tapped–these clams are dead and should not be eaten. Add the rest to a colander.
2. Rinse and scrub the remaining live clams to remove any sand or barnacles from the shells.
3. Fill a bowl large enough to fit the colander with cold water and 3-4 tablespoons of salt for every 6 cups (1.5 liters) of water. Place the colander in the bowl of salt water and soak the clams for at least 1 hour, up to overnight, so they release any grit and sand. The colande...
4. Transfer the clams in the colander to another large bowl of fresh water to desalt for 15-30 minutes.
5. Grill the bread: Slice the sourdough baguette into ½-inch (1 cm) pieces.
6. Brush each slice with olive oil and sprinkle with salt.
7. Toast the bread on a grill pan over medium-high heat until golden brown and crusty, about 2 minutes per side. Set aside.
8. Make the coconut broth: Melt the coconut oil in a wok or large pan over medium heat. Add the red onion and cook until it starts to become translucent, about 3 minutes.
9. Firmly tap the lemongrass stalks with a wooden spoon to bruise, which helps release their aroma and flavor during cooking. Trim the ends, then slice into approximately 4-inch (10 cm) pieces.
10. Add the lemongrass to the wok, along with the ginger, garlic, and red pepper flakes. Cook until fragrant, about 3 minutes.
11. Carefully pour in the white wine and stir to deglaze the pan. Bring to a simmer and cook until reduced by half, about 5 minutes.
12. Add the brown sugar, fish sauce, vegetable broth, and coconut milk. Bring to a boil.
13. Add the clams, return to a boil, and cook for 5-8 minutes, or until all of the clams are fully opened. If any clams remain closed, discard them.
14. Discard the lemongrass stalks and divide the clams and broth between serving bowls. Garnish with scallions and cilantro and serve with the grilled bread for dipping.
15. Enjoy!

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Skinless — boneless cod or halibut fillets
- 10 g Kosher salt — divided, plus more
- 75 ml . ghee or unsalted butter — divided
- 2 medium Leeks — white and pale green parts only, halved lengthwise, thinly sliced crosswise
- 6 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 1 3 " piece ginger — peeled, cut into matchsticks
- 4 ml Ground turmeric
- 4 ml Ground coriander
- 2.5 ml Ground cardamom
- 1 Serrano chile — thinly sliced
- 350 g . baby yukon gold or red potatoes — halved
- 2 13.5 -oz. cans unsweetened coconut milk
- 2 Celery stalks — thinly sliced, plus leaves for serving (optional)
- 360 ml Oyster crackers
- 5 ml . paprika
- 2 Limes — divided

METHOD

1. Season cod all over with 1½ tsp. salt; set aside. Heat 3 Tbsp. ghee in a medium Dutch oven over medium. Cook leeks, garlic, and ginger, stirring occasionally, until softened but not browned, about 3 minutes. Add turmeric, coriander, and cardamom and cook, stirring, until fragr...
2. Carefully nestle reserved fish into pot, spoon some broth over, and cover, leaving lid slightly askew. Cook at a bare simmer 4 minutes, then stir in celery. Cook until fish is opaque and flakes easily, about 5 minutes. Taste chowder and season with more salt if needed.
3. Meanwhile, heat remaining 2 Tbsp. ghee in a small skillet over medium-low. Add crackers and stir well to coat. Cook, stirring often, until golden brown, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat and add paprika; toss to evenly coat.
4. Slice 1 lime in half and squeeze juice into chowder. Taste and season with more salt if needed. Ladle into bowls, breaking fish into large pieces. Scatter celery leaves over chowder if using and top with crackers. Slice remaining lime into wedges and serve alongside.

- 45 ml . vegetable oil — divided
- 20 g Unsweetened shredded coconut
- Short-grain or jasmine rice — for serving

METHOD

1. Drain one 14-oz. block extra-firm tofu and slice ½" thick. Arrange in a single layer on a kitchen towel set on a rimmed baking sheet or dry cutting board. Season lightly with kosher salt. Wrap towel over tofu like you're tucking it in and press to expel some moisture. Set aside.
2. Mix 1 Tbsp. plus 1½ tsp. sambal oelek, 1 Tbsp. plus 1½ tsp. soy sauce or tamari, 2 tsp. light or dark brown sugar, 1 tsp. fish sauce (if using), and 1 Tbsp. water in a small bowl to combine. Cut 1 lime in half; squeeze juice from 1 half into sambal mixture and stir again; set ...
3. Trim 8 oz. green beans and cut into ¼" pieces. Peel 2 garlic cloves and coarsely chop. Then peel one 1" piece ginger and coarsely chop. Very coarsely chop basil leaves from 1 bunch basil to measure 1 loosely packed cup. Set green beans, garlic, ginger, and basil aside.
4. Heat 2 Tbsp. vegetable oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Unwrap reserved tofu and arrange in pan in a single layer. Cook, undisturbed, until golden brown underneath, about 4 minutes. Turn over and cook until other sides are golden brown, about 4 minutes. Sprink...
5. Heat remaining 1 Tbsp. vegetable oil over medium-high. Add reserved green beans and toss to coat; season lightly with salt. Cook, stirring, 30 seconds. Reduce heat to medium, add 1 Tbsp. water, and cover pan. Cook until beans are crisp-tender, about 3 minutes. Uncover pan and...
6. Divide short-grain or jasmine rice among bowls; top with stir-fry. Serve with reserved lime wedges for squeezing over.

Coconut-clam Stock 3 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Virgin coconut oil or vegetable oil
- 1 medium Onion — coarsely chopped
- 1 Fennel bulb — trimmed, coarsely chopped
- 1 Lemongrass stalk — tough outer layers removed, lightly smashed, coarsely chopped
- 2 Bay leaves
- 6 Cherrystone or other large hard-shell clams — scrubbed
- 240 ml Dry white wine
- 1 13.5 -ounce can unsweetened coconut milk
- Kosher salt

METHOD

1. Heat oil in a large pot over medium-low. Add onion, fennel, lemongrass, and bay leaves. Cover and cook, checking and stirring halfway through to ensure no browning occurs, until softened, 8–10 minutes. (The flavor won't be ruined if the vegetables take on color, but the stock ...
2. Add clams and wine and increase heat to medium-high. Cover and cook until clams open, 12–15 minutes. Add coconut milk and 1 cup water. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat and simmer 15 minutes.
3. Strain stock through a fine-mesh sieve into a large bowl, pressing on solids; discard solids. Season stock with salt. Blend with an immersion blender until smooth and emulsified, if desired.

Coconut-milk-braised Carrots With Coconut Dukkah 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 45 ml . virgin coconut oil or vegetable oil
- 700 g Large carrots (about 6) — scrubbed, sliced on a deep diagonal into 5"-long pieces
- 1 Lemongrass stalk — tough outer layers removed, trimmed, finely chopped
- 4 Garlic cloves — finely chopped
- 1 small Red chile — finely chopped, or 0.5 tsp. crushed red pepper flakes
- 1 1 " piece ginger — peeled, finely chopped
- 1 13.5 -oz. can unsweetened coconut milk
- 10 ml . fish sauce — optional
- Kosher salt
- 25 g Unsweetened coconut flakes
- 5 ml . coriander seeds
- 5 ml . toasted sesame seeds
- 120 ml Mint leaves — torn if large

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 400°. Heat oil in a large deep skillet over medium-high. Cook carrots, turning once, until golden brown in spots but still very firm and crunchy, about 6 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer carrots to a plate. Reserve pan with oil.
2. Mash lemongrass, garlic, chile, and ginger to a coarse paste with a mortar and pestle. (Alternatively, you can chop very finely with a chef's knife.)
3. Set reserved skillet over medium heat; add paste. Cook, stirring often, until paste starts to soften and is golden, about 3 minutes. Pour in coconut milk and fish sauce (if using). Season with salt; bring to a simmer. Remove from heat, add carrots, and bake in oven until carro...
4. Meanwhile, toast coconut flakes in a dry small skillet over medium heat, shaking pan occasionally, until golden, about 3 minutes. Transfer to a small bowl; wipe out skillet.
5. Toast coriander seeds in same skillet over medium heat, shaking pan often, until slightly darkened and fragrant, about 2 minutes. Transfer to mortar and pestle and let cool, then coarsely grind (or lightly with flat side of chef’s knife). Add coriander and sesame seeds to coco...
6. Transfer carrots to a platter and top with mint and some coconut dukkah. Reserve extra dukkah for another use. Do ahead: Coconut dukkah can be made 3 days ahead. Store airtight at room temperature.

Cod Cakes

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g . dried salt cod
- 900 g . russet potatoes (about 4 medium) — peeled, quartered
- 1 medium Onion — coarsely chopped
- 60 ml . unsalted butter
- 4 ml Freshly ground black pepper — plus more
- 1 large Egg — beaten to blend
- A deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Place salt cod in a medium pot and pour in cool tap water to cover. Bring to a boil; drain . Repeat process until a small flake of salt cod no longer tastes inedibly salty, 1 or 2 more times. Drain well. Wipe out pot and reserve.
2. Meanwhile, fill a large pot with cold water. Add potatoes and bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer until potatoes are very tender, about 15 minutes; drain well. Transfer to a large bowl and mash with a potato masher.
3. Pulse onion in a food processor until a paste forms. Melt butter in reserved pot over medium heat. Add onion paste and cook, stirring occasionally until water has mostly evaporated and onion is translucent, about 5 minutes; stir in ¾ tsp. pepper. Add onion mixture to potatoes ...
4. Add salt cod to food processor (no need to clean) and pulse until finely chopped. Add fish to potato mixture and mash well to combine. Taste and season with salt and more pepper if needed. Let cool, then fold in egg. Cover and chill mixture until cold, at least 1 hour and up t...
5. Form mixture into ten 4-oz. patties. Place flour in a shallow bowl and dredge each patty lightly in flour, shaking off any excess.
6. Pour oil into a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot to come 2” up sides. Clip thermometer to side of pot and heat oil over medium until thermometer registers 350°. Working in batches, fry cod cakes, turning halfway through, until golden brown, about 5 minutes per batch. Transf...

Cod With Potatoes And Preserved Lemon Relish 6 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 0.5 medium Onion — unpeeled, halved
- 0.5 head Garlic — halved crosswise
- 1 Lemongrass stalk — trimmed, tough outer layers removed, finely chopped
- 4 sprig Thyme
- 15 ml Black peppercorns
- 960 ml Low-fat milk
- 550 g Yukon gold potatoes (about 4 large) — scrubbed
- Flaky grey sea salt or kosher salt
- 60 ml Plus 3 tbsp. olive oil
- 700 g Skinless cod fillet — cut into 2” pieces
- 0.5 preserved lemon — finely chopped
- 120 ml Finely chopped chives — from about 1 large bunch
- 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 15 ml Hot smoked spanish paprika

METHOD

1. Bring onion, garlic, lemongrass, thyme, peppercorns, and milk to a boil in a large saucepan. Reduce heat to low and simmer 20 minutes. Strain infused milk into a medium saucepan. Discard solids.
2. Meanwhile, cook potatoes in a large pot of boiling salted water until tender, 25–30 minutes. Drain, then peel potatoes and coarsely mash in a large bowl with ¼ cup oil; season with salt.
3. Bring infused milk just to a boil. Add cod, reduce heat, and simmer until flesh begins to flake and is cooked through, about 5 minutes. Remove cod with a slotted spoon and transfer to a plate.
4. Combine preserved lemon, chives, lemon juice, paprika, and remaining 3 Tbsp. oil in a small bowl; season relish with salt.
5. Mix ¼ cup infused milk into potatoes. Place cod over potatoes; spoon relish over.
6. DO AHEAD: Relish can be made 2 days ahead. Cover and chill.

Cod With Romesco And Hazelnuts 4 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 80 ml Blanched hazelnuts
- 120 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided, plus more for salad
- 4 Red bell peppers
- 1 medium Tomato — halved crosswise, seeds removed
- 2 Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 30 ml . sherry vinegar or red wine vinegar
- 2.5 ml . hot smoked spanish paprika

- 1 ml . cayenne pepper
- 4 Skinless cod fillets
- 1 Lemon
- 480 ml Parsley leaves with tender stems

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 177°C. Toast nuts on a rimmed baking sheet, tossing once, until golden brown, 7–10 minutes; let cool. Lightly crush with a flat-bottomed glass. Mix in a small bowl with 2 Tbsp. oil; season with salt.
2. Heat broiler. Broil peppers and tomato (skin side up) on a rimmed baking sheet, turning peppers occasionally, until skins are charred and flesh is softened, 12–15 minutes. Remove from oven and reduce temperature to 177°C.
3. Transfer peppers to a medium bowl, cover with plastic wrap, and let sit 10 minutes. Remove skins and seeds from peppers; discard. Coarsely chop flesh. Remove tomato skin; discard. Smash peppers and tomato with a mortar and pestle, shielding the top with your other hand, until ...
4. Meanwhile, place fish on a rimmed baking sheet and rub with 2 Tbsp. oil; season both sides with salt. Bake until cooked through (a paring knife should easily slip through flesh), 10–12 minutes. Remove from oven and finely grate some zest from lemon over.
5. Cut lemon in half and squeeze 2 Tbsp. juice into a small bowl. Add parsley and a pinch of salt. Drizzle with oil and toss to coat. Spoon romesco onto plates, top with hazelnuts, then fish. Scatter parsley salad over.

· 120 ml Packed micro greens — for serving

METHOD

1. Stir together the maple syrup and hot sauce in a small bowl.
2. Combine 4 cups cold water, brown sugar, smoked salt, and soy sauce in a 2-quart saucepan. Cut the lemon in half, squeeze the juice, and stir into the mixture. Add the lemon halves. Bring the mixture to a simmer over medium, and simmer until the salt and sugar are completely di...
3. Remove the fish from the brine; discard brine. Pat fillets dry with paper towels. Stir together the flour, kosher salt, and pepper in a medium bowl. Dredge fish in the flour mixture, shaking off any excess flour.
4. Heat the oil in a 10- to 12-inch nonstick skillet over medium-high. Add the fish fillets, skin side down, and cook until the skin is crispy, 3 to 4 minutes. Turn the fish, and cook until the fish is flaky, 2 to 3 minutes. Drain the fish on a plate lined with paper towels.
5. Microwave the butter in a small microwave-safe bowl on HIGH until melted, about 30 seconds. Stir together the buttermilk, potlikker, melted butter, and eggs in a medium bowl. Whisk together the flour, cornmeal, baking powder, baking soda, kosher salt, and pepper in a separate ...
6. Lightly coat a preheated waffle iron with cooking spray. Pour ½ cup batter into hot waffle iron. Cook according to a standard waffle maker's manufacturer's instructions until waffles are cooked through. (Don't let the collards burn.) Makes about 8 (7-inch) round waffles.
7. Divide the waffles evenly among 4 plates. Top evenly with trout, and drizzle each with 2 tablespoons of the maple syrup mixture. Sprinkle with micro greens, and serve immediately.

· 5 ml . cayenne pepper
· 5 ml . diamond crystal or 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt
· 5 ml . garlic powder
· 5 ml . onion powder
· 5 ml . paprika
· 2 large Egg yolks*
· 15 ml . fresh lemon juice
· 180 ml Peanut oil
· 1 small Shallot — finely chopped
· 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
· 30 ml . thinly sliced chives
· Kosher salt
· 60 ml . unsalted butter
· 275 g . frozen corn — about 2 cups
· 30 ml . thinly sliced chives
· 200 g All-purpose flour
· 75 g Cornmeal
· 10 ml . baking powder
· 8 g Diamond crystal or 0.75 tsp. morton kosher salt
· 2.5 ml Cayenne pepper
· 1 large Egg — beaten to blend
· 240 ml Buttermilk
· 225 g . lump crabmeat — picked over
· Vegetable oil — for frying; about 6 cups
· * raw egg is not recommended for the elderly — pregnant women, people with weakened immune systems…or people who don't like raw egg.
· A deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Pulse peanuts in a food processor until very finely chopped (be careful not to go too far; if you overprocess, the peanuts will turn into butter). Add ginger, cayenne, salt, garlic powder, onion powder, and paprika and pulse until powderlike. Do ahead: Yaji can be made 3 month...
2. Whisk egg yolks and lemon juice in a medium bowl to combine. Whisking constantly, add oil, starting with just a few drops at a time and gradually increasing to a fine steady stream. Whisk until all of the oil is incorporated and mixture is emulsified, about 4 minutes. Whisk in...
3. Melt butter in a medium high-sided skillet over medium heat. Add corn and cook, stirring occasionally, until softened slightly and bright yellow, about 5 minutes. Transfer to a large bowl and stir in chives; let cool.
4. Meanwhile, whisk flour, cornmeal, baking powder, salt, and cayenne in a medium bowl.
5. Add egg and buttermilk to corn mixture and stir to combine. Add dry ingredients and stir again just to incorporate, then fold in crabmeat.
6. Pour in oil to come 1½" up sides of a large pot or deep fryer. Fit pot with thermometer and heat oil over medium-high to 350°. Place a wire rack inside a rimmed baking sheet and line rack with paper towels. Working in 4 or 5 batches, scoop out heaping tablespoons of batter, ca...

Corn, Tomato, And Lobster Salad 4 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 480 ml Roughly chopped ripe tomatoes
· 480 ml Dry white wine
· 120 ml Water
· 240 ml Thinly sliced onions
· 3 Black peppercorns
· 2 sprig Fresh tarragon
· 1 Lobster
· 30 ml Minced shallot or red onions
· 30 ml Champagne vinegar or white wine vinegar
· 30 ml Freshly squeezed lemon juice
· 2.5 ml Grated lemon zest
· 80 ml Plus 1/2 teaspoon extra-virgin olive oil
· 2.5 ml Salt
· 0.5 ml Cayenne pepper
· 300 ml Silver queen (or other regional variety) fresh corn kernels — from about 2 ears
· 480 ml Mixed tiny heirloom tomatoes — such as cherry, cherub, grape, or pear, of different colors and sizes
· 30 ml Chopped fresh tarragon leaves
· 15 ml Chopped fresh parsley leaves
· 8 Bibb lettuce leaves — rinsed and patted dry
· Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Fill a large bowl with ice and cold water, and set it aside.
2. In a 4- to 6-quart Dutch oven, or other heavy-bottomed pot with a tight-fitting lid, combine the chopped tomatoes, wine, water, onions, peppercorns, and tarragon sprigs. Bring to a boil over high heat, uncovered; then reduce the heat to a simmer and cook for 15 minutes.
3. Raise the heat to high, add the lobster to the pot, and cover the pot immediately with a heavy, tightfitting lid. Steam the lobster for 13 minutes, until it is bright red and the long feelers are easily removed from their sockets. Immediately plunge the lobster into the bowl o...
4. Remove the lobster from the ice water and set it on a rimmed baking sheet. Using kitchen shears, remove the lobster meat from the tail and claws. Use a knife to chop the lobster meat into bite- size pieces. You should have about 1 cup; set it aside.

5. In a medium non-reactive mixing bowl, combine the shallot, vinegar, lemon juice, and lemon zest. Whisk in the 1/3 cup extra-virgin olive oil, 1/2 teaspoon salt, and the cayenne. Add the corn kernels and mix together. Set aside for 10 minutes.

6. Cut the tiniest heirloom tomatoes in half, and quarter the larger ones. Add the tomatoes to the corn mixture. Add the lobster, tarragon, and parsley, and mix gently to combine.

7. In a medium bowl, gently mix the Bibb lettuce leaves with the remaining 1/2 teaspoon extra-virgin olive oil, and season them lightly with salt and black pepper. Stack 2 lettuce leaves on each of four plates. Divide the lobster salad evenly among the lettuce cups, and serve imm...

Corn, Tomatoes, And Clams On Grilled Bread, Knife-and-fork–style 4 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- About 8 pounds tomatoes
- Extra-virgin olive oil
- Extra-virgin olive oil
- 3 Garlic cloves — smashed and peeled
- 15 ml Tomato conserva or tomato paste
- 1 bunch Scallions — trimmed (including 1/2 inch off the green tops), sliced on a sharp angle
- 225 g Cherry tomatoes — a mix of colors and varieties
- 2.5 ml Dried chile flakes
- 30 ml Unsalted butter
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 450 g Small clams — such as Manila
- 120 ml Dry
- 120 ml Lightly packed flat-leaf parsley leaves
- 2 large Ears sweet corn — husked, kernels sliced off into a bowl (about 1 1/3 cups kernels)
- Juice of 1/2 lemon
- Four 1/2-inch-thick slices country bread — grilled, rubbed with garlic, and kept warm

METHOD

1. Reduce the heat to medium or whatever temperature keeps the tomatoes simmering (you need to be careful not to scorch the tomatoes on the bottom) and cook until you've got the consistency of tomato sauce, 30 to 50 minutes. Work the tomatoes through a food mill to remove the ski...
2. Heat the oven to 149°C. Oil a rimmed baking sheet (a 13 x 18-inch half-sheet pan or two smaller pans), a couple of 9 x 13-inch baking dishes, or a large Dutch oven.
3. Add the conserva and bake until the consistency goes from liquidy to a thick puree, about 3 hours. You'll need to tend to the conserva several times during cooking because the tomato close to the edges will brown more quickly. Use a heatproof silicone spatula to move the tomat...
4. Reduce the heat to 93°C and bake slowly for as long as you can, even overnight. You won't need to give the conserva as much attention at this point, but you should check it now and then anyway. The finished conserva should be very thick, like tomato paste, and deeply tomatoey....
5. Add the tomato conserva and cook for another 30 seconds or so, stirring and scraping so the tomato doesn't burn but does get a bit darker. Add the scallions and cook, stirring, until they start to get fragrant and soft, another minute or so.
6. Add the tomatoes, chile flakes, and butter, and season generously with salt and black pepper. Cook, stirring the tomatoes occasionally, until they start to burst and render their juices, another 3 to 4 minutes.
7. Add the clams and wine, cover the pan, and cook until the clams all open; this could take as little as 2 minutes or up to 6 minutes, depending on the size and type of clams. When the clams are open (toss out any that refuse to open even after another couple of minutes cooking)...
8. Arrange the grilled bread on plates or in shallow bowls and spoon the corn and clams over the top, dividing the juices evenly, too. Finish with a generous drizzle of olive oil, and serve with a knife and fork, and a bowl for empty shells.

Cornbread Crab Cakes By Lawrence Page 6 servings

American · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 480 ml Prepared cornbread — crumbled
- 160 ml Red pepper — finely diced
- 120 ml Green onion — sliced
- 80 ml Mayonnaise
- 15 ml Sour cream
- 60 ml Fresh parsley — chopped
- 10 ml Fresh cilantro
- 1 clove Garlic — minced
- 2 large Eggs — beaten
- 5 ml Old bay seasoning
- 10 ml Olive oil
- Salt — to taste
- Pepper — to taste
- 450 g Fresh lump crab meat
- Vegetable oil — for frying

METHOD

1. Over a large bowl, crumble the cornbread into fine crumbs until you have about 2 cups (200 g) worth.
2. Add the red pepper, green onion, mayonnaise, sour cream, parsley, cilantro, garlic, beaten eggs, Old Bay seasoning, olive oil, salt, pepper, and crab meat to the bowl.
3. Break up the crab meat into fine pieces until it is all uniform in size.
4. Mix all the ingredients together with your hands or a wooden spoon until evenly combined.
5. Form the mixture into small patties, about 2.5 inches (6 cm) in diameter and ¾-inch (2 cm) thick and set aside.
6. Add enough vegetable oil to a large skillet to come about ¼-inch (6 mm) up the sides. Heat the oil over medium-high heat until it reaches 350■F (180■C).
7. Fry the crab cakes in batches, about 3-4 at a time. Cook on each side until golden brown, about 2-3 minutes.
8. Transfer to a paper-towel lined plate to drain.
9. Serve with your choice of dipping sauce, or they're great just on their own!
10. Enjoy!

Crab Cake Blt 3 servings

Fusion · Tasty

INGREDIENTS

- 45 ml Mayonnaise
- 15 ml Lemon juice
- 5 ml Dijon mustard
- 5 ml Crystal hot sauce
- 5 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 1 large Egg
- 450 g Jumbo lump crabmeat

- 60 ml Panko bread crumbs
- 60 ml Chopped fresh parsley
- 15 ml Old bay seasoning
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 5 ml Pepper
- Bacon slice — amount to taste
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 45 ml Butter
- 3 Brioche burger buns
- 3 Tomato slices
- Butter lettuce
- 240 ml Mayonnaise
- 60 ml Packed fresh basil
- 60 ml Packed fresh cilantro
- 4 Garlic cloves
- 30 ml Lemon juice
- Salt — to taste

METHOD

1. In a large bowl, combine the mayonnaise, lemon juice, mustard, hot sauce, Worcestershire sauce, and egg. Whisk until smooth.
2. Gently fold in the crabmeat, panko, parsley, Old Bay Seasoning, salt, and pepper. Note: Be careful not to break up the crab too much.
3. Shape the mixture evenly into 3 thick patties (depending on your desired size). Place them on a plate. Cover and refrigerate for 30 minutes to firm up.
4. While that's in the fridge, make the herb aïoli: In a blender or food processor, combine the mayonnaise, basil, cilantro, garlic, lemon juice, and a pinch of salt. Blend until smooth and creamy. Adjust salt to taste.
5. In a skillet, cook the bacon until crispy, then set aside until ready to assemble.
6. Heat a large skillet over medium heat, and add the olive oil. Add the crab cakes, and cook for 3–4 minutes per side, until golden brown and cooked through. Remove and set aside.
7. Melt the butter in a skillet. Add the brioche buns, and toast until golden.
8. Spread a generous layer of herb aïoli on the cut sides of each bun.
9. Layer the bottom buns with a slice of tomato, and season with salt and pepper. Top with lettuce, a cooked crab cake, and crispy bacon. Top with the top buns.
10. Enjoy!

Crab Masala Curry 3 servings

Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Oil
- 60 ml Coconut — grated
- 1 medium Onion — chopped
- 5 ml Coriander seed
- 15 ml White sesame seeds
- 15 ml Cumin seeds
- Salt — to taste
- 15 ml Chilli powder
- 2.5 ml Turmeric powder
- 1 Ginger — 1 in (2.54 cm)
- 4 clove Garlic
- 15 ml Garam masala
- 2 medium Tomatoes — chopped
- 60 ml Fresh coriander
- 900 g Crab meat
- 60 ml Oil
- Curry leaf
- 2 Bay leaves
- 15 ml Cumin seeds

- 1 medium Onion — chopped
- 2 Green chiles — slit legthwise
- 360 ml Water
- Salt — to taste
- 15 ml Lemon juice
- 240 ml Coriander leaves

METHOD

1. For the Masala Paste:
2. Heat the oil in a non stick pan. Once heated, add the chopped onion into the pan and cook until translucent.
3. Add the grated coconut into the pan. Roast for about 1-2 minutes until well-toasted.
4. Add the coriander seeds, white sesame seeds and cumin seeds. Roast them for 1 - 2 minutes more until aromatic. Now, empty this mixture into a bowl and let cook.
5. Once cool, transfer the contents into a blender. Add the chilli powder, turmeric powder, ginger, garlic, garam masala powder, tomatoes and the chopped coriander with some salt.
6. Grind it into a smooth paste. Set aside.
7. For the Crab Curry:
8. Heat oil in a nonstick wok. Once heated, add the cumin seeds, bay leaves and the curry leaves and let the leaves splutter.
9. Then, add the chopped onion and cook until translucent. To this, add the green chillies and masala paste. Cook and stir for 2-3 minutes.
10. Add water to the mixture. Once the mixture is bubbling, gently add crab meat and combine.
11. Add salt to taste and, if using pureed crab legs in the mixture, add this at this time.
12. To the mixture, add lemon juice and cook covered on a medium flame for about 10-15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Once crabs turn orange in colour, they're cooked.
13. Top with coriander leaves and serve hot with fresh rotis or jasmine rice.

Crab Puff Pastry Pinwheels

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml Shredded monterey jack cheese
- 120 ml Shredded parmesan cheese
- 1 Green onion — chopped
- 10 ml Minced fresh garlic
- 5 ml Seasoned salt
- 5 ml Paprika
- 0.5 ml Red pepper flakes
- 2 can White crabmeat — drained
- 1 pkg Frozen puff pastry — thawed
- 1 Egg white — beaten

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 204°C (200 degrees C). Lightly grease 2 baking sheets or use parchment paper.
2. Stir Monterey Jack cheese, Parmesan cheese, green onion, garlic, seasoned salt, paprika, and red pepper flakes together in a bowl. Fold in drained crabmeat.
3. Unfold pastry sheet on a lightly floured surface. Brush with some of the beaten egg white. Top with crab mixture. Roll up like a jelly roll starting at the short side. Cut into 1/2-inch slices. Place slices cut-side down on the prepared baking sheets. Brush with remaining egg ...
4. Bake in the preheated oven until golden, 15 to 20 minutes. Serve warm or at room temperature.

Crab Rangoon Mozzarella Sticks

American · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pkg Cream cheese — softened
- 1 pkg Shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1 pkg Imitation crabmeat — chopped
- 60 ml Sliced green onions
- 15 ml Powdered sugar
- 2.5 ml Salt
- 1 ml Garlic powder
- 120 ml All-purpose flour
- 2 large Eggs
- 30 ml Water
- 420 ml Panko bread crumbs
- 480 ml Vegetable oil for frying — or as needed

METHOD

1. Line an 8-inch square baking pan with parchment paper so the paper hangs over the sides of the pan.
2. Stir together cream cheese, mozzarella cheese, crabmeat, green onions, powdered sugar, salt, and garlic powder in a bowl until combined. Transfer to the prepared pan, spreading to an even layer. Freeze for 30 minutes.
3. Lift cream cheese mixture from the pan using the parchment paper. Cut the frozen block in half, then cut each half crosswise into 8 sticks (you will have sixteen 4x1-inch sticks.)
4. Put flour in a shallow dish. Beat eggs and water together in a second shallow dish. Put panko in a third shallow dish.
5. Dredge each cream cheese stick in flour; shake off excess. Dip into egg mixture, then lift up so excess egg drips back into the bowl. Press into panko to coat both sides. Place the breaded sticks on a baking sheet and freeze for 15 minutes.
6. Preheat the oven to 93°C (95 degrees C).
7. Add 1 ½ inches of oil to a medium saucepan. Heat oil to 191°C (190 degrees C).
8. Fry 3 or 4 sticks at a time until golden brown, about 1 minute. (Keep uncooked sticks in freezer until ready to fry.)
9. Drain fried sticks on paper towels, then transfer to a baking sheet and keep warm in the preheated oven. Repeat to fry remaining sticks.

Crab Tortellini

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 7 Saltine crackers — finely crushed
- 1 large Egg — beaten
- 30 ml Mascarpone cheese
- 2.5 ml Dijon mustard
- 1 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 175 g Lump crabmeat — very well drained
- 175 g Dungeness crabmeat — very well drained
- 1 ml Seafood seasoning
- Salt to taste
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper
- 15 ml Minced jalapeno pepper
- 28 Wonton wrappers — or as needed
- 360 ml Creme fraiche
- 5 ml Ground paprika
- 10 ml Fresh lemon zest
- Salt to taste
- 15 ml Chopped fresh dill
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper

METHOD

1. Crush crackers into a bowl. Add egg, mascarpone cheese, Dijon mustard, and Worcestershire sauce; stir until combined. Let sit until crumbs have absorbed some moisture, about 5 minutes.
2. Add crab meat, seafood seasoning, salt, cayenne pepper, and jalapeno to the cracker mixture; stir until just combined. Wrap and chill in the refrigerator until flavors develop, about 1 hour.
3. Place a wonton wrapper on a work surface to resemble a diamond shape. Wet the top 2 edges with just enough water to moisten. Place 1 tablespoon crab filling right in the center and press to spread it out a bit. Pull the bottom wonton corner up and over the filling, line it up ...
4. Bring a pot of salted water to a boil.
5. While waiting for water to boil, place creme fraiche in a skillet over medium heat. Add paprika, lemon zest, salt, and a splash of the pasta water. Cook and stir until heated through and just starting to simmer, then turn off the heat and reserve.
6. Add tortellini to the boiling water, giving a gentle stir make sure they don't stick to the bottom. Cook for 1 minute; they may or may not float to the surface. Remove tortellini with a slotted spoon and transfer into the reserved sauce.
7. Turn heat to medium-high and cook, gently stirring and basting, until sauce is heated through and just starts to simmer. Don't overcook or the sauce will reduce too much. Turn off the heat and stir in dill. Serve immediately on warm plates and sprinkle with additional dill and...

Crab With Romaine, Dill Sauce, And Sunflower Seeds 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 35 g Raw sunflower seeds
- 480 ml Vegetable oil
- Kosher salt
- 1 bunch Dill — tough stems removed, very coarsely chopped (about 2 cups), plus sprigs for serving
- 80 ml Buttermilk
- 60 ml Whole milk
- 60 ml Sunflower or vegetable oil — plus more for drizzling
- 1 ml Guar gum — optional
- 2 Romaine hearts — halved lengthwise
- 350 g Lump crabmeat
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 5 ml Finely grated lemon zest
- 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
- A 1-pint jar — 2 layers of cheesecloth, and a deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Place sunflower seeds in jar and pour in cold water to cover. Seal jar and let seeds sit at least 8 hours and up to 12 hours.
2. Drain sunflower seeds and return to jar. Cover with a double layer of cheesecloth, secure with a rubber band, and let seeds sit until just beginning to sprout, at least 12 hours and up to 1 day. Pat dry with paper towels.
3. Heat vegetable oil in a medium saucepan fitted with thermometer over medium-high until thermometer registers 350°. Carefully add sunflower seeds and cook, swirling pan, until puffed and golden brown, about 3 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer to paper towels to drain; se...
4. Cook chopped dill in a large saucepan of boiling salted water just until wilted and bright green, about 30 seconds. Immediately transfer to a bowl of ice water and swish around to cool as quickly as possible. Drain dill and gently squeeze to remove excess water.
5. Blend dill, buttermilk, and milk in a blender until mixture is bright green and smooth. With motor running, gradually stream in ¼ cup sunflower oil followed by guar gum, if using (guar gum will give the sauce body without impacting flavor; if omitting, sauce will be a bit runn...
6. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Lightly drizzle cut sides of romaine with more sunflower oil; season with salt. Grill, cut side down, until grill marks appear but lettuce is still very crunchy, about 45 seconds. (Or char in a grill pan over medium-high.) Transfer to a pl...
7. Heat crabmeat, olive oil, lemon zest, and lemon juice in a medium saucepan over low, stirring gently, until slightly warm; season with salt.
8. Divide crab mixture among plates. Gently dip romaine in dill sauce and turn to coat completely, letting excess drip back into bowl. Arrange over crab; top with dill sprigs and fried sunflower seeds.
9. Do Ahead: Dill sauce can be made 1 day ahead. Keep chilled.

Crab-stuffed Deviled Eggs

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 6 large Eggs
- 125 g Fresh crabmeat
- 45 ml Mayonnaise
- 10 ml Chopped fresh tarragon
- 5 ml Dijon mustard

- 5 ml Lemon juice
- 2.5 ml Hot pepper sauce
- 1 pinch Seafood seasoning — such as Old Bay®
- 3 drop Worcestershire sauce
- 1 pinch Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 2.5 ml Freshly grated lemon zest
- 5 ml Creme fraiche
- 2.5 ml Aleppo pepper
- 15 ml Chopped fresh chives
- 0.5 ml Cayenne pepper

METHOD

1. Place 6 eggs in the bottom of a pan and fill with cold water to cover. Place pan over high heat and as soon as the water starts to bubble and simmer and the eggs begin to dance around, turn off the heat, cover quickly with a tight-fitting lid, and let eggs sit for 17 minutes.
2. Drain hot water from pan and add cold water to cover eggs, rolling them around in the pan. Drain and refill with fresh cold water; let eggs sit until cool, about 20 minutes. Peel eggs under running water to remove shells and cut in half lengthwise.
3. Separate yolks from egg halves; place yolks into a mixing bowl.
4. Place crab meat onto a plate and separate into 2 equal portions, one containing the small bits and one containing the attractive larger pink chunks. Reserve portion containing larger chunks.
5. Chop the portion of crab meat with the smaller chunks; add to egg yolks. Mash yolks with a fork. Stir in mayonnaise, tarragon, Dijon mustard, lemon juice, hot pepper sauce, seafood seasoning, Worcestershire sauce, salt, and black pepper.
6. Transfer yolk mixture into a piping bag fitted with a medium tip. Pipe crab filling into cavities of egg halves.
7. Chop largest crab pieces and place remaining crabmeat into a small bowl. Lightly stir in lemon zest, creme fraiche, Aleppo pepper, and cayenne pepper with a fork. Taste and adjust salt. If mixture seems dry, stir in more creme fraiche.
8. Top each stuffed egg with a generous pinch of crab mixture.
9. Sprinkle each deviled egg with a pinch of chives and a light dusting of cayenne pepper. Transfer eggs to a serving platter; refrigerate until serving time.
10. Serve and enjoy.

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Crawfish
- 1 pkg Spaghetti
- 5 ml Oil
- 1 can Condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 1 can Condensed cream of chicken soup
- 5 ml Cajun seasoning
- 5 ml Garlic powder
- 225 g Shredded cheddar cheese — divided
- 1 can Diced tomatoes — drained
- 5 ml Dried parsley flakes

METHOD

1. Bring a large pot of water to a boil; add crawfish and boil until bright red and claws are easily pulled off, 7 to 10 minutes. Peel and devein crawfish to yield about 1 pound.
2. Meanwhile, bring a large pot of lightly salted water to a boil. Cook spaghetti in boiling water, stirring occasionally, until tender yet firm to the bite, about 12 minutes. Drain and set aside.
3. Preheat the oven to 177°C (175 degrees C). Coat an 8x10-inch baking dish lightly with oil.
4. Whisk together cream of mushroom and chicken condensed soups, Cajun seasoning, and garlic powder in a medium saucepan over medium heat until warm and well combined. Add 1 cup Cheddar cheese and continue whisking until cheese is melted and sauce is smooth and creamy.
5. Mix together cooked spaghetti, tomatoes, and crawfish in the prepared baking dish. Add cheese sauce and mix thoroughly. Sprinkle the top with remaining 1 cup Cheddar cheese and parsley.
6. Bake in the preheated oven until cheese is melted and edges are golden brown, about 35 minutes.

Crawfish Beignets

Southern · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pkg Crawfish tail meat
- 175 g Shredded cheddar cheese
- Chopped green onion
- 60 ml Mayonnaise
- 2 can Refrigerated biscuit dough — separated
- Vegetable oil for frying
- 1 pinch Paprika — or to taste
- Cayenne pepper — or to taste

METHOD

1. Combine crawfish, Cheddar cheese, green onion, and mayonnaise in a large bowl.
2. Flatten and stretch separated biscuit dough (12 pieces) with your hands or a rolling pin until rectangular shaped (about 4x5 inches).
3. Place 1 scoop crawfish filling in middle of 1 flattened dough rectangle; enclose sides around filling, working with your hands until fully sealed and you reach a desired shape. Repeat with remaining filling and dough rectangles.
4. Heat oil in a deep fryer or large saucepan to 191°C (190 degrees C).
5. Lower beignets carefully into the hot oil; fry until they float to the top and golden brown on all sides, flipping as needed, about 5 minutes total. Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate to drain. Sprinkle tops with paprika and cayenne pepper.

Creamy Bay Scallop Spaghetti 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Uncooked thick spaghetti
- 15 ml Vegetable oil
- 450 g Bay scallops
- 30 ml Butter
- 3 clove Garlic — minced
- 10 ml Grated lemon zest
- 1 pinch Red pepper flakes
- 80 ml Dry sherry
- 240 ml Heavy cream
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 Lemon — juiced
- 30 ml Chopped italian parsley
- Freshly grated parmigiano-reggiano cheese — for serving

METHOD

1. Bring a large pot of lightly salted water to a boil; add spaghetti and cook, stirring occasionally, until tender yet firm to the bite, about 10 minutes or 1 minute less than directed on the package.
2. Meanwhile, heat oil in a large skillet over high heat. When oil just starts to smoke, add scallops and move them into a single layer. Let sear on high for about 1 minute. Toss to turn.
3. Add butter and stir scallops until butter melts. Stir in garlic.
4. Add lemon zest and red pepper flakes. Stir in sherry and cook and stir until alcohol cooks off, about 1 minute.
5. Pour in cream. When mixture begins to simmer, reduce heat to medium-low. Add salt, pepper, and lemon juice.
6. Drain pasta. Transfer to skillet with scallops; bring to a simmer. Add 1/2 of the chopped parsley. Cook until pasta is heated through and tender, about 1 minute.
7. Remove from heat. Garnish generously with grated cheese. Add the rest of the parsley. Serve in warm bowls.

Creamy Cod And Potato Gratin

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 medium Russet potatoes — peeled and quartered
- 2 Fillets cod
- 2 pinch Cayenne pepper — divided, or to taste
- Salt to taste
- 100 ml Unsalted butter
- 30 ml Finely chopped shallot
- 240 ml Heavy cream
- 10 ml Lemon zest
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 15 ml Chopped fresh tarragon
- 10 ml Freshly grated parmigiano-reggiano

METHOD

1. Place potatoes in a large pot of well-salted water and bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat and simmer gently until tender, about 20 minutes.
2. While potatoes simmer, trim, bone, and cut the cod fillets across into 2-inch pieces.
3. Drain potatoes well and return to the pot. Add a pinch of cayenne, salt, and 4 tablespoons butter. Mash until smooth.
4. Preheat the oven to 232°C (230 degrees C). Grease 2 individual-sized casserole or baking dishes with 1 tablespoon butter. Place both dishes on a baking sheet.
5. Transfer about 2/3 cup of the mashed potatoes into each of the prepared dishes. Smooth out evenly and make a shallow depression with a spoon down the middle. Set aside.
6. Heat remaining 2 tablespoons butter in a deep 10-inch skillet over medium-high heat. Cook the shallots in the hot butter with a pinch of salt until they just start to turn golden, 3 to 4 minutes. Add cream, lemon zest, and a pinch of cayenne, and bring to a simmer. Add cod and...
7. Pour in lemon juice and turn off the heat; stir for about 30 seconds.
8. Divide the pieces of cod over the potato. Add enough sauce to just cover the fish and return the pan to the stove.
9. Bring sauce to a boil over medium-high heat and cook until the sauce reduces and thickens, 1 to 2 minutes. Turn off the heat and stir in tarragon.
10. Spoon the thickened sauce over the cod. Add a light dusting of Parmigiano-Reggiano cheese.
11. Bake in the center of the preheated oven until cod is cooked through and the sauce is browned and bubbling, 10 to 15 minutes. Let rest for 5 minutes before serving.

Creamy Fish Chowder 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 125 g . slab bacon — sliced bacon, or salt pork, chopped
- 30 ml Unsalted butter
- 1 large Onion — finely chopped
- 4 Celery stalks with leaves — finely chopped
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 2 large Yukon gold potatoes (about 1 lb.) — peeled, cut into 1/2" pieces
- 240 ml Clam juice or fish broth
- 15 ml Fresh thyme leaves
- 700 g Skinless cod — haddock, or pollock fillets, cut into 2" pieces
- 960 ml Half-and-half

METHOD

1. Cook bacon in a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot over medium heat, stirring often, until brown but not crisp, 8–10 minutes. Transfer bacon with a slotted spoon to paper towels.
2. Add butter, onion, and celery to drippings in pot; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until onion and celery are soft, 5–8 minutes.
3. Add potatoes, clam juice, thyme, and 1 cup water. Bring to a boil, reduce heat, and simmer until potatoes are tender, 10–15 minutes.
4. Season fish with salt and pepper and place on top of potatoes. Cover pot and cook (liquid should be barely simmering at this point) until fish is opaque throughout, 5–7 minutes (thicker pieces will take longer to cook). Add half-and-half and return to a simmer (at this point, ...
5. DO AHEAD: Chowder can be made 2 days ahead. Let cool; cover and chill.

Creamy Linguine With Clam Sauce

Allrecipes · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pkg Linguine pasta
- 30 ml Butter
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 60 ml Minced sweet onion
- 2 clove Garlic — minced
- 1 can Baby clams — drained with juices reserved (such as Bumble Bee®)
- 15 ml Dry white wine
- 1 jar Alfredo sauce — such as Classico®
- 5 ml Grated parmesan cheese
- 1 pinch Crushed red pepper flakes — or to taste

METHOD

1. Fill a large pot with lightly salted water and bring to a rolling boil over high heat. Once the water is boiling, stir in the linguine, and return to a boil. Cook the pasta, stirring occasionally, until cooked through but still slightly firm, about 11 minutes. Drain well.
2. Heat the butter and olive oil in a skillet over medium heat until it begins to brown slightly. Stir in the onion; cook and stir until the onion becomes lightly golden, about 10 minutes. Stir in the garlic and cook for 1 minute more. Add the reserved clam juice and wine. Simmer...
3. Serve the clam sauce over the linguine, and sprinkle with Parmesan cheese and red pepper flakes.

Creamy One-pot Spinach Shrimp Pasta 4 servings

American · Tasty

- 450 g Shrimp
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 15 ml Butter
- 2 clove Garlic — minced
- 5 ml Salt
- 2.5 ml Pepper
- 360 ml Milk
- 360 ml Chicken broth
- 225 g Fettuccine pasta
- 960 ml Spinach
- 5 ml Salt
- 2.5 ml Pepper
- 2.5 ml Italian seasoning
- 25 g Grated parmesan cheese — extra to garnish

METHOD

1. In a heated pot, melt butter and olive oil. Add garlic and shrimp, seasoning with salt and pepper.
2. Cook until shrimp is pink, then put aside.
3. In the same pot, add milk, broth, and pasta.
4. Cook for 10 minutes, stirring occasionally, so that the pasta does not stick to each other.
5. Once pasta is al dente, add in spinach, salt, pepper, seasoning, and cheese, and mix until spinach is wilted and everything is coated in the sauce.
6. Add the shrimp back in and give it a stir until fully incorporated.
7. Serve with some extra parmesan cheese, if desired.
8. Enjoy!

2. Make the crispy fish: In a large bowl, combine the flour, Old Bay, and baking powder. Add the beer and whisk until smooth. Let sit for 15 minutes.
3. Heat the vegetable oil in a large pot until it reaches 177°C (180°C).
4. Coat the fish in the batter, then transfer to the oil and fry until golden on the outside and cooked through, 5-7 minutes. Drain the fish on a wire rack set over a baking sheet lined with paper towels.
5. Make the avocado crema: Add the avocados, sour cream, lime juice, and salt to a blender and blend until smooth.
6. To assemble the tacos, add a bit of the cabbage slaw to a warmed tortilla. Top with a piece of fried fish, avocado crema, and sliced radish.
7. Enjoy!

Crispy Fish With Brown Butter Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 5 ml . honey
- 60 ml Plus 2 tsp. fresh lemon juice
- 45 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided
- 5 ml . kosher salt — plus more
- 2 small Kohlrabi — peeled, halved lengthwise, thinly sliced crosswise
- 1 large Green apple — cut into quarters lengthwise, thinly sliced lengthwise
- 0.5 red onion — thinly sliced
- 4 5–6 -oz. skin-on chilean sea bass or salmon fillets
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 70 g Coarsely chopped blanched hazelnuts
- 90 ml . unsalted butter — cut into pieces
- Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Whisk honey, ¼ cup lemon juice, 2 Tbsp. oil, and 1 tsp. salt in a large bowl. Add kohlrabi, apple, and onion and toss to coat. Let sit while you cook the fish.
2. Swirl remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in a large nonstick skillet to coat. Season fish generously on both sides with salt and pepper and place, skin side down, in cold skillet. Set over medium heat and cook until fat starts to cook out of fish, about 4 minutes. Gently press on fillets w...
3. Wipe out skillet and return to medium heat. Cook hazelnuts and butter, swirling pan often, until butter foams, then browns, about 4 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in remaining 2 tsp. lemon juice; season brown butter sauce with salt and pepper.
4. Toss kohlrabi salad and serve alongside fish fillets, leaving excess dressing behind. Spoon brown butter sauce over fish and salad and serve with lemon wedges for squeezing over.

Crispy Fried Shrimp And Giardiniera 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 2 12 -oz. jars vinegar-based giardiniera — drained (about 3 cups)
- 350 g . large shrimp — peeled, deveined
- 275 g Cornstarch — divided
- 95 g Plus 2 tbsp. all-purpose flour
- 10 ml . diamond crystal or 1 0.25 tsp. morton kosher salt
- 5 ml . baking powder
- 240 ml Vodka
- Vegetable oil — for frying; about 2 quarts
- Flaky sea salt
- 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
- 120 ml Plus 2 tbsp. mayonnaise
- 30 ml . thinly sliced chives
- 5 ml . finely grated lemon zest
- 10 ml . fresh lemon juice
- 2.5 ml Hot sauce — preferably Tabasco
- 2.5 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 1 g Diamond crystal or morton kosher salt
- 1 g Sugar
- Lemon wedges — for serving
- A deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Scatter two 12-oz. jars vinegar-based giardiniera, drained (about 3 cups), over a rimmed baking sheet lined with paper towels. Set aside any pieces that are too small to batter and fry for using in sauce (smaller than a marble is a good gauge). Arrange 12 oz. large shrimp, pee...
2. Whisk ¾ cup plus 2 Tbsp. (110 g) all-purpose flour, 2 tsp. Diamond Crystal or 1¼ tsp. Morton kosher salt, 1 tsp. baking powder, and remaining 1½ cups cornstarch in a medium bowl to combine. Pour in 1 cup vodka and ½ cup water and whisk until batter is smooth.
3. Pour about 2 quarts vegetable oil into a medium Dutch oven or large heavy saucepan fitted with thermometer to come 3" up sides. Heat over medium-high until thermometer registers 400°. Reduce heat to medium to maintain temperature.
4. Set a wire rack inside a rimmed baking sheet. Working one at a time, dip shrimp into batter, allowing excess to drip back into bowl, and carefully drop into oil until you've created a single layer across surface. Fry, turning often, until golden brown, about 5 minutes. Using a...
5. Finely chop reserved giardiniera pieces and place up to 2 Tbsp. in a small bowl (it's okay to skip this if you didn't reserve any). Add 1 garlic clove, finely grated, ½ cup plus 2 Tbsp. mayonnaise, 2 Tbsp. thinly sliced chives, 1 tsp. finely grated lemon zest, 2 tsp. fresh lem...
6. Arrange fried shrimp and giardiniera on a platter. Serve with sauce for dipping and lemon wedges for squeezing over. Do Ahead: Sauce can be made 5 days ahead. Transfer to an airtight container; cover and chill.

Crispy Gnocchi With Littleneck Clams 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 1.1 kg Russet potatoes (about 4 large) — scrubbed
- 900 g Littleneck clams
- 95 g All-purpose flour — plus more for dusting
- 10 ml Diamond crystal or 1 0.5 teaspoons morton kosher salt
- 1 large Egg — beaten to blend
- 125 g (1 stick) unsalted butter
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 4 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 10 ml Fresh lemon juice
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 30 ml Finely chopped chives
- A potato ricer

METHOD

1. Preheat to 425°. Prick potatoes all over with a fork and place directly on oven rack; roast until flesh is very soft when squeezed gently and skin is crisp, 60–75 minutes. Immediately slice open lengthwise and scoop out flesh; set skins aside. Pass potato flesh through ricer o...
2. Meanwhile, bring clams, reserved potato skins, and 1 cup water to a boil in a large pot. Cover and cook, shaking pot occasionally, until clams open, 5–8 minutes; discard any clams that do not open. Pluck clams from shells and place in a medium bowl. Cover and chill until ready...
3. Dust riced potatoes with ¾ cup flour and sprinkle with 2 tsp. or 1½ tsp. salt. Drizzle egg over, then use a fork or your fingers to gently mix ingredients until just incorporated and a smooth dough forms (be careful not to overwork or cooked gnocchi will be gluey and tough), a...

4. Pipe dough onto a lightly floured surface into 24" lengths about ½" thick. Cut crosswise into ½" pieces and dust lightly with flour. Arrange gnocchi in a single layer on a lightly floured rimmed baking sheet.
5. Working in 3 batches, cook gnocchi in a large pot of simmering lightly salted water until doubled in size and they float to the top, about 3 minutes (a minute or so more if frozen). Using a slotted spoon, transfer gnocchi to a rimmed baking sheet as they are done cooking. Rese...
6. Melt a third of the butter in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Add one-third of gnocchi to skillet and arrange in a single layer. Cook, undisturbed, until dark brown and crisp underneath, about 5 minutes. Transfer to another rimmed baking sheet. Working in 2 batches,...
7. Wipe out skillet and heat oil in skillet over medium-high. Add garlic and cook, stirring occasionally, until golden, about 2 minutes. Add clam cooking liquid and ½ cup pasta cooking liquid and bring to a simmer; cook, stirring occasionally, until sauce is slightly thickened, a...
8. Add clams, gnocchi, and lemon juice to sauce; season with salt and pepper. Cook, gently tossing and adding more pasta cooking liquid as needed, until sauce coats gnocchi.
9. Divide gnocchi among bowls and top with chives.
10. Do Ahead: Gnocchi can be formed 1 month ahead. Freeze on baking sheet until solid; transfer to resealable plastic bags. Clams can be cooked 6 hours ahead. Cover and chill clams and cooking liquid separately.

Crispy Miso-butter Fish With Asparagus 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Asparagus
- 10 ml . avocado or vegetable oil
- Kosher salt
- 4 4–6 -oz. skin-on arctic char — sea bass, or salmon fillets
- 75 ml . unsalted butter — divided
- 90 ml . white or yellow miso
- 15 ml . plus 1 0.5 tsp. sriracha
- 15 ml . sugar
- 9 Garlic cloves
- 1 3 " piece ginger
- 40 g Panko

METHOD

1. Place a rack in upper third of oven and preheat to 400°. Line a rimmed baking sheet with foil. Line up 1½ lb. asparagus on a cutting board and trim woody ends (about bottom 2") with a chef's knife; discard. Slice spears into 1" lengths and transfer to prepared baking sheet. Dr...
2. Pat four 4–6-oz. skin-on arctic char, sea bass, or salmon fillets dry with paper towels. Place, skin side down, on empty half of baking sheet.
3. Now, make the miso butter: Place 3 Tbsp. unsalted butter in a small microwave-safe bowl. Microwave on medium power in 20-second intervals until melted. (Alternatively, melt butter in a small skillet over medium.) Add 6 Tbsp. white or yellow miso, 1 Tbsp. plus 1½ tsp. Sriracha,...
4. Melt remaining 2 Tbsp. unsalted butter in another microwave-safe bowl. Stir in ■ cup panko.
5. Dollop about two-thirds of miso butter over fish, spreading it into an even layer with spoon. Sprinkle buttered panko over fillets and gently press with your hands to adhere. Roast fish and asparagus until fillets are firm when sides are gently pressed, 15–17 minutes.
6. Heat broiler (to low, if your oven allows). Broil (watching carefully), rotating baking sheet halfway through for even browning, until panko is golden brown, about 3 minutes. Remove baking sheet from oven and immediately drizzle remaining miso butter over asparagus; toss to co...
7. Slide a fish spatula between fish skin and flesh and do your best to gently lift away the fillets (skin won't be crispy, so it's best left behind). Serve fish with asparagus.

- 30 ml . toasted sesame oil
- 30 ml . rice vinegar
- 30 ml . light soy sauce
- 1 Red thai chile — finely chopped
- 60 ml Mayonnaise
- 5 ml . rice vinegar
- 20 g Fresh chives — finely chopped
- Cooked jasmine rice — for serving
- Toasted sesame oil — for serving
- Salt
- 70 g Salted peanuts — finely chopped

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 425° and line two large baking sheets with parchment paper.
2. To make the marinade for the mushrooms, put 6 Tbsp. canola oil, 3 Tbsp. honey, 3 Tbsp. light soy sauce, 6 garlic cloves, crushed, two 1½" pieces ginger (1½ oz.), grated, and ¼ tsp. salt into a large bowl and stir. Tear the larger mushrooms from 1¾ lb. oyster mushrooms in half;...
3. Thread mushrooms onto eight skewers and place on prepared baking sheets. Bake 20 minutes until golden brown and the edges are starting to catch. While mushrooms are baking, prepare the salad and mayo.
4. Cut the stems of 8½ oz. bok choy or choy sum into ½"-thick slices and the leaves into 1"-thick slices. Put into a serving bowl along with 1 celery stalk, sliced into thin half-moons, and ½ English cucumber, sliced into thin half-moons. In a smaller bowl, make the dressing by c...
5. Put ¼ cup mayonnaise, 1 tsp. rice vinegar, and ¾ oz. fresh chives, finely chopped, into another small bowl and mix, leaving some chives to decorate the top.
6. Just before serving, whisk dressing and toss through the salad. To serve, place cooked jasmine rice in a shallow bowl, drizzle with toasted sesame oil and sprinkle with salt. Put skewers on a platter for people to help themselves, and serve alongside the salad and chive mayo, ...

Crispy Oyster Mushrooms In The Air Fryer 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 125 g Oyster mushrooms
- 240 ml Buttermilk
- 200 g All-purpose flour
- 5 ml Salt
- 5 ml Ground pepper
- 5 ml Garlic powder
- 5 ml Onion powder
- 5 ml Paprika
- 5 ml Ground mustard
- Non-stick cooking spray
- 30 ml Vegetable oil

METHOD

1. Preheat an air fryer to 199°C (200 degrees C).
2. Place oyster mushrooms into a bowl and pour buttermilk over top. Toss to coat mushrooms with buttermilk, then marinate for 15 minutes.
3. Add flour, salt, pepper, garlic powder, onion powder, paprika, and ground mustard to a large resealable bag. Seal the bag and shake until evenly combined.
4. One at a time, take a mushroom out of the buttermilk mixture and drop into the bag of seasoned flour. Toss until coated, then transfer to a plate. Once all mushrooms are coated, repeat the breading step once more (so all mushrooms have been breaded twice) and place mushrooms o...
5. Spray the air fryer basket with nonstick spray. Working in batches, spread several breaded mushrooms over the bottom of the basket, making sure not to overcrowd.
6. Air-fry mushrooms for 4 minutes. Liberally brush mushrooms with vegetable oil and air-fry for 4 more minutes. Use tongs to flip the mushrooms over and cook for 2 more minutes. Repeat to air-fry the remaining mushrooms.

Crispy Pan-fried Shrimp With Cabbage Slaw And Gochujang Mayo 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 g Kosher salt — plus more
- 240 ml Semi-pearled farro or wheat berries
- 80 ml Kewpie mayonnaise
- 20 ml . (or more) gochujang — korean hot pepper paste
- 25 g (or more) honey — divided
- 5 ml . (or more) gochugaru — coarse korean red pepper powder
- 2.5 ml Plus 3 tbsp. unseasoned rice vinegar

- 2.5 ml Plus 2 tbsp. mirin
- 2.5 ml (or more) pure or toasted sesame oil
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 0.5 small Head of red cabbage — about 1 0.5 lb.
- 2 Scallions
- 450 g . large shrimp — peeled, deveined, tails removed
- 40 g Cornstarch
- 60 ml (or more) vegetable oil
- Toasted sesame seeds — for serving

METHOD

1. Cook 1 cup semi-pearled farro or wheat berries, rinsed, in a medium pot of boiling salted water, maintaining a simmer and stirring occasionally, until tender but not mushy, 20–35 minutes, depending on grain. Drain well and set aside. (Alternatively, skip the cooking and use 2 ...
2. Meanwhile, make the gochujang mayo. Mix ■ cup Kewpie mayonnaise, 4 tsp. gochujang (Korean hot pepper paste), 1½ tsp. honey, 1 tsp. gochugaru (coarse Korean red pepper powder), ½ tsp. unseasoned rice vinegar, ½ tsp. mirin, ½ tsp. pure or toasted sesame oil, ¼ tsp. kosher salt, ...
3. Next, make the cabbage slaw. Whisk remaining 3 Tbsp. unseasoned rice vinegar, 2 Tbsp. mirin, 2 tsp. honey, and a few pinches of salt and pepper in a large bowl until smooth. Thinly slice ½ small head of red cabbage (about 1½ lb.). (You should have about 4 heaping cups.) Add to...
4. Spread 1 lb. large shrimp, peeled, deveined, tails removed, out onto a small rimmed baking sheet (a large plate also works). Season liberally with salt and pepper and toss to coat. Return shrimp to a single layer.
5. Sprinkle ■ cup cornstarch evenly over shrimp. Using your hands, press cornstarch into each shrimp so that they're evenly and fully coated.
6. Heat ¼ cup vegetable oil in a large nonstick skillet over high. Once oil is hot, reduce heat to medium-high and, using tongs, carefully arrange shrimp in a single layer in pan (you may need to work in batches and add more oil). Cook, adjusting heat if needed and turning once, ...
7. To serve, divide farro and cabbage among bowls, leaving any juices from cabbage behind, then scatter shrimp over. Top with gochujang mayo, toasted sesame seeds, and reserved scallions. Do ahead: Farro can be cooked and gochujang mayo and cabbage slaw can be made 3 days ahead; ...

Crispy Snapper With Chaat Masala 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 bunch Cilantro — tough stems trimmed, coarsely chopped (about 2 cups)
- 2 Green thai chiles or other green chiles — seeds removed if desired
- 1 Garlic clove — smashed
- 30 ml . fresh lemon juice
- Kosher salt
- 30 ml . tamarind concentrate
- 15 ml . (or more) dark brown sugar
- 0.5 small Red onion — very thinly sliced
- Kosher salt
- 2 Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 1 2 " piece ginger — peeled, finely grated
- 45 ml . vegetable oil
- 10 ml . chaat masala — plus more for serving
- 4 6 -oz. skin-on red snapper fillets
- Kosher salt
- 1 Lemon — halved

METHOD

1. Purée cilantro, chiles, garlic, lemon juice, and 3 Tbsp. water in a blender, adding more water by the tablespoonful if needed to get mixture moving, until smooth. Season with salt.
2. Mix tamarind, brown sugar, and ½ cup water in a small bowl to combine. Add onion and season with salt; let sit 5 minutes. Taste and add more brown sugar if needed (every tamarind product is slightly different, so you may need more sugar to cut the acidity).
3. Whisk garlic, ginger, oil, and 2 tsp. chaat masala in a medium bowl.
4. Pat fillets dry with paper towels; season generously on both sides with salt. Working one at a time, dip flesh side of fillets in spiced oil to coat, then transfer to a cold large skillet, arranging skin side down. Place skillet over medium heat and cook fish, pressing down on...

- 360 ml Vegetable oil for frying
- 2 Tilapia fillets
- 8 Corn tortillas — warmed
- 3 Thinly sliced radishes
- 1 Lime — cut into wedges

METHOD

1. Combine cabbage, carrot, apple, green onions, cilantro, and lime juice for slaw in a bowl. Combine mayonnaise, garlic, lemon juice, ketchup, and salt for sauce in a separate bowl.
2. Place flour in a shallow bowl. Place beaten egg in a second bowl. Combine panko, cumin, salt, and pepper in a third bowl.
3. Heat oil in a deep saucepan over medium heat.
4. While oil is heating, clean and dry tilapia and cut into 2-inch pieces. Dredge in flour, then egg, then panko mixture.
5. Lower fish carefully into the hot oil. Fry until golden brown on both sides, 6 to 8 minutes. Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate to drain.
6. Fill tortillas with fish. Top with slaw, mayonnaise sauce, and radishes. Serve with lime wedges.

Crispy-skin Salmon With Miso-honey Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 2 " piece fresh ginger
- 30 ml . white miso
- 15 ml . vegetable oil
- 15 ml . unseasoned rice vinegar
- 15 ml . honey
- 15 ml . sesame seeds
- 3 Scallions
- 4 4–6 -oz. skin-on salmon fillets
- Kosher salt

METHOD

1. Start by assembling the honey-miso sauce: Peel 2" piece ginger with a spoon. (We find that a spoon is better for navigating the bumpy exterior of a knob of ginger than a vegetable peeler, but you do you.) Finely grate ginger with a Microplane into a small bowl.
2. Add 2 Tbsp. miso, 1 Tbsp. oil, 1 Tbsp. vinegar, 1 Tbsp. honey, and 1 Tbsp. water to the bowl with with the ginger. Whisk to combine and set aside. This is a great all-purpose sauce, so making extra wouldn't hurt! Use it to top grain bowls, roasted vegetables, or any other simp...
3. Heat a small skillet over medium. Toast 1 Tbsp. sesame seeds, tossing frequently, until seeds are a light golden color and slightly fragrant, about 2 minutes. Seeds you toast yourself are always going to be more flavorful than the ones you buy already toasted, but we won't jud...
4. Trim the root ends from 3 scallions and thinly slice crosswise.
5. Lightly season the flesh of 4 salmon fillets on all sides with salt. Place pieces skin side down in a cold—as in not preheated; you don't have to refrigerate it or anything—cast-iron skillet. (This might seem a little weird, but trust us—the skin will render nicely and get way...
6. Press down lightly on flesh with a spatula to ensure all parts of the skin are making contact with the pan. At this point it should be opaque at least halfway up the flesh side. Continue to cook skin side down until fish is mostly opaque and skin is crispy, about 5 minutes lon...
7. Using a fish spatula, gently flip the fillets, then remove the pan from the heat. Continue to cook off-heat (the pan will still be plenty hot) until flesh is juuuuuuuust cooked through, about 1 minute longer for regular-sized fillets, but very thick ones might take up to 3 min...

8. Spoon miso-honey sauce onto a platter. Place salmon fillets skin side up on top of the sauce. Sprinkle with toasted sesame seeds and scallions. Et voila! Dinner is served.

Crispy-skin Salmon With Napa Cabbage 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 small Head of napa cabbage
- 5 Garlic cloves
- 1 2 -inch knob ginger
- 30 ml Rice wine vinegar
- 30 ml Soy sauce
- 15 ml Honey
- 4 g Cornstarch
- 4 6 -ounce skin-on salmon fillets
- Kosher salt
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 45 ml Vegetable oil

METHOD

1. Starting at leafy green end of Napa cabbage, slice about one-third of head crosswise into ½"-thick ribbons. Set darker green pieces aside. Thinly slice remaining pale-green and white parts of cabbage crosswise and transfer to a medium bowl (discard cabbage core).
2. Smash 5 garlic cloves and discard peel.
3. Scrape down and around ginger with the curved tip of a spoon to remove skin, then thinly slice ginger crosswise.
4. Stir 2 Tbsp. rice wine vinegar, 2 Tbsp. soy sauce, 1 Tbsp. honey, and 1½ tsp. cornstarch in a small bowl with a spoon until cornstarch is dissolved.
5. Thoroughly pat dry 4 salmon fillets with paper towels. Season flesh side with salt and pepper.
6. Drizzle 2 Tbsp. vegetable oil across surface of a large skillet, preferably cast iron. Arrange salmon fillets skin side down in skillet, spacing evenly apart. Heat skillet over medium (yes, you're starting the cooking from cold).
7. Cook salmon, occasionally sliding a flexible metal spatula underneath skin to lift fillets and let fresh hot fat flow underneath (if the skin is sticking, let it cook longer until skin releases), until flesh is opaque all the way up the sides of each fillet and only the top of...
8. Using spatula and a pair of tongs, carefully turn each fillet so skin side is up. Turn off heat and let heat remaining in skillet gently cook second side. Once fillets have stopped sizzling, carefully transfer to a plate.
9. Return pan to medium-high heat and add half of cabbage from bowl. Cook, tossing occasionally with tongs, until cabbage is wilted and browned and even charred in some spots, about 5 minutes. Toss in remaining cabbage from bowl and cook, stirring often, until second batch is ten...
10. Scrape cabbage mixture back into bowl and add remaining 1 Tbsp. oil. Add garlic and ginger to pan and cook, tossing often, until garlic is browned all over and ginger is browned around the edges, about 3 minutes.
11. Stir soy mixture to re-incorporate cornstarch and add to skillet. Stir rapidly until mixture is thickened, which will only take a few seconds, then remove from heat.
12. Add cooked cabbage and uncooked green cabbage back to skillet and toss well to coat.
13. Arrange salmon fillets over of cabbage and serve.

2 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Plain whole-milk yogurt
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 5 ml Honey
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 0.5 small Fennel bulb — very thinly sliced
- 80 ml Torn pitted castelvetrano olives
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 10 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 5 ml Honey
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 30 g Cashew — almond, or hazelnut milk or water
- 30 g Chickpea flour
- 2 large Eggs
- Seasoning mix of choice* — optional
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 45 ml Olive oil
- 2 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced

· 2.5 ml Grated peeled ginger
· 1 bunch Small hardy greens (such as kale — Swiss chard, or collard), ribs and stems removed, leaves torn
· 1 Lemon wedge
· 125 g Maitake or oyster mushrooms
· 8 ml Tamari soy sauce
· Sesame seeds — for serving

METHOD

1. Stir yogurt, lemon juice, oil, and honey in a small bowl to combine; season with salt and pepper.
2. Toss fennel, olives, oil, lemon juice, and honey in a medium bowl to combine; season with salt and pepper.
3. Whisk cashew milk into chickpea flour in a medium bowl. Let sit until slightly thickened, 12–15 minutes. Whisk in eggs; season with salt and pepper and seasoning mix of choice, if desired.
4. Meanwhile, heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a medium cast-iron or nonstick skillet over medium. Cook garlic, stirring occasionally, until golden, about 3 minutes. Add ginger and cook, stirring, just until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add greens by the handful, tossing until wilted before ad...
5. Wipe out skillet and heat 1 Tbsp. oil in skillet over medium-high. Cook mushrooms, undisturbed, until deeply browned, about 3 minutes. Turn and cook, tossing occasionally, until other side is deeply browned, about 5 minutes. Season with tamari to taste. Transfer to a plate.
6. Wipe out skillet and heat remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in reserved skillet over medium-high. Pour in batter and cook, undisturbed, until bottom is deep golden brown, about 3 minutes. Turn and cook until light golden brown (edges will curl slightly), about 3 minutes.
7. Serve cromlet in skillet or transfer to a plate. Top with wilted greens, mushrooms, yogurt sauce, and fennel and olive salad. Sprinkle with sesame seeds.
8. A pinch each of cracked coriander seeds, cracked cumin seeds, ground turmeric, and sesame seeds and a small pinch of cayenne pepper
9. A pinch each of za'atar, crushed red pepper flakes, cracked cumin seeds, and hemp seeds
10. A pinch each of chopped rosemary and cracked fennel seeds

INGREDIENTS

- 3 medium Ripe tomatoes
- 15 ml Peanut or vegetable oil
- 1 1/2 To 2 pounds large sea scallops
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 30 ml Curry powder
- 120 ml Heavy cream — sour cream, or yogurt
- Juice of 1 lime
- 120 ml Washed — dried

METHOD

1. 1.Core the tomatoes (cut a cone-shaped wedge out of the stem end), then cut them in half horizontally. Gently squeeze out the liquid and shake out most of their seeds. Chop their flesh into 1/2-inch pieces and set aside. Heat a 12-inch nonstick skillet over medium heat for abo...
2. 2. Add the oil, then quickly dredge the scallops lightly in the curry powder and add them to the pan. About 2 minutes after you added the first scallop, turn it—;it should be nicely browned (if it is not, raise the heat a bit). When the scallops are all browned and turned, coo...
3. 3. Heat the tomatoes through, then taste and add more salt and pepper if necessary. Sprinkle with the lime juice, stir in the cilantro, and serve.
4. SINCE YOU'RE USING a large quantity of curry powder here, it should not be super-hot. (This is obviously a matter of taste, but I prefer a mild, sweet curry.) The powder itself must be fairly fine; if it is too coarse, the resulting crust will be gritty rather than crisp.
5. DREDGE THE SCALLOPS lightly in the curry, not as heavily as you would in flour.
6. KEEP THE SCALLOPS rare; they're at their best that way, and perfectly safe, as long as they're fresh.

Curry Shrimp & Spaghetti 6 servings

Fusion · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 900 g Shrimp — washed in water, drained
- 2 Boxes spaghetti
- 3 Bell peppers — seeded and coarsely chopped
- 5 ml Garlic powder
- 15 ml Old bay seasoning
- 15 ml Curry powder
- 5 ml Fish seasoning
- 5 ml Lawry's seasoning salt
- 3 g Salt
- 20 ml Butter
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 2.5 ml Dry parsley flakes
- 2.5 ml Black pepper
- 0.5 onion — coarsely chopped
- 5 ml Red pepper flakes
- 960 ml Water

METHOD

1. Dry season the shrimps by rubbing them with, curry powder, garlic powder, fish seasoning, salt, and Lawry's seasoning salt.
2. Pour olive oil in a deep frying pot, place shrimps in the pot while stirring continuously. To this pot, add butter, parsley flakes, and crushed red pepper flakes.
3. Add bell peppers and ¾ of the prepared onion pieces to the pot and stir to combine. Cook until slightly softened.
4. Pour the water in the pot and add the spaghetti. Cover and let simmer until spaghetti is cooked and water has combined with spices and veggies to achieve a gravy-like consistency.
5. Simmer further, adding remaining onions. If the sauce is too thick, thin out with milk or cream.
6. Serve warm.

Curry-dusted Scallops With Fennel-apple Broth 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 medium Fennel bulb — with some stalks and fronds
- 2 medium Tart apples — divided
- 960 ml Apple cider
- 2 medium Shallots — sliced
- 12 large Sea scallops — side muscle removed, patted dry
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 12 ml Curry powder — divided
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 2.5 ml (or more) apple cider vinegar
- 15 ml Chopped fresh chives

METHOD

1. Set a fine-mesh sieve over a medium bowl. Trim stalks and fronds from fennel; place trimmings in a large heavy saucepan. Set bulb aside. Coarsely chop 1 apple with skin and core; place in saucepan. Add cider and shallots. Bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to medium; ...

2. Preheat oven to 250°. Halve fennel through core; thinly slice crosswise. Peel, core, and cut remaining apple into 1/3" cubes.
3. Season scallops with salt and pepper. Place 2 tsp. curry powder on a small plate. Dip flat sides of scallops in curry powder; place on a large plate.
4. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a large heavy skillet over medium-high heat. Add scallops and cook until browned and just opaque in the center, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer to a small baking sheet; reserve skillet. Place scallops in oven to keep warm.
5. Add remaining 1 Tbsp. oil, sliced fennel, and apple cubes to reserved skillet; sauté until beginning to soften, about 3 minutes. Add fennel-apple broth and remaining 1/2 tsp. curry powder. Increase heat and boil until mixture thickens slightly and measures 2 cups, about 10 min...
6. Divide broth mixture among shallow soup bowls. Add scallops; garnish with chives.

Date Night Bay Scallop Fettuccine With White Wine And Garlic 2 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian

· 125 g Fettuccini pasta
· 2 slice Thick-cut bacon — chopped
· 3 clove Garlic — minced
· 45 ml Panko bread crumbs
· 225 g Bay scallops
· 1 ml Italian seasoning
· Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
· 60 ml White wine
· 60 ml Heavy whipping cream
· 240 ml Loosely packed baby spinach
· 60 ml Finely shredded parmesan cheese
· 30 ml Julienned sun-dried tomatoes
· 30 ml Microgreens

METHOD

1. Fill a large pot with lightly salted water and bring to a rolling boil. Cook fettuccine at a boil until tender, yet firm to the bite, about 8 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, place bacon pieces in a large skillet and cook over medium-high heat, turning occasionally, until crisp-tender, 3 to 5 minutes. Drain bacon slices on paper towels.
3. Add minced garlic to the remaining bacon grease and cook until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add bread crumbs and cook until golden, about 30 seconds more. Remove panko-garlic mixture to a small bowl.
4. Blot dry bay scallops with a paper towel. Season bay scallops with Italian seasoning, salt, and pepper.
5. Cook bay scallops in the same skillet until nicely golden, about 2 minutes. Pour in white wine and cream. Stir to combine. Add spinach, Parmesan Cheese, sun-dried tomatoes, and crumble in cooked bacon; stir to combine.
6. Drain pasta, reserving 1/3 cup pasta water. Add fettuccine noodles to the skillet with scallop mixture and mix to combine. If sauce is too thick, add reserved pasta water a little at a time to thin out sauce.
7. Plate fettuccine mixture and garnish with toasted panko and microgreens, if desired. Serve immediately.

Doug's Crawfish Pie

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml Butter
- 120 ml Flour
- 1 Sweet onion (such as vidalia®) — chopped
- 1 Green bell pepper — chopped
- Celery — chopped
- 4 Green onions — chopped
- 120 ml Vegetable broth
- 45 ml Tomato paste
- 900 g Cooked and peeled whole crawfish tails
- 3 clove Garlic — chopped
- 60 ml Fresh parsley
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- Cayenne pepper to taste
- Hot sauce to taste
- 12 Puff pastry shells

METHOD

1. Melt butter in a large skillet on medium heat, then stir in flour; cook until light brown, about 10 minutes. Add sweet onion, green pepper, celery, and green onions. Cover and simmer on low heat for about one hour, stirring occasionally.
2. Stir in vegetable broth and tomato paste, and cook until it reaches a creamy consistency. Mix in crawfish tails, garlic, and parsley, then cook for about 15 minutes or until the tails are tender. Stir in salt, black pepper, cayenne pepper, and hot sauce.
3. Preheat an oven to 204°C (200 degrees C). Bake the puff pastry shells for 5 to 7 minutes, or until they puff up and start to brown a little. Remove from oven and set aside to cool. Pull off center tops and save. Turn oven down to 177°C (175 degrees C).
4. Spoon mixture into puff pastry shells until slightly overfilled. Put extra filling into a pie dish and cover with the remaining puff pastry shell center tops to create 6 small pies and 1 large crawfish pie. Place pies on a baking sheet.
5. Bake for about 15 minutes, or until the shells are golden brown and the filling has a nice shine to it.

METHOD

1. In a small bowl, whisk together 1 teaspoon potato starch with 1/4 cup (60ml) cold water until well combined; set aside.
2. Rinse the shrimp under cold running water, massaging the shrimp with your hands, for 1 minute. In a medium bowl, combine the rinsed shrimp, baking soda, egg white, and salt. Add remaining 2 tablespoons potato starch and, using a spoon or clean hands, toss to coat shrimp.
3. Place a wire rack over a rimmed baking sheet. In a carbon-steel wok or 10-inch carbon steel or stainless-steel skillet, heat oil over high heat to 166°C (165°C). Add shrimp, discarding any excess marinade and dropping from as close to the oil's surface as possible to minimize ...
4. Return 2 tablespoons (30ml) oil to now-empty wok and return the wok to high heat (allow remaining oil to fully cool before storing). Add ginger and garlic and cook, stirring constantly, until softened but not browned, about 10 seconds. Add chile-bean paste and cook, stirring, ...
5. Add reserved shrimp and toss to coat. Stir in potato starch slurry, a teaspoon or two at a time, until sauce thickens enough to coat the shrimp in a glaze; discard any remaining potato starch-water mixture or reserve for another use. If sauce over-thickens and becomes gloppy, ...
6. Transfer to a plate and serve immediately.

Eric Ripert's Red Snapper And Morels In Port Reduction 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

- 480 ml 10-year-old port
- 480 ml Sherry vinegar
- 4 6 -ounce red snapper fillets
- Kosher salt — freshly ground white pepper
- 1 ml Chinese five-spice powder
- 60 ml Vegetable oil
- 1 bunch Asparagus — tips only, cut into 2-inch lengths
- 450 g Fresh morels or other wild mushrooms
- 30 ml Thyme leaves
- 75 ml Unsalted butter
- 20 ml Finely chopped fresh chives

METHOD

1. Bring Port to a boil in a small heavy saucepan over medium-high heat. Lower heat and simmer until reduced by half (if using a gas stove, make sure flames don’t lick the side of the pan; if they do, the Port will burn and the sauce will be bitter). Add vinegar and simmer, lower...
2. Preheat oven to 250°. Season snapper on both sides with salt and pepper. Sprinkle five-spice powder over skin and rub it in. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a large nonstick skillet over high until just smoking. Add 2 snapper fillets to skillet, skin side down, and press down gently on fi...
3. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet over high until just smoking. Add half of asparagus, reduce heat to medium, and cook, turning occasionally, until browned, about 3 minutes. Add half of mushrooms and cook, tossing occasionally, until tender, about 4 minutes; season with salt...
4. Wipe out skillet and repeat process with remaining asparagus, mushrooms, and 1 Tbsp. oil. Return all vegetables to skillet and add thyme and 2 Tbsp. butter. Cook, tossing, until butter is melted and coats vegetables, about 2 minutes.
5. Bring Port reduction to a boil in a small saucepan over high heat. Cut remaining 3 Tbsp. butter into small pieces. Remove pan from heat and gradually add butter, swirling reduction in pan until emulsified, about 3 minutes. It should look shiny, not greasy.
6. Toss chives into vegetables. Serve vegetables topped with fish with Port sauce spooned around.
7. Do Ahead: Sauce can be made 1 week ahead. Let cool; cover and chill.

- 10 ml Fennel seeds
- 5 ml Coriander seeds
- 5 ml Whole black peppercorns
- 8 g Kosher salt — divided
- 80 ml Mayonnaise
- 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 45 ml Chopped fresh chives
- 4 Garlic cloves — minced, divided
- 120 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 Carrot — peeled, coarsely chopped
- 60 ml Chopped red onion
- 10 ml Chopped fresh thyme
- 540 ml Water
- 225 g Sugar snap peas
- 350 g Couscous
- 30 ml Chopped fresh dill
- 1.1 kg Ahi tuna steaks — about 1 1/4 inches thick

METHOD

1. Combine first 3 ingredients in heavy small skillet. Toast over medium heat until fragrant, shaking skillet occasionally, about 3 minutes. Grind spice mixture in spice grinder. Transfer to bowl; mix in 1 teaspoon salt.
2. Whisk mayonnaise, lemon juice, chives, and half of garlic in small bowl. (Can be made 2 days ahead. Store spice mixture airtight at room temperature. Cover and refrigerate lemon aioli.)
3. Heat 2 tablespoons oil in heavy large skillet over medium-high heat. Add carrot and onion and sauté until crisp-tender, about 3 minutes. Add thyme and remaining garlic and sauté 1 minute. Add 2 1/4 cups water and remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt; bring to boil. Add sugar snap peas ...
4. Prepare barbecue (high heat). Coat tuna with 6 tablespoons oil. Sprinkle with spice mixture. Grill tuna until seared outside and rare in center, about 4 minutes per side. Refrigerate uncovered for 1 hour, then cut into 1/2-inch-thick slices. Spoon couscous onto plates. Top wit...

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Vegetable oil
- 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 large Egg yolk
- 1 small Garlic clove
- 30 ml . fresh lemon juice
- 15 ml . red wine vinegar
- 10 ml . fish sauce
- 1 g Diamond crystal or morton kosher salt
- 1 ml Freshly ground pepper
- 8 Oil-packed anchovy fillets
- 1 medium Head of cabbage — about 2 lb.
- 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for drizzling
- Kosher salt
- 30 g Panko
- 25 g Finely grated parmesan — plus more for serving
- Freshly ground pepper
- 6 Boquerones — marinated white anchovies

METHOD

1. Combine ½ cup vegetable oil and 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil in a measuring glass. Place 1 large egg yolk, 1 small garlic clove, 2 Tbsp. fresh lemon juice, 1 Tbsp. red wine vinegar, 2 tsp. fish sauce, ¼ tsp. Diamond Crystal or Morton kosher salt, and ¼ tsp. freshly ground pe...
2. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Cut 1 medium head of cabbage (about 2 lb.) into 8 wedges, keeping core intact. Drizzle generously with extra-virgin olive oil and season with kosher salt. Grill cabbage, cut side down, undisturbed, until charred underneath, 10–15 minutes. ...
3. Cook ½ cup panko and 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil in a medium nonstick skillet over medium heat, stirring often, until panko is golden brown, 6–9 minutes. Transfer to a small bowl and let cool.
4. Remove cores and charred outer leaves from cabbage. (Once the outer leaves are removed, there will be only a thin edge of char left on each leaf—just enough to add visual interest and some deep caramelized flavor to the final dish.) Separate remaining tender leaves and transfe...
5. Brush 2 Tbsp. dressing over a platter to coat. Drizzle remaining dressing over cabbage mixture in bowl and toss to combine and coat leaves evenly; season with salt and freshly ground pepper. Pile dressed cabbage on platter, then scatter 6 boquerones (marinated white anchovies)...

Feta-spinach Stuffed Salmon 2 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- Cooking spray
- 0.5 pkg Cream cheese — softened
- 1 pkg Crumbled feta cheese — or to taste
- 80 ml Frozen chopped spinach - thawed — drained
- 2 stalk Scallions — white and green parts, thinly sliced
- 1 Boneless salmon fillet
- 15 ml Olive oil

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 177°C (175 degrees C). Coat a large baking dish with cooking spray.
2. Combine cream cheese, feta cheese, spinach, and scallions in a small bowl until well blended.
3. Cut salmon into two equal pieces. Brush top of one piece with oil. Place oiled-side down, into the prepared baking dish. Spread cream cheese filling evenly over top. Place remaining piece of salmon on top of filling and brush top with oil.
4. Bake in the preheated oven until fish flakes easily with a fork, 20 to 30 minutes. Cooking time will depend on the size and weight of salmon. Begin checking doneness after 20 minutes.
5. Slice into two pieces to serve.

Fettuccine With Crab 2 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 15 ml Unsalted butter
- 1 small Shallot — finely chopped
- 1 small Garlic clove — finely grated
- 1 8 -ounce container crème fraîche — room temperature
- Kosher salt
- 175 g Fresh or dried fettuccine or tagliatelle
- 275 g Cooked dungeness — king, or jumbo lump crabmeat
- 0.5 lemon
- 120 ml Tarragon leaves
- 5 ml Piment d'espelette or aleppo-style pepper or 0.25 teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes

METHOD

1. Heat oil and butter in a medium skillet over medium. Cook shallot and garlic, stirring often, until soft and golden, about 4 minutes. Add in crème fraîche and cook until mixture is slightly thickened, about 3 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until very al dente, about 3 minutes (for fresh pasta). Drain, reserving ½ cup pasta cooking liquid.
3. Using tongs, transfer pasta to skillet with sauce and add crabmeat. Finely grate zest from lemon over pasta and squeeze in about 1 tsp. juice. Cook pasta, tossing constantly and thinning sauce with a few tablespoonfuls of pasta cooking liquid if needed, until pasta is glossy a...

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Maple syrup
- 1 medium Jalapeno — cut in half width-wise
- 1 clove Garlic — minced
- 15 ml Rice wine vinegar
- 2.5 ml Salt
- 0.5 ml Black pepper
- 2 Fillets salmon fillets
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 10 ml Maple syrup

METHOD

1. Combine 1/4 cup maple syrup, 1/2 of the jalapeño pepper, garlic, vinegar, salt, and black pepper in a mini food processor or small blender jar; blend until smooth.
2. Place salmon fillets in a gallon-sized resealable plastic bag. Pour marinade on top, seal, and refrigerate for 20 minutes. Remove from refrigerator and let the bag sit at room temperature for 10 minutes.
3. Preheat the oven to 218°C (220 degrees C). Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.
4. Remove salmon from marinade and pat dry. Place salmon on the prepared baking sheet and season with additional salt and pepper. Slice remaining jalapeno pepper thinly and place on top of salmon.
5. Bake in the preheated oven for 10 minutes. Brush 2 teaspoons maple syrup onto the fillets and return to the hot oven. Bake until fish flakes easily with a fork, an additional 3 to 5 minutes.

Fish And Chips With Malt Vinegar Mayonnaise 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 1 large Egg yolk*
- 30 ml . malt vinegar — divided
- 240 ml Vegetable oil
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- Vegetable oil — for frying; about 4 cups
- 250 g All-purpose flour
- 10 ml . baking powder
- 5 ml . baking soda
- 5 ml . kosher salt plus more
- 2.5 ml Freshly ground black pepper plus more
- 350 g . (or more) chilled light lager
- 240 ml Chilled club soda
- 15 ml . malt vinegar
- 240 ml Corn flour or all-purpose flour
- 700 g Cod — haddock or pollack, cut into long, 1 0.5"-wide strips
- French fries — for serving; click for recipe
- Old bay seasoning — flaky sea salt (such as Maldon), and chopped fresh dill
- Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. A deep-fry thermometer
2. Corn flour, which is more finely ground than cornmeal, is available at Latin markets, natural foods stores, and bobsredmill.com.
3. Whisk egg yolk and 1 Tbsp. vinegar in a small bowl. Whisking constantly, slowly drizzle in oil, drop by drop at first, until mayonnaise is thickened and smooth. Add remaining 1 Tbsp. vinegar; season with salt and pepper. Cover and chill.
4. Mayonnaise can be made 1 day ahead. Keep chilled.
5. Fit a large pot with thermometer; pour in oil to measure 3". Heat over medium-high heat until thermometer registers 375°.
6. Meanwhile, whisk all-purpose flour, baking powder, baking soda, 1 tsp. kosher salt, and ½ tsp. pepper in a large bowl. Whisking constantly, slowly add beer, club soda, and vinegar, adding more beer if batter is too thick (it should be the consistency of thin pancake batter).
7. Place corn flour in a shallow bowl. Season fish with kosher salt and pepper. Dredge fish in corn flour, shaking off excess, then dip in batter, letting excess drip back into bowl. Working in batches and returning oil to 375° between batches, fry fish until golden brown and cri...
8. Season fish and fries with Old Bay, sea salt, and dill; serve with malt vinegar mayonnaise and lemon wedges.
9. *Raw egg is not recommended for infants, the elderly, pregnant women, people with weakened immune systems…or people who don't like raw egg.

Fish And Chips With Minty Mushy Peas 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml Unsalted butter
- 0.5 small Onion — finely chopped
- 480 ml Shelled fresh peas (from about 2 pounds pods) or 10 ounces frozen peas — thawed
- 60 ml Vegetable stock or water
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 60 ml Fresh mint leaves
- Vegetable oil — for frying; about 5 quarts
- 2 large Russet potatoes (about 1 pound) — peeled, cut into 0.5-inch-thick sticks
- 1 12 -ounce can lager beer — such as Budweiser
- 5 ml Soy sauce
- 1 ml Cayenne pepper
- 175 g Plus 0.5 cup self-rising flour
- Kosher salt and freshly ground white or black pepper
- 4 4 -ounce strips haddock or cod
- A deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Heat butter in a small saucepan over medium. Cook onion, stirring occasionally, until softened but not browned, about 5 minutes. Add peas and stock and season with salt and pepper. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer until peas are bright green and tender, about 5 minutes.
2. Transfer to a food processor, add mint, and pulse to a coarse puree; season with salt and pepper.
3. Do Ahead: Peas can be cooked 1 day ahead. Let cool; cover and chill.
4. Fit a large pot with thermometer; pour in oil to measure 4". Heat over medium-high until thermometer registers 250°. Add half of potatoes and fry, stirring occasionally, until potatoes are tender and cooked through but have not taken on any color, 10–12 minutes. Using a spider...

5. Increase heat to bring oil to 325°. Whisk beer, soy sauce, cayenne, and 1½ cups flour in a large bowl until no lumps remain; season with salt and pepper. Place remaining ½ cup flour in a shallow bowl. Season haddock with salt and pepper and dredge lightly in flour.

6. Working with 2 pieces at a time, dip fish into batter, letting excess drip back into bowl. Carefully lower fish into oil and fry until fish is cooked through and batter is golden brown and crisp, 8–10 minutes. Transfer fish to paper towels to drain; season with salt.

7. As soon as all fish is fried, add potatoes to oil and fry until crisp and golden, about 4 minutes. Using a spider or slotted spoon, transfer chips to paper towels to drain; season with salt.

8. Meanwhile, gently reheat mushy peas over medium heat, if needed. Serve alongside fish and chips.

Fish Curry 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Firm white fish (such as grouper — tilapia, or cod), cut into 2" pieces
- 5 ml . diamond crystal or 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt
- 5 ml . kashmiri chile powder or 0.5 tsp. cayenne pepper
- 2.5 ml Ground turmeric
- 45 ml . grapeseed oil or vegetable oil
- 45 ml . grapeseed oil or vegetable oil
- 5 ml . brown mustard seeds
- 3–4 Fresh or dried curry leaves — optional
- 2.5 ml Asafetida — optional
- 1 3 " piece ginger — peeled, finely grated
- 5 Garlic cloves — finely grated
- Kosher salt
- 1 large Red onion — chopped
- 5 ml . ground turmeric
- 1 14 -oz. can crushed tomatoes
- 1 13.5 -oz. can unsweetened coconut milk — not low-fat
- 240 ml Low-sodium vegetable or chicken broth
- Thinly sliced red onion — cilantro leaves with tender stems; cooked basmati rice, wild rice, or warm naan; and lime wedges (for serving)

METHOD

1. Combine fish, salt, chile powder, and turmeric in a medium bowl and, using your hands, gently toss fish to evenly coat in spices.

2. Heat oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Working in batches to avoid crowding, cook fish pieces until lightly browned, about 2 minutes per side (the fish won't be cooked all the way through). Transfer fish to a plate.

3. Heat grapeseed oil in a medium Dutch oven or other heavy pot over medium-high. Add a few mustard seeds to pot. When seeds start to wiggle and pop, reduce heat to medium and add curry leaves (if using), asafetida (if using), and remaining mustard seeds. Cover pot and cook spice...

4. Stir in turmeric, then tomatoes and bring to a simmer. Reduce heat to medium and cook, stirring often, until tomatoes are glossy and darkened in color and oil starts to separate around edges of pot, 5–7 minutes.

5. Add coconut milk and broth and stir to combine; season with salt. Bring curry to a simmer, then reduce heat to medium-low. Cover and cook, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking, 10 minutes.

6. Add fish to curry. Return to a gentle simmer and cook until fish is just cooked through and flakes easily with a fork, about 4 minutes. Taste and season with more salt if needed.

7. Divide fish curry among bowls. Top with sliced red onion and cilantro. Serve with rice and lime wedges for squeezing over. Do Ahead: Curry can be made 5 days ahead. Let cool, then transfer to an

· 250 g Panko — Japanese breadcrumbs
· 4 large Egg yolks
· 480 ml Buttermilk
· 240 ml Cornstarch
· 4 Skinless — boneless gray sole or flounder fillets (about 1 0.5 pounds total)
· Kosher salt
· Vegetable oil — for frying; about 3 cups
· Flaky sea salt
· 3 medium Persian cucumbers — cut into small pieces
· 1 medium Fennel bulb — cut into small pieces
· 0.5 small Red onion — very thinly sliced
· 0.5 serrano chile — thinly sliced
· Cilantro leaves and lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Cook cilantro in a medium pot of boiling salted water until wilted, about 20 seconds. Drain and transfer cilantro to a bowl of ice water. Swish around in water to cool. Drain, then squeeze excess liquid from herbs with your hands.
2. Purée cilantro, ginger, and 2 Tbsp. water in a blender until almost smooth. With motor running, gradually stream in oil and blend until smooth. Strain cilantro oil through a fine-mesh sieve into a small bowl; discard any solids. Mix lime juice into oil and season with salt.
3. Do Ahead: Cilantro oil (without lime juice and salt) can be made 1 day ahead. Cover and chill. Bring to room temperature before adding lime juice and salt.
4. Process panko in a food processor until very finely ground (it will only take 45–60 seconds). Transfer to a shallow bowl. Place egg yolks in another shallow bowl and whisk in buttermilk. Place cornstarch in a third shallow bowl. Line a rimmed baking sheet with paper towels and...
5. Working with 1 fillet at a time, season with kosher salt on both sides and dredge in cornstarch, shaking off excess. Dip in egg mixture, letting excess drip back into bowl, then coat in panko, pressing to adhere before shaking off excess. Repeat steps to make a second coating....
6. Pour oil into a large heavy skillet, preferably cast iron, to come 1" up sides. Heat oil over medium-high until an instant-read thermometer registers 350°–365° (Don't let the tip of the thermometer touch the bottom of the skillet). Carefully lower a fillet along the side of sk...
7. Toss cucumbers, fennel, onion, chile, cilantro oil, and a pinch of kosher salt in a medium bowl and top with some cilantro.
8. Serve fish with cucumber ceviche and lime wedges.

Fish Tacos 8 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

· 900 g Skinless red snapper or other mild white fish fillets
· 240 ml All-purpose flour
· 240 ml White rice flour
· 10 ml Kosher salt
· 480 ml Club soda
· Vegetable oil — for frying; about 8 cups
· 16 small Corn tortillas — 32 if you would like to use 2 per taco
· Cabbage and jicama slaw — Fresno Chile Hot Sauce, and sliced Pickled Jalapeños (for serving; click for recipes)
· Sliced avocado — cilantro leaves with tender stems, and lime wedges (for serving)
· A deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Remove any pin bones from fish fillets (using tweezers makes this easy). Cut each fillet in half lengthwise. Cut each half on a diagonal into 1” strips. (Work with the natural shape of the fish as you cut; this will help the pieces stay together instead of falling apart when f...
2. Whisk all-purpose flour, rice flour, and salt in a medium bowl. Gradually whisk in club soda until no lumps remain; adjust with more club soda or rice flour as needed to make it the consistency of thin pancake batter—it should be pourable, but thick enough to coat the fish.
3. Fit a large pot with a deep-fry thermometer and pour in oil to measure 2”. Heat over medium-high heat until thermometer registers 350°.
4. Working in batches of 5–7 pieces at a time, coat fish in batter, letting excess drip off, then carefully place in oil (to avoid splattering, lower fish into oil pointing away from you). Don’t overcrowd the pot: The oil temperature will drop dramatically and fish may stick toge...
5. Fry fish, turning occasionally with a fish spatula or slotted spoon and maintaining oil temperature at 350°, until crust is puffed, crisp, and golden brown, about 5 minutes. Transfer to a wire rack set inside a rimmed baking sheet; season immediately with salt.
6. While fish is frying, use tongs to heat tortillas one at a time directly over a gas burner, moving them often, until lightly charred and puffed in spots, about 1 minute per side. Transfer to a plate; cover with a clean kitchen towel to keep warm. (If you don’t have a gas stove...
7. Top tortillas (we like two per taco) with fish, slaw, hot sauce, avocado, cilantro, and jalapeños. Serve with lime wedges.

Fish Tacos Al Pastor 8 servings

INGREDIENTS

· 10 Guajillo chiles
· 3 Morita chiles
· 1.4 kg Skinless striped bass
· 120 ml Fresh orange juice
· 60 ml Store-bought or homemade achiote paste
· 5 Garlic cloves — divided
· 60 ml Plus 3 tablespoons fresh lime juice
· 15 ml Plus 1 0.5 teaspoons kosher salt
· 0.5 red onion — finely chopped
· 1 Habanero chile — finely chopped
· 480 ml Finely chopped pineapple — from about 0.5 medium pineapple
· 45 ml Chopped cilantro
· Vegetable oil — for grill
· 16 Corn tortillas
· Lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Bring guajillo and morita chiles and 1½ cups water to a boil in a medium saucepan. Cover, remove from heat, and let sit 30 minutes to let chiles soften.
2. Place fish in a large bowl or baking dish. Transfer chile mixture and soaking liquid to a blender. Add orange juice, achiote paste, 4 garlic cloves, ¼ cup lime juice, and 1 Tbsp. salt and purée until smooth, about 2 minutes. Reserve 1 cup chile sauce for serving; leave uncover...
3. Meanwhile, mix onion, habanero chile, pineapple, 3 Tbsp. cilantro, and remaining garlic clove, 3 Tbsp. lime juice, and 1½ tsp. salt in a medium bowl. Cover and chill until ready to use.
4. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat; thoroughly clean grates and brush with oil. Working in batches if necessary, grill fish, leaving a few inches of space between each piece, until marinade is dried and begins to caramelize and char, 2–3 minutes. Using a fish spatula, releas...
5. Grill tortillas until just beginning to char, about 30 seconds per side. Top each tortilla with a piece of fish, a light schmear of reserved chile purée, and a spoonful of pineapple salsa. Top with cilantro. Serve with lime wedges for squeezing over.
6. Do Ahead: Pineapple salsa can be made 4 hours ahead. Keep chilled.

Fish Tacos With Cabbage Salsa And Yogurt Sauce

Mexican · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 0.5 medium Head cabbage — shredded
· 2 medium Tomatoes — chopped, or more to taste
· 480 ml Chopped fresh cilantro — divided
· 1 medium Jalapeno pepper — seeded and minced
· 60 ml Honey
· 4 medium Limes — juiced, divided
· Salt and ground black pepper to taste
· 240 ml Plain yogurt
· 15 ml Mayonnaise
· 15 ml Dried dill weed
· 1 ml Cayenne pepper — divided
· 15 ml Dried oregano
· 15 ml Sumac powder
· 5 ml Ground cumin
· 4 Tilapia fillets
· 15 ml Olive oil
· 8 Flour tortillas

METHOD

1. Combine cabbage, tomatoes, 1 1/2 cups cilantro, jalapeno pepper, honey, and 3/4 of the lime juice in a big bowl. Mix well and season with salt and pepper.
2. Mix yogurt and 1 tablespoon mayonnaise in a small bowl. Add remaining 1/2 cup cilantro, remaining lime juice, dill, and 1/8 teaspoon cayenne and season with salt. If it's too tart for your taste, add more mayonnaise.
3. Mix oregano, sumac, cumin, and remaining 1/8 teaspoon cayenne in a bowl. Season with salt and pepper. Rub spice mix onto both sides of the tilapia fillets.
4. Heat oil in a cast iron skillet over medium-high heat until shimmering. Add tilapia and cook until blackened and fish flakes easily with a fork, 2 to 3 minutes per side. Remove from the heat.
5. Heat tortillas in a dry skillet over medium-high heat for 30 to 60 seconds per side.
6. Put some blackened tilapia in each tortilla and top with cabbage salsa. Fold in half and return to the hot skillet to lightly crisp on each side. Serve immediately with yogurt sauce on the side, to be used as a dip.

Fish Tacos With Kumquat Salsa 2 servings

Tasty

· 120 ml Kumquats — seeded and small diced
· 60 ml Red onion — small
· 1 Serrano chile — seeded and small diced
· 60 ml Fresh cilantro
· 1 Lime
· Kosher salt
· 275 g Halibut fillet
· 5 ml Kosher salt
· 2.5 ml Ground cumin
· 2.5 ml Garlic powder
· 2.5 ml Ancho chile powder
· 10 ml Grapeseed oil

- 240 ml Red cabbage
- 1 Lime — juiced
- 6 Flour tortillas — lightly charred
- 1 Avocado — sliced
- Radish — for garnish
- Fresh cilantro leaf — for garnish

METHOD

1. Make the kumquat salsa: In a small bowl, stir together the kumquats, red onion, Fresno chile, cilantro, lime juice, and salt.
2. Make the fish tacos: Season the halibut with the salt, ancho chile powder, garlic powder, and cumin.
3. Heat the grapeseed oil in a medium cast iron skillet over high heat. Add the halibut and cook, flipping once with a fish spatula, until seared and cooked through on both sides, about 3 minutes per side, depending on the thickness of the fish. Remove the fish from the skillet a...
4. In a medium bowl, toss the red cabbage with the lime juice and a pinch of salt.
5. Assemble the tacos: Add some of the red cabbage to the tortillas, then top with some of the fish, a spoonful of kumquat salsa, a few slices of avocado and radish, and a sprinkle of cilantro.
6. Enjoy!

Fish Tacos With Spicy Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml Sour cream or plain whole-milk greek yogurt
- 30 ml . sriracha
- 15 ml . fresh lime juice
- 5 ml . diamond crystal or 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt
- 1 g Sugar
- 0.25 small Head of cabbage — thinly sliced
- 30 ml . fresh lime juice
- 45 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided
- 15 ml . diamond crystal or 1 0.75 tsp. morton kosher salt — divided
- 15 ml . ground cumin
- 15 ml . paprika
- 2.5 ml Cayenne pepper
- 700 g Skinless — boneless cod or halibut fillets
- Warm small corn tortillas — thinly sliced red onion, thinly sliced jalapeño, cilantro leaves with tender stems, and lime wedges (for serving)

METHOD

1. Whisk 1 cup sour cream or plain whole-milk Greek yogurt, 2 Tbsp. sriracha, 1 Tbsp. fresh lime juice, 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton kosher salt, ¼ tsp. sugar, and 2 Tbsp. water in a small bowl to combine. Cover and chill sauce until ready to use. Do ahead: Sauce can b...
2. Toss ¼ small head of cabbage, thinly sliced, 2 Tbsp. fresh lime juice, 1 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil, and 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton kosher salt in a medium bowl to combine. Set slaw aside.
3. Mix 1 Tbsp. ground cumin, 1 Tbsp. paprika, ½ tsp. cayenne pepper, and remaining 2 tsp. Diamond Crystal or 1¼ tsp. Morton kosher salt in a small bowl to combine.
4. Place 1½ lb. skinless, boneless cod or halibut fillets on a small baking sheet or plate and sprinkle spice mix over to coat. Drizzle remaining 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil over fish and rub with your hands so a light paste forms on fish with no dry spots.
5. Heat a dry nonstick skillet over medium-high. Cook fish, gently turning over with a fish spatula halfway through, until golden and flesh is opaque and flakes easily with a fork, about 12 minutes total. Remove from heat.
6. To serve, top warm small corn tortillas with pieces of fish and reserved slaw. Top with thinly sliced red onion, thinly sliced jalapeño, and cilantro leaves with tender stems. Serve with lime wedges for squeezing over.

- 480 ml Cherry tomatoes — halved
- Cilantro leaves — for serving
- 2 Layers of cheesecloth

METHOD

1. Place 3 whole green cardamom pods, cracked, one 3"-long cinnamon stick, and 2 tsp. whole allspice on cheesecloth and gather up corners into the center; tie closed with kitchen twine. Melt ¼ cup unsalted butter, room temperature, cut into 1" pieces, in a medium saucepan over me...
2. Remove sachet from pan and discard. Transfer onion mixture to a blender and pour in 1 Tbsp. water. Purée until smooth. With the motor running, add remaining ¼ cup unsalted butter, room temperature, cut into 1" pieces, a few pieces at a time, waiting until incorporated before a...
3. Season four 4–6-oz. skin-on cod, hake, or haddock fillets, patted dry, on both sides with kosher salt. Heat 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Arrange fillets, skin side down, in pan and cook until skin is crisp and flesh is almost coo...
4. Heat remaining 1 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil in same skillet. Cook 2 cups cherry tomatoes, halved, stirring occasionally, until blistered in spots and starting to collapse, about 4 minutes; remove from heat.
5. To serve, spoon about ¼ cup sauce into each shallow bowl. Top with fish, placing skin side up, and tomatoes. Scatter some cilantro leaves over.

Fisherman's Stew 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml Canned crushed tomatoes
- 1 ml Red pepper flakes
- 480 ml Water
- 1 Fillet sea bass
- 8 Uncooked medium shrimp — peeled and deveined
- 225 g Calamari rings and tentacles
- 12 Mussels — cleaned and debearded
- 12 Clams in shell — scrubbed
- 30 ml Butter
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 0.5 Bulb fennel - cored — thinly sliced, and fronds reserved
- 4 clove Garlic — thinly sliced
- Salt to taste
- 120 ml White wine

· 60 ml Freshly chopped parsley

METHOD

1. Combine tomatoes, red pepper flakes, and water in a measuring cup or bowl. Puree using an immersion blender until smooth.
2. Cut sea bass into roughly 1 1/2-inch chunks to match the other seafood in size. Place sea bass, shrimp, calamari, mussels, and clams in individual dishes so they're ready to use.
3. Melt butter and olive oil in a deep pan over medium-high heat. Add sliced fennel, garlic, and salt; cook and stir until garlic takes on color, about 1 minute. Stir in white wine. Let simmer until reduced by about half, 2 to 3 minutes. Stir in tomato broth base; bring to a boil...
4. Stir in parsley, sea bass, shrimp, and calamari. Add clams and mussels. Cover, increase heat to high, and cook until clam and mussel shells open and sea bass, shrimp, and calamari are opaque, about 5 minutes.
5. Transfer to warm serving bowls. Garnish with reserved fennel fronds and serve.

1. Whisk yogurt, mayonnaise, mustard, and lemon juice together in a bowl. Stir in scallion, capers, and dill; season with salt and pepper. Fold in flaked salmon.

Flaky Cod With Celery Salad 2 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 2 6 -oz. skinless — boneless firm whitefish fillets (such as cod, pollock, or halibut)
· 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
· Kosher salt
· 30 ml . ghee
· 2 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
· 10 ml . black or yellow mustard seeds
· 1 1 " piece ginger — peeled, finely grated
· 10 ml . curry powder — such as vadouvan
· 2 stalk Celery — thinly sliced crosswise, plus 1 cup celery leaves, torn if large
· 0.5 small Red onion — thinly sliced
· 0.5 lemon

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 325°. Rub fish with oil on a parchment-lined rimmed baking sheet; season with salt. Bake fish until flesh is opaque and begins to flake, 12–16 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, melt ghee in a small skillet over medium heat. Add garlic and mustard seeds and cook, shaking pan occasionally, until garlic is just beginning to turn golden and seeds begin to make a popping noise, about 4 minutes. Stir in ginger and curry powder and cook, stirring...
3. Toss celery, celery leaves, and onion in a small bowl. Finely grate zest and squeeze in juice from lemon into bowl; season with a pinch of salt. Toss to combine.
4. Divide fish between plates. Spoon garlic curry over. Top with celery salad.

Flatbread With Smoked Trout, Radishes, And Herbs 8 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

· 720 ml Plain whole-milk yogurt
· Vegetable oil — for grill
· 0.5 garlic-herb naan or 1 pound store-bought pizza dough — room temperature, halved
· 2 5 -ounce packages smoked trout — coarsely flaked
· 4 Radishes — trimmed, thinly sliced on a mandoline
· 60 ml Coarsely chopped dill
· 30 ml Sliced chives
· Flaky sea salt
· Freshly ground black pepper
· Lemon wedges — for serving
· Cheesecloth

1. Line a fine-mesh sieve with cheesecloth and set over a medium bowl. Place yogurt in sieve, cover with plastic wrap, and let drain in refrigerator at least 1 day and up to 2 days if you want it slightly thicker. Discard excess liquid. (Or skip this step entirely and use 1½ cups...
2. Prepare a grill for medium-high, indirect heat (for a charcoal grill, bank coals on one side of grill; for a gas grill, leave one or two burners off); lightly oil grate. Working with 1 piece of dough at a time, gently stretch to about a 10x8" oval. Grill over direct heat, turn...
3. Transfer both flatbreads to a work surface and spread drained yogurt over. Top with trout, radishes, dill, and chives. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and serve with lemon wedges for squeezing over.
4. Do Ahead: Yogurt can be drained 1 week ahead. Cover and chill.

Flaxel's Crispy Fried Oysters 6 servings

American · Bon Appetit · Seafood, Fried

· 24 Shucked medium to large oysters
· 3 large Eggs
· 2 Sleeves saltine crackers (8 ounces) — pulsed to coarse meal (no bigger than 1/8 inches) in a food processor
· Corn or vegetable oil — for frying
· Kosher salt
· A deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Drain oysters. Beat eggs in a medium bowl until blended. Add oysters and turn to coat completely.
2. Pour half of the saltine crumbs into a 13x9x2-inch baking dish. Working in batches, lift oysters with a slotted spoon, allowing excess egg to drain back into the bowl, and transfer to the baking dish. Scatter the remaining crumbs over the oysters and toss to coat.
3. Cover the dish and chill for 2-3 hours.
4. Line a plate with paper towels. Pour oil into a medium heavy skillet to a depth of 1/2 inch. Prop a deep-fry thermometer in the skillet so the bulb is submerged.
5. Heat oil over medium heat to 191°C (191°C).
6. Working in batches, fry oysters, turning once, until the coating is crisp and deep golden brown, about 1 minute per batch.
7. Transfer to paper towels and season with salt.

Foolproof Fish With Spiced Chickpeas 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 2 Shallots
· 70 g Raisins — preferably golden
· 30 ml . red wine vinegar
· 10 g Kosher salt — divided
· 3 Garlic cloves
· 1 1 0.5" piece ginger
· 2 medium Or 3 small carrots — about 6 oz. total
· 120 ml Extra-virgin olive oil — divided
· 5 ml . turmeric
· 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
· 2 15 -oz. cans chickpeas
· 1 0.5 -lb. piece of whitefish — such as cod, halibut, haddock, or hake
· 240 ml Mint leaves

METHOD

1. Place a rack in middle of oven; preheat to 300°. Time to do some prep! Peel 2 shallots. Cut in half lengthwise, then slice crosswise. Divide shallots between a medium bowl and a small bowl.
2. Coarsely chop ½ cup raisins and transfer to medium bowl with shallots.
3. Add 2 Tbsp. red wine vinegar and ¼ tsp. salt to shallot mixture and toss gently with a spoon to combine. This marinated mixture is the beginning of a tangy, herby finishing sauce for the fish, but we're going to wait until the last second to add the mint leaves, otherwise they...
4. Peel 3 garlic cloves, then thinly slice.
5. Using a spoon, peel 1½" piece ginger, then finely chop. (We always like peeling ginger with a spoon, rather than a vegetable peeler—all the better for maneuvering around those knobby bits.)
6. Rinse 2 medium or 3 small carrots well. (You can peel them if the exteriors are really gnarly, but if not don't bother.) Slice as thinly as possibly into coins on a diagonal.

7. Drain and rinse two 15-oz. cans chickpeas.
8. Drizzle 3 Tbsp. olive oil in a medium cast-iron skillet and heat over medium. Add reserved shallots (not shallot-raisin mixture). Cook, stirring occasionally, until light golden in color, 3–5 minutes.
9. Add garlic, ginger, 1 tsp. turmeric, and ½ tsp. crushed red pepper flakes and cook, stirring constantly, until fragrant, about 1 minute.
10. Increase heat to medium-high and add chickpeas, carrots, 1 Tbsp. olive oil, and ½ tsp. salt. Cook, stirring occasionally, until everything is combined and well coated and flavors have melded, 3–4 minutes. Remove pan from heat.
11. Cut 1½ lb. whitefish into even portions if needed so they will fit in your pan. Season fish on all sides with 1½ tsp. salt. Nestle into chickpea mixture in pan and transfer to oven. Bake fish until flesh just begins to flake away easily with light pressure from a fork, looks v...
12. Coarsely chop 1 cup mint and add to bowl with reserved shallot-raisin mixture. Add remaining 3 Tbsp. olive oil and toss to combine.
13. Spoon mint salsa over fish. Divide among plates, or serve right from skillet.

Freekeh Paella With Clams And Almond Aioli 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 70 g Slivered almonds
- 1 small Garlic clove — finely grated
- 60 ml Olive oil
- 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
- Kosher salt
- 2 Onions — cut into large pieces
- 2 medium Carrots — peeled, cut into large pieces
- 8 Garlic cloves peeled
- 1 medium -hot chile (such as a hungarian wax pepper) — stem removed
- 55 g Dried chorizo — casing removed
- 45 ml Olive oil
- 1 Bay leaf
- Kosher salt
- 325 g Freekeh
- 30 ml Tomato paste
- 12 Littleneck clams — scrubbed
- 4 Hot pickled peppers from a jar — thinly sliced
- 60 ml Chopped fresh parsley
- Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 350°. Toast almonds on a rimmed baking sheet, tossing once, until golden brown, 5–8 minutes. Let cool.
2. Pulse almonds and garlic in a food processor or blender until finely ground. With motor running, gradually stream in oil, lemon juice, then ¼ cup water; process, adding water as needed, until aioli is light, smooth, and consistency of mayonnaise; season with salt. Cover; chill.
3. DO AHEAD: Aioli can be made 1 day ahead. Keep chilled.
4. Pulse onions in a food processor until finely chopped; transfer to a large bowl. Repeat, separately, with carrots, garlic, and chile, adding to bowl with onions as you go. Pulse chorizo in food processor until finely ground.
5. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium and cook chorizo, stirring often, until crisp, about 5 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer chorizo to a plate.
6. Add vegetables and bay leaf to skillet; season with salt. Cook, stirring often, until moisture is evaporated and vegetables have started to brown, 12–15 minutes; this is your flavor base.
7. Add freekeh and cook, stirring, until lightly toasted and fragrant, about 3 minutes. Add tomato paste and cook, stirring, until darkened in color, about 2 minutes. Stir in chorizo and 4½ cups water; season with salt. Bring to a simmer, cover, and cook, adding more water if liq...
8. Top with pickled peppers and parsley; serve with aioli and lemon wedges.

Fregola With Clams 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 360 ml Fregola — about 10 oz.
- Kosher salt
- 60 ml Olive oil — plus more for drizzling
- 2 Garlic cloves — finely chopped
- 5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 120 ml Dry white wine
- 24 Littleneck clams — scrubbed
- 30 ml Chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
- 2.5 ml Finely grated lemon zest

METHOD

1. Cook fregola in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until very al dente, 6–8 minutes; drain.
2. Meanwhile, heat ¼ cup oil in a Dutch oven or other large heavy pot over medium-high heat. Add garlic and red pepper flakes and cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Carefully add wine; bring to a boil, reduce heat, and simmer until reduced by half, about 3 minutes.
3. Add clams, cover, and cook, transferring clams to a bowl as they open (discard any that do not open), 6–8 minutes. Add fregola to cooking liquid in pot and cook, stirring, until fregola is tender and sauce is slightly thickened (there should still be plenty of liquid), about 2...
4. Divide fregola and clams among bowls, drizzle with oil, and top with parsley and lemon zest.

French Shrimp Salad 6 servings

French · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Fresh asparagus
- 350 g Cooked shrimp - peeled and deveined
- 80 ml Mayonnaise
- 15 ml Lemon juice
- 6 Artichoke hearts — drained
- 240 ml French dressing
- 2 Hard-cooked eggs — chopped
- 6 sprig Fresh parsley

METHOD

1. Cook asparagus in a large saucepan of boiling salted water until tender. Cool under cold water. Reserve 6 stalks; cut remaining stalks into 1-inch pieces.
2. Reserve 6 shrimp; dice remaining shrimp. Combine chopped asparagus and diced shrimp in a bowl; gently stir in mayonnaise and lemon juice.
3. Marinate artichoke hearts in 1 cup French dressing in a separate bowl.
4. Place shrimp salad in an attractive shallow bowl. Garnish with eggs; arrange reserved 6 asparagus spears on top to resemble the spokes of a wheel.
5. Drain artichoke hearts; discard dressing. Dollop each artichoke heart with mayonnaise, then top with 1 shrimp and 1 sprig parsley. Arrange artichokes around salad.

Fresh Salmon Burgers With Lemon Yogurt Sauce

American · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 1.1 kg Salmon filet
- 2 Eggs — beaten

- 30 ml Light mayonnaise
- 30 ml Finely chopped parsley
- 30 ml Finely chopped green onion
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 0.5 ml Salt
- 0.5 ml Black pepper

METHOD

1. Make the burgers: Chop salmon into 1/8- to 1/4-inch pieces. Transfer to a bowl with eggs, parsley, green onions, lemon juice, bread crumbs, seafood seasoning, salt, and pepper. Mix together with your hands. Divide into eight equal portions and shape into 1/2-inch thick patties...
2. When ready to cook, preheat an outdoor grill for medium heat and lightly oil the grate. Brush patties with oil.
3. Grill patties on the preheated grill, turning carefully, until cooked through, 2 to 3 minutes per side. An instant-read thermometer inserted into the center should read at least 63°C (63 degrees C).
4. Make the sauce: Stir together yogurt, mayonnaise, parsley, green onion, lemon juice, salt, and pepper in a small bowl.
5. Serve burgers on brioche buns with sauce and arugula.

Fresh Salmon Medallions

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 10 ml Olive oil
- 450 g Boneless salmon tail fillet
- Aluminum foil
- 30 ml Mayonnaise
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper — or to taste
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- Salt to taste
- 15 ml Chopped fresh dill

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 232°C (230 degrees C). Line a baking sheet with foil and lightly grease with 1 teaspoon olive oil.
2. Place salmon tail skin-side down onto a paper towel. Place a knife at the point of the tail; use a sawing motion to carefully cut the salmon away from the skin. Trim off any connective tissue. Cut salmon in half lengthwise into 2 equal pieces. Cut each piece lengthwise into 3 ...
3. Place 1 strip of salmon on the prepared baking sheet. Wind the strip into a spiral, with the thickest part in the center. Overlap the thin end of a second strip over the first; wrap around the spiral. Position the third strip in a way that maintains the circular shape. Repeat ...
4. Fold a 15x4-inch piece of aluminum foil a few times to make a long strip about 1 1/2-inches wide. Rub the foil with the remaining oil and wrap it around the outside edges of a salmon medallion, creating a collar. Pinch foil together and make sure salmon is as round and uniform...
5. Mix mayonnaise, cayenne pepper, and lemon juice together in a small bowl.
6. Season the tops of the medallions with salt; spread the mayonnaise mixture evenly over each one.
7. Bake in the center of the preheated oven until just cooked through, about 10 minutes. Carefully remove foil.

1. Combine lemon and lime juice, hot sauce, olive oil, oregano, and salt in a large bowl. Add onion, jalapeño, and poblano chile and toss to combine. Let marinate at least 30 minutes and up to 1 hour while you prepare the rest of the dish.
2. Combine cornichons, mayonnaise, parsley, capers, tomato powder (if using), vinegar, chili powder, and salt in a small bowl.
3. Whisk flour, cornstarch, oregano, onion powder, tomato powder (if using), garlic powder, and 3 tsp. salt in a large bowl. Add club soda and quickly whisk to incorporate.
4. Pour canola oil into a large skillet to a depth of 1/4". Heat oil over medium-high until shimmering, hot, and an instant-read thermometer registers 177°C. Dip fish into batter to coat, shake off excess, then fry until golden, crispy, and cooked through, about 4 minutes per sid...

5. Strain the slaw and discard liquid. Transfer slaw to a medium bowl.
6. Spread 1 Tbsp. tartar sauce on both sides of each bun and place tomato slices on bottom halves. Divide fried fish and slaw among sandwiches and add top halves of buns.
7. Slaw can be made, strained, and refrigerated up to 1 day ahead. Tartar sauce can be made and refrigerated up to 2 days ahead.

Fried Fish Sandwiches With Cucumbers And Tartar Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 60 ml Finely grated lemon zest
- 30 ml . fresh lemon juice
- 30 ml . sweet relish
- 15 ml . chopped drained capers
- 15 ml . dijon mustard
- 1 small Garlic clove — finely grated
- Kosher salt
- 30 ml . old bay seasoning
- 5 ml . baking powder
- 5 ml . cayenne pepper
- 95 g All-purpose flour — divided
- 90 g Cornstarch — divided
- Vegetable oil — for frying; about 6 cups
- 5–6 Mini seedless or persian cucumbers — our favorite!
- 80 ml Seasoned rice vinegar
- 8 Potato rolls
- 30 ml . unsalted butter — melted
- 1 large Egg — beaten to blend
- 180 ml Light beer
- 8 4 -oz. pieces skinless — boneless firm whitefish fillets (0.75"–1" thick)
- 120 ml Very coarsely chopped dill
- Kosher salt
- Lettuce leaves — for serving
- A deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Mix mayonnaise, lemon zest and juice, relish, capers, mustard, and garlic in a small bowl to combine; season with salt.
2. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Whisk Old Bay seasoning, baking powder, cayenne, ½ cup flour, and ½ cup cornstarch in a medium bowl. Whisk remaining ¼ cup flour and ¼ cup cornstarch in another medium bowl.
3. Set a deep cast-iron skillet or large Dutch oven fitted with thermometer on grill; pour in oil to come 1" up sides. Heat until thermometer registers 375°.
4. Meanwhile, thinly slice cucumbers lengthwise. Toss in a third medium bowl with vinegar and gently massage with your hands to soften them slightly. Let sit, tossing occasionally, at room temperature at least 10 minutes.
5. Lightly brush insides of rolls with butter and grill just until toasted, about 30 seconds. Transfer to a plate.
6. Gently whisk egg and beer in a small bowl to combine, then gently whisk into Old Bay mixture in 3 additions. Working in 2 batches, season fish lightly with salt. Dredge in flour mixture, knocking off any excess, then dip into batter and lift up with a fork, letting excess drai...
7. Drain most of vinegar from cucumbers and toss in dill. Build sandwiches with fried fish, cucumbers, lettuce, and tartar sauce.
8. Do Ahead: Cucumbers (without dill) can be pickled 2 days ahead. Cover and chill.

Fried Ipswich Whole Belly Clams With Tartar Sauce 4 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml All-purpose flour
- 6 large Eggs
- 720 ml Cracker meal — see Notes
- 120 ml Fine dry bread crumbs
- 30 ml Cornmeal
- 10 ml Old bay seasoning
- 900 g (about 4 cups) ipswich clams
- Canola oil for frying
- Tartar sauce

METHOD

1. Line a baking sheet with wax paper. Set up for what we call "standard breading procedure": Put the flour in a shallow bowl; put the eggs in a second shallow bowl and beat them with a fork; put the cracker meal, bread crumbs, cornmeal, and Old Bay in a third shallow bowl and wh...
2. Spread the clams out on several layers of paper towels and blot them as dry as possible.
3. Heat about 3 inches of canola oil in a large saucepan over medium-high heat to 182°C.
4. Toss the clams in the flour and shake off any excess. Dip the clams into the egg, coating them completely. Lift them out by the handful and let any excess egg drip off, then put the clams into the breading mixture and toss to coat them completely. Keep one hand dry and use the...
5. Fry the clams in small batches—crowding the pan will lower the temperature of the oil and the clams will come out greasy—until golden brown and crisp, about 1 minute. Drain on paper towels.
6. Pile the clams on 4 dinner plates and serve with individual bowls of tartar sauce—and some fries.

INGREDIENTS

- 4 Soft-shell crabs
- 1 Quart oil for frying — or as needed
- 120 ml Milk
- 1 large Egg
- 240 ml All-purpose flour
- Salt and pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Lift one pointed side of the top shell of one crab; pull out and discard the gills. Lower the shell and repeat on the other side. Remove the tail flap on the bottom side by twisting and pulling. Use a pair of scissors to cut behind the eyes and remove the face. Repeat to clean...
2. Heat oil in a deep fryer to 185°C (180 degrees C).
3. Whisk milk and egg together in a shallow bowl. Combine flour, salt, and pepper in another shallow bowl. Lightly salt each crab. Dredge in flour; shake off excess. Dip into beaten egg. Lift up so excess egg drips back into the bowl. Press into flour to coat both sides.
4. Working in batches if necessary, carefully lower crabs into the hot oil and fry until golden brown on one side, 1 to 2 minutes. Carefully turn and cook until golden brown on the other side, 1 to 2 minutes more. Drain on paper towels.

Fried Soft-shell Crab Sandwich 4 servings

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Mayonnaise
- 15 ml Dijon mustard
- 15 ml Whole grain mustard
- 1 ml Old bay seasoning
- 15 ml Unseasoned rice vinegar
- 15 ml Whole grain mustard
- 480 ml Thinly sliced cabbage
- 1 Fresno chile — halved lengthwise, thinly sliced crosswise
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- Vegetable oil — for frying; about 2 cups
- 60 g All-purpose flour
- 1 ml Cayenne pepper
- 30 ml Old bay seasoning
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 2 large Eggs — beaten to blend
- 75 g Panko — Japanese breadcrumbs
- 4 Soft-shell crabs — cleaned
- 4 Soft buns — warmed

METHOD

1. Whisk mayonnaise, Dijon mustard, whole grain mustard, and Old Bay seasoning in small bowl.
2. DO AHEAD: Sauce can be made 2 days ahead. Cover and chill.
3. Whisk vinegar and mustard in medium bowl. Add cabbage and chile and toss to combine; season with salt and pepper.
4. Pour oil into a large skillet, preferably cast iron, to a depth of 1/2" and heat over medium-high heat until oil bubbles immediately when a pinch of flour is added.
5. Meanwhile, whisk flour, cayenne, and 1 tsp. Old Bay seasoning in a shallow bowl; season with salt and pepper. Place eggs into another shallow bowl. Whisk panko and remaining 1 tsp. Old Bay seasoning in a third shallow bowl; season with salt and pepper.
6. Dredge crabs in flour mixture, shaking off excess, then dip in egg, letting excess drip back into bowl. Coat in panko mixture.
7. Working in 2 batches, place crabs, shell side down, in skillet and cook until golden brown, about 4 minutes per side. Transfer to paper towels to drain. Season with salt.
8. Build sandwiches with buns, sauce, crabs, and slaw.

Fried Squid With Aioli 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 100 g Potato starch
- 6 g Baking powder
- 225 g Arepa flour (precooked cornmeal) — divided
- 1 large Egg yolk
- 1 Garlic clove — finely grated

· 5 ml Fresh lemon juice
· 120 ml Grapeseed oil
· 60 ml Olive oil
· Kosher salt
· Vegetable oil — for frying; about 8 cups
· 175 g Cleaned squid
· 4 Scallions — white and pale-green parts only, sliced into 3-inch pieces
· 4 Very thin lemon wheels
· 80 ml Torn basil leaves
· A deep-fry thermometer
· Arepa flour — sometimes sold as masarepa or harina precocida, can be found in Latin markets and some supermarkets.

METHOD

1. Whisk potato starch, baking powder, and ¾ cup arepa flour in a large bowl. Whisk in 2■ cups water; let sit 30 minutes to allow flour to hydrate. Place remaining 1 cup arepa flour in a shallow bowl.
2. Meanwhile, whisk egg yolk, garlic, and lemon juice in a small bowl to combine. Whisking constantly, gradually drizzle in grapeseed oil and olive oil; whisk until sauce is thickened and emulsified. Season aioli with salt; stir in 1 tsp. water.
3. Fit a large pot with thermometer; pour in vegetable oil to come 3" up sides of pot. Heat over medium-high until thermometer registers 375°.
4. Meanwhile, cut squid. Slice bodies lengthwise along one side and open to expose interior. Cut in half crosswise (or in thirds if large). Cut each half (or third) into 1½" triangles; cut tentacles in half. Rinse; pat dry.
5. Working in batches of 5 or 6 and returning oil to 375° between batches, dredge squid, scallions, and lemon in arepa flour, shaking off excess; dip into batter, letting extra drip off. Fry, turning every 30 seconds or so, until golden, crisp, and puffed, about 2 minutes. Transf...

Frizzled-onion Cabbage Salad 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 240 ml Vegetable oil
· 2 small Onions — thinly sliced
· 2 g Diamond crystal or 0.25 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
· 65 g Smooth peanut butter
· 45 ml . fresh lime juice
· 30 ml . fish sauce
· 30 ml . sugar
· 1 Garlic clove
· 0.5–1 serrano chile — depending on your heat preference
· 0.25 head Of napa cabbage (about 8 oz.) — cored, sliced 0.5" thick
· 120 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems — divided
· 120 ml Mint leaves — divided

METHOD

1. Heat 1 cup vegetable oil in medium skillet over medium (you will know the oil is hot enough to fry when a strip of onion dropped into the oil immediately sizzles and floats to the surface). Add 1 small onion, thinly sliced, to pan and cook, stirring often, until golden brown, ...
2. Blend ¼ cup smooth peanut butter, 3 Tbsp. fresh lime juice, 2 Tbsp. fish sauce, 2 Tbsp. sugar, 1 garlic clove, ½–1 serrano chile, ½ tsp. Diamond Crystal or ¼ tsp. Morton kosher salt, reserved 1 Tbsp. onion oil, and 1 Tbsp. room-temperature water in a blender until smooth.
3. Toss ¼ head of Napa cabbage (about 8 oz.), cored, sliced ½" thick, with ¼ cup cilantro leaves with tender stems, ¼ cup mint leaves, and half of frizzled onions in a large bowl to combine. Drizzle peanut butter dressing over and toss again to coat.
4. To serve, pile cabbage salad on a large plate and scatter remaining ¼ cup cilantro leaves with tender stems, ¼ cup mint leaves, and frizzled onions over.

Frozen Shrimp In The Air Fryer

American · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Frozen raw shrimp
- 60 ml Unsalted butter
- 2.5 ml Seafood seasoning
- 0.5 ml Cayenne pepper
- 5 ml Chopped fresh parsley
- 4 Wedges fresh lemon

METHOD

1. Preheat an air fryer to 204°C (200 degrees C) for 5 minutes.
2. While the air fryer is heating, separate frozen shrimp if necessary and knock off any ice crystals that may have developed with a spoon.
3. Place a single layer of frozen shrimp, about 1/2 pound, in the cooking area of the preheated air fryer and cook for 4 minutes.
4. Combine melted butter, seafood seasoning, and cayenne pepper in a small bowl.
5. When the timer sounds, brush each shrimp with seasoned butter, turn over, and brush the other side as well. Air-fry until shrimp are bright pink on the outside and the meat is opaque, 3 to 4 more minutes. Repeat with remaining shrimp.
6. Garnish with parsley and lemon wedges.

American · Tasty

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Large shrimp — peeled and deveined
- 2 g Kosher salt
- 2.5 ml Paprika
- 2.5 ml Black pepper
- 2.5 ml Garlic powder
- 40 g All purpose flour
- 180 ml Full fat coconut milk
- 1 large Egg
- 1 Lemon — zested
- 240 ml Panko breadcrumbs
- 240 ml Unsweetened coconut flake
- 60 ml Fresh thyme leaf
- 120 ml Coconut oil — plus 2 tablespoons
- Sea salt — for garnish
- Sweet chili sauce — for serving
- Lemon wedge — for serving

METHOD

1. Line a small baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. In a medium bowl, toss the shrimp with the salt, paprika, black pepper, garlic powder, and flour until well coated.
3. In a separate medium bowl, whisk together the coconut milk, egg, and lemon zest.
4. In another medium bowl, combine the panko bread crumbs, coconut flakes, and 3 tablespoons thyme.
5. Working 1 at a time, hold a shrimp by the tail and dip in the coconut milk mixture, then roll in the coconut panko mixture to coat. Set on the prepared baking sheet.
6. In a 3-quart skillet, heat the coconut oil over medium heat until it reaches 191°C (190°C).
7. Working 4–6 at a time, add the shrimp to the hot oil and fry on each side for 2 minutes, or until golden brown. Transfer the shrimp to a paper towel-lined plate and sprinkle with sea salt and the remaining tablespoon of thyme.
8. Serve the shrimp with sweet chili sauce and lemon wedges.

Garganelli With Crab And Broccolini 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 45 ml Olive oil
- 4 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 1 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 1 bunch Large broccolini or chinese broccoli (about 8 oz.) — chopped
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 350 g Garganelli or other short pasta
- 225 g Fresh crabmeat — such as Dungeness or blue crab
- 1 Lemon — halved
- Flaky sea salt — such as Maldon
- Chive blossoms — optional

METHOD

1. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add garlic and red pepper flakes and cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 1 minute. Add broccolini; season with kosher salt and black pepper and cook, tossing occasionally, until broccolini is tender, about 4 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until al dente. Drain, reserving 1 cup pasta cooking liquid.
3. Add crabmeat, pasta, and ½ cup reserved pasta cooking liquid to skillet and toss to coat. Cook, tossing and adding more pasta cooking liquid as needed, until sauce coats pasta. Squeeze lemon over pasta and serve sprinkled with sea salt and topped with chive blossoms, if desired.

6. Remove shrimp with a slotted spoon and transfer to a bowl; continue to cook butter sauce, adding water, 1 teaspoon at a time, if too thick, about 2 minutes.
7. Season with salt to taste; serve shrimp topped with the pan sauce and remaining parsley. Enjoy!

Garlic Shrimp And White Beans 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 90 ml Olive oil
- 3 Garlic cloves — minced, divided
- 2 Dried chiles de árbol
- 1 Bay leaf — preferably fresh
- 300 ml Chopped tomato — about 8 ounces
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 15 ml Tomato paste
- 2 15 -ounce cans white beans (such as cannellini) — rinsed, drained
- 240 ml Low-sodium chicken broth
- 450 g Medium shrimp — peeled
- 5 ml Smoked paprika
- 30 ml Chopped flat-leaf parsley
- Grilled bread — optional

METHOD

1. Preheat broiler. Heat 2 Tbsp. oil in a large, heavy, ovenproof skillet over medium heat. Add 1 garlic clove, chiles, and bay leaf and cook, stirring constantly, just until fragrant, 1–2 minutes (do not allow garlic to burn). Add tomato; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirr...
2. Add tomato paste and cook, stirring constantly, until paste is deep red and caramelized, 3–4 minutes. Stir in beans and broth. Bring to a brisk simmer and cook until juices are slightly reduced and thickened, 3–4 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper.
3. Combine remaining 2 garlic cloves, 2 Tbsp. oil, shrimp, and paprika in a medium bowl; season with salt and pepper and toss to evenly coat shrimp. Scatter shrimp over beans in an even layer.
4. Broil until shrimp are golden and cooked through, about 3 minutes. Drizzle remaining 2 Tbsp. oil over shrimp and beans; garnish with parsley. Serve with bread, if desired
5. Dried chiles de árbol are available at Latin markets, specialty foods stores, and some supermarkets.

Garlicky Grilled Squid With Marinated Peppers 4 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 80 ml Coarsely chopped blanched hazelnuts or almonds
- 30 ml . plus 1/2 cup extra-virgin olive oil — divided
- Kosher salt
- 4 large Red bell peppers
- 30 ml . sherry vinegar or red wine vinegar
- 5 ml . hot smoked spanish paprika
- 3 Garlic cloves — divided
- 700 g Cleaned squid — bodies and tentacles separated
- 0.5 small Red onion — very thinly sliced
- 240 ml Mint leaves
- 1/2 Lemon

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 177°C. Toast hazelnuts on a rimmed baking sheet, tossing once, until golden brown, 7–10 minutes. Let cool, then crush nuts using the side of a chef's knife or coarsely chop. Transfer to a small bowl. Mix in 2 Tbsp. oil and season with salt. Set aside.
2. Prepare a grill for high heat and place a wire rack on one side, orienting it perpendicular to grill grate. Place bell peppers directly on grate (not on wire rack) and grill, turning occasionally, until charred all over and flesh is very soft, 8–10 minutes.

3. Transfer bell peppers to a medium bowl and cover tightly with plastic wrap. Let sit 10–20 minutes (doing this extends the cooking and softens the skins). Remove skins from peppers and scoop out seeds; discard. Tear or slice peppers into large pieces and place in a clean medium...
4. Return grill to high heat. Finely grate remaining 2 garlic cloves into a large bowl; stir in remaining 1/4 cup oil. Pat squid dry, then add to oil mixture; toss well to coat. Working in batches, grill squid on wire rack on grill until marks appear on bodies and tentacles begin...
5. Place onion and mint in a small bowl. Finely grate zest from lemon half over, then squeeze in juice. Season with salt and toss to combine.
6. Divide marinated peppers and squid among plates. Spoon hazelnuts over and top with mint salad.

Gefilte Fish 10 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 1 medium Leek
· 0.5 bunch Thyme
· 0.25 bunch Parsley stems
· 2 Bay leaves
· 5 ml Black peppercorns
· 7–7 0.5 pounds mixed whole carp — whitefish, and/or pike
· 1 large Onion — unpeeled, halved
· 2 Celery stalks — halved crosswise
· 1 large Carrot — peeled, halved crosswise
· 120 ml Dry white wine
· Kosher salt
· 45 ml Olive oil
· 1 large Onion — finely chopped
· 1 large Parsnip — peeled, finely chopped
· 1 medium Leek — white and pale-green parts only, finely chopped
· 5 large Eggs
· 16 Grams kosher salt — 5 teaspoons Diamond Crystal or 3 teaspoons Morton
· 10 ml Sugar
· 8 ml Freshly ground white pepper
· 2.5 ml Freshly ground nutmeg
· 1 ml Cayenne pepper
· 180 ml Matzo meal
· 4 medium Carrots — peeled, sliced crosswise into 0.5-inch-thick coins (optional)
· 225 g Pearl onions
· Dill sprigs — matzo (optional), lemon wedges, capers (optional), and prepared red horseradish (for serving)

METHOD

1. Separate dark-green leaves from leek; wrap thyme, parsley stems, bay leaves, and peppercorns in leaves and tie closed with kitchen twine; set aside. Slice remaining pale-green and white parts of leek in half lengthwise.
2. Fillet fish to yield 3 lb. meat, reserving bones. Discard pin bones. Cut bones into large pieces; reserve fillets (a fishmonger comes in handy here!).
3. Place bones in a large stockpot; pour in cold water to cover. Bring to a boil, drain immediately, and return bones to pot. Add cold water to cover and bring to a boil. Add onion, celery, carrot, wine, and pale-green and white parts of leek; reduce heat and bring to a simmer. A...
4. Strain stock through a fine-mesh sieve into a large straight-sided skillet; bring to a gentle simmer over medium-low and keep warm while you prepare the fish.
5. Do Ahead: Stock can be made 1 day ahead. Let cool; cover and chill.
6. Heat oil in a medium skillet over medium. Cook onion, parsnip, and leek, stirring often and reducing heat as needed to prevent vegetables from browning, until onion is translucent and vegetables are very soft, 10–12 minutes. Let cool.
7. Meanwhile, cut reserved fish fillets into 1" pieces. Working in 3 batches, pulse fish in a food processor until finely ground (pluck out any errant pin bones you find). Transfer to a large bowl.
8. Pulse eggs, salt, sugar, white pepper, nutmeg, cayenne, and cooled onion mixture in food processor until mixture is frothy and mostly smooth with only a few bits of onion still visible. Pour over fish and mix with your hands to incorporate. Scatter matzo meal over and mix in w...
9. If making quenelles for individual servings, hold 2 large spoons (they should be the same size) in each hand and scoop out about ■ cup fish mixture with 1 spoon. Holding spoons parallel to one another, place edge of empty spoon over fish mixture and, while rotating the empty s...
10. Working in batches (about 10 per batch), gently lower quenelles into simmering stock with a slotted spoon and poach until cooked through, about 5 minutes. Using slotted spoon, transfer to another rimmed baking sheet and tent with foil to keep warm.
11. Add carrots and pearl onions to stock and simmer until tender, 10–12 minutes.
12. Divide carrots and pearl onions among bowls with slotted spoon and add 2–3 fish pieces to each bowl. Strain fish stock again through a cheesecloth-lined sieve, if desired, and divide among bowls. Top with dill and serve with lemon wedges and horseradish alongside.
13. If making large fishes for family-style serving, line 4 large plates with parchment. Transfer about one-quarter of fish mixture to 1 plate. Using wet hands or gloves, form into the shape of a fish (make sure it will fit in skillet with stock). Repeat with remaining fish mixtur...
14. Working with 1 fish at a time, carefully lower into simmering stock, using parchment paper to help you (if your skillet is large enough, add another fish). Poach, turning once if not fully submerged, until cooked through, 7–10 minutes. Using 2 long spatulas, transfer to a rimm...
15. To serve, transfer fish to a platter and slice ½" thick. Arrange dill alongside and serve with lemon wedges, capers, horseradish, and matzo.
16. Do Ahead: Gefilte fish can be poached 2 days ahead. Let fish and stock cool, then transfer to a wide, shallow baking dish, making sure fish is submerged. Cover tightly with foil and chill. Reheat fish and stock over medium-low.

· 5 ml . black peppercorns
· Juice of 1 lime
· 5 ml . diamond crystal or 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt
· 5 ml . kashmiri chile powder or paprika
· 1 ml Turmeric
· 450 g . large shrimp — peeled, deveined, preferably tails left on

- Warm naan or country-style bread — for serving
- 3 Layers of cheesecloth

METHOD

1. Line a fine-mesh sieve set over a measuring glass with cheesecloth. Heat butter, ginger, garlic, chiles de árbol, chipotle chile, cardamom, star anise, cinnamon stick, cloves, coriander seeds, cumin seeds, and peppercorns in a medium heavy saucepan over low until foaming and m...
2. Strain infused ghee through prepared sieve. Set toasted spices and ghee aside separately for cooking shrimp. Set sieve with cheesecloth aside.
3. Do ahead: Spiced ghee can be made 1 week ahead. Cover and chill.
4. Place reserved toasted spices and 3 Tbsp. reserved ghee in a blender. Add lime juice, salt, chile powder, turmeric, and a splash of water. Blend, scraping down sides as needed and adding more water by the tablespoonful, until a smooth paste forms. Transfer to a medium bowl; ad...
5. Heat remaining reserved ghee in a large skillet, preferably cast iron, over low. Cook shrimp, turning halfway through, until opaque throughout and pink, about 4 minutes total.
6. Using a slotted spoon, divide shrimp among plates and drizzle 1–2 Tbsp. warm ghee in skillet over. Serve shrimp with naan.
7. Don't throw out the ghee remaining in the skillet—you can save it to poach more shrimp or other seafood and fish, such as scallops and salmon, or toss it with pasta. Simply cook remaining ghee over medium heat until foaming, about 2 minutes. Strain ghee again through reserved ...
8. Do ahead: Shrimp ghee can be made 1 week ahead. Keep chilled.

Filipino · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Whole dungeness crabs
- 120 ml Garlic oil
- 120 ml Sliced garlic
- 1 Yellow onion — sliced
- 240 ml Thinly sliced ginger rounds
- 120 ml Bias-sliced scallions
- Kosher salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 15 ml Fish sauce
- 1 jar Sauteed shrimp paste — such as Kamayan
- 5 Thai chiles — sliced into thin rings
- 1.5 Quarts coconut milk
- 0.5 Quart water — or more as needed
- 1 bunch Fresh spinach
- 120 ml Bias-sliced scallions

METHOD

1. Fill a large bowl with ice and cold water. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Add crabs; cook until shells turn bright red, 8 to 10 minutes. Plunge crabs into ice water to stop the cooking process. Drain and set aside.
2. Heat a large wok over medium-high heat. Add garlic oil and garlic; cook until garlic lightly toasted and golden brown, 2 to 3 minutes. Add onion and ginger; cook until onion is translucent, 4 to 5 minutes. Add scallion whites; season with a few pinches of salt and black pepper.
3. Add fish sauce; let infuse for 1 minute. Stir in shrimp paste; cook until toasted, about 3 minutes. Add Thai chilies; cook for 1 minute. Pour in coconut milk and water; bring to a simmer. Reduce heat to medium-low; cook until sauce is thickened, about 10 minutes, adding more w...
4. Meanwhile, crack open crabs; remove meat and discard shells. Add crabmeat to sauce along with any accumulated juices; simmer until flavors meld, 8 to 10 minutes. Season with salt and black pepper. Toss in spinach until wilted. Garnish with scallion greens.

- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 12 ml Cajun seasoning
- 240 ml Gluten-free panko bread crumbs
- 1 Fillet cod — cut into 4 pieces
- Cooking spray

METHOD

1. Combine mayonnaise and Cajun seasoning in a small bowl. Place bread crumbs on a plate.
2. Spread Cajun mayonnaise on both sides of fish fillets with a small spatula or butter knife. Coat each fillet, one at a time, with bread crumbs. Lightly spray both sides of breaded fillets with cooking spray and transfer 2 fillets to each air fryer tray; do not overcrowd.
3. Turn an air fryer to the Roast setting (191°C (190 degrees C) according to manufacturer's instructions and set timer to 14 minutes. Rotate trays at 7 minutes. Fish should flake easily with a fork.
4. Carefully remove fillets from the trays and serve.

Gluten-free Fried Calamari With Aioli 4 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 160 ml Potato starch
- 6 g Baking powder
- 225 g Arepa flour (precooked cornmeal) — divided
- 1 large Egg yolk
- 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
- 5 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 120 ml Grapeseed oil
- 60 ml Olive oil
- Kosher salt
- Vegetable oil — for frying; about 8 cups
- 175 g Cleaned squid
- 4 Scallions — white and pale-green parts only, sliced into 3-inch pieces
- 4 Very thin lemon wheels
- 80 ml Torn basil leaves
- A deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Whisk potato starch, baking powder, and 3/4 cup arepa flour in a large bowl. Whisk in 2 1/3 cups water; let sit 30 minutes to allow flour to hydrate. Place remaining 1 cup arepa flour in a shallow bowl.
2. Meanwhile, whisk egg yolk, garlic, and lemon juice in a small bowl to combine. Whisking constantly, gradually drizzle in grapeseed oil and olive oil; whisk until sauce is thickened and emulsified. Season aioli with salt; stir in 1 tsp. water.
3. Fit a large pot with thermometer; pour in vegetable oil to come 3" up sides of pot. Heat over medium-high until thermometer registers 191°C.
4. Meanwhile, cut squid. Slice bodies lengthwise along one side and open to expose interior. Cut in half crosswise (or in thirds if large). Cut each half (or third) into 1 1/2" triangles; cut tentacles in half. Rinse; pat dry.
5. Working in batches of 5 or 6 and returning oil to 191°C between batches, dredge squid, scallions, and lemon in arepa flour, shaking off excess; dip into batter, letting extra drip off. Fry, turning every 30 seconds or so, until golden, crisp, and puffed, about 2 minutes. Trans...

Gorditas Con Camarones 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 175 g Instant corn masa flour — such as Maseca
- 75 ml . lard — melted, or vegetable oil, divided
- 10 g Diamond crystal or 1 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt — divided, plus more
- 4 Guajillo or dried new mexico chiles — stems and seeds removed
- 2 Morita chiles — stems removed, or 2 canned chipotle chiles in adobo
- 5 ml . ground coriander or cumin
- 700 g Medium shrimp — peeled, deveined
- 4 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 2 sprig Thyme
- 15 ml . apple cider vinegar
- 5 ml . agave syrup or honey
- 45 ml . unsalted butter — cut into pieces
- Sliced onion — sliced avocado, cilantro leaves with tender stems, and lime wedges (for serving)

METHOD

1. Stir masa, 1 Tbsp. lard, 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton salt, and 1 cup water in a medium bowl until a soft and slightly sticky dough forms. If dry, mix in another 1 Tbsp. water. Cover and let sit at least 30 minutes and up to 3 hours.
2. Meanwhile, bring guajillo chiles, morita chiles, coriander, and 1½ cups water to a boil in a small saucepan. Cover, remove from heat, and let sit, stirring occasionally, 30 minutes to allow chiles to soften. Transfer to a blender and purée until smooth; set aside.
3. Place rack in lowest position in oven; preheat to 500°. Brush a rimmed baking sheet with 2 Tbsp. lard. Divide dough into 4 pieces and form into balls. Set on work surface and cover with a damp kitchen towel. Place 1 ball

Gourmet Salmon Dinner 2 servings

European · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Butter
- 2 Shallots — thinly sliced
- 2 clove Garlic — minced
- 120 ml Whole milk
- 8 ml White pepper
- 5 ml Salt
- 900 g Yellow potato — peeled, quartered
- Olive oil — to taste
- 240 ml Porcini mushroom
- 1 bunch Asparagus — ends trimmed
- Salt — to taste
- Pepper — to taste
- 2 Skin-on salmon fillets
- Salt — to taste
- Pepper — to taste
- Fresh thyme — to taste
- Olive oil — to taste
- 30 ml Butter
- 3 clove Garlic — crushed

METHOD

1. Make the creamy shallot potato puree: Melt 3 tablespoons of butter in a medium pan over medium-high heat. Add the shallots and cook for 3-4 minutes, until softened.
2. Add the garlic and another tablespoon of butter and continue to cook for another 3-4 minutes, stirring frequently, until the shallots are browned.
3. Add the milk, white pepper, and salt and stir to incorporate.
4. Transfer the shallot mixture to a food processor and process until smooth.
5. Mash potatoes in a large bowl. Add the shallot puree and continue to mash until fully incorporated. Set aside.
6. Make the sautéed vegetables: Heat a drizzle of olive oil in a large pan over medium heat. Add the mushrooms and cook for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally, until starting to soften.
7. Push the mushrooms to one side of the pan and add a bit more oil. Add the asparagus and season everything with salt and pepper. Cook for 5 minutes, until the vegetables are tender. Remove from the heat and set aside.
8. Make the salmon: On a cutting board, cut 4 slits in the salmon skin, roughly ¼-inch (6 mm) apart and ½-inch (12 mm) into the salmon flesh. Season with salt, pepper, and thyme leaves.
9. Heat a drizzle of olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. Add the salmon, skin-side down. Cook for 3-4 minutes, or until a lighter pink color has reached ■-½ of the way up the side of the salmon.
10. Flip the salmon and immediately add the butter, garlic, and a few sprigs of thyme. Stir the garlic and thyme around the pan to infuse the flavors and spoon the butter over the salmon for 2 minutes more, until the salmon is cooked through. Remove the salmon from the pan.
11. Add the potato puree to plates and top with the sautéed vegetables and salmon.
12. Enjoy!

Grain Bowl With Blackened Shrimp, Avocado, And Black Beans

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 270 ml Water
- 120 ml Dirty rice mix
- 450 g Large shrimp
- 15 ml Chili powder
- 10 ml Paprika
- 7 ml Cumin
- 5 ml Onion powder
- 5 ml Salt
- 1 ml Ground black pepper
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 1 can Corn — drained
- 1 Red bell pepper — diced
- 60 ml Chopped fresh cilantro
- 1 Lime — juiced
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 1 Avocado
- 60 ml Chopped fresh cilantro
- 60 ml Plain greek yogurt
- 1 clove Garlic
- 45 ml Olive oil
- 2.5 ml Salt
- 1 ml Ground black pepper
- 1 can Black beans — drained
- 1 Avocado — sliced
- 1 Lime — cut into wedges

METHOD

1. Combine water and dirty rice mix in a saucepan and bring to a boil. Reduce heat to low and cover. Cook until water is absorbed, about 45 minutes. Remove from heat and let stand 5 minutes. Fluff rice with a fork and set aside until needed.
2. While rice is cooking, combine shrimp, chili powder, paprika, cumin, onion powder, salt, and black pepper in a bowl.
3. Heat oil in a medium cast iron skillet over medium-high heat. Add shrimp and cook until no longer pink, about 2 minutes per side.
4. Mix corn, red bell pepper, cilantro, lime juice, and olive oil together in a bowl to make corn salad.
5. Combine avocado, cilantro, yogurt, garlic, olive oil, salt, and black pepper in a food processor. Pulse until dressing is smooth.
6. Assemble bowls by dividing cooked rice, cooked shrimp, corn salad, black beans, and sliced avocado evenly. Drizzle with dressing and garnish with lime wedges.

- 80 ml Finely shredded carrots
- 80 ml Thinly sliced red onion
- 30 ml Roughly chopped fresh cilantro
- 80 ml Shredded scallions
- 80 ml Rice vinegar
- 30 ml Sesame oil
- 30 ml Soy sauce
- 30 ml Sugar
- 5 ml Ground ginger
- 2.5 ml Garlic powder
- 2.5 ml Red pepper flakes
- Kosher salt — to taste
- 60 ml Rice vinegar
- 60 ml Sesame oil
- 60 ml Soy sauce
- 175 g Honey
- 30 ml Garlic chili sauce
- 450 g Brussels sprouts — ends trimmed
- 30 ml Olive oil
- Kosher salt — to taste
- Sesame seed — for garnish
- Scallion — thinly sliced, for garnish
- 700 g Raw shrimp — peeled and deveined, divided
- 45 ml Unsalted butter
- 1 large Egg
- 180 ml Panko bread crumbs
- 60 ml Thinly sliced scallions
- 60 ml Finely chopped fresh parsley
- 3 Garlic cloves — minced
- 15 ml Grated fresh ginger
- 10 ml Sriracha
- 5 ml Garlic chili sauce
- 10 ml Soy sauce
- 60 g Cornstarch
- Neutral oil — for greasing
- 6 Brioche buns — lightly toasted

METHOD

1. Make the bang bang sauce: In a small bowl, stir together the Japanese mayo, sweet Thai chili sauce, and Sriracha until smooth. Cover and refrigerate until ready to use.
2. Make the slaw: In a large bowl, toss together the cabbage, carrots, red onion, cilantro, scallions, rice vinegar, sesame oil, soy sauce, sugar, ground ginger, garlic powder, red pepper flakes, and salt until combined. Cover and refrigerate until ready to use.
3. Prep the Brussels sprouts: In a small saucepan, whisk together the rice vinegar, sesame oil, soy sauce, honey, and garlic chili sauce, and simmer on low heat for 10 minutes until thickened and mixture reaches a syrup consistency.
4. In a large bowl, toss the Brussels sprouts with the olive oil and salt. Set aside until ready to cook.
5. Make the shrimp burgers: Line 2 baking sheets with parchment paper.
6. In a food processor, combine 1 pound of shrimp, the melted butter, and egg. Process until smooth, about 4 minutes. Transfer the shrimp mixture to a large bowl.
7. Roughly chop the remaining ½ pound of shrimp, then add to the bowl with the ground shrimp mixture.
8. Add the panko, scallions, parsley, garlic, ginger, Sriracha, garlic chili sauce, soy sauce, and cornstarch to the bowl with the shrimp. Mix until evenly combined. Roll the mixture into 6 4-ounce balls, then flatten into ½-inch-thick patties and place on a prepared baking sheet.
9. Preheat the grill to 204°C (200°C). Grease the grill grates with neutral oil.
10. Add the Brussels sprouts to a rotisserie basket on the grill and place the shrimp patties directly on the grill grates. Close the grill lid and cook the patties for 1½ minutes on each side, or until the shrimp is pink and the tops of the burgers are golden brown. Remove from t...
11. Assemble the burgers: Spread some of the bang bang sauce onto the toasted brioche buns, then place a shrimp burger on each bottom bun and top with some of the slaw. Finish with the top buns.
12. Serve the shrimp burgers immediately with the Brussels sprouts alongside.
13. Enjoy!

METHOD

1. In a resealable bag or dish, combine the salmon, olive oil, salt, pepper, lemon juice, garlic, one rosemary sprig, and the thyme. Seal the bag and massage lightly to coat the salmon in the marinade, then refrigerate for 1 hour.
2. Preheat half of the grill to medium-high heat for indirect grilling.
3. Bend each piece of asparagus until the woody end snaps off, then discard.
4. Brush the grill grates with olive oil, then arrange lemon slices over indirect heat (the side of the grill where the burners are not on).
5. Lay the salmon on top of the lemon slices and top each fillet with a sprig of rosemary. Close the lid and grill for 20 minutes.
6. Place the asparagus spears on the grill and brush with olive oil. Grill for 5 minutes.
7. Garnish the salmon with parsley and serve with the asparagus and grilled lemon slices.
8. Enjoy!

Grilled Clam Toasts With Lemon And Green Olives 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Lemon
- 1.8 kg Littleneck clams
- 1 Garlic clove — finely chopped
- 120 ml Coarsely chopped parsley
- 5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 60 ml Olive oil — plus more for drizzling
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 1 Loaf crusty bread — halved lengthwise
- Green olive tapenade
- 30 g Parmesan

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Cut lemon in half crosswise and thinly slice 1 half; remove seeds. Set remaining lemon half aside for serving. Grill lemon slices, turning occasionally, until lightly charred, about 2 minutes. Transfer to a cutting board and coarsely chop....
2. Using long tongs, place clams directly on grill. Carefully transfer to a large bowl as they open. (Try to save as much clam liquor as possible, but some will inevitably spill onto coals.) Let cool.
3. Remove clams from their shells and coarsely chop. Transfer clams and any liquor to bowl with lemon and add garlic, parsley, red pepper flakes, and ¼ cup oil; season with salt and black pepper.

4. Drizzle bread with oil and grill, turning halfway through, until toasted and lightly charred, about 5 minutes.
5. Top toasts with clam mixture, some Green Olive Tapenade, then Parmesan, dividing evenly; cut into pieces. Cut reserved lemon into wedges and serve alongside toast for squeezing over.

Grilled Clams 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

· 1.8 kg Clams

METHOD

1. Prepare grill for medium-high heat. Place clams directly on grill grate. Grill (no need to turn or rotate) until they pop open, 3–5 minutes. Transfer clams to a large bowl, discarding any that are not open.

Grilled Clams With Aleppo Pepper, Tumeric, And Lime Butter 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 125 g (1 stick) unsalted butter — room temperature
· 10 ml Aleppo pepper or 1 crushed red pepper flakes
· 5 ml Finely grated peeled turmeric or 0.5 ground dried turmeric
· 5 ml Finely grated lime zest
· Kosher salt
· Grilled clams
· Cilantro leaves with tender stems — for serving

METHOD

1. Place butter, Aleppo pepper, and turmeric in a small bowl. Add lime zest and mix until well combined; season with salt.

Grilled Clams With Chorizo 4 servings

Mexican · Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

· 125 g (1 stick) unsalted butter
· 1 head Of garlic — cut in half, horizontally
· 2 Links of fresh mexican-style chorizo — about 8 oz.
· 24 Cherrystone clams — scrubbed
· 60 ml Chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
· 4 0.5 ” slices country-style bread — grilled or toasted
· Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Combine butter and garlic, cut side down, in a small saucepot and place over medium heat so the butter melts but does not brown; set aside.
2. Prepare grill for medium heat. Grill chorizo, turning occasionally, until cooked through, 10–12 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, grill clams just until they open, about 2 minutes. As clams open, using tongs, place directly in serving bowls being careful not to spill their juices. Drizzle clams with some of the garlic butter as they come off the grill.
4. Slice each piece of chorizo into 6 pieces, add to clams, drizzle with more garlic butter, and top with parsley. Serve with grilled bread and lemons wedges.

Grilled Crab And Shrimp Mini Sandwiches 16 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 2.5 ml Finely grated lemon peel
- 2.5 ml Chili powder
- 240 ml Chopped fresh crabmeat
- 240 ml Chopped cooked shrimp
- 120 ml Finely chopped celery
- 120 ml Finely chopped onion
- 8 slice Firm white sandwich bread
- 60 ml (1/2 stick) unsalted butter
- Chopped fresh italian parsley

METHOD

1. Whisk mayonnaise and next 3 ingredients in medium bowl. Gently mix in crabmeat, shrimp, celery, and onion. Season filling with salt and pepper.
2. Arrange 4 bread slices on work surface. Spread 1/4 of filling on each slice (about 1/2 cup). Top filling with bread slice; press to adhere. Brush top bread slice of each sandwich with melted butter.
3. Place large griddle over 2 burners. Heat griddle over medium heat. Place sandwiches, buttered side down, on griddle. Cook until bottom is golden brown, 6 to 7 minutes. Brush top of each sandwich with melted butter. Using metal spatula, turn sandwiches over. Cook until bottom i...

Grilled East Coast Oysters With Corn Jalapeño Salsita 3 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 Ears of corn — shucked
- Canola oil for grilling
- 2 Plum tomatoes — sliced in half, lengthwise
- 1 Red onion — sliced
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 1 Jalapeño pepper — roasted, deveined, seeded, and diced
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 30 ml White balsamic vinegar
- Kosher salt
- 12 Oysters — scrubbed

METHOD

1. Light a fire in a charcoal or gas grill. Place the corn—without anything on it—on the grill grate. Grill the ears of corn, rotating the corn as needed to keep it from getting charred too much on one side, for about 7 minutes. (Don't overcook the corn, or it will become mushy!)...
2. Meanwhile, squirt just a bit of canola oil on the tomato and onion slices. Sprinkle pepper on top. Place the onion slices on the grill. Add the tomatoes cut-side down on the hot grate and grill until both are nicely browned, 3 to 5 minutes. Turn the onion slices and tomatoes w...
3. Dice the onion and tomatoes and place in a bowl. Add the corn kernels and the jalapeño. Pour in the olive oil and vinegar and stir to combine. Season with salt. This can be done up to one day ahead of time; just bring the salsita to room temperature prior to serving.
4. Place the oysters directly on the grates of the grill, close the cover, and cook until all of the oysters have opened, 4 to 5 minutes. Discard any oysters that have not opened on their own. Further open the ones that have started to open and top each one with 1 teaspoon of the...

Grilled Fish Sandwiches For Two

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Unsalted butter
- 2.5 ml Creole seasoning
- 2 Fillets cod fillets
- 2.5 ml Smoked paprika
- 30 ml Vegetable oil
- 2 Sub-style sandwich rolls — split
- 6 Leaves romaine lettuce
- 4 slice Tomato
- 30 ml Remoulade sauce

METHOD

1. Clean the grates of an outdoor grill, and preheat to 191°C (190 degrees C).
2. Melt butter and stir in Creole seasoning and smoked paprika.
3. Pat fillets dry with a paper towel, and brush each side with the seasoned butter mixture.
4. Carefully oil grill grates and place fillets on the grill for 1 minute. Gently rotate the fish on the grate 60 to 90 degrees, to make grill marks, and continue grilling for 1 more minute. With a fish turner, turn fillets over and grill for 1 minute. Rotate and grill for 1 more...
5. Open sandwich rolls and place Romaine leaves and grilled fish inside. Top with tomato slices. Add remoulade sauce and serve.

Grilled Fish Steaks 2 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 90 ml Olive oil
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 15 ml Chopped fresh parsley
- 1 clove Garlic — minced
- 5 ml Dried basil
- 5 ml Salt
- 5 ml Ground black pepper
- 2 Fillets halibut

METHOD

1. Combine olive oil, lemon juice, parsley, garlic, basil, salt, and pepper together in a stainless steel or glass bowl.
2. Place halibut fillets in a shallow glass dish or a resealable plastic bag; pour marinade over fish fillets. Cover or seal and place in the refrigerator for 1 hour, turning occasionally.
3. Preheat an outdoor grill for high heat and lightly oil the grate. Set grate 4 inches from the heat.
4. Remove halibut fillets from marinade and drain off any excess. Cook on the preheated grill until fish flakes easily with a fork, about 5 minutes per side.

Grilled Fish With Charred Onions 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Extra-virgin olive oil — plus more
- 45 g Pine nuts
- 4 small Onions — unpeeled
- 60 ml Drained capers
- 35 g Raisins
- 60 ml Red wine vinegar
- Kosher salt
- 8 Whole red mullets or 4 red snappers — scales removed, cleaned
- 240 ml Parsley leaves with tender stems
- Aleppo-style or other mild red pepper flakes and lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 350° and prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Clean grate well with a brush; oil grate. Toast pine nuts on a rimmed baking sheet, tossing once, until golden brown, about 5 minutes. Let cool (that's it for the oven).
2. Grill onions, turning occasionally, until skins are blackened and onions have softened (some of the juices may ooze out), 15–20 minutes. Transfer to a platter and let cool 10 minutes.
3. Split onions in half. Remove outer peel and discard. Separate onion layers into individual petals. Transfer to a medium bowl and mix in pine nuts, capers, raisins, and vinegar; season agrodolce with salt.

4. Season fish cavity and skin with salt; drizzle with ¼ cup oil. Grill, resisting the urge to turn, until skin is lightly charred and flesh is flaky and opaque down to the bone, about 3 minutes for mullet and 8 minutes for snapper. Place a metal spatula underneath fish, then lif...
5. Transfer fish to a platter and spoon agrodolce over. Top with parsley and some red pepper flakes; drizzle with oil. Serve with lemon wedges.

Grilled Fish With Tangerine And Marjoram

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 1–1 0.25-pound whole porgy — gray snapper, or branzino, cleaned
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 8 sprig Fresh marjoram plus 1 tablespoon marjoram leaves
- 2 Tangerines or small oranges — peeled, separated into segments, seeded
- 30 ml Olive oil

METHOD

1. Prepare a medium-hot fire in a charcoal grill, or heat a gas grill to medium-high. Make 3 diagonal slices spaced about 1 1/2" apart on each side of fish. Season skin and cavity with salt and pepper. Stuff each fish with 4 herb sprigs and segments from 1/2 tangerine. Rub each f...
2. Grill fish until skin no longer sticks, 3-4 minutes. Using a metal spatula, carefully turn fish and grill until cooked through, about 3-4 more minutes. Transfer to platters and garnish with remaining tangerine segments and marjoram leaves.

Grilled Flatfish With Spoon Sauce 2 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 g Raw pistachios
- 10 Prunes — pits removed, coarsely chopped
- 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
- 480 ml Finely chopped parsley
- 240 ml Finely chopped mint
- 60 ml Finely chopped tarragon
- 60 ml Kimchi or sauerkraut brine
- 30 ml . champagne vinegar or white wine vinegar
- Kosher salt
- 180 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 2–4 -lb. flatfish (such as sole — flounder, or turbot)
- Extra-virgin olive oil
- Kosher salt
- Aleppo-style pepper

METHOD

1. Toast pistachios in a dry small skillet over medium-low heat, tossing occasionally, until browned in spots, about 5 minutes. Let cool, then finely chop.
2. Gently mix pistachios, prunes, garlic, parsley, mint, tarragon, kimchi brine, and vinegar in a medium bowl to combine; season with salt. Whisk in oil, then taste and season spoon sauce with more salt if needed.
3. Prepare a grill for medium heat. Using a chef's knife, cleaver, or serrated knife, cut fish crosswise into 2"–4"-wide planks (the larger the fish, the wider the planks); halve planks if fish is large. Pat fish dry, rub all over with oil, and season with salt and Aleppo-style p...
4. Using a large fish spatula, turn fish over and grill until cooked through (fish is done when a paring knife easily pierces the flesh along the side), about 2 minutes.
5. Transfer fish to a platter and spoon sauce over.

Grilled Garlic And Herb Shrimp 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

Grilled Lobster Paella 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Olive oil
- 350 g Spanish chorizo
- 6 stalk Green garlic — thinly sliced, or 2 finely chopped leeks, white and light-green parts only
- 15 ml Smoked paprika
- 450 g Short-grain rice
- 1 ml Saffron threads
- 1.7 L Hot seafood or chicken stock t
- Kosher salt
- 3 1-1 1/4-pound lobsters — halved lengthwise, claws cracked
- 480 ml Fresh shelled peas or frozen peas — thawed t
- 120 ml Finely chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
- 3 Lemons — halved

METHOD

1. Prepare a hot fire in a charcoal grill. Let burn down to red-hot coals; rake to edge of grill. (For backup, start a second round of coals in a charcoal chimney on pavement nearby.) Put paella pan on grill grate; heat olive oil. Add chorizo and green garlic or leeks; cook until...
2. Add smoked paprika and rice; cook, stirring often, until rice is coated, 2 minutes. Add saffron threads to hot stock. Add stock to pan and season to taste with kosher salt; stir to distribute ingredients. Let cook, undisturbed, until stock simmers and rice begins to absorb liq...
3. Arrange lobster halves over the rice. Continue cooking, rotating the pan often, as the rice swells and absorbs the stock. Add more coals from charcoal chimney to maintain even heat under the pan. Cook until the rice is almost tender and the lobster is cooked through, about 10 ...
4. Scatter peas on top. (If the liquid evaporates before the rice is tender, add more hot stock.) Cook without stirring, allowing rice to absorb all of the liquid, so that a crust (the socarrat) develops on the bottom and the edges begin to dry out and get crusty, 5-10 minutes, f...
5. Remove pan from grill. Cover with large clean kitchen towels and let rest for 5 minutes. Garnish with parsley and serve with lemons, making sure to scrape some of the socarrat from the bottom of the pan onto each plate.

Grilled Lobster Tails 2 servings

New England · Allrecipes · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Lemon juice
- 120 ml Olive oil
- 5 ml Salt
- 5 ml Paprika
- 0.5 ml White pepper
- 0.5 ml Garlic powder
- 2 Rock lobster tails

METHOD

1. Preheat the grill for high heat and lightly oil the grate.
2. Pour lemon juice into a small bowl; slowly whisk in olive oil. Whisk in salt, paprika, white pepper, and garlic powder until combined.
3. Split lobster tails lengthwise with a large knife, then brush flesh with some marinade.
4. Place lobster tails flesh-side down on the preheated grill and cook, turning once and basting frequently with marinade, until opaque and firm to the touch, about 5 minutes per side. Discard any remaining marinade.

Grilled Potato Salad 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 900 g . baby yukon gold potatoes
- 125 g Kosher salt — plus more
- 160 ml Unseasoned rice vinegar
- 45 ml . fish sauce
- 15 ml . honey
- 60 ml Plus 3 tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for drizzling
- 2 Red fresno chiles — thinly sliced
- 1 large Red onion
- 3 Garlic cloves
- 480 ml Basil leaves
- 30 ml . toasted sesame seeds

METHOD

1. Cover potatoes with 3 qt. water in a large saucepan. Stir in ½ cup salt. Bring to a simmer over medium-high heat. Reduce heat to medium and continue to simmer until potatoes are just tender when pierced with a skewer or paring knife, about 12 minutes. Drain and let cool slightly.
2. Meanwhile, prepare a grill for medium heat. Whisk vinegar, fish sauce, honey, and 3 Tbsp. oil in a small bowl. Stir in chiles. Season dressing with salt; set aside.
3. Cut onion in half through the root, then cut each half into 5 wedges so that they're still held together by the root.
4. Finely grate garlic into a large bowl. Whisk in ¼ cup oil. Add onion wedges to bowl. Smash potatoes lightly with your hands as you add them to bowl, tossing gently to coat with garlic oil. Season with salt.
5. Grill potatoes and onion wedges, turning occasionally, until charred all over, 12–15 minutes. Wipe out bowl you tossed the potatoes in, then return potatoes and onions to bowl when they're finished grilling.
6. Pour dressing over potatoes, tossing to coat. Add basil (tearing any large leaves in half) and sesame seeds. Taste and season with salt if needed, then toss again to combine.
7. Transfer potato salad to a serving bowl. Drizzle with oil.

Grilled Salmon Collars 4 servings

Japanese · Bon Appetit · Pescatarian, Dairy-Free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 2 -inch piece ginger — peeled, thinly sliced
- 1 Fresh red chile (such as fresno or holland) — coarsely chopped
- 2 Garlic cloves — smashed
- 120 ml Mirin — sweet Japanese rice wine
- 120 ml Soy sauce
- 60 ml Sake
- 2 g Sugar
- 4 Salmon collars (about 3 pounds total) — scaled, fins removed
- Kosher salt
- Vegetable oil — for grill

METHOD

1. Bring ginger, chile, garlic, mirin, soy sauce, sake, sugar, and 1 cup water to a boil in a medium saucepan.
2. Reduce heat and simmer the mixture, stirring occasionally, until reduced by half, 15–20 minutes.
3. Let the tare (marinade) cool. Strain the tare through a fine-mesh sieve into a heatproof measuring glass or small bowl; discard the solids.
4. Set aside ¼ cup of the tare. Pour the remaining tare into a large resealable plastic bag.
5. Season salmon lightly with salt and place in the bag. Seal the bag and turn salmon to coat.
6. Chill the salmon at least 30 minutes and up to 2 hours (go the full time for the most flavor).
7. Prepare a grill for medium heat. You want moderate heat for fatty fish like salmon so the fat can slowly render while the skin gets nice and crisp.
8. Clean the grill grate well with a wire brush. Just before you set salmon on the grill, fold up a paper towel and hold it with a pair of long tongs. Dip the paper towel in oil and wipe down the grate.
9. Remove salmon from the tare, letting excess drip back into the bag; discard the tare in the bag.
10. Grill salmon, skin side down, brushing occasionally with the reserved ¼ cup tare, until the skin is lightly charred and crisp, 5–7 minutes.
11. Turn salmon and grill until the other side is lightly charred (do not brush this side with tare), about 5 minutes.
12. Transfer salmon collars to a platter.

Grilled Salmon Fillets With Lemon-sesame Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 6 -oz. skin-on salmon fillets — pin bones removed, patted dry
- 30 ml . plus 0.333 cup extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for grill

- 1 small Shallot — finely chopped
- 10 ml . black sesame seeds
- 5 ml . honey
- 2.5 ml Toasted sesame oil
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 240 ml Torn basil leaves

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for medium heat. Rub salmon with 2 Tbsp. olive oil; season both sides with salt.
2. Cut ends off lemon and discard. Place lemon upright and slice off outer lobes in 4 sections, leaving a square-shaped core and seeds behind. Finely chop lobes (flesh, pith, and all) and transfer to a small bowl (you should have about ■ cup). Squeeze out juice from core over bow...
3. Clean and oil grate, then immediately place salmon on grill skin side down. Cover grill and cook, skin side down the entire time, until skin is lightly charred and fish is opaque, 6–8 minutes. Transfer salmon to a plate and let cool slightly.
4. Divide salmon among plates. Top with basil. Spoon lemon-sesame sauce over.

- 240 ml Fresh spinach leaves

METHOD

1. Preheat an outdoor grill (preferably charcoal) for high heat and lightly oil the grate.
2. Cook bacon in a skillet over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until browned and crisp, 8 to 10 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, cut kernels from cobs into a large bowl using a sharp knife held at a 45-degree angle. Scrape cobs with the back of the knife into the bowl to release the juices.

4. Add ¼ cup green onions (white and light green parts) and red bell pepper to bacon; cook and stir until vegetables just become tender, about 2 minutes. Stir in corn; cook until warmed through. Season with rice wine vinegar, olive oil, a few chopped dark green onion tops, 1 pinc...
5. Coat both sides salmon fillets with vegetable oil; season with remaining 1 pinch cayenne pepper, salt, and black pepper.
6. Cook on the preheated grill until good grill marks appear, fillets flake easily with a fork, and salmon is still slightly pink in the center, about 5 minutes per side. Cracks in salmon flesh as you cook the fillets allows you to see doneness in the middle.
7. Divide spinach leaves between two plates; top each with a salmon fillet and ½ bacon relish. Garnish with a few green onion tops.

Grilled Salmon With Black Beans And Piment D'espelette Mayonnaise 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 80 ml Plus 3 tablespoons olive oil
- 5 Garlic cloves; 2 pressed — 3 minced
- 15 ml Finely grated lemon peel
- 15 ml Chopped fresh thyme
- 2.5 ml Coarse sea salt plus additional for seasoning
- 6 7 -ounce salmon fillets with skin
- 120 ml Finely chopped red onion
- 120 ml Finely chopped celery
- 120 ml Chopped plum tomatoes
- 30 ml (scant) chopped jalapeño chiles with seeds
- 2 15 -ounce cans black beans — rinsed, drained
- 5 ml Ground cumin
- Freshly ground black pepper
- Nonstick vegetable oil spray
- 60 ml Chopped fresh cilantro plus leaves for garnish
- Piment d'espelette mayonnaise — see recipe

METHOD

1. Whisk 1/3 cup olive oil, pressed garlic, lemon peel, thyme, and 1/2 teaspoon sea salt in small bowl. Place fish, skin side down, in 13x9x2-inch glass baking dish. Brush marinade over top and sides of fish. Cover; chill at least 2 hours and up to 4 hours.
2. Heat 3 tablespoons olive oil in heavy large skillet over medium-high heat. Add onion, celery, tomatoes, chiles, and minced garlic. Sauté until vegetables are just soft, about 5 minutes. Mix in black beans and cumin. Reduce heat to medium and cook until flavors blend, stirring ...
3. Spray grill rack with nonstick spray and prepare barbecue (medium-high heat). Arrange fish, skin side up, on rack; spray skin. Grill fish 4 to 5 minutes; turn over. Grill until fish is just opaque in center, about 3 minutes longer, depending on thickness.
4. Rewarm beans with 1/4 cup water over medium heat; mix in chopped cilantro. Place 1/2 cup beans on each plate; top with fish and dollop of Piment d'Espelette Mayonnaise; garnish with cilantro leaves.

Grilled Salmon With Blueberry Pan Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Olive oil plus additional for brushing
- 180 ml Sliced shallots
- 1 Garlic clove — thinly sliced
- 1 ml Coarse kosher salt plus additional for seasoning
- 1 ml Chopped fresh thyme plus additional for seasoning
- 0.5 ml Ground allspice plus additional for seasoning
- 240 ml Fresh blueberries
- 60 ml Water
- 15 ml Balsamic vinegar
- 4 7 -ounce salmon steaks or fillets with skin — each about 3/4 inch thick
- 45 ml Thinly sliced fresh mint

METHOD

1. Heat 1 tablespoon oil in large skillet over medium heat. Add shallots; sauté until softened, about 5 minutes. Add garlic, 1/4 teaspoon coarse salt, 1/4 teaspoon thyme, and 1/8 teaspoon allspice. Stir until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add blueberries, 1/4 cup water, and vinegar...
2. Brush grill rack with oil. Prepare barbecue (medium-high heat). Brush salmon on both sides with oil; sprinkle with coarse salt, thyme, allspice, and black pepper.
3. Grill salmon until just opaque in center, 4 to 5 minutes per side. Transfer to plates. Stir 2 tablespoons sliced mint into warm blueberry sauce. Spoon sauce over salmon and sprinkle with remaining 1 tablespoon mint. Serve immediately.

Grilled Salmon With Indian Spices And Raita 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Coarsely chopped peeled fresh ginger
- 60 ml Vegetable oil plus more
- 15 ml . plus 1 tsp. garam masala
- 2 Garlic cloves — coarsely chopped
- 10 ml . ground coriander
- 8 ml Ground cumin
- 1 2 -lb. center-cut piece of boneless salmon fillet — skin on
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 240 ml Plain whole-milk yogurt
- 180 ml Finely chopped peeled
- 30 ml . finely chopped fresh cilantro — plus more for garnish
- 2 Scallions — finely chopped
- 15 ml . fresh lime juice

METHOD

1. Prepare grill (medium-high heat). Purée ginger, 1/4 cup oil, 1 Tbsp. garam masala, garlic, coriander, and cumin in a blender until coarse purée forms. Put salmon into a baking dish and season with salt and pepper. Coat salmon with ginger purée. Let marinate at room temperature...
2. Meanwhile, stir yogurt, cucumber, cilantro, scallions, lime juice, and remaining 1 tsp. garam masala in a medium bowl. Season raita to taste with salt and pepper.
3. Brush the grill rack with oil. Brush off marinade for easier grilling, or leave it on for a better crust. Grill salmon, turning once, until it just begins to flake in center, 4-5 minutes per side. Transfer salmon to a platter. Garnish with cilantro. Serve with raita.

Grilled Salmon With Lemon-sesame Sauce 2 servings

Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Walmart® fresh antibiotic-free salmon portions
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 10 ml Kosher salt
- 1 Lemon — sliced into 0.25– 0.5-inch rounds
- 30 ml Fresh basil
- 1 Shallot — minced
- 1 large Lemon — zested
- 1 large Lemon
- 10 g Honey
- 30 ml Sesame oil
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 10 ml Sesame seeds
- 2 g Kosher salt
- 2.5 ml Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Heat a grill to medium-high heat.
2. Coat the Walmart® Fresh Antibiotic-Free Salmon portions with the olive oil and sprinkle the salt evenly on both sides. Set aside.
3. Make the lemon-sesame sauce: In a small bowl, combine the shallot, lemon zest and juice, honey, sesame oil, olive oil, sesame seeds, salt, and pepper and whisk until well combined.
4. Place the lemon slices on the grill and cook for 60–90 seconds on each side, until charred. Remove from the grill and set aside.
5. Place the salmon fillets, skin-side down, on the grill. Cook with the lid closed for 5–6 minutes, then flip and cook for another 1–2 minutes, or until the salmon is cooked through and has lightly charred grill marks on the flesh side.
6. Place the salmon fillets skin-side down on a serving platter and spoon half the sauce over each fillet. Garnish with the charred lemon slices and basil.
7. Enjoy!

Grilled Salmon With Pesto Crust

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Pine nuts
- 120 ml Coarsely chopped fresh basil
- 60 ml Grated parmesan cheese
- 1 clove Garlic — minced
- 45 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 450 g Salmon fillet

METHOD

1. Heat a small skillet over medium heat; cook and stir pine nuts in the hot skillet until fragrant and toasted, about 5 minutes.
2. Blend basil, Parmesan cheese, toasted pine nuts, and garlic in a blender until a thick paste forms. Gradually stream olive oil into blender and continue blending until desired consistency of pesto is reached; season with salt and pepper.
3. Preheat an outdoor grill for medium-high heat and lightly oil the grate. Season both sides of salmon with salt and pepper.
4. Place salmon, skin-side down, onto grill grates; close grill and cook until salmon is about 2/3 done, 8 to 15 minutes. Remove salmon from grill using a spatula and transfer to a baking sheet, skin-side down. Spread pesto evenly over the salmon. Save extra pesto for another use...
5. Set oven rack about 6 inches from the heat source and preheat the oven's broiler.
6. Broil salmon until fish flakes easily with a fork and pesto is bubbling, about 5 minutes.

Grilled Salmon Wrapped In Lemon And Bay Leaves 8 servings

Bon Appetit · Gluten-Free, Dairy-Free, Pescatarian

INGREDIENTS

- 4 3/4 -ounce packages fresh bay leaves — divided
- 6 To 7 lemons — very thinly sliced into rounds, divided
- 1 3 -pound center-cut salmon fillet with skin
- Coarse kosher salt
- Olive oil — for drizzling
- Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Arrange eight 24-inch-long pieces of kitchen string, side by side and 1 1/2 inches apart, on a clean surface. Overlap bay leaves atop the strings in a rectangle about the same size as the fish. Top the bay leaves with overlapping rows of lemon slices.
2. Sprinkle the fish skin with coarse salt and freshly ground black pepper; place the fish, skin side down, on the lemon slices.
3. Sprinkle the fish flesh with coarse salt and pepper; drizzle with olive oil. Top with overlapping rows of lemon slices, then bay leaves.
4. Tightly tie the strings, securing the lemon slices and bay leaves to the fish.
5. Place the fish packet in a grilling basket; close the basket (the basket does not have to close completely in order to support the fish).
6. If preparing ahead, chill the salmon in the basket for up to 2 hours. Bring to room temperature before grilling.
7. Prepare your barbecue to medium-high heat.
8. Grill the fish in the basket until just firm to the touch and a thermometer inserted into the thickest part registers 57°C, holding the basket sides together to turn the fish. This will take about 20 minutes per side (approximately 40 minutes total).
9. Transfer the grilled fish to a platter, with the string knots facing up.
10. Carefully remove the strings, bay leaves, and lemons from the top side of the fish.
11. Drizzle with additional olive oil; then serve immediately.

Grilled Salt-and-pepper Black Bass 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml Grapeseed or other neutral oil — divided
- 15 ml . vadouvan or other curry powder
- 1 Green chile (such as serrano or jalapeño) — finely chopped
- 1 1 " piece ginger — peeled, finely grated
- 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
- 360 ml Finely chopped cilantro — plus 1 cup leaves with tender stems
- 45 ml . fresh lime juice — divided
- Kosher salt
- 2 1 0.5–2-lb. head-on black sea bass or other whole fish — cleaned
- 8 Scallions — 4 whole, 4 very thinly sliced on a diagonal
- Freshly ground black pepper
- Lemon wedges — for serving
- Flaky sea salt

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for medium heat. Heat ½ cup oil in a small skillet over medium. Once oil is shimmering, stir in vadouvan and remove skillet from heat (it should foam a little). Let cool in pan.
2. Combine curry oil, chile, ginger, garlic, chopped cilantro, and 2 Tbsp. lime juice in a small bowl. Season curry verde with kosher salt and set aside.
3. Place fish on a cutting board and pat dry thoroughly with paper towels (inside and out). Using a sharp knife, make slashes crosswise on a diagonal along the body every 2" on both sides, cutting all the way down to the bones (this will help the fish cook evenly). Place fish and...
4. Clean and oil grate, then immediately place fish and whole scallions on grill. Grill, turning scallions occasionally, until lightly charred all over, about 4 minutes. Transfer to a cutting board. Continue to grill fish, undisturbed, 8–10 minutes. Lift up slightly from one edge...
5. Finely chop grilled scallions and add to reserved curry verde.
6. Toss sliced scallions, cilantro leaves, and remaining 1 Tbsp. lime juice with a pinch of kosher salt in a medium bowl.
7. Spoon curry verde on a platter and set fish on top. Scatter scallion mixture over and sprinkle with sea salt.

INGREDIENTS

- 3 Dried pasilla chiles (about 1 ounce total) — coarsely chopped
- 30 ml Dried thyme
- 15 ml Dried oregano
- 15 ml Ground coriander
- 15 ml Ground fennel
- 10 ml Chipotle chile powder
- 10 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 10 ml Paprika
- 5 ml Garlic powder
- 5 ml Onion powder
- Zest of 1 lime
- 450 g Large sea scallops — side muscle removed, rinsed
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 4 Green garlic or 2 medium leeks — white and pale green parts only, thinly sliced
- 1 medium Shallot — finely chopped
- 1 Garlic clove — thinly sliced
- 4 Ears of corn — husked, kernels grated on the large holes of a box grater
- 15 ml Unsalted butter
- Kosher salt
- Vegetable oil — for drizzling
- Lime wedges — for serving
- A spice mill; four 8-inch metal skewers

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Coarsely grind pasilla chiles in spice mill. Mix ground chiles with thyme, oregano, coriander, fennel, chipotle chile powder, black pepper, paprika, garlic powder, and onion powder in a small bowl to combine. Scatter lime zest over scallop...
2. Heat olive oil in a medium saucepan over medium-low. Cook green garlic, shallot, and garlic, stirring occasionally, until very tender but without taking on any color, 6–8 minutes. Increase heat to medium and add grated corn; cook, stirring often, until liquid evaporates, about...
3. Thread scallops onto skewers, dividing evenly, season with salt, and drizzle with a little vegetable oil. Grill until deeply browned and just cooked through, about 3 minutes per side, depending on size. Transfer skewers to a platter and squeeze some lime juice over scallops.

Grilled Scallops With Nori 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 80 ml Mayonnaise
- 10 ml . fresh lime juice
- Kosher salt
- 1 Toasted nori sheet
- 5 ml . ground coriander
- 2.5 ml Ground ginger
- 30 ml . vegetable oil — plus more for grill
- 12 large Dry sea scallops — side muscles removed, patted dry
- 0.5 lime
- 3 Scallions — dark green parts only, very thinly sliced
- 5 ml . aleppo-style or other mild red pepper flakes or gochugaru — coarse korean red pepper powder
- A spice mill; eight 8" wooden skewers — soaked at least 1 hour

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Mix mayonnaise, lime juice, a pinch of salt, and 1 Tbsp. water in a small bowl; set lime mayo aside.
2. Finely grind nori in spice mill. Transfer half to a small bowl; set aside for serving. Transfer remaining nori to a large bowl and mix in coriander, ginger, and 2 Tbsp. oil. Add scallops and toss to coat.
3. Thread 3 scallops onto 2 skewers. (This will keep scallops in place and make them easy to turn. You can also use this method for shrimp and small peppers like shishito and Padrón.) Repeat with remaining scallops and skewers. Season both sides with salt.
4. Clean and oil grate, then immediately place scallops on the outside edge of the grill so that the skewers are hanging off the side. Grill, turning scallops with handles of skewers, until grill marks appear and scallops are just cooked through, about 3 minutes per side, dependi...
5. Spread lime mayo on a platter and place skewers with scallops on top. Finely grate zest from lime half over, then squeeze juice over. Top with scallions and sprinkle with Aleppo-style pepper and reserved nori.

Grilled Scallops With Peach Sweet Chili Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Red thai chile or fresno chile — seeds removed, coarsely chopped
- 1 Garlic clove — coarsely chopped
- 120 ml Chopped peeled ripe peach
- 5 ml . (or more) sugar
- 1 g Kosher salt — plus more
- 5 ml . cornstarch
- 15 ml . (or more) apple cider vinegar
- 16 large Sea scallops — side muscle removed, patted dry
- Vegetable oil — for brushing
- Freshly ground black pepper
- Cilantro sprigs and lime wedges — for serving; optional

METHOD

1. Purée chile, garlic, peach, sugar, and ¼ tsp. salt in a blender until smooth. Transfer purée to a small saucepan and cook over medium heat, whisking often, until starting to bubble around edges, about 4 minutes.
2. Dissolve cornstarch in 1 tsp. water in a small bowl. Whisk cornstarch slurry into purée and simmer, whisking constantly, 1 minute. Stir in vinegar and let sauce cool.
3. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Brush scallops lightly with oil; season with salt and pepper. Grill until charred and cooked through, about 3 minutes per side.
4. Taste sauce and add more sugar, salt, or vinegar if needed. Spoon sauce onto a platter and arrange scallops on top. Scatter cilantro over and serve with lime wedges if using.

Grilled Shrimp Cocktail 8 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 480 ml Ketchup
- 30 ml Freshly grated horseradish root
- 30 ml High-quality bottled horseradish
- 30 ml Freshly squeezed lemon juice
- 20 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 15 ml Hot sauce
- 2 medium Shallots — peeled, and grated on a Microplane grater
- 1.9 L Water
- 60 ml Kosher salt
- 30 ml Granulated sugar
- 2 Lemons
- 4 Garlic cloves — peeled, and grated on a Microplane grater
- 720 ml Ice
- 24 Unpeeled shrimp — this means shrimp that come 8 to 12 to a pound
- 80 ml Canola or vegetable oil
- 120 ml Extra virgin olive oil
- Juice of 2 lemons
- 60 ml Minced chives
- Kosher salt
- Freshly ground coarse black pepper
- 2 Lemons — each cut into 4 wedges for serving

METHOD

1. Stir together all of the cocktail sauce ingredients in a medium bowl and refrigerate for at least 2 hours, but preferably overnight for the flavors to develop.
2. Combine all of the brine ingredients in a large bowl and stir to dissolve the salt and sugar. Cut the lemons in half, squeeze the juice into the brine, and add the whole lemons as well. Stir in the garlic, followed by the ice.
3. For each of the shrimp, using a paring knife, cut along the curve of the back of the shrimp, and remove the vein, keeping the shells intact. Clip the feet off with a small pair of scissors.
4. Place the shrimp in the brine and refrigerate for 1 hour.
5. Preheat all grates of a well-oiled charcoal or gas grill to medium.
6. Remove the shrimp from the brine and lightly pat dry with paper towels.
7. In a bowl, toss the shrimp in the canola oil.
8. In a separate bowl, combine the olive oil, lemon juice, and chives. Set aside.
9. Place the shrimp on the grate, close the lid, and grill for 4 minutes. Flip to the second side and grill for 4 minutes.
10. Remove from the grill and immediately place in the bowl with the olive oil mixture, tossing to coat. Season with salt and pepper and serve with cocktail sauce and lemon wedges on the side.

2. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Grill shrimp until lightly charred and cooked through, 1–2 minutes per side. Transfer shrimp to a large bowl and toss with sesame oil; season with salt, if needed.
3. Serve shrimp with rice, lettuce, cucumber or carrot, lime wedges, mint or basil, sesame seeds, and reserved marinade for making lettuce cups.

Grilled Shrimp Tacos With Creamy Cilantro Sauce 12 servings

Fusion · Tasty · gluten-free

· 900 g Shrimp
· 5 ml Paprika
· 5 ml Garlic powder
· 2.5 ml Dried oregano
· 5 ml Ground cumin
· 2.5 ml Red pepper flakes
· 2 g Kosher salt
· 60 ml Olive oil
· 240 ml Sour cream
· 45 ml Minced fresh cilantro
· 5 ml Lime zest
· 1 g Kosher salt
· 30 ml Lime juice
· 360 ml Shredded green cabbage
· 360 ml Shredded red cabbage
· 15 ml Minced jalapeño
· 24 Corn tortillas
· Fresh cilantro
· Lime wedge
· 24 Bamboo or metal skewers

METHOD

1. In a large bowl, season the shrimp with the paprika, garlic powder, oregano, cumin, red pepper flakes, and salt. Toss gently to combine.
2. Skewer the shrimp onto 2 skewers, poking through the top and bottom of each shrimp and pushing down to the bottom of the skewer. Repeat to fill all of the skewers, about 4 shrimp per skewer.
3. Right before you place the shrimp on the grill, brush each skewer with a generous amount of olive oil to prevent sticking.
4. Grill over high heat for 3 minutes, brush the top side with more olive oil, flip, and cook for an additional 3 minutes, until the shrimp are opaque. Remove from the grill and remove the shrimp from the skewers.
5. Make the creamy cilantro sauce: In a medium bowl, stir together the sour cream, cilantro, lime zest, salt, and lime juice.
6. Make the slaw: In a large bowl, combine the green cabbage, red cabbage, and jalapeño. Pour half of the sauce over the cabbage, saving the other half for serving, and toss to combine.
7. Assemble the tacos: Add some of the slaw to the tortillas, followed by the shrimp. Top with the creamy cilantro sauce, more cilantro, and a squeeze of lime juice.
8. Enjoy!

Grilled Shrimp Tacos With Pickled Onions 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 120 ml White wine vinegar
· 10 ml . sugar
· Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
· 1 Serrano chile — seeded, finely chopped
· 80 ml Sour cream
· 5 ml . finely grated lime zest
· 30 ml . fresh lime juice
· 0.25 head Green cabbage — thinly sliced (about 3 cups)
· 700 g Medium shrimp — peeled, deveined, halved lengthwise
· 15 ml . olive oil
· 4 ml Chipotle chile powder
· 3.5 ml . ground cumin
· 8 Corn tortillas
· 0.5 medium Red onion — thinly sliced
· Cilantro sprigs — sliced avocado, lime wedges, and hot sauce (for serving)

METHOD

1. Place onion in a small bowl. Bring vinegar and sugar to a boil in a small saucepan and pour over onion; season with salt and pepper. Let stand 30–40 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, whisk chile, sour cream, lime zest, and lime juice in a medium bowl; season with salt and pepper. Fold in cabbage. Set slaw aside.
3. Prepare grill for medium-high heat. Combine shrimp, oil, chile powder, and cumin in a medium bowl; season with salt and pepper and toss to coat. Grill shrimp and tortillas until shrimp are cooked through and tortillas are toasted, about 1 minute per side.
4. Top tortillas with slaw and shrimp and serve with pickled onions, cilantro, avocado, lime wedges, and hot sauce.
5. DO AHEAD: Onion can be pickled 2 days ahead. Cover and chill. Slaw can be made 6 hours ahead. Cover and chill.

Grilled Shrimp With Fiery Lemongrass-chile Sambal 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 6 Thai bird chiles or 2 (or more) serrano or jalapeño chiles (preferably red) — seeded, coarsely chopped
- 360 ml Coarsely chopped shallots — about 8 ounces
- 60 ml Chopped peeled fresh ginger
- 45 ml Chopped lemongrass
- 6 Macadamia nuts
- 4 Garlic cloves — coarsely chopped
- 10 ml (packed) golden brown sugar
- 10 ml Turmeric
- 9 g Salt
- 5 ml Ground coriander
- 5 ml Paprika
- 1 Bay leaf — crumbled
- 2.5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 30 ml (or more) vegetable oil
- 240 ml Water
- 30 ml Fresh lime juice
- 45 ml (or more) vegetable oil
- 1.4 kg Uncooked unpeeled large shrimp — or 2 1/2 pounds uncooked peeled large shrimp, deveined

METHOD

1. Combine 6 Thai bird chiles (or 2 serrano or jalapeño chiles) and next 12 ingredients in processor. Using on/off turns, blend until finely chopped and paste forms. If spicier sambal is desired, add more chopped chiles to taste and blend again until paste forms. Transfer sambal ...

2. Whisk lime juice, 3 tablespoons oil, and 2 tablespoons sambal in small bowl. DO AHEAD Can be made 1 day ahead. Cover and chill. Rewhisk marinade before using, adding more oil by teaspoonfuls if marinade is thick.

3. If using unpeeled shrimp, use kitchen scissors to cut shrimp shell along rounded back of tail; scrape out vein with tip of bamboo skewer or tip of small knife. Place peeled or unpeeled shrimp in large glass baking dish. Brush shrimp all over with marinade. Allow shrimp to mari...

4. Meanwhile, prepare barbecue (medium-high heat). Brush grill rack with oil. Grill shrimp until just opaque in center, 2 to 3 minutes per side. Transfer shrimp to platter. Rewarm remaining sambal and serve alongside for dipping or for spooning atop shrimp.

Grilled Shrimp With Old Bay And Aioli 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Plus 1 tbsp. canola oil — plus more for grill
- 450 g . shell-on shrimp — 16–20 per lb.
- 3 small Garlic cloves — finely grated, divided
- 8 ml Old bay seasoning — plus more for serving
- 4 g Kosher salt — divided, plus more
- 1 large Egg yolk
- 2 Lemons — divided

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Lightly oil grate. Using kitchen shears, snip down back of each shrimp shell along the vein, stopping at the tails. You may end up cutting a little but of the flesh, but the aim here is to make it easy to peel the shell later (if you choos...

2. Transfer shrimp to a medium bowl. Add 1 Tbsp. oil, two-thirds of garlic, 1½ tsp. Old Bay, and ¾ tsp. salt and toss to combine. Let sit 10–15 minutes while you prepare the aioli.

3. Whisk egg yolk and remaining garlic in a medium bowl. Finely grate 1 tsp. lemon zest into egg mixture. Whisking constantly, gradually stream in remaining ½ cup oil until thick and pale yellow. Stir in juice of one lemon half. Season well with salt—it should taste really vibrant.

4. Cut remaining lemon in half. Grill shrimp and 3 lemon halves (cut sides down) until shells are golden brown and charred in some spots and flesh is opaque and cut sides of lemons are deeply caramelized, 1–2 minutes.

5. Spread aioli on a platter. Arrange shrimp and charred lemons over. Season lightly with more Old Bay.

Grilled Shrimp With Palapa 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 16 Red thai chiles
- 6 Dried shiitake mushrooms
- 1 Fresh coconut or 4 cups dried unsweetened shredded coconut
- 60 ml Vegetable oil
- 1 bunch Scallions — chopped
- 1.5 head Of garlic — cloves separated, finely chopped
- 1 2 " piece ginger — peeled, finely chopped
- 6 Makrut lime leaves — thinly sliced (optional)
- 45 ml . sugar
- 15 ml . diamond crystal or 2 tsp. morton kosher salt
- 900 g . jumbo shrimp — preferably head-on, peeled, deveined
- Vegetable oil — for grill
- Kosher salt
- 2 Lemons — halved

METHOD

1. Pulse chiles in a food processor until finely chopped (if you'd rather chop them by hand, wear gloves!). Transfer to a small bowl.

2. Grind mushrooms in a spice mill or with a mortar and pestle (or use food processor again) to a powder.

3. Hold coconut in one hand and strike it firmly around the equator with the back (blunt side) of a heavy knife or cleaver, rotating coconut as you go until it splits. Whack coconut halves with the back of knife to loosen meat from shell. Remove meat and shred on the large holes ...

4. Heat oil in same wok over medium-low. Cook scallions, garlic, and ginger, stirring constantly, until very fragrant, about 3 minutes. Mix in chiles, mushroom powder, toasted coconut, lime leaves (if using), sugar, and salt. Cook, stirring often, until golden brown and very frag...

5. Do Ahead: Palapa can be made 3 months ahead. Cover and chill.

6. Toss shrimp with 2 cups palapa in a large bowl. Cover and chill at least 1 hour or up to 1 day.

7. Prepare a grill for medium heat; oil grate. Arrange shrimp on grate and pack any palapa still in the bowl on top; season lightly with salt. Grill, turning once or twice and keeping as much palapa on shrimp as possible, until opaque all the way through, about 5 minutes.

8. Meanwhile, grill lemon halves, cut side down, until charred, about 5 minutes.

9. Serve shrimp with lemons for squeezing over.

Grilled Split Lobster 2 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml Vegetable oil
- 2 1 0.5-pound live lobsters
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- Melted unsalted butter — hot sauce, and lemon wedges (for serving)

METHOD

1. Prepare grill for medium-high heat; oil grate. Chill lobsters in freezer 15 minutes (this will slow down their nervous system—helpful for what comes next).
2. Working one at a time, transfer to a cutting board, belly side down, with head facing you. Using a kitchen towel, hold tail (it shouldn't be very active now) and, starting where the tail meets the body, bisect body and head lengthwise in one fell swoop. Turn lobster around and...
3. Immediately rub cut side of lobsters with 2 Tbsp. oil total; season with salt and pepper. Grill, cut side down, pressing claws against grill, until meat is nearly cooked through, 6–8 minutes. Turn and grill until shells are lightly charred and meat is cooked through (tail meat...

Grilled Squid With Chiles 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 3 Dried ancho chiles
- 2 Dried chiles de árbol
- 1 Dried pasilla chile
- 1 Dried ají amarillo chile
- 2 large Or 4 small radishes
- 2 Garlic cloves
- 30 ml Sherry vinegar or red wine vinegar
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 5 ml Honey
- 2.5 ml Smoked paprika
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 120 ml Olive oil
- 900 g Cleaned large squid
- 5 Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 120 ml Sherry vinegar or red wine vinegar
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- Vegetable oil — for grill
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 80 ml Parsley leaves with tender stems
- 15 ml Thinly sliced chives
- 15 ml Marjoram leaves
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 120 ml Torn pitted castelvetrano olives
- Olive oil — for drizzling

METHOD

1. Place ancho chiles, chiles de árbol, pasilla chile, and ají amarillo chile in a large heatproof measuring glass and pour boiling water over to submerge. Cover with plastic wrap and let sit until chiles are softened, 20–25 minutes. Drain.
2. Remove seeds from chiles; discard. Remove tops from radishes and coarsely chop. Thinly slice radishes and set aside for the salad. Combine chiles, radish tops, garlic, vinegar, lemon juice, honey, and paprika in a blender; season with salt and pepper. Blend until chiles are fi...
3. Prepare a grill for high heat. Cover the underside of a large cast-iron skillet with 2 layers of foil and set on grate (you want it to have time to get very hot).
4. Working one at a time, butterfly squid bodies. Cut a slit from wide opening to pointed end of body and open up into a flat triangle. Remove the thin clear sliver of cartilage; discard. Using the back of your knife, scrape away the jellylike membrane lining the inside of the bo...
5. Combine garlic, mayonnaise, vinegar, several pinches of salt, and a few cranks of pepper in a large plastic resealable bag. Add squid, seal bag, pressing out air, and massage to coat squid in marinade. Chill 30 minutes.
6. Lightly oil grate (grate must be clean, so give it a scrub with a wire brush before oiling if needed). Remove squid from bag, letting marinade drip off. Place a few pieces flat on grate and immediately set hot skillet on top (you want to work in a small enough area and with fe...
7. Add lemon juice to bowl with squid and season with a bit more salt; toss to coat. If bodies are very large, cut into smaller pieces; transfer to a platter. Drizzle several tablespoonfuls of dressing over (reserve the rest for serving with grilled meats or scrambled eggs).
8. Toss parsley, chives, marjoram, lemon juice, and reserved radishes in a medium bowl; season with salt and pepper. Scatter salad over squid; top with olives and drizzle with oil.

Grilled Stuffed Mackerel 1 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

- 1 medium Mackerel — cleaned and deboned if possible
- 1 ml Ginger paste
- 1 ml Garlic paste
- Salt — to taste
- 15 ml Plus 1 tsp vegetable oil
- 10 ml Lemon juice
- 0.5 small Onion — peeled and sliced
- 5 Fresh curry leaves
- 10 ml Goan red spice paste
- 1 medium Tomato — chopped
- Lemon wedges — to serve

METHOD

1. Wash and dry the inside of the fish. Make deep slashes across both sides of the fish. Stir together the ginger and garlic pastes, salt, 1 teaspoon of the oil and the lemon juice and rub all over and into the slits of the fish. Place in a nonmetallic dish, cover and marinate in...
2. Heat the remaining oil in a small nonstick saucepan and fry the onion until golden brown. Add the curry leaves and masala paste and cook over medium-low heat for 3-4 minutes, stirring constantly. If you are concerned that the masala sauce may burn, add a sprinkling of water to...
3. Rub a little of this stuffing mixture on the flesh and inside the slits and stuff the rest into the cavity. Put the fish back in the fridge for another 20 minutes, if you have time.
4. Preheat the grill and cover the grill pan with kitchen foil. Place the fish on top and cook for 6-7 minutes on each side, turning carefully, until the fish is golden brown and cooked through. Serve with lemon wedges and plain rice.

Grilled Swordfish With Charred Leeks 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 medium Leeks — about 2 0.5 lb.
- 240 ml Green olives
- 60 ml Coarsely chopped dill
- 45 ml . white wine vinegar
- Kosher salt
- 75 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided, plus more
- 3 Oranges
- 4 1 "-thick swordfish steaks — about 3 lb.
- Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for high heat. Trim dark green parts from leeks and remove any tough outer layers. Rinse off any sand and dirt and pat dry.
2. Throw leeks on grill (no oil needed) and grill, turning every few minutes with tongs, until outside layer is completely blackened (they should start to soften and you might see some juices begin to ooze out), 10–12 minutes. Transfer to a platter and let cool (this also allows ...
3. Meanwhile, smash open olives using the side of a chef's knife and remove pits (try to leave olive flesh in big pieces). Transfer to a medium bowl.
4. Cut leeks into ½"-thick rounds (ashy parts and all) and add to bowl with olives along with dill, vinegar, a big pinch of salt, and 3 Tbsp. oil; toss to combine.
5. Slice off both ends of oranges, exposing the flesh beneath the pith, then stand an orange upright on a cut side like this:
6. Following the natural curve of orange, slice away peel and white pith from top to bottom.
7. Trim off any remaining bits of pith, then lay orange on its side and cut crosswise into ¼"-thick rounds. Set aside for serving.
8. Clean and oil grate and rub swordfish steaks with 2 Tbsp. oil; season with salt. Grill until lightly charred and just cooked through (fish will feel firm when gently pressed), 5–7 minutes per side.
9. Divide swordfish among plates and arrange reserved sliced oranges around. Spoon leek mixture and any juices in bowl over. Drizzle with more oil and season with pepper.

- 30 ml Minced red onion
- 15 ml Chopped fresh cilantro
- 30 ml Lime juice
- 15 ml Lemon juice
- Salt and pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Prepare the fish: Whisk together olive oil, lemon juice, parsley, garlic, basil, black pepper, and salt in a bowl and pour into a resealable plastic bag. Add tilapia fillets, coat with the marinade, squeeze out excess air, and seal the bag. Marinate in the refrigerator for 1 h...
2. Meanwhile, make the salsa: Combine mango, bell pepper, jalapeño pepper, red onion, and cilantro in a bowl. Add lime and lemon juices and toss well. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Refrigerate until ready to serve.
3. Preheat an outdoor grill for medium-high heat and lightly oil the grate.
4. Remove tilapia from the marinade and shake off excess. Discard remaining marinade. Grill fillets until fish is no longer translucent in the center and flakes easily with a fork, 3 to 4 minutes per side, depending on the thickness of the fillets.
5. Serve tilapia topped with mango salsa.

Grilled Vegetable And Rice Salad With Fish-sauce Vinaigrette 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 60 ml Unsweetened shredded coconut
· Vegetable oil
· 12 Okra pods
· 3 Ears of corn — shucked
· 2 large Zucchini — halved lengthwise, centers scooped out
· 2 Long red chiles (such as holland or anaheim) — stemmed
· 1 small Eggplant — cut lengthwise into 1' slices
· 15 ml Sea salt
· 1 Garlic clove — minced
· 5 ml Palm sugar or (packed) light brown sugar
· 30 ml Fish sauce
· 15 ml Fresh lime juice
· 480 ml (loosely packed) mixed fresh tender herbs (such as basil — cilantro, fennel fronds, marjoram, mint, and tarragon)
· 960 ml Steamed jasmine rice

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 250 °. Spread out coconut (if using) on a rimmed baking sheet. Bake, stirring often, until golden brown, about 10 minutes. Let cool on pan.
2. Build a medium-hot fire in a charcoal grill, or heat a gas grill to high. Brush grill grates with oil. Meanwhile, combine okra, corn, zucchini, chiles, eggplant, and salt in a large bowl; drizzle with oil and toss to coat. Grill vegetables (use a grill basket if you have one),...
3. Cut corn kernels from cobs; place in a large bowl. Cut zucchini and eggplant into irregular 1" pieces; place in bowl with corn. Trim any tough tops from okra and cut okra in half lengthwise; add to bowl. Set aside.
4. Peel or scrape off charred skin from chiles and discard. Purée chiles (with seeds) and garlic in a food processor or mash with a mortar and pestle until a coarse paste forms. Add sugar and process or pound until dissolved. Stir in fish sauce and lime juice.
5. Drizzle dressing over warm vegetables; add herbs and toasted coconut (if using); toss well.
6. Scoop steamed rice onto a platter and top with salad.

Grilled Whole Fish 5 servings

Tasty

INGREDIENTS

· 1 Whole fish
· Salt — to taste
· Pepper — to taste
· Lemon — to taste
· Parsley — to taste
· Olive oil — from instructions
· White wine — from instructions
· Any favorite herbs or spices — from instructions

METHOD

1. Rinse fish inside and out with cold water, pat dry with paper towel.
2. Stuff cavity with salt, pepper, lemon, parsley, or any favorite herbs or spices.
3. Drizzle skin with olive oil. Place in a loose pouch of heavy duty aluminum foil and splash with white wine. Roll the foil shut so that liquid or air can't escape but leave a space between the top of the fish and the top of the foil pouch.
4. Cook on medium-high grill for 12-18 minutes depending on size of the fish.
5. Enjoy!

7-minute Salmon Piccata 2 servings

Italian · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Boneless — skinless salmon fillets
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper — or to taste
- 5 ml All-purpose flour
- 30 ml Clarified butter
- 30 ml Drained capers
- 60 ml White wine
- 1 Lemon — zested and juiced
- 30 ml Unsalted butter
- 15 ml Water
- 30 ml Chopped fresh italian parsley

METHOD

1. Season salmon with salt, pepper, and cayenne. Sprinkle flour onto one side of each fillet and pat gently onto the fish.
2. Heat clarified butter in a nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Add salmon, floured side down, and let sear for 2 ½ minutes. Flip and sear the other side for 2 minutes. Remove to a plate and cover with foil.
3. Add capers to the skillet and press with the back of a fork to gently mash. Pour in wine and lemon juice; add lemon zest. Swirl the pan to combine. Let reduce by half, about 1 minute.
4. Reduce heat to low and add butter; swirl the pan or stir with a spoon or spatula until butter is almost fully melted. Transfer salmon and any accumulated juices from the plate back into the skillet. Allow butter to fully melt while spooning sauce over salmon.

5. Pour in water to thin sauce if needed; continue to spoon sauce over salmon and cook until salmon is fully cooked through and flakes easily with a fork. An instant-read thermometer inserted into the center of the fillets should read about 63°C (63 degrees C). Sprinkle parsley o...

Halibut Fish Tacos

U.S. · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 1 Lime — juiced
· 60 ml Olive oil
· 60 ml Chopped cilantro
· 1 Jalapeno pepper — diced
· 15 ml Ground ancho chile powder
· 1 ml Ground cumin
· Salt and ground black pepper to taste
· 225 g Halibut fillets
· 8 Corn tortillas
· 480 ml Shredded cabbage
· 1 jar Salsa
· 240 ml Shredded pepper jack cheese
· 1 Avocado — sliced

METHOD

1. Stir lime juice, olive oil, cilantro, jalapeno, chile powder, cumin, salt, and pepper together in a large bowl or resealable zip-top bag. Add halibut and marinate for 20 to 25 minutes. Do not over-marinate, as lime juice will start to 'cook' the fish.
2. Preheat an outdoor grill for medium heat and lightly oil the grate. Drain marinade; grill fillets for 5 minutes. Turn and cook until fish flakes easily with a fork, about 2 minutes more.
3. Warm tortillas on the grill or stove. Divide halibut among tortillas and top with cabbage, salsa, pepper Jack cheese, and avocado.

Halibut Foil Packs With Chile Butter 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

· 1 1 -pound skinless — boneless halibut fillet, cut crosswise into 4 equal pieces
· Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
· 350 g Baby bok choy
· 0.5 medium Onion — thinly sliced
· 1 Garlic clove — finely chopped
· 55 g (0.5 stick) unsalted butter — room temperature
· 15 ml Ancho chile powder
· 12 ml Dijon mustard
· 5 ml White wine vinegar
· Four 12" sheets of foil

METHOD

1. Real Talk: Halibut is a firm-fleshed, flaky white fish. If you can’t find it, use something similar, like cod, hake, or salmon (not white, but texturally similar). If you use a thinner fish (like flounder), you’ll have to reduce the cook time; check it after 6–7 minutes.
2. Pat halibut dry with paper towels; season with salt and pepper. Chill, uncovered, 30 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, preheat oven to 450°. Cook bok choy in a large pot of boiling salted water until bright green but still very firm, about 1 minute. Transfer to a paper towel-lined rimmed baking sheet to drain. Cook onion in same pot of boiling salted water until heated through, abou...
4. Mix garlic, butter, chile powder, mustard, vinegar, and ½ tsp. salt in a small bowl until combined.
5. Lay out four 12" sheets of foil. Divide bok choy among sheets; top each with a piece of halibut and a schmear of ancho butter. Top with onions. Fold edges up and over to create packets; pinch seams closed. Transfer packets to a rimmed baking sheet and bake until fish has cooke...
6. Divide fish and vegetables among plates, then pour juices over.

Halibut With Spring Onion And Summer Squash Sauté 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 8 Spring onions or large scallions — bulbs separated from tops
- 60 ml (or more) olive oil
- 700 g Assorted summer squash — cut into 1-inch pieces
- 15 ml Thyme leaves plus 4 sprigs
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 4 6 -ounce skinless halibut fillets

METHOD

1. Cut onion bulbs in half lengthwise (quarter if large). Cut enough onion tops into 2" lengths to measure 1 cup. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat until almost smoking. Add onion bulbs, cut side down; cook until golden, about 3 minutes. Transfer to a plate.
2. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in same skillet. Add squash; cook, stirring occasionally, until golden brown and just tender, about 5 minutes. Stir in onion bulbs, 1 cup onion tops, and 1 Tbsp. thyme leaves; season with salt and pepper and cook until onion tops wilt, about 1 minute longer. R...
3. Heat remaining 2 Tbsp. oil in a large nonstick or cast-iron skillet over medium-high heat. Season halibut with salt. Add fish and thyme sprigs to skillet and cook until fish is golden brown, about 5 minutes. Turn fish and cook until just cooked through and opaque in the center...

4. Serve halibut with tomato-cherry vinaigrette, drizzled with oil.
5. DO AHEAD: Vinaigrette can be made 1 day ahead. Cover and chill.

Halibut With Zucchini Salsa Verde 6 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 275 g Zucchini (about 2 medium) — trimmed
- 120 ml Chopped fresh cilantro plus leaves for garnish
- 80 ml Chopped white onion
- 75 ml Fresh lime juice
- 40 ml Chopped seeded jalapeño chiles
- 6 ml Finely grated lime peel
- 10 g Coarse kosher salt — divided
- Nonstick vegetable oil spray
- 6 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 6 ml Ground coriander
- 6 6 -ounce skinless halibut fillets or cod fillets

METHOD

1. Combine zucchini, chopped cilantro, and next 4 ingredients in blender. Add 1 1/4 teaspoons coarse salt. Puree until salsa is smooth. DO AHEAD Can be made 2 hours ahead. Transfer to small bowl. Cover; chill.
2. Preheat broiler. Line broiler pan with foil; coat foil with nonstick spray. Combine 1 1/4 teaspoons pepper, coriander, and remaining 1 teaspoon coarse salt in small bowl; stir to blend. Pat fish dry. Sprinkle fish on all sides with seasoning mixture.
3. Arrange fish on prepared pan. Broil until just opaque in center, 3 to 4 minutes per side, depending on thickness.
4. Transfer fish to plates. Spoon some salsa over. Garnish with cilantro leaves. Serve with remaining salsa.

Hanoi Grilled Turmeric Fish With Dill And Onion 2 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 45 ml Fish sauce
- 5 ml Turmeric powder
- 15 ml Minced garlic
- 7 ml Fresh ginger
- 30 ml Finely diced shallots
- 15 ml Chopped dill fronds
- 1 ml Ground black pepper
- 450 g Striped bass skin-on fish filets
- 1 small Yellow or white onion — sliced
- 0.25 bunch Plus 2/3 bunch fresh dill — stemmed

- 2 Plus 2 scallion stalks — cut into 2-inch pieces
- Persian cucumber — julienned
- Pickled red onions
- 120 ml Roasted peanuts
- 225 g Vermicelli
- Coco rico vietnamese fish sauce
- Butter lettuce
- “mam nem” — optional

METHOD

1. Heat a little bit of oil on high heat in a pan/skillet and sauté onions until lightly golden. Add 1/3 bunch of fresh dill and two sliced scallions stalks to the party. Sauté for an additional 1–2 minutes. Plate the onions, scallions, and dill on a serving platter.
2. Remove fish from bowl, drain, and dispose of marinade. Pat dry excess marinade with paper towels so the sugar in the fish sauce doesn’t burn the fish.
3. In the same pan used to cook the onions, heat a little more oil on medium-high heat. Pan-fry the fish for 3–4 minutes, or until both sides are evenly browned. If you have delicious skin-on fish, give some extra cooking love to that skin, which should turn nice and crispy befor...
4. Plate the fish on sautéed onions, scallions, and dill. Garnish with remaining fresh dill and scallions, cucumber, Pickled Red Onions, and peanuts.
5. Serve immediately with sides of vermicelli noodles, Coco Rico Vietnamese Fish Sauce, and butter lettuce. Wrap everything, eat everything in a bowl, or whatever combination makes you happy. (I and many Vietnamese especially like it with “Mam Nem”, a fermented fish and pineapple...

Harissa Shrimp Quesadillas 2 servings

Fusion · Tasty

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Peeled
- 30 ml Harissa paste
- 15 ml Smoked paprika
- 5 ml Ground cumin
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 5 ml Black pepper
- 3 Garlic cloves — minced
- 15 ml Plus 4 teaspoons olive oil
- 0.5 lemon — lemon
- 1 Red bell pepper — diced
- 1 small Red onion — diced
- 2 large Flour tortillas
- 240 ml Shredded cheese
- 60 ml Fresh baby spinach

METHOD

1. In a bowl, toss together the shrimp, harissa paste, smoked paprika, cumin, salt, pepper, garlic, and 1 tablespoon of the olive oil.
2. Heat a skillet over medium-high heat. Add the shrimp, and cook for 2–3 minutes per side, until pink and slightly charred, squeezing lemon juice over them at the very end of cook time. Remove the shrimp from the skillet.
3. Add the bell pepper and onion to the skillet. Cook over medium-high heat, stirring occasionally, until softened, about 3 minutes. Remove from heat.
4. On 1 half of 1 tortilla, layer some of the cheese, shrimp, sautéed veggies, spinach, and more cheese. Fold over. Repeat with the remaining tortilla, cheese, shrimp, veggies, and spinach.
5. Heat 2 teaspoons of the olive oil in a pan over medium heat. Add 1 quesadilla, and cook for 2–3 minutes per side, until golden brown and crispy. Cut into wedges. Repeat the cooking process with the remaining olive oil and quesadilla.
6. Enjoy!

Healthy Shrimp Sushi Bowl 2 servings

Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 480 ml Shrimp — deveined and peeled
- 240 ml Quinoa — washed
- 1 Cucumber — finely diced
- 1 large Carrot — shredded
- 2 Avocados — finely chopped
- 240 ml Roasted seaweed — garnish
- 60 ml Green onion — garnish, thinly sliced
- 45 ml Sesame seed
- 60 ml Olive oil
- 60 ml Rice vinegar — plus 1/2 teaspoon
- 30 ml Soy sauce
- 2.5 ml Sesame oil
- 2.5 ml Garlic powder
- 2.5 ml Old bay seasoning
- 3 g Salt
- 2.5 ml Black pepper
- 360 ml Water
- 30 ml Sriracha
- 60 ml Mayonnaise

METHOD

1. Pat your shrimp dry and season with garlic powder, Old Bay seasoning, salt and black pepper, ½ tsp soy sauce, ½ tsp sesame oil and ½ tsp rice vinegar.
2. Add 2 Tbsp olive oil to your pot and pan fry your shrimp in the pot for 4-6 minutes, flipping halfway through. When shrimp is done cooking, remove from the pot.
3. Once shrimp is removed, add 2 Tbsp of olive oil and toast quinoa for 2 minutes, stirring often.
4. In a bowl, mix together ¼ cup rice vinegar, 2 Tbsp soy sauce and 1½ cups water.
5. After quinoa is done being toasted, add the rice vinegar, soy sauce and water mixture to your toasted quinoa. Cook on medium for 10-15 minutes.
6. Cut shrimp into bite-sized pieces.
7. To make the sriracha mayo dressing, mix 2 Tbsp of sriracha with 4 Tbsp of mayo.
8. To assemble, add your quinoa, cooked shrimp, cucumber, avocado and carrot in a bowl.
9. Garnish with roasted seaweed, green onion and sesame seeds. Then, drizzle with sriracha mayo and serve.

Herb-crusted Salmon 2 servings

Tasty

INGREDIENTS

- 1 medium Sweet potato — unpeeled and cut into 0.5-inch cubes
- 175 g Brussels sprouts
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 5 ml Black pepper
- 2.5 ml Red pepper flakes
- 2 Garlic cloves
- 240 ml Cherry tomatoes
- 240 ml Panko bread crumbs
- 25 g Freshly grated parmesan cheese
- 45 ml Chopped fresh rosemary
- 45 ml Chopped fresh thyme leaves
- 45 ml Chopped fresh parsley
- 45 ml Melted unsalted butter
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 1 Lemon — zested, plus lemon juice for serving
- 3 Garlic cloves — minced
- 30 ml Dijon mustard
- 2 Salmon fillets

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 204°C (200°C).
2. Make the veggies: In a bowl, toss together the sweet potato, Brussels sprouts, oil, salt, black pepper, red pepper flakes, and garlic. Arrange on a baking sheet with the cherry tomatoes. Set aside.
3. In a bowl, stir together the panko, Parmesan, rosemary, thyme, parsley, butter, salt, lemon zest, and garlic. Set aside.
4. Spread the mustard evenly over the tops of the salmon (skin side facing down). Press the panko mixture evenly onto the tops of the salmon.
5. Add the salmon, skin side down, to the baking sheet, pushing the veggies out to the sides and placing the salmon in the center. Bake for about 25 minutes, or until the salmon is golden brown and cooked through (internal temp should be 52°C–54°C for medium).
6. If desired, for extra crunch, broil for 1–2 minutes.
7. Serve immediately with a squeeze of lemon, if desired.

Honey Lemon Glazed Salmon & Veggies 2 servings

European · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 900 g New potato
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 60 ml Lemon juice
- 4 clove Garlic — minced
- 30 ml Fresh thyme
- Salt — to taste
- Pepper — to taste
- 30 ml Honey
- 10 ml Ginger
- 2 Salmon fillets
- 450 g Asparagus
- 1 slice Lemon — sliced
- 4 sprig Fresh thyme
- Aluminum foil
- Nonstick vegetable oil cooking spray

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 204°C (200°C).
2. Cover a sheet pan with aluminum foil and spray with nonstick cooking spray.
3. Spread out your potatoes on the pan and drizzle with 1 Tbsp. olive oil and 1 Tbsp. lemon juice. Season with salt and pepper and sprinkle ½ Tbsp. thyme, and 1 clove minced garlic over the potatoes.
4. Bake for 15 minutes, flip, then bake for another 10 minutes.
5. In the meantime, create your salmon glaze. Combine 2 Tbsp. lemon juice, 2 Tbsp. honey, 2 tsp ginger, 2 cloves minced garlic, and 1 Tbsp. thyme. Set aside.
6. Take the potatoes out of the oven and push them to the top or side of your pan. (Don’t cramp them — Make sure to still space them out a bit.)
7. Place your salmon fillets on the pan. Season both sides with salt and pepper and brush on the glaze onto both sides, then top with lemon slices and sprigs of thyme.
8. Place your asparagus on the pan and top with 1 Tbsp. olive oil, 1 Tbsp. lemon juice, salt and pepper, 1 clove minced garlic, and ½ Tbsp. of thyme.
9. Bake for 8-10 minutes. (The salmon should flake easily with a fork when it’s ready.)

Honey Mustard Salmon 4 servings

American · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- Neutral oil — for greasing
- 15 ml Whole grain mustard
- 15 ml Honey
- 3 clove Large garlic — thinly sliced
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 2.5 ml Red pepper flakes
- 700 g Salmon fillet — center-cut

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 191°C (190°C). Grease a rimmed baking sheet with oil.
2. In a small bowl, stir together the mustard, honey, garlic, salt, black pepper, and red pepper flakes.
3. On a cutting board, pat the salmon dry with paper towels. Transfer the salmon to the prepared baking sheet and rub all over with the mustard mixture.
4. Bake the salmon for 14 minutes. Turn the oven to broil and continue cooking until the top has caramelized and the internal temperature of the salmon reaches 63°C (60°C), about 5 minutes.
5. Let the salmon rest for 5 minutes on the baking sheet before serving.

Honey-chipotle Shrimp Tacos 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml . adobo sauce from 1 can chipotle chiles in adobo
- 30 ml . honey
- 450 g . medium shrimp — peeled, deveined
- Kosher salt
- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 1 small Garlic clove
- 0.25 head Of green cabbage
- 240 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems
- 1 small Red onion
- 1 Lime
- 8 Corn tortillas
- 30 ml . vegetable oil

METHOD

1. Stir 2 Tbsp. adobo sauce and 2 Tbsp. honey in a medium bowl until combined. Add 1 lb. shrimp; season with salt. Toss until shrimp is evenly coated with sauce. Set aside while you prep your toppings.
2. Mix ½ cup mayonnaise with 2 Tbsp. water in a small bowl. Grate 1 garlic clove into bowl, season with salt, and stir to combine.
3. Thinly slice ¼ head of cabbage into very thin strips.
4. Coarsely chop 1 cup cilantro.
5. Peel and trim 1 onion. Cut in half lengthwise, then thinly slice.
6. Cut 1 lime in half and squeeze out juice from both halves into another small bowl. Add sliced onion and a pinch of salt. Massage with your hands until onion begins to soften.
7. Heat a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Working with one at a time, warm tortilla in skillet until pliable and starts to darken, 30–45 seconds per side. Transfer tortillas to a piece of foil and wrap tightly to keep warm.
8. Return skillet to medium-high heat and pour in 2 Tbsp. oil. Once oil begins to shimmer, add shrimp mixture and cook, stirring occasionally, until shrimps turn pink and cooked through, 1–2 minutes. Remove skillet from heat.
9. Unwrap tortillas and build tacos with shrimp, cabbage, garlic crema, cilantro, and onions.

Honey-garlic Shrimp

Asian · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Large raw shrimp — 16-20 count
- 15 ml Minced fresh garlic
- 30 ml Honey
- 2.5 ml Freshly grated ginger
- 15 ml Soy sauce
- 5 ml Asian fish sauce
- 10 ml Vegetable oil
- 240 ml Thinly sliced green onion

METHOD

1. Make sure shrimp are fully thawed and well drained. Keep in the refrigerator while you make the marinade.
2. Whisk garlic, honey, ginger, soy sauce, and fish sauce together in a bowl.
3. Add shrimp and toss thoroughly with a spatula for 2 minutes until completely coated. Cover with plastic wrap and marinate in the refrigerator for 30 to 60 minutes; toss occasionally while marinating.
4. Brush a large nonstick skillet with oil and heat over high heat until you begin to see small wisps of smoke. Use tongs to immediately transfer shrimp into the hot skillet in a single layer. Set excess marinade aside.
5. Sear shrimp for 2 minutes, then flip over. Dump in marinade and cook for 1 minute. Turn off heat and flip shrimp once more; let sit for about 1 minute. The marinade in the pan will reduce down to a beautiful glaze just from the residual heat in the pan. Garnish with green onion.

Honey-garlic Shrimp And Pineapple Skewers

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml Butter
- 30 ml Raw honey
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 15 ml Pineapple juice

- 1 Serving cooking spray

METHOD

1. Combine butter, honey, lemon juice, pineapple juice, garlic, soy sauce, and red pepper flakes in a small saucepan over medium-low heat. Simmer until sauce begins to thicken, 3 to 4 minutes. Set aside 1/2 of the sauce for dipping.
2. Thread pineapple, shrimp, and bell pepper alternately onto both skewers and baste with the remaining sauce.
3. Preheat an outdoor grill for high heat and lightly oil the grate.
4. Grill until shrimp are cooked through and opaque in color, turning halfway, 5 to 7 minutes. Serve with dipping sauce.

Honey-garlic Shrimp Chow Mein 4 servings

Asian · Tasty

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Ginger
- 30 ml Garlic
- 60 ml Soy sauce
- 175 g Honey
- 450 g Jumbo shrimp
- 45 ml Cooking oil
- 1 pkg Chow mein noodle — hong kong style pan fried noodles, par cooked according to package instructions
- 240 ml White onion
- 240 ml Broccoli floret
- 120 ml Carrot — julienned
- 120 ml Cabbage
- Salt — to taste
- Pepper — to taste
- Scallion — for garnish

METHOD

1. In a 2-cup (480ml) liquid measuring cup, combine the ginger, garlic, soy sauce, and honey.
2. Pour about ■ cup (80 ml) of sauce over the shrimp in a medium bowl and toss to coat. Reserve the rest of the sauce. Cover the shrimp with plastic wrap and marinate in the refrigerator for 30 minutes to 1 hour.

3. In a wok or deep skillet over medium-high heat, heat 2 tablespoons of cooking oil, then add the par-cooked noodles. Cook for 1-2 minutes, allowing the noodles to crisp, then flip and cook for another 1-2 minutes. Transfer to a plate and set aside.

4. In the same wok, heat 1 tablespoon of cooking oil, then add the onion, broccoli, carrots, and ■ cup (80 ml) of the sauce. Cook for 2-3 minutes, or until the onions are translucent.

5. Add the cabbage and season with salt and pepper to taste. Cook for 2 minutes more, or until the vegetables have softened.

6. Push the vegetables to one side of the wok and add the remaining cooking oil to the empty side, followed by the marinated shrimp. Cook for 1 minute without disturbing, then flip the shrimp over and cook for another 2 minutes, until the shrimp are pink and their tails have curl...

7. Mix the cooked shrimp with the vegetables and add the crispy chow mein noodles and the remaining sauce. Toss gently and cook for another 2-3 minutes, or until everything is well combined. Garnish with sliced scallions.

· Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Mix yogurt and 1 Tbsp. lemon juice in a small bowl; season with salt.
2. Mix mustard, capers, and 2 Tbsp. oil in another small bowl. Set dressing aside.
3. Cut fennel stems away from bulb, then cut fronds away from stems; you'll use each part, but they're prepped separately. Thinly slice stems crosswise and place in a medium bowl. Coarsely tear fennel fronds until you have about 1 cup and add to bowl. Remove tough outer layers fr...
4. Divide seasoned yogurt among plates and use a spoon to spread it out. Using your hands, break salmon into big flakes and arrange over yogurt. Spoon mustard dressing over salmon and scatter fennel salad on top. Drizzle with more oil and season with lots of pepper.

How To Cook Trout 2 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 60 ml Butter
· 2 Whole trout — butterflied and deboned
· Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
· 30 ml Freshly squeezed lemon juice
· 30 ml Chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley

METHOD

1. Melt butter in a saucepan over medium-low heat until butter smells toasted and is golden brown, about 1 minute. Turn off heat.
2. Line a baking sheet with a piece of aluminum foil. Place trout onto foil; open trout so skin sides are down. Drizzle each trout with about 1/2 teaspoon melted butter. Generously season with salt and black pepper.
3. Move an oven rack to 5 or 6 inches below the heat source and preheat the oven's broiler on high heat.
4. Broil trout until opaque and barely firm to the touch, 2 or 3 minutes. Remove from oven.
5. Return pan of remaining melted butter over high heat; stir in lemon juice and parsley. Bring butter sauce to a boil; whisk to combine.
6. Serve trout on plates and drizzle with butter sauce.

How To Make A Tuna Melt 2 servings

American · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

· 1 jar Oil-packed tuna — drained
· 30 ml Finely diced celery
· 15 ml Minced green onion
· 10 ml Capers
· 30 ml Mayonnaise
· 5 ml Asian chile paste
· 80 ml Fresh mozzarella cheese
· Salt and ground black pepper to taste
· 30 ml Softened butter
· 2 Thick slices french bread
· 60 ml Shredded sharp white cheddar cheese
· 1 pinch Cayenne pepper — or to taste

METHOD

1. Place tuna into a mixing bowl and lightly break it apart with a fork. Add celery, green onion, capers, mayonnaise, and chile paste. Pinch in small pieces mozzarella and stir to mix. Season with salt and black pepper; refrigerate tuna salad until needed.
2. Preheat the oven's broiler. Line a baking sheet with aluminum foil.
3. Spread butter generously on both sides of French bread slices.
4. Broil buttered bread until golden brown on top, 2 to 3 minutes. Flip bread slices and broil other side until toasted, 2 to 3 more minutes. Remove from the oven and turn bread slices over on the baking sheet so the darkest sides are on the bottom.
5. Gently spread tuna salad onto bread slices using 2 forks. Press the salad onto the bread and spread tuna all the way to the edges of the bread. Spread shredded Cheddar over each sandwich. Dust tops with cayenne pepper.
6. Place sandwiches under the broiler and cook until cheese is melted and bubbling, 5 to 6 minutes.

How To Make Pesto Salmon Phyllo Parcels

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 2 Fillets salmon fillets
· 30 ml Basil pesto
· 8 Sheets phyllo dough — thawed if frozen
· 60 ml Olive oil

METHOD

1. Pat the salmon fillets dry with paper towel and season with salt and pepper. Lay skin-side down on a cutting board or plate and top each fillet with a tablespoon of pesto, or more to taste, ensuring the entire top of the fillet is evenly covered. Set aside while you prepare th...
2. Lay a sheet of phyllo flat on a work surface and brush with olive oil. Lay another sheet on top, brushing with oil. Repeat process for a total of four sheets, leaving the top of the last sheet dry.
3. Place one of the prepared salmon fillets at the bottom of the stack of phyllo sheets with the pesto side facing up. Roll over once, so the skin side is facing up, then fold over the sides. Brush all over with oil.
4. Continue rolling until the end of the phyllo, then place on the parchment-lined baking sheet with the pesto side facing up and brush the top with oil. Score the top 2 to 3 times to allow steam to release.
5. Bake parcels in the preheated oven for 20 to 25 minutes, until the phyllo is golden brown. Remove from oven and let rest a minute or two before serving.

Ice Water Salad 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 700 g Mixed crunchy vegetables (such as fennel — radishes, turnips, beets, and/or carrots), tough skins peeled
· 240 ml Walnuts
· 5 Oil-packed anchovy fillets
· 2 large Garlic cloves
· Kosher salt
· 80 ml Extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for drizzling
· 45 ml . fresh lemon juice
· 55 g . parmesan — shaved, divided
· A mortar and pestle

METHOD

1. Thinly slice vegetables on a mandoline (they should be about the thickness of a nickel). Fill a large salad spinner (or bowl) with ice water and add vegetables; let sit at least 15 minutes or up to 6 hours. (Cover and chill if letting sit longer than 1 hour.)
2. Meanwhile, preheat oven to 325°. Toast walnuts on a rimmed baking sheet, tossing once, until deep golden brown, about 9 minutes. Let cool, then crush or chop to about the size of a lentil.
3. Smash anchovies, garlic, and a big pinch of salt in a mortar and pestle to form a smooth paste. (Alternatively, you can use the side of a chef's knife to crush the garlic, then mash with the anchovies and salt on a cutting board.) Transfer to a small saucepan and add ■ cup oil...
4. Skim off any ice cubes from water bath and drain vegetables. Cover salad spinner and spin vegetables, periodically pouring off any collected water as needed, until they are very dry. Add to bowl with dressing and toss to coat.

Add half of Parmesan and toss again just to evenly...

5. Arrange salad on a platter. Top with remaining Parmesan, drizzle with some oil, and season with pepper.

- 5 Oil-packed anchovy fillets
- 2 large Garlic cloves
- 80 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 45 ml . fresh lemon juice
- 55 g . parmesan — shaved, divided
- Kosher salt
- A mortar and pestle

METHOD

1. Thinly slice vegetables on a mandoline (they should be about the thickness of a nickel). Fill a large salad spinner (or bowl) with ice water and add vegetables; let sit at least 15 minutes or up to 6 hours. (Cover and chill if letting sit longer than 1 hour.)
2. Meanwhile, preheat oven to 163°C. Toast walnuts on a rimmed baking sheet, tossing once, until deep golden brown, about 9 minutes. Let cool, then crush or chop to about the size of a lentil.
3. Smash anchovies, garlic, and a big pinch of salt in a mortar and pestle to form a smooth paste. (Alternatively, you can use the side of a chef's knife to crush the garlic, then mash with the anchovies and salt on a cutting board.) Transfer to a small saucepan and add 1/3 cup o...
4. Skim off any ice cubes from water bath and drain vegetables. Cover salad spinner and spin vegetables, periodically pouring off any collected water as needed, until they are very dry. Add to bowl with dressing and toss to coat. Add half of Parmesan and toss again just to evenly...
5. Arrange salad on a platter. Top with remaining Parmesan, drizzle with some oil, and season with pepper.

Instant Pot Honey-mustard Salmon From Frozen

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Fillets frozen salmon fillets
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 240 ml Water
- 15 ml Honey
- 15 ml Whole-grain mustard
- 10 ml Olive oil

METHOD

1. Season frozen salmon fillets with salt and pepper. Place a trivet inside a multi-functional pressure cooker (such as Instant Pot®) and pour in 1 cup of water, ensuring the water does not cover the trivet. Place fillets skin-side down on the trivet in a single layer.
2. Close and lock the lid. Select high pressure according to manufacturer's instructions; set timer for 4 minutes. Allow 10 to 15 minutes for pressure to build.
3. Release pressure carefully using the quick-release method according to manufacturer's instructions immediately after cooking time is over, about 5 minutes.
4. Meanwhile, mix together honey, mustard, and olive oil in a small bowl.
5. Set an oven rack about 6 inches from the heat source and preheat the oven's broiler to high. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.
6. Unlock and remove the Instant Pot® lid. Carefully transfer cooked fillets onto the prepared baking sheet, skin-side down. Spread 1/2 of the honey-mustard glaze over each fillet.
7. Broil salmon fillets for 2 minutes. Serve immediately.

Instant Pot Jogaetang 4 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1⁄4 cup kosher salt
- 900 g . littleneck clams — scrubbed
- 1 pcs Dashima — dried kelp
- 2 Garlic cloves — minced
- 1 Red jalapeño pepper — thinly sliced
- 1 Korean green chile pepper — thinly sliced
- 1 Scallion — thinly sliced

METHOD

1. In a large bowl, dissolve ¼ cup of kosher salt in 4 cups of cold water. Add the clams and cover in the salt bath. Discard any floating clams. Soak for 30 minutes, or up to 2 hours in the refrigerator.
2. Transfer one clam at a time to a strainer, leaving behind the sand that collects at the bottom of the bowl. Rinse the clams and clean with a kitchen brush under running cold water and drain.
3. Add dashima and 3 cups water to the inner pot of your Instant Pot. Press Saute■ on High. Simmer the broth to a boil, about 3 minutes. Using tongs, remove dashima.
4. Add the clams, garlic, jalapen■o, and chile pepper to the inner pot.
5. Turn and lock the lid and move the steam release valve to the sealed position. Select Pressure Cook on High and program for 1 minute. When the cooking is complete, quick-release manually. Unlock and carefully remove the lid. The clams should be cooked and shells open.
6. Add salt and black pepper to taste. Transfer to a bowl and top with scallion slices. Serve immediately with rice and banchan.

Instant Pot Thai Coconut Clams 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Coconut oil
- 3 Shallots — halved lengthwise and sliced
- 1 stalk Fresh lemongrass
- 120 ml Vegetable broth or chicken stock
- 1 pcs Of fresh ginger — peeled and cut into matchsticks
- 2 Jalapeño peppers — seeded and sliced
- 30 ml Asian fish sauce
- 15 ml Light brown sugar
- 120 ml Canned full-fat coconut milk
- 900 g Clams
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 1 Scallion (white and green parts) — chopped
- 120 ml Fresh cilantro leaves
- 1 Lime — cut into wedges, for squeezing

METHOD

1. Using the sauté function, heat the oil in the pressure cooker. Add the shallots and sauté until they are soft and browned at the edges, 3 to 5 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, peel the outer layers from the lemongrass stalk and smash the inner core with the side of a heavy knife to bruise it (this helps release the flavor). Finely chop the core.
3. Add the lemongrass to the pot along with the stock, ginger, jalapeños, fish sauce, and brown sugar. Stir until the sugar has dissolved, and then bring the sauce up to a simmer, and simmer for 1 minute. Stir in the coconut milk and simmer until it has reduced by a third and is ...
4. Add the clams, cover, and cook on low pressure for 1 minute. Release the pressure manually. Discard any clams that didn't open. Taste the sauce, and season it with salt and pepper to taste.
5. Serve the clams in bowls, spooning some broth over them and garnishing with the scallion, cilantro, and a squeeze of lime juice.

Jazzy Shrimp And Grits 4 servings

American · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Mccormick® jazzy spice blend
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 2.5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 450 g Raw shrimp
- 960 ml Water — vegetable stock or chicken stock
- 240 ml Stone ground corn grits
- 240 ml Shredded white cheddar
- 15 ml Unsalted butter
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 2.5 ml Pepper
- 4 strip Bacon — uncooked
- 3 clove Garlic — thinly sliced
- 60 ml Dry white wine
- 60 ml Chicken stock — or vegetable stock
- 30 ml Fresh chives

METHOD

1. Make the shrimp: In a medium bowl, mix together the Jazzy Spice Blend, salt, and pepper. Add the shrimp and toss to coat thoroughly. Cover with plastic wrap and marinate in the refrigerator for 1 hour.
2. Make the grits: In a large saucepan over high heat, bring the water or stock to a boil. Once boiling, whisk in the grits. Reduce the heat to low and simmer, whisking often, until the grits begin to thicken. If the grits are bubbling and spurting too much, cover the pot partial...
3. While the grits are cooking, place the bacon strips in a cold medium skillet. Turn the heat to medium-low and cook the bacon until crispy, 2-3 minutes per side. Remove the bacon from the pan, leaving the bacon fat behind, and drain on paper towels. Once the bacon is cool, chop...
4. Add the garlic to the bacon fat in the pan and cook for 1-2 minutes over medium low heat until fragrant. Add the shrimp, white wine, and chicken stock to pan. Cook until the shrimp are pink and opaque, then remove from the pan.
5. Return chopped bacon to pan and cook for about a minute, until the liquid in the pan reduces slightly to make a sauce.
6. Spoon the grits into bowls and top with the shrimp. Spoon the bacon sauce over the shrimp and garnish with chives.
7. Enjoy!

Jerk Shrimp 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Mild jerk seasoning paste — such as Walkerswood
- 15 ml . vegetable oil — plus more for grill
- 900 g . large shrimp — peeled, deveined
- 5 ml . diamond crystal or 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
- Freshly ground pepper
- 1 medium Pineapple — peeled, cored, sliced into 0.5"-thick rounds
- 0.5 medium Red onion — thinly sliced
- 1 Persian cucumber — halved, thinly sliced
- 240 ml Finely chopped cilantro
- 80 ml Fresh lime juice
- Eight 8"-long metal skewers or bamboo skewers soaked 30 minutes in water

METHOD

1. Whisk ¼ cup mild jerk seasoning paste and 1 Tbsp. vegetable oil in a medium bowl. Add 2 lb. large shrimp, peeled, deveined, and lightly season with kosher salt and freshly ground pepper; toss to coat. Cover and chill at least 30 minutes and up to 8 hours.
2. Meanwhile, prepare a grill for medium heat; oil grate. Grill 1 medium pineapple, peeled, cored, sliced into ½"-thick rounds, turning halfway through, until tender and there are deep brown marks on both sides, about 4 minutes. Transfer to a cutting board and let cool slightly.
3. Cut pineapple into ¼" pieces; place in a large bowl. Add ½ medium red onion, thinly sliced, 1 Persian cucumber, halved, thinly sliced, 1 cup finely chopped cilantro, ■ cup fresh lime juice, and 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton kosher salt; toss well.
4. Thread shrimp onto skewers. Cook shrimp on grill until opaque and lightly charred, 3–4 minutes per side.
5. Spoon pineapple salad onto plates with a slotted spoon, then top with shrimp. Spoon any juices left in bowl over shrimp. To make without a grill:

Heat broiler. Spread marinated shrimp out on one side of a rimmed baking sheet (do not skewer); arrange pineapple on other side. Br...

King Oyster Mushroom Aguachile 2 servings

Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 King oyster mushrooms
- 0.25 medium Red onion
- 0.5 bunch Fresh cilantro
- 0.5 large Cucumber — halved lengthwise and seeds removed
- 1 Serrano pepper — stemmed
- 1 Jalapeño pepper — stemmed
- 2 large Cloves garlic
- 240 ml Fresh lime juice

- 15 ml Distilled white vinegar
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 0.5 large Cucumber
- 0.5 medium Red onion
- 15 ml Fresh cilantro
- Freshly ground black pepper — to taste

METHOD

1. Make the aguachile: On a mandoline, thinly slice the mushroom stems crosswise into rounds (reserve the mushroom caps for another use). Transfer to a bowl or deep container. Thinly slice the red onion on the mandoline and add to the bowl with the mushrooms.
2. In a blender, combine the cilantro, cucumber, serrano, jalapeño, garlic, lime juice, vinegar, and salt and blend on high speed until smooth, about 30 seconds.
3. Pour the marinade over the mushrooms and onion and stir to coat completely. Let sit for 5–10 minutes.
4. While the mushrooms are marinating, prepare the garnishes: using a mandoline, thinly slice the cucumber into rounds. Thinly slice the red onion.
5. To serve, arrange the sliced cucumber on a serving plate. Spoon the marinated mushrooms and onion on top, along with some of the marinade. Garnish with the thinly sliced red onion, cilantro, and black pepper. Serve immediately.
6. Enjoy!

- 1 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 120 ml Finely chopped mixed tender herbs (such as parsley — chives, and/or fennel fronds), divided
- 60 ml Plus 2 tablespoons olive oil; plus more for drizzling
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 4 slice 0.25-inch-thick country-style bread
- 1 large Egg yolk
- 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
- 5 ml Plus 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
- 80 ml Vegetable oil
- 900 g Kohlrabies (about 5 medium) — peeled, halved lengthwise
- Shaved parmesan — for serving

METHOD

1. Gently toss smoked trout, lemon zest, red pepper flakes, ¼ cup mixed herbs, and ¼ cup olive oil in a large bowl to combine; season with salt and black pepper. Let sit at room temperature 20 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, preheat oven to 350°. Drizzle both sides of bread with olive oil; season with salt. Toast on a rimmed baking sheet until golden brown and crisp, 8–10 minutes. Let cool, then crumble into small pieces. Set croutons aside.
3. Whisk egg yolk, garlic, and 1 tsp. lemon juice in a medium bowl to combine. Whisking constantly, gradually add vegetable oil and 2 Tbsp. olive oil, drop by drop at first, then in a steady drizzle; whisk until aioli is thickened and emulsified. Stir in 1 tsp. water to loosen sa...
4. Add kohlrabies and remaining 1 Tbsp. lemon juice to bowl with smoked trout mixture. Season with salt and pepper, drizzle with olive oil, and gently toss to combine.
5. Spread aioli on a large plate and top with kohlrabi salad, shaved Parmesan, reserved croutons, and remaining ¼ cup mixed herbs.
6. Do Ahead: Aioli can be made and trout marinated 1 day ahead. Cover and chill separately.

Kombu-cured Salmon With Fresh Yuzu Kosho 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 1 0.5-pound piece boneless salmon fillet
- 4 6 X5-inch pieces dried dashi kombu — should be flat and not wrinkled
- 0.5 lemon — thinly sliced, seeds removed
- 30 ml Mirin
- 15 ml Mild miso
- 5 ml Soy sauce
- 1 Jalapeño — seeds removed, chopped
- 1 Serrano chile — seeds removed, chopped
- Kosher salt
- Zest and juice of 1 yuzu or zest of 0.125 white grapefruit — 0.5 lemon, 0.5 lime, and 1 tablespoon mixed juice from all three
- Nonstick vegetable oil spray
- Yuzu or lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Slice salmon on a diagonal into four 1"–1¼"-thick fillets. Place 2 kombu sheets in a 13x9" glass baking dish or other nonreactive vessel. Lay salmon on top of kombu and top with remaining kombu so that salmon is completely covered. Lay lemon slices on top. Cover and chill at l...
2. Whisk mirin, miso, and soy sauce in a small bowl until smooth. Set glaze aside.
3. Toss jalapeño and serrano chile with a large pinch of salt on a cutting board and mash with the side of a chef's knife until a coarse purée forms. Transfer to a small bowl. Mix in yuzu zest and juice; season yuzu kosho with salt. Set aside.
4. Heat broiler. Lightly coat a broilerproof baking sheet with nonstick spray. Uncover salmon and transfer to baking sheet; discard kombu and lemon. Spread reserved glaze evenly over top of salmon and broil until flesh is very dark around the edges and opaque throughout, about 4 ...
5. Top salmon with reserved yuzu kosho and serve with yuzu wedges for squeezing over.

Kung Pao Shrimp 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml . granulated sugar
- 30 ml . chicken stock or water
- 10 ml . shaoxing wine
- 10 ml . light soy sauce
- 5 ml . dark soy sauce
- 30 ml . black vinegar
- 1⁄2 tsp. cornstarch
- 30 ml . neutral oil
- 5 Or 6 pieces dried chiles — cut into 1-inch segments
- 5 ml . whole sichuan pepper
- 15 ml . minced ginger
- 15 ml . minced garlic
- 3 Scallions — white parts only, cut into 1⁄2-inch segments
- 2 Celery stalks — cut into 1⁄2-inch segments
- 450 g . shrimp — peeled, tails on
- 1⁄2 cup kungpao sauce
- 1⁄2 cup roasted cashews or peanuts
- Microgreens or edible flowers for garnish — optional
- White rice for serving

METHOD

1. In a small bowl, mix all sauce ingredients together until well-combined. Transfer to an airtight container and store in the refrigerator for up to 2 weeks. When ready to use, make sure to mix well again before cooking.
2. In a wok or frying pan over high heat, add the oil and heat until smoking. Add the chiles and Sichuan pepper and fry quickly so they don't burn, 10 to 20 seconds. Add the ginger, garlic, and scallions and fry until fragrant. Add the celery and shrimp and flash-fry for about 3 ...
3. Pour in the sauce, stirring to make sure it coats all the ingredients evenly for 1 minute. The sauce will thicken as soon as it hits the heat, so move quickly here. Stir in the cashews at the very end before transferring to a serving platter.
4. Garnish with the microgreens (if using) and serve immediately with rice.

Lamb Scallopini With Pepper And Onion Agrodolce

Italian · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Olive oil — divided
- 160 ml Diced yellow onion
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 80 ml Diced fresno chile pepper
- 1 clove Garlic — minced
- 2.5 ml Dried mint
- 45 ml Balsamic vinegar — divided
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper
- 5 ml Minced fresh rosemary
- 80 ml Chopped flat-leaf (italian) parsley
- 450 g Boneless lamb top sirloin
- Kosher salt and freshly ground pepper to taste
- 120 ml All-purpose flour
- 30 ml Olive oil

METHOD

1. Heat 2 tablespoons olive oil for agrodolce in a pan over medium-high heat. Saute onion with a pinch of salt in the hot oil until they start to soften up and take on some color, 4 to 5 minutes. Drizzle in more olive oil if the onions look dry. Add chile peppers and garlic; cook...
2. Meanwhile, cut the lamb into four equal 4-ounce pieces and pound between plastic wrap to about 1/8-inch thick medallions. Trim any easy-to-cut silver skin off if you like. Transfer to a Silpat®-lined baking sheet and season generously with kosher salt and pepper. Dust both sid...
3. While lamb rests, stir salt and pepper to taste, cayenne, remaining 2 tablespoons balsamic vinegar, remaining 2 tablespoons olive oil, rosemary, and parsley into the agrodolce mixture. Taste and adjust, adding more salt, oil, and/or vinegar as you see fit. Reserve until needed...
4. Heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat until shimmering, but not quite smoking. Pan-fry the lamb medallions until browned, about 2 minutes per side. They are very thin, so be careful not to overcook. Serve immediately topped with the agrodolce.

Larsen's Lobster Rolls 6 servings

American · Bon Appetit · Seafood

INGREDIENTS

- 5 1 0.25 lb. lobsters — preferably culls
- 60 ml Mayonnaise
- 2 Celery stalks — finely chopped
- 6 Hot dog buns
- Salt
- Pepper

METHOD

1. Pour water into a large pot to come 3" up the sides. Cover and bring to a boil.
2. Add lobsters, reduce heat to medium, and re-cover pot. Steam lobsters for 15 minutes.
3. Using tongs, remove lobsters from pot and transfer to a large bowl. Pour in ice water to cover; let cool completely.
4. Break off lobster tails.
5. Pull off the flippers and use your thumb to push the tail meat up and out of the shell from the bottom (like a push-up pop).
6. Crack claws with the back of a knife and remove meat.
7. Chop tail and claw meat into ½" pieces and place in a medium bowl.
8. Mix in mayonnaise and celery; season with salt and pepper to taste.
9. Divide lobster salad among buns.
10. If preparing ahead, the lobster salad can be made up to 2 days in advance. Cover and chill before serving.

Lazy Caesar Salad 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 0.5 medium Boule or loaf sourdough bread — about 10 oz.
- 45 ml . plus 0.333 cup extra-virgin olive oil
- Kosher salt
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 1 Garlic clove
- 1 Oil-packed anchovy fillet — drained
- 30 ml . dijon mustard
- 30 ml . fresh lemon juice
- 30 ml . mayonnaise
- 1 3 -oz. piece parmesan
- 2–3 Romaine hearts

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 425°. Tear ½ boule sourdough bread into 1" bite-sized pieces, using only the fluffy white interior and discarding the crusts (you should have about 3 cups).
2. Place bread in a large bowl and drizzle with 3 Tbsp. oil. Season with salt and pepper and toss to coat.
3. Transfer bread to a small rimmed baking sheet and arrange in a single layer (reserve bowl for making the salad). Bake, shaking sheet to toss once halfway through, until croutons are golden and crispy all over but still squishable in the center, 10–12 minutes. Let cool. (You're...
4. While croutons bake and cool, assemble your dressing. Finely grate 1 garlic clove into reserved bowl with a microplane.
5. Place 1 anchovy (if you're a fan of anchovies and want to taste them in the dressing, use 2) on a cutting board and mash into a paste with the flat side of a chef's knife. Add to bowl with garlic.
6. Whisk 2 Tbsp. mustard, 2 Tbsp. lemon juice, and 2 Tbsp. mayonnaise into bottom of bowl until mixture is incorporated.
7. Whisking constantly, slowly stream in remaining ■ cup oil. Continue whisking vigorously until you have a thick, creamy, smooth dressing.
8. Using a vegetable peeler, shave 3 oz. Parmesan into shards, then break up any larger pieces with your fingertips.
9. Tear 2 romaine hearts into bite-sized pieces directly into bowl with dressing. Season lightly with salt, then generously with pepper.
10. Add about three-quarters of cheese and about three-quarters of croutons to salad and toss gently with clean hands until lettuce is coated. If romaine hearts were small and salad looks a little overdressed, add some of the remaining romaine heart.
11. Transfer salad to a platter. Top with remaining cheese and croutons.

- 4 6–8 oz Skin-on salmon fillets
- 75 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided
- 5 ml . diamond crystal or 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 5 ml . saffron threads
- 3 Lemons — divided
- 240 ml Dill leaves with tender stems
- 240 ml High-quality basmati rice
- 60 ml Parsley leaves with tender stems
- 240 ml Plain thick yogurt

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 400°. Pat four 6–8 oz. skin-on salmon fillets dry with a clean kitchen towel or paper towels. Place in a large glass or ceramic baking dish; drizzle with 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil and season all over with kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper. Rub sa...
2. Crush 1 tsp. saffron threads in a mortar and pestle (a small bowl and the handle of a wooden spoon also work well) until it's mostly powder (it's okay if it's not perfectly powdery). Transfer to a small bowl and pour in 1 Tbsp. plus 1½ tsp. warm water. Stir until an intense su...
3. While the salmon is marinating, make the rice. Using a chef's knife, finely chop 1 cup dill leaves with tender stems as small as possible; set aside. Place 1 cup high-quality basmati rice in a fine-mesh sieve and rinse under cold running water, using your hand to agitate rice ...
4. Transfer rice to a small saucepan and add remaining 3 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil, 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton kosher salt, and 2 cups room-temperature water; stir to combine with a wooden spoon. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat and stir in reserved dill. Simmer,...
5. While the rice is cooking, cover saucepan lid with a kitchen towel, securing it at the top with a rubber band or an elastic so that it won't fall down. (A sheet or two of paper towels, making sure the sides won't drape down near any flames, will also work.)
6. Reduce heat to low. Cover rice with towel-lined lid and cook until tender and fluffy, about 10 minutes. Remove from heat, fluff with a fork, and let sit, covered, at least 5 minutes or until ready to serve.
7. While the rice steams, cook the fish. Turn fillets skin side down and roast until exterior is opaque and interior is a light pink, 15–18 minutes.
8. Coarsely chop ¼ cup parsley leaves with tender stems. Cut remaining 1 lemon into quarters. Spoon 1 cup plain thick yogurt (such as labneh, skyr, or Greek) into a bowl.
9. Divide rice among plates and top with salmon; sprinkle parsley over. Serve with lemon wedges and yogurt alongside, as well as any leftover sauce in the baking dish.

Lemongrass Curry With Shrimp 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 large Shallot — coarsely chopped
- 5 Garlic cloves — smashed
- 2 Lemongrass stalks — bulb and pale green parts very thinly sliced
- 1 1 -inch piece ginger — peeled, chopped
- 1 Jalapeño — seeds removed, coarsely chopped
- 5 ml Ground coriander
- 2.5 ml Ground cumin
- 120 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems — plus more for serving
- 30 ml Vegetable oil
- 30 ml White miso
- 10 ml Demerara or light brown sugar
- 1 13.5 -ounce can unsweetened coconut milk

- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 450 g Large shrimp — peeled
- 30 ml Fresh lime juice
- Cooked rice and lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Process shallot, garlic, lemongrass, ginger, jalapeño, coriander, cumin, ½ cup cilantro, and 1 Tbsp. oil in a food processor in long pulses until a smooth paste forms.
2. Heat remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in a medium saucepan over medium-high. Cook paste, stirring constantly, until very fragrant and starting to brown on bottom of pan, about 5 minutes. Mix in miso and sugar, then whisk in coconut milk and ½ cup water. Bring to a simmer; season with sal...
3. Add shrimp to curry and simmer just until cooked through, about 3 minutes. Remove pan from heat and stir lime juice into curry.
4. Divide rice among bowls, spoon curry over, and top with some cilantro. Serve with lime wedges for squeezing over.
5. Do Ahead: Curry (without shrimp) can be made 1 day ahead. Let cool; cover and chill. Reheat before adding shrimp.

Lemongrass Shrimp Soup With Spaghetti Squash 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 1 medium Spaghetti squash — about 3 pounds
- 350 g Shell-on medium shrimp
- 30 ml Vegetable oil
- 4 Scallions — white and pale-green parts only, thinly sliced
- 1 Lemongrass stalk — tough outer layers removed, thinly sliced
- 1 3 " piece ginger — peeled, thinly sliced
- 2 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 1.9 L Low-sodium chicken broth
- Kosher salt
- Cilantro sprigs — sliced serrano chiles, and lime wedges (for serving)

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 375°. Pierce squash all over with a knife to vent. Roast on a rimmed baking sheet, turning every 20 minutes, until tender (knife will easily slide through), 60–90 minutes.
2. Let cool slightly. Halve lengthwise and scoop out seeds; discard. Scrape flesh with a fork to remove in long strands. Spread out on paper towels to drain.
3. Meanwhile, peel and devein shrimp, reserving shells. Place shrimp in a medium bowl; cover and chill until ready to use. Heat oil in a medium pot over medium-high. Cook shrimp shells, stirring occasionally, until bright pink and browned in spots, about 30 seconds. Add scallions...
4. Bring broth to a boil. Reduce heat, add chilled shrimp, and simmer until shrimp are cooked through, about 2 minutes; season with salt.
5. Divide squash among bowls and ladle shrimp and broth over to cover. Top with cilantro and chiles and serve with lime wedges for squeezing over.

- 240 ml Fresh cilantro leaves with tender stems
- 240 ml Torn tender lettuces
- 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 30 ml Olive oil
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Using the back of a knife, lightly smash lemongrass, then thinly slice. Heat oil in a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot over medium-high heat. Add carrots and fennel, season with salt and pepper, and cook, stirring often, until softened, 6–8 minutes. Add onion and jalapeño a...
2. Add wine, scraping up any brown bits from bottom of pot, and bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer until almost completely reduced, about 2 minutes. Mix in lemon juice, tomato paste, sugar, and pink peppercorns. Add tomatoes, breaking up with your hands; bring to a boil. Red...
3. Working in batches, blend broth to a coarse purée; strain through fine-mesh sieve and discard solids. Return broth to pot.
4. Preheat oven to 425°. Melt butter in a small saucepan over medium heat. Add garlic and cook, swirling, until fragrant, about 1 minute. Brush cut sides of baguette with garlic butter. Bake, cut side up, on a rimmed baking sheet until golden brown, 5–7 minutes; sprinkle with chi...
5. Bring broth to a boil; reduce heat and add mussels and clams. Cover pot and simmer until clams and mussels are open, transferring to a large bowl with a slotted spoon as they open (discard any that do not open), 10–15 minutes.
6. Add prawns and squid to broth, cover, and simmer until cooked through, about 3 minutes for squid and about 5 minutes for prawns. Transfer squid to bowl with clams and mussels with a slotted spoon as they finish cooking. Return squid, clams, and mussels to pot as soon as prawns...
7. Meanwhile, combine fennel, shallots, cilantro, and lettuces in a medium bowl. Drizzle with lemon juice and oil and toss to coat; season with salt and pepper.
8. Divide stew among bowls and top with salad. Serve with garlic bread alongside.

Lemony Salmon With Watercress Salad

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 20 g Honey
- 15 ml Lemon juice
- 15 ml Chopped shallot
- 12 ml Olive oil — divided
- 1 ml Lemon zest
- 3 Fillets salmon
- 120 ml Creme fraiche
- 8 ml Lemon juice
- 1 ml Lemon zest
- 1 pinch Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 360 ml Watercress — chopped
- 60 ml Chopped fresh dill
- 60 ml Chopped fresh tarragon
- 10 ml Lemon juice
- 10 ml Olive oil
- 1 pinch Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 1 Lemon — cut into wedges

METHOD

1. Whisk honey, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, shallot, 1 1/2 teaspoon olive oil, and 1/4 teaspoon lemon zest together in a shallow baking dish. Add salmon fillets and turn to coat. Cover and refrigerate until flavors combine, 15 minutes to 1 hour.
2. Whisk creme fraiche, 1 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice, 1/4 teaspoon lemon zest, salt, and pepper together in a small bowl to make lemon-pepper sauce.
3. Toss watercress, dill, and tarragon with 2 teaspoons lemon juice and 2 teaspoons olive oil in a bowl to make salad. Season with salt and pepper.
4. Set an oven rack in the top part of the oven and preheat to 204°C (200 degrees C). Line a baking sheet with aluminum foil; brush with remaining 1 teaspoon olive oil.
5. Transfer salmon fillets, with marinade, to the prepared baking sheet.
6. Bake in the preheated oven until salmon is just opaque in the center, about 15 minutes.
7. Serve salmon with some salad and sauce on top. Serve remaining sauce on the side. Garnish with lemon wedges.

Lew's Famous Lobster Pot Pie

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pkg Dry crab boil — such as Zatarain's® Crab & Shrimp Boil
- 5 small Lobster tails
- 1 pkg Double crust ready-to-use pie crust — such as Pillsbury®
- 75 ml Butter
- 120 ml Diced onion
- 120 ml Diced celery
- 80 ml All-purpose flour
- 360 ml Chicken broth
- 180 ml Milk
- 5 ml Seafood seasoning
- 2.5 ml Garlic powder
- 1 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 360 ml Frozen mixed vegetables — thawed
- 120 ml Diced potato

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 218°C (220 degrees C).
2. Bring water and crab boil to a boil in a large saucepan.
3. Stir in lobster tails and boil until they turn bright red and the meat becomes opaque, 5 to 8 minutes. Drain and cool lobster tails. Remove shells, and dice lobster meat. Transfer to a bowl.
4. Place a pie crust into the bottom of a 9-inch pie pan and set aside.
5. Heat butter in a skillet over medium heat. Cook and stir onion and celery in butter until tender, 5 to 8 minutes. Stir flour into onion and celery mixture until vegetables are coated.
6. Combine chicken broth and milk in a bowl. Slowly stir broth and milk into onion, celery, and flour mixture until thickened. Stir seafood seasoning, garlic powder, and black pepper into thickened sauce.
7. Mix thawed vegetables, diced potato, and cooked lobster meat into the sauce; simmer until potato is tender, about 8 minutes.
8. Pour lobster filling into the prepared pie crust.
9. Cover with remaining pie crust and seal by crimping the edges of the two crusts together. Cut an X into top of pie crust with a sharp knife to allow steam to escape during baking.
10. Bake pie in the preheated oven until crust is golden brown, 40 to 45 minutes.
11. Remove from oven and let stand for 10 to 15 minutes to allow sauce to thicken.

Lime-and-cilantro-stuffed Black Bass 2 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Vegetable oil
- 1 1 0.5–2-pound whole black bass or branzino — cleaned
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1 bunch Cilantro — divided
- 1 Lime — thinly sliced, seeds removed, divided

METHOD

1. Prepare grill for medium-high heat; oil grate. Season bass inside and out with salt and pepper. Stuff bass with half of cilantro and half of lime slices; tie closed with kitchen twine, spacing 2" apart (this will hold the stuffing in and make it easier to turn fish on the grill).
2. Grill bass undisturbed until skin is charred and crisp and flesh of bottom fillet is flaky and opaque, 6–10 minutes, depending on size of fish.
3. Place a metal spatula underneath bass and brace with tongs on top for support, then lift and gently roll it over onto the other side. Cook until flesh of other fillet is flaky and opaque, 6–10 minutes. If a small knife or a tester slides easily into the thickest part of flesh,...
4. Line a platter with remaining cilantro and lime slices. Place bass on top and remove twine. (Or transfer to a cutting board if you want to fillet first.)

Linguine And Clams With Almonds And Herbs 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 150 g Unsalted — roasted almonds, coarsely chopped
- 30 ml Finely chopped fresh chives
- 30 ml Finely chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
- 15 ml Plus 0.25 cup olive oil
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 4 large Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 4 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 60 ml Dry white wine
- 900 g Littleneck clams
- 350 g . linguine

METHOD

1. Mix almonds, chives, parsley, and 1 Tbsp. oil in a small bowl; season with salt and pepper. Set aside.
2. Heat remaining ¼ cup oil in a large pot over medium heat. Cook garlic and red pepper flakes, stirring occasionally, until garlic is softened, about 2 minutes. Add wine, bring to a boil, and cook until reduced by half, about 2 minutes.
3. Add clams and increase heat to medium-high; cover pot. Cook, shaking pot occasionally, until clams have opened, 5–8 minutes (discard any that do not open).
4. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until al dente. Drain, reserving 1 cup pasta cooking liquid.
5. Add pasta and ½ cup pasta cooking liquid to clams and toss to coat. Cook, tossing and adding more cooking liquid as needed, until sauce coats pasta, about 2 minutes; season with salt and pepper.
6. Serve linguine and clams topped with reserved almond-herb mixture.

Linguine With Anchovies And Tuna 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 75 ml Olive oil
- 1 2 -ounce tin oil-packed anchovies — chopped
- 6 Garlic cloves — 5 sliced, 1 whole
- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 1 ml Smoked paprika
- 1 28 -ounce can whole peeled tomatoes

- Kosher salt
- 1 large Slice stale sourdough or country-style bread — crusts removed, torn into 1-inch pieces
- 60 ml Finely chopped parsley
- 350 g Linguine or other long strand pasta
- 1 6.7 -ounce jar oil-packed tuna — drained

METHOD

1. Heat 4 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet or pot over medium. Cook anchovies and sliced garlic, stirring occasionally, until anchovies are mostly dissolved and garlic is soft (do not let it brown), 6–8 minutes. Add red pepper flakes and paprika and cook, stirring, just until fragran...
2. Meanwhile, blanch kale in a large pot of boiling salted water just until bright green, about 10 seconds. Transfer with a slotted spoon or tongs to a bowl of ice water; let cool. Drain and squeeze kale with your hands to remove excess water; coarsely chop. Reserve pot with kale...
3. Pulse bread in a food processor until fine crumbs form. Toss breadcrumbs with remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in a medium skillet. Season with salt and gently toast over medium heat, tossing often, until golden brown and crunchy, 6–8 minutes. Finely grate remaining garlic clove over cru...
4. Bring kale cooking liquid to a boil and cook pasta, stirring occasionally, until al dente. Using tongs, transfer to skillet with sauce and add kale and tuna. Toss to combine, adding water a few tablespoonfuls at a time to loosen as needed, until pasta is well coated. Serve pas...

Linguine With Baby Heirloom Tomatoes And Anchovy Breadcrumbs 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Linguine
- 45 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 6 Anchovy fillets — mashed to paste with 1 teaspoon oil from can
- 3 Garlic cloves — pressed, divided
- 240 ml Coarse fresh breadcrumbs made from crustless country bread
- 1 1 -pound container baby heirloom tomatoes or cherry tomatoes
- 240 ml Thinly sliced fresh basil
- 120 ml Freshly grated parmesan cheese

METHOD

1. Cook linguine until just tender but firm to bite. Drain, reserving 1 cup cooking liquid.
2. Heat 1 1/2 tablespoons olive oil in large nonstick skillet over medium heat. Add anchovies and 2 garlic cloves, then breadcrumbs. Cook breadcrumbs until golden, tossing to distribute evenly, about 5 minutes. Scrape crumbs onto plate and cool.
3. Heat remaining 1 1/2 tablespoons oil in same skillet over medium heat. Add tomatoes and remaining garlic clove. Cover; cook until tomatoes begin to break down, 3 to 4 minutes. Using fork, crush 1/4 of tomatoes. Add pasta, basil, cheese, and 1/2 cup reserved cooking liquid to t...
4. Transfer pasta to large shallow bowl; top with remaining breadcrumbs and serve.
5. To make coarse fresh breadcrumbs, trim the crust off slices of (fresh or stale) country bread. Tear the bread into chunks, then grind it in the processor until coarse crumbs are formed.

Linguine With Bay Scallops, Fennel, And Tomatoes 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Linguine
- 45 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 medium Fennel bulb — halved, very thinly sliced, plus 1 tablespoon chopped fennel fronds
- 1 medium Onion — halved, thinly sliced
- 450 g Bay scallops

Linguine With Pink Shrimp Sauce 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 350 g Large shrimp
- 2 medium Garlic cloves
- 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 30 ml . tomato paste
- 120 ml Dry white wine
- Salt
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 450 g . linguine
- 6-7 Springs flat-leaf italian parsley
- 240 ml Heavy cream

METHOD

1. Fill a pot for the pasta with about 6 quarts of water, place over high heat and bring to a boil.
2. Peel and devein the shrimp. Cut one-third of the shrimp into ½-inch pieces and leave the rest whole.
3. Peel and lightly crush the garlic cloves. Put the olive oil in a 12-inch skillet, add the garlic, and place over medium-high heat. Sauté until the garlic cloves are lightly browned on all sides, then remove them and discard.
4. While the garlic is sautéing, dissolve the tomato paste in the white wine. After removing the garlic cloves, add the wine with the dissolved tomato paste to the pan and cook until the liquid has reduced by about half.
5. Add the whole shrimp and season with salt and pepper. Cook until the shrimp have turned pink, 2 to 3 minutes, then remove the pan from the heat.
6. When the water for the pasta is boiling, add about 2 tablespoons salt, add the linguine, and stir until strands are submerged. Cook until al dente.
7. Finely chop enough parsley to measure 2 Tbsp. Use a slotted spoon to transfer the cooked shrimp to a food processor. Pulse until the shrimp are chopped to a medium-fine consistency, then return them to the pan. Place the pan back over medium-high heat and add the cream. Cook u...

8. When the pasta is done, drain well, toss with the sauce, and serve at once.

Lobster Catalan (aragosta Alla Catalana), Revisited 2 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 1 small Onion — peeled and cut into julienne
- 60 ml Sherry vinegar
- Salt to taste
- 2 Lobsters — preferably female
- 60 ml Best-quality spanish or italian extra-virgin olive oil
- 30 ml Freshly squeezed lemon juice
- 15 ml Mayonnaise
- 1 small To medium tomato — cored and finely chopped, or 1 cup cherry tomatoes, cut in half

METHOD

1. In a small, non-reactive bowl, toss together the onion, vinegar and and few pinches of salt. Set aside to lightly pickle for at least 30 minutes and up to 6 hours.
2. Bring a large pot of heavily salted water to a boil and cook the lobsters in it for 12 minutes. Remove them from the pot and, when cool enough to handle, twist off and crack open the tails, using a kitchen towel to protect your hands.
3. Remove the lobster roe (if available) from the place where the tail met the body. It is a coral-red bundle of tiny eggs. As best you can, delicately separate the eggs, taking care not to crush them, and set aside in a small bowl. Remove as much of the tomalley—the greenish sub...
4. Remove the meat from the shell and coarsely chop it. Remove the claws, crack them and extract the meat. Extract as much of the knuckle and body meat as possible. Arrange all of the lobster meat on a serving platter or in a serving bowl, cover and chill.
5. In a small bowl, whisk together the olive oil, lemon juice, mayonnaise and salt to taste. Fold in the reserved lobster roe and tomalley, taste and adjust seasoning accordingly.
6. When ready to serve, scatter the pickled onions and the tomatoes over the lobster. Pour the dressing mixture over the lobster and vegetables, and serve immediately.

Lobster Colorado

New England · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 Filet mignon — beef tenderloin
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 2.5 ml Garlic powder
- 4 slice Bacon
- 120 ml Butter
- 5 ml Old bay® seasoning
- 225 g Lobster tail

METHOD

1. Set oven to Broil at 260°C (260 degrees C).
2. Sprinkle tenderloins all over with salt, pepper, and garlic powder. Wrap each filet with bacon, and secure with a toothpick. Place on a broiling pan, and broil to desired doneness, about 8 to 10 minutes per side for medium rare.
3. While tenderloins are cooking, melt 1/4 cup of butter over medium heat with 1/2 teaspoon Old Bay® seasoning. Stir in chopped lobster meat, and cook until done. Spoon lobster meat over cooked tenderloins, and return them to the broiler until the lobster meat begins to brown.
4. While the lobster is in the oven, heat the remaining 1/4 cup of butter in a small saucepan over medium-high heat, cook until it browns, turning the color of a hazelnut. To serve, spoon the browned butter over the steaks, and sprinkle with the remaining Old Bay® seasoning.

Lobster Fra Diavolo 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 1 0.25-pound lobsters
- 160 ml (or more) olive oil — divided
- Kosher salt
- 240 ml Brandy
- 2 medium Onions — chopped
- 2 medium Carrots — peeled, chopped
- 2 medium Fennel bulbs — chopped
- 8 Garlic cloves — crushed
- 60 ml Finely chopped drained oil-packed calabrian chiles
- 5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 65 g Tomato paste

- 1 Lobster
- 900 g Russet potatoes
- 960 ml Water — or more as needed
- 5 ml Salt
- 60 ml Butter
- 120 ml Cream
- 1 ml Paprika

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 93°C (95 degrees C).
2. Cook lobster: Combine water and salt in a large pot; bring to a boil. Plunge lobster into boiling water, cover the pot, and return to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low and cook at a simmer until lobster turns bright red, about 10 minutes. Remove lobster from water and set asid...
3. When cool enough to handle, clean lobster and pull out tail meat, reserving the tail shell. Crack claws and remove meat. Chop tail meat coarsely and reserve with the intact claw meat in a covered dish; keep warm in the preheated oven.
4. Make potatoes: Add potatoes to a large saucepan and cover with water by 1 inch. Add salt; bring to a boil. Lay intact lobster tail shell over potatoes, then reduce heat to medium-low, cover, and cook at a simmer until potatoes are easily pierced with a fork, 20 to 30 minutes.
5. Remove lobster shell and discard. Drain water from the saucepan. Reduce heat to low. Gently shake the pan over low heat to dry potatoes. Mash butter into potatoes until no lumps remain. Add cream until desired consistency is reached.
6. Fold warm lobster meat into potatoes. Sprinkle with paprika to serve.

Lobster Noodle Soup 8 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 1–1 0.5-pound lobsters
- 5 Ears of corn — kernels removed, cobs reserved
- 1 large Fennel bulb — fronds removed, bulb cored, thinly sliced
- 1 large Leek — white and pale-green parts only, thinly sliced into rings
- 2 Baby eggplants — sliced into 0.25-inch rounds
- 30 g Dried porcini mushrooms
- 480 ml Broccoli rabe — thick stems removed
- 85 g Tomato paste
- 30 ml Old bay seasoning
- 960 ml Cherry tomatoes — halved, divided
- Kosher salt
- 450 g Linguine
- 4 Radishes — trimmed, quartered
- 240 ml Basil sprigs
- Olive oil — parsley leaves, cilantro leaves, thinly sliced fresh chiles, and lemon wedges (for serving)

METHOD

1. Bring 6 quarts water to a boil in a large stockpot. Add lobsters, cover, and cook 8–10 minutes. Transfer lobsters to a rimmed baking sheet. Let sit until cool enough to handle, then separate claws and tails from bodies; return bodies to pot. Add corn cobs, sliced fennel, leek,...
2. Using a slotted spoon, remove solids from lobster broth; discard (you want to get rid of the shells and cobs, but don't worry about getting every last aromatic); season with salt. Add linguine and cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 8–10 minutes. Remove from heat and ...
3. Chop reserved lobster meat into bite-size pieces; drizzle with oil just to coat. Divide linguine and broth among bowls and top with lobster meat, fennel fronds, parsley, cilantro, chiles, and more basil. Squeeze lemons over top; drizzle with oil.

Lobster Pasta 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- Kosher salt
- 2 1 0.5-lb. live lobsters
- 1 medium Onion — coarsely chopped
- 2 Celery stalks — trimmed, coarsely chopped
- 3 Garlic cloves — peeled, smashed
- 2 sprig Basil or tarragon
- 960 ml Heavy cream
- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 450 g . bucatini or spaghetti
- 15 ml . unsalted butter
- 85 g . parmesan — finely grated (about 1 cup), plus more for serving
- 45 ml . chopped chives
- Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Fill a large pot with a tight-fitting lid with 2" of cold water. Generously season with salt and bring to a boil. Add lobsters to pot, cover, and steam until shells are bright red, about 8 minutes. (Better to slightly undercook the lobsters since you will be reheating the meat...
2. Break down those lobsters! (Never picked lobster meat before? That's what YouTube is for!) Cut or tear off small legs and eat them (they make for a great snack). Remove tail meat, cut tail meat in half lengthwise, and cut each half into bite-size pieces; transfer to a medium b...
3. With a sturdy knife, hack carapace and shells into 1" pieces and transfer to a large Dutch oven or pot. Add onion, celery, garlic, basil, cream, and red pepper flakes. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium and simmer, uncovered and stirring occasionally, until cream is r...
4. Strain lobster cream through a fine-mesh sieve into a medium bowl, pressing on solids to get as much liquid out as possible; discard solids. (If cream isn't reduced to about 2 cups, don't sweat it—you can always reduce it a bit more before adding the pasta.)
5. Cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until al dente. (You don't want it to be too al dente, as it's not going to spend that much time in the sauce.) Drain, reserving 1 cup of pasta cooking liquid.
6. Meanwhile, return lobster cream to Dutch oven or a wide deep skillet. Heat over medium and bring to a simmer; taste and season with salt. Add reserved lobster meat and butter to cream sauce and stir to combine.
7. Add pasta to Dutch oven and toss gently to combine (you don't want to break up the lobster meat too much), adding 1 cup Parmesan a handful at a time until sauce is thick and cheese is incorporated. If sauce looks too thick, add a splash or two of reserved pasta cooking liquid ...

8. Transfer lobster pasta to a platter. Top with chives and a few cranks of black pepper. Serve with more grated Parmesan alongside.
9. Do Ahead: Lobster cream sauce can be made 24 hours ahead. Strain and transfer to a reasealable container and chill. Gently rewarm sauce in a Dutch oven over medium-low heat. Lobster meat can be picked 24 hours ahead. Cover and chill.

Louisiana Crawfish Bisque 6 servings

Southern · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 120 ml Butter
· 120 ml Chopped onion
· 120 ml Chopped green onion
· 450 g Crawfish tails
· 2 can Cream of potato soup
· 1 can Cream of mushroom soup
· 1 can Yellow corn — drained
· 1 can White corn — drained
· 1 pkg Cream cheese
· 480 ml Half-and-half
· 30 ml Creole seasoning — such as Tony Chachere's®
· Salt and ground black pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Melt butter in a large pot over medium heat. Cook and stir onion and green onion in hot butter until softened, about 5 minutes.
2. Add crawfish tails, condensed soups, canned corns, and cream cheese; cook, stirring often, until cream cheese melts and ingredients are well combined, about 5 minutes.

Louisiana Crawfish Boil 10 servings

Southern · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 2 head Garlic — unpeeled
· 5 Bay leaves
· 2 pkg Dry crab boil
· 15 ml Liquid shrimp and crab boil seasoning
· Salt and ground black pepper to taste
· 15 Red potatoes — washed
· 3 large Oranges — halved
· 3 large Lemons — halved
· 2 large Whole artichokes
· 2 pkg Mushrooms — cleaned
· 225 g Fresh green beans
· 2 large Onions — sliced
· 30 pcs Baby corn
· 2 pkg Smoked sausage — cut into 1/2 inch slices
· 50 Live crawfish — rinsed

METHOD

1. Fill a very large pot about 1/3 full with water. Add garlic, bay leaves, dry and liquid crab boil seasonings, salt, pepper, potatoes, oranges, lemons, and artichokes. Bring to a boil over high heat, then reduce to a simmer, and cook for 20 minutes.
2. Stir in mushrooms, green beans, onions, and baby corn, and continue to cook, about 15 minutes.
3. Stir in sausage; cook 5 minutes more.
4. Add crawfish and return the mixture to a boil, then simmer until crawfish shells turn bright red and the tails pull out easily, about 5 minutes. Test for doneness by peeling a crawfish. Be sure not to overcook, or crawfish will become tough.
5. Remove from the heat and carefully drain all liquid. Serve the crawfish boil hot, Louisiana-style, spread over a picnic table covered with newspapers.

Mackerel Pantry Pasta 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

· 2 4 -oz. cans boneless mackerel in olive oil or other high-quality tinned fish (such as sardines or tuna in olive oil) — drained
· 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
· 5 ml . finely grated lemon zest
· 30 ml . fresh lemon juice
· 15 ml . coarsely chopped drained capers
· 45 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for drizzling
· 2 g Diamond crystal or 0.25 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
· Freshly ground black pepper

- 350 g . spaghetti or other long pasta
- 45 ml . finely grated parmesan
- pinch Of crushed red pepper flakes
- Chopped parsley and lemon wedges — optional; for serving

METHOD

1. Place mackerel, garlic, lemon zest, lemon juice, capers, 3 Tbsp. oil, and ½ tsp. Diamond Crystal or ¼ tsp. Morton kosher salt in a large heatproof bowl. Season generously with pepper and toss to combine.
2. Set bowl over a large pot of generously salted water (bottom of bowl should not be touching water) and bring water to a boil. Carefully remove bowl from pot and set aside. (Gently warming the ingredients here allows them to mingle nicely with the hot pasta later.)
3. Cook pasta in same pot of boiling water, stirring occasionally, until al dente. Using tongs, transfer pasta, along with any water clinging to strands, to bowl with mackerel mixture. Add Parmesan, red pepper flakes, and ¼ cup pasta cooking liquid to bowl and toss pasta with ton...
4. Divide pasta among bowls. Top with parsley, drizzle some oil over, and season with more pepper. Serve with lemon wedges for squeezing over if desired.

Mackerel With Cauliflower "couscous" And Tahini 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Garlic clove finely grated
- 60 g Tahini
- 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 30 ml Olive oil
- Kosher salt
- 45 ml Olive oil
- 1 small Head cauliflower — cored, cut into large florets
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- Kosher salt
- 30 ml Raw pumpkin seeds
- 10 ml Sesame seeds
- 5 ml Nigella seeds
- 2 Whole small spanish mackerel (about 1 lb. each) — cleaned
- 15 ml Olive oil
- Kosher salt
- 1 Lemon — thinly sliced, seeds removed
- 1 bunch Thyme
- 120 ml Pomegranate seeds
- 120 ml Fresh cilantro leaves with tender stems
- Nigella seeds are available at indian markets or online.

METHOD

1. Stir garlic, tahini, lemon juice, oil, and ¼ cup water in a small bowl; season with salt.
2. Heat 2 Tbsp. oil in a large heavy skillet over medium-high. Working in batches if needed, cook cauliflower, tossing occasionally, until florets are browned in spots but still crunchy, about 5 minutes. Transfer to a large bowl and let cool. Reserve skillet.
3. Working in 2 batches, pulse cauliflower in a food processor until the size of rice grains. Transfer back to bowl, toss with lemon juice, and season with salt.
4. Cook pumpkin seeds and remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in reserved skillet over medium heat, stirring, until seeds are golden brown, about 1 minute. Season with salt. Toss in a small bowl with sesame and nigella seeds.
5. Heat broiler. Place fish on a rimmed baking sheet and rub with oil; season all over with salt. Stuff cavity with lemon and thyme. Broil, turning once, until cooked through, 10–12 minutes. Let rest 5 minutes.
6. Spoon cauliflower onto plates; drizzle with tahini sauce. Top with seed mixture and pomegranate seeds. Remove fillets from fish and place, skin side up, on top. Add cilantro and a sprinkle of salt.

- 80 g Maple syrup
- 30 ml Orange juice
- 30 ml Soy sauce
- 5 ml Ground ginger
- 1 clove Garlic — minced
- Pepper — to taste
- Salt — to taste
- 125 g Salmon fillet
- Fresh parsley — for garnish
- 450 g Broccoli floret
- Salt — to taste
- 30 ml Butter
- 15 ml Soy sauce
- 1 clove Garlic — minced
- 5 ml Lemon zest
- 5 ml Red pepper flakes

METHOD

1. For the salmon, heat vegetable oil on medium-high in a cast-iron skillet.
2. For the broccoli, fill a medium pot halfway with water. Add a dash of salt and start boiling water.
3. In the meantime, whisk together maple syrup, orange juice, soy sauce, garlic, salt, and pepper in a medium bowl.
4. Set aside 2 tablespoons for topping later.
5. Place salmon fillets inside the bowl and make sure each side is covered with sauce.
6. Sear the salmon 2-3 minutes on each side.
7. Brush the tops with the sauce set aside.
8. With the pot of water boiling, add the broccoli and cover lid. Blanch for 2 minutes.
9. Drain under cold water to stop the cooking.
10. In the drained pot of broccoli, stir in butter, soy sauce, red pepper flakes, some lemon zest, and garlic on low heat. Mix until broccoli is well-coated.
11. On each plate, serve a filet of salmon and scoop of broccoli.

12. Top with reserved marinade and sprinkle parsley for garnish.
13. Enjoy!

Maple-glazed Salmon With Pineapple

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Maple syrup
- 15 ml Low-sodium soy sauce
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 5 ml Freshly grated ginger
- 2 Skin-on center-cut salmon fillets
- 1 ml Cajun seasoning
- 1 Serving cooking spray
- 2 slice Fresh pineapple — halved
- 2 Wedges lemon

METHOD

1. Combine 2 tablespoons maple syrup, soy sauce, lemon juice, and ginger in a bowl. Place salmon into the marinade and turn to coat. Marinate for at least 15 minutes, but no longer than 30.
2. For the glaze, mix remaining 2 tablespoons maple syrup and Cajun seasoning together in a bowl. Set aside until ready to use.
3. Set an oven rack about 6 inches from the heat source and preheat the oven's broiler to low.
4. Line a rimmed baking sheet with foil and lightly spray with cooking spray. Remove the salmon from the marinade and pat dry with paper towels. Place salmon, skin side-down, and pineapple, onto the sheet and brush with the glaze.
5. Broil in the preheated oven until salmon easily flakes with a fork and reaches an internal temperature of 63°C (62 degrees C), 13 to 15 minutes.

Marinated Scallops Wrapped In Bacon 24 servings

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 180 ml Maple syrup
- 60 ml Low sodium soy sauce
- 15 ml Dijon mustard
- 12 large Sea scallops — halved
- 12 slice Smoked bacon — halved
- 24 Toothpicks
- 30 ml Brown sugar

METHOD

1. Whisk maple syrup, soy sauce, and Dijon mustard together in a glass or ceramic bowl. Add scallops; toss to evenly coat. Cover the bowl with plastic wrap and marinate in the refrigerator for at least 1 hour.
2. Preheat the oven to 191°C (190 degrees C). Line a rimmed baking sheet with aluminum foil. Lay bacon strips in a single layer on prepared baking sheet, making sure they do not overlap.
3. Bake in the preheated oven until some grease has rendered from bacon, yet still very soft and pliable, about 8 minutes. Drain bacon strips on paper towels. Drain or wipe grease from the baking sheet.
4. Wrap each scallop half with a halved bacon strip; secure with a toothpick. Place onto baking sheet. Sprinkle scallops with brown sugar.
5. Bake in the preheated oven until scallops opaque and bacon crisp, 10 to 15 minutes, turning once halfway through. Scallops should reach an internal temperature of 63°C (63 degrees C).

Mini Lobster Pot Pies

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Lobster tail
- 30 ml Butter
- 15 ml Sherry
- 1 bottle Clam juice
- 60 ml Diced celery
- 60 ml Diced carrot
- 1 ml Ground paprika
- 5 ml Tomato paste
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 1 pinch Ground cayenne pepper — or to taste
- 15 ml All-purpose flour
- 80 ml Cubed yukon gold potatoes
- 1 Sheet frozen puff pastry
- 1 large Egg — beaten
- 5 ml Freshly squeezed lemon juice
- 60 ml Heavy cream
- 15 ml Minced fresh tarragon

METHOD

1. Cut lobster shell down the middle, crack it open, and pull out the meat. Cut the shell into 1-inch pieces and set aside.
2. Cut the meat into ½-inch pieces, checking carefully and removing any veins or missed pieces of shell. Transfer the meat to a plate and keep in the refrigerator until needed.
3. Melt 1 tablespoon butter in a saucepan over medium heat. Add lobster shells and cook, stirring often, until they turn brick red, 3 to 4 minutes. Stir in sherry and clam juice and reduce heat to low. Simmer gently to steep lobster shells, 15 to 20 minutes; making sure the liqui...
4. Remove from the heat and pour broth through a strainer to remove shells.
5. Rinse out the saucepan and add remaining 1 tablespoon butter. Place over medium heat to melt. Add carrots, celery, paprika, tomato paste, salt, pepper, and cayenne. Cook and stir until tomato paste is toasted and paprika is fragrant, about 2 minutes. Stir in flour and cook for...

6. Add potatoes and reduce heat to medium-low. Cook at a gentle simmer until potatoes are tender and liquid has reduced just slightly, 10 to 15 minutes.

7. While the potatoes are cooking, place puff pastry on a piece of parchment paper. Cut out two 3 ½-inch circles and cut an 'x' in the center of each one. Brush tops with beaten egg. Transfer to a baking sheet and place in the refrigerator until needed.

8. Preheat the oven to 218°C (220 degrees C). Line a baking sheet with foil.

9. Add lemon juice, cream, and tarragon to the potatoes; stir to combine and return to a simmer over medium heat. Simmer until reduced and thickened a bit more, about 5 minutes. Taste and adjust salt if necessary.

10. Stir in reserved lobster meat and turn off the heat. Remove from the stove and evenly divide the mixture between two 6-ounce ramekins, stopping about ¼ inch from the top.

11. With the egg wash facing up, place puff pastry circles onto the ramekins, making sure the vents are cut all the way through.

12. Bake in the upper center of the preheated oven until bubbly and browned, about 20 minutes. Let rest for at least 5 minutes before serving.

Mini Shrimp Rolls 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- Kosher salt
- 450 g Medium shrimp — shelled
- 60 ml Plus 1 tablespoon mayonnaise
- 1 small Celery stalk — peeled, finely chopped (about 3 tablespoons)
- 15 ml Finely chopped fresh chives
- 15 ml Grapeseed oil
- 5 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 5 ml Prepared horseradish
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 24 Mini soft dinner rolls — each about 1 1/2 x 1 1/2-inch; such as Martin's potato rolls or King's Hawaiian
- 60 ml (1/2 stick) unsalted butter
- 120 ml Celery leaves or crushed potato chips

METHOD

1. Bring a large saucepan of water to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low; season lightly with salt. When water is at a gentle simmer, add shrimp. Poach until just opaque in the center, 2–4 minutes. Drain; transfer shrimp to a medium bowl of ice water to cool. Drain; wipe out bowl.

2. Whisk mayonnaise, celery, chives, oil, lemon juice, and horseradish in a medium bowl to blend; season to taste with salt and pepper. Chop shrimp into small pieces (about 1/3-inch); add to bowl with mayonnaise mixture. Stir to coat. DO AHEAD Shrimp salad can be made 1 day ahead...

3. Preheat oven to 375°. Using a small serrated knife, make a 1/2-inch-deep cut across the top of each dinner roll and gently pry open roll with your fingers to create a mini New England–style hot dog bun. Lightly brush inside of rolls with butter; place on a rimmed baking sheet....

4. Divide shrimp mixture among rolls, pressing into cut across top; garnish with celery leaves or crushed potato chips.

Miso Salmon With Sake Butter 4 servings

Asian · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 480 ml Water
- 240 ml Short-grain white rice
- 240 ml Snow peas
- Cooking spray
- 4 1-inch thick salmon fillets
- 60 ml Brown sugar
- 30 ml Low-sodium soy sauce
- 30 ml Hot water
- 30 ml Miso
- 15 ml Unsalted butter
- 30 ml Peeled
- 15 ml Minced shallots
- 120 ml Sake
- 15 ml Heavy whipping cream
- 120 ml Cold unsalted butter
- 15 ml Sake
- 2.5 ml Fresh lime juice
- Kosher salt to taste
- 15 ml Chopped fresh chives

METHOD

1. Bring water and rice to a boil in a saucepan. Reduce heat to low, cover, and simmer until most of the water has been absorbed, about 20 minutes.
2. While rice cooks, place snow peas on top of rice and steam, covered, until crisp-tender, about 5 minutes. Transfer snow peas to a bowl to stop cooking; set aside.
3. Preheat the oven broiler. Set an oven rack about 6 inches from the heat source. Line a baking dish with aluminum foil and coat with cooking spray.
4. Arrange salmon fillets on the prepared baking dish. Whisk together brown sugar, soy sauce, hot water, and miso in a small bowl until combined; spoon over salmon.
5. Broil in the preheated oven, basting frequently with soy sauce mixture, until golden brown and fish flakes easily with a fork, 10 to 15 minutes.
6. While salmon cooks, make sauce: Melt butter in a small saucepan over medium-high heat. Add ginger and shallots; cook and stir until shallots are translucent, 2 to 3 minutes. Add 1/2 cup sake; bring to a boil and cook until reduced by 2/3, about 3 minutes. Add heavy cream; brin...
7. Whisk in butter, one cube at a time, until incorporated and sauce is thick and creamy. Remove from heat. Whisk in remaining 1 tablespoon sake and lime juice. Season with salt.
8. Spoon some sake sauce onto 4 serving plates. Place rice in the middle of each and top with a salmon fillet. Arrange snow peas around each plate. Garnish with chives.

Miso-cured Black Cod With Chilled Cucumbers 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 350 g Skin-on black cod fillet
- Kosher salt
- 200 g White miso
- 45 ml Mirin
- 45 ml Sake
- 1 8 X2-inch piece dried kombu
- 30 g Shaved katsuobushi
- 30 ml Unseasoned rice vinegar
- 20 ml Sugar
- 4 Japanese or persian cucumbers
- Kosher salt
- 1 1 -inch piece ginger — peeled, cut into very thin matchsticks
- Find katsuobushi at japanese markets or online.

METHOD

1. Slice cod ¾" thick, leaving skin on and bones in (the bones will slip right out when fish is cooked). Season very lightly with salt and place on a paper towel–lined baking sheet. Cover with another paper towel and chill 1 hour (this will draw out some moisture and any fishy fl...
2. Combine miso and mirin in a small bowl. Wet 2 paper towels (you can also use cheesecloth) with sake and squeeze out any excess. Spread half of miso mixture in a 13x9" baking dish in a thin, even layer. Cover with a sake-moistened paper towel. Arrange cod in a single layer on t...
3. Preheat broiler. Transfer cod to a rimmed baking sheet; discard miso mixture and paper towels. Broil cod until golden brown around the edges and cooked through, about 4 minutes. Let cool slightly, then pull out bones.
4. Soak kombu in 2 cups cold water in a small saucepan at room temperature 2 hours, or chill up to 12 hours.
5. Bring to a bare simmer over medium heat. Discard kombu and bring liquid to a boil. Add katsuobushi; simmer 1 minute (reduce heat if needed). Strain through a paper towel or cheesecloth-lined sieve into a small bowl; discard solids. Let dashi cool.
6. Bring vinegar, sugar, and 2 Tbsp. water to a boil in a clean small saucepan. Remove from heat and stir to dissolve sugar. Let sweet vinegar cool.
7. Slice cucumbers in half lengthwise. If using Japanese cucumbers, scrape out seeds with a small spoon. Slice cucumbers into very thin half moons. Toss in a small bowl with a few pinches of salt. Let sit until salt begins to draw out water from cucumbers, about 5 minutes. Massag...
8. After cucumbers have chilled 30 minutes, place ginger and 1 cup water in a small bowl; soak 30 minutes to soften its pungency. Drain.
9. Add sweet vinegar and ¾ cup dashi to cucumbers (reserve remaining dashi for another use). Season with salt. Divide cod among shallow bowls. Top with cucumbers and ginger. Pour any cucumber liquid over.
10. Do Ahead: Dashi and sweet vinegar can be made 1 day ahead; cover and chill separately. Chilled cucumbers can be made 1 day ahead; keep chilled.

- 900 g Mussels

METHOD

1. Heat butter in a sauce pan over medium heat. Add shallots and cook until soft, 5 to 7 minutes. Add garam masala, turmeric, bay leaves, and chile pepper and cook until fragrant, about 3 minutes more.
2. Add ginger and tomato paste to the saucepan and cook until browned, about 2 minutes. Pour in coconut milk and lime juice. Mix in sugar and black pepper; stir well. Bring to a simmer, about 5 minutes. Taste and adjust salt.
3. Add mussels to the saucepan and simmer until all shells open, about 5 minutes. Discard any shells that do not open. Place in a bowl and sprinkle with cilantro.

Mussels In Spicy Tomato Broth 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 7 Garlic cloves — divided
- 1 Celery heart
- 1 3 " piece ginger — scrubbed
- 1.8 kg . mussels
- 45 ml . unsalted butter
- 120 ml Mirin — sweet Japanese rice wine
- 80 ml Sambal oelek
- 60 ml Plus 1 tbsp. low-sodium soy sauce
- 1 28 -oz. can whole tomatoes
- Kosher salt
- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 0.5 baguette

METHOD

1. Prep your ingredients before you start cooking: First, peel and set aside 1 garlic clove for the mayo, then peel and smash remaining 6 garlic cloves.
2. Pick any leaves from 1 celery heart. Thinly slice celery heart crosswise (making little half-moons) until you have about 1¼ cups. Set aside ¼ cup chopped celery along with leaves for serving.
3. Peel 3" piece ginger. Set aside a ½" nub for later, then cut remaining piece crosswise into thin slices.
4. Rinse 4 lb. mussels in cold water and remove the “beard” (that thread-like piece attached to the side of the shells) by tugging firmly. If any mussels are open and don’t close when tapped, discard. Drain and transfer to a large bowl.
5. Heat 3 Tbsp. butter in large pot or Dutch oven over medium. Add smashed garlic, sliced ginger, and 1 cup chopped celery and cook, stirring often with a wooden spoon, until garlic is golden, 5–8 minutes.
6. Add ½ cup mirin, ■ cup sambal, and ¼ cup soy sauce and bring to a simmer. Cook, stirring once or twice, until mixture is reduced by about half, about 5 minutes.
7. Add 28-oz. can tomatoes and juices to pot, breaking up tomatoes with your hands as you add them, and bring to a simmer. Season lightly with salt. Let simmer, uncovered, to allow flavors to meld, about 5 minutes.
8. Add mussels to pot and stir into tomato mixture. Cover pot and cook, stirring once halfway through, until mussels are opened and fully cooked, 6–8 minutes.
9. Meanwhile, finely grate reserved garlic clove and ½" nub ginger into a small bowl. Add ½ cup mayonnaise and remaining 1 Tbsp. soy sauce and stir to incorporate.
10. Preheat broiler with rack in top position. Cut ½ baguette in half lengthwise and toast, cut sides up, directly on oven rack, until bread is golden across the surface, about 1 minute. Let cool.
11. When mussels are opened, uncover and remove from heat. Ladle into shallow bowls along with tomato mixture. Top with reserved chopped celery and leaves.
12. Tear bread into pieces and smear toasted sides with mayonnaise mixture. Serve with mussels for soaking up liquid.

- 4 Rolls bolillo bread — telera, or cuban sandwich rolls, for serving

METHOD

1. Heat the oil in a large pot over high heat and swirl to evenly coat. Add the onion, garlic, and jalapeño. Cook, stirring, until softened, 4 minutes.
2. Add the cumin, coriander, and chili powder. Cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 30 seconds.
3. Add the tomatoes, season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until softened and their liquid is almost evaporated, 4 minutes.
4. Pour in the beer and bring to a boil.
5. Add the mussels, immediately cover the pot, and cook, occasionally shaking the pot, until all mussels are opened, 6 minutes.
6. Sprinkle the mussels with the chopped cilantro leaves, then divide among 4 bowls.
7. Garnish with whole cilantro leaves and serve the mussels while hot with lime wedges for squeezing and bread for soaking up the cooking broth.
8. Enjoy!

- 3.1 L Water
- 20 g Kosher salt
- 15 ml Ground white pepper
- 30 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 15 ml Cayenne
- 15 ml Paprika
- 15 ml Garlic powder
- 15 ml Onion powder
- 4 ml Dried thyme
- 4 ml Dried oregano
- 120 ml Canola oil
- 480 ml Okra — sliced
- 60 g All purpose flour
- 1 medium Yellow onion — chopped
- 1 medium Bell pepper — seeded and chopped
- 2 stalk Celery — chopped
- 4 clove Garlic — minced
- 2 Dried bay leaves
- 450 g Smoked sausage
- 6 Blue crabs — washed and halved crosswise
- 5 sprig Fresh thyme
- 15 ml Worcestershire sauce
- Kosher salt — to taste
- Freshly ground black pepper — to taste
- 900 g Shrimp — peeled, deveined
- 1.1 kg Rice — cooked
- 45 ml Fresh italian parsley
- 60 ml Green onion — sliced
- 5 ml Filé powder

METHOD

1. Make the seafood gumbo stock: In a heavy-bottomed 5-quart pot, heat the canola oil over medium heat. Once the oil is shimmering, add the crabs and cook until the shells turn bright orange, 2–3 minutes. Add the shrimp shells and heads and cook until the shells turn pink, 2–3 mi...
2. Add the bell pepper, onion, and celery scraps, green onion, parsley, thyme, garlic, bay leaves, black pepper, and water. Bring to a gentle boil, then reduce the heat to medium-low and simmer for 30–35 minutes.
3. Strain the stock through a large fine-mesh sieve into a large bowl. You should have 12 cups. Set aside until ready to use in the gumbo (if not using immediately, the stock can be cooled, then stored in an airtight container in the refrigerator for 1–3 days).
4. Make the Creole seasoning: In a small bowl, whisk together the salt, white pepper, black pepper, cayenne, paprika, garlic powder, onion powder, thyme, and oregano until well combined.
5. Make the gumbo: Heat 6 tablespoons canola oil in a heavy-bottomed 6-quart pot over medium-high heat until faint wisps of white smoke come off the oil (if thicker, darker smoke appears, remove the pot from the heat and let cool for 3 minutes). Add the okra and fry for 2 minutes...
6. Add the remaining 2 tablespoons of oil to the same pot. Heat the oil over medium-high heat until faintly smoking again (do not let it overheat, or the flour will burn). Whisk in the flour to make a roux and cook, whisking constantly, until it turns a dark cocoa brown, 5–6 minu...
7. Reduce the heat to medium, then add the onion, bell pepper, celery, and 2 tablespoons of the Creole seasoning. Cook, stirring, for 2–3 minutes, until onions have softened. Add the garlic, bay leaves, and remaining Creole seasoning.
8. Increase the heat to medium-high heat. While whisking or stirring constantly to prevent lumps from forming, add the seafood gumbo stock, 4 cups at a time. Add the okra, smoked sausage, crabs, thyme, and Worcestershire sauce. Bring to a boil, then reduce the heat to low and sim...
9. Season the gumbo with the salt and pepper to taste, then add the shrimp. Remove the pot from the heat, cover, and let the residual heat cook the shrimp for 10 minutes.
10. Ladle the hot gumbo into bowls. Serve with rice and garnish with parsley, green onions, and filé powder, if using.
11. It's important to properly cool and store leftover seafood gumbo, otherwise it will spoil. Fill a clean 2-liter bottle or plastic juice jug with water and freeze until solid. Once finished eating, place the ice bottle in the pot of gumbo and let cool, stirring occasionally to ...

Old Bay-seasoned Steamed Shrimp 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Water
- 120 ml White vinegar
- 30 ml Seafood seasoning
- 450 g Fresh large shrimp

METHOD

1. Bring water, vinegar, and seafood seasoning to a boil in a saucepan over high heat. Add shrimp and stir.
2. Reduce heat to medium, cover, and steam, stirring once or twice, until bright orange in color, 3 to 5 minutes. Drain.

Old Charleston-style Shrimp And Grits 8 servings

Southern · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 720 ml Water
- 10 ml Salt
- 240 ml Coarsely ground grits
- 480 ml Half-and-half
- 900 g Uncooked shrimp
- Salt to taste
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper — or to taste
- 1 medium Lemon — juiced
- 450 g Andouille sausage
- 5 slice Bacon
- 1 medium Green bell pepper — chopped
- 1 medium Red bell pepper — chopped
- 1 medium Yellow bell pepper — chopped
- 240 ml Chopped onion
- 5 ml Minced garlic
- 60 ml Butter
- 60 ml All-purpose flour
- 240 ml Chicken broth
- 15 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 240 ml Shredded sharp cheddar cheese

METHOD

1. Whisk grits into the boiling water, and then whisk in half-and-half. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer, stirring occasionally, until grits are thickened and tender, 15 to 20 minutes. Set aside and keep warm.
2. Season shrimp with salt and cayenne pepper. Add lemon juice, toss to combine, and set aside to marinate.
3. Place sausage slices in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Cook, stirring occasionally, until browned, 5 to 8 minutes. Remove sausage from the skillet.
4. Add bacon to the same skillet. Cook over medium-high heat until evenly browned, about 5 minutes per side. Transfer bacon to paper towels to drain, then chop or crumble when cool enough to handle. Leave bacon drippings in the skillet.
5. Add bell peppers, onion, and garlic to the bacon drippings; cook and stir until onion is translucent, about 8 minutes.
6. Stir cooked sausage and marinated shrimp into the skillet with the cooked vegetables. Turn off the heat and set aside.
7. Melt butter in a small saucepan over medium heat. Whisk in flour, stirring to create a smooth roux. Turn heat to low and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture is golden brown in color, 8 to 10 minutes. Watch carefully, mixture burns easily.
8. Pour the roux over the sausage, shrimp, and vegetables.
9. Place the skillet over medium heat, add chicken broth, bacon, and Worcestershire sauce, and stir to combine. Cook until sauce thickens up and shrimp turn opaque and bright pink, about 8 minutes.
10. Just before serving, mix Cheddar cheese into grits; stir until cheese is melted and grits are creamy and light yellow.
11. Spoon grits onto plates and serve shrimp mixture over top.
12. Serve and enjoy!

One-pot Garlic Tomato Shrimp Pasta 4 servings

Tasty

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Spaghetti
- 45 ml Olive oil
- 450 g Shrimp
- 10 ml Salt
- 8 ml Red pepper flakes
- 1 small Yellow onion
- 8 clove Garlic — finely chopped, about 3 tablespoons
- 1.2 kg Canned diced tomato
- 5 ml Sugar
- 5 ml Dried oregano
- 240 ml Dry white wine
- 80 ml Fresh parsley — chopped
- 3.8 L Water — salted

METHOD

1. In a 6-quart Dutch oven, bring 4 quarts of salted water to a boil over medium-high heat.
2. Add spaghetti, cooking about 6-7 minutes until al dente. Drain and set aside.
3. Return the Dutch oven to the stovetop and heat 2 tablespoons of olive oil over medium heat.
4. Add the shrimp, salt, and ½ teaspoon of the red pepper flakes. Spread evenly across the bottom of the pot and cook until the bottoms pink and slightly brown, about 45-60 seconds. Flip and repeat until shrimp are just cooked through.
5. Remove the shrimp and place in a small bowl to the side.
6. Reduce heat to medium-low, and add additional 1 tablespoon of oil to the pot, as needed.
7. Add onion and garlic to the oil and cook until onions have softened, about 3-5 minutes. Stir frequently to ensure the garlic does not burn.
8. Add the diced tomatoes, remaining 1 teaspoon of salt, sugar, remaining 1 teaspoon red pepper flakes, oregano, and white wine.
9. Stir and bring the sauce up to a simmer. Simmer for 5-10 minutes until the sauce has thickened.
10. Return the shrimp (and any accumulated juices) to the sauce. Add the parsley, stirring to incorporate.
11. Add the cooked spaghetti back into the pot, toss until evenly coated and heated, then remove from heat. Serve immediately.
12. Enjoy!

One-pot Salmon And Shiitake Rice 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 375 g Short- or medium-grain white rice — rinsed until water runs almost clear
- 40 g Quinoa
- 15 ml . mirin or sake
- 10 ml . plus 3 tbsp. soy sauce
- 150 g . shiitake mushrooms — thinly sliced
- 3 4–6 -oz. skinless salmon fillets
- Kosher salt
- 30 ml . unseasoned rice vinegar or apple cider vinegar
- 15 ml . toasted sesame oil
- 5 Scallions — thinly sliced, divided

METHOD

1. Gently stir 2 cups short- or medium-grain white rice, rinsed until water runs almost clear, ¼ cup quinoa, 1 Tbsp. mirin or sake, 2 tsp. soy sauce, and 2½ cups water in a small Dutch oven or medium heavy saucepan with a tight-fitting lid to combine. Arrange 5 oz. shiitake mushr...
2. Set pot over medium-high heat, cover, leaving lid slightly askew, and cook until small bubbles appear along the sides, about 5 minutes. Reduce heat to medium, cover pot tightly, and cook undisturbed 15 minutes. Remove from heat (do not remove lid) and let sit 20 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, mix 2 Tbsp. unseasoned rice vinegar or apple cider vinegar, 1 Tbsp. toasted sesame oil, 2½ scallions, thinly sliced, and remaining 3 Tbsp. soy sauce in a small bowl to combine. Set scallion-soy dressing aside.
4. Uncover rice mixture, letting any water from lid drip back into pot. Using a rice paddle, heatproof rubber spatula, or flat-sided wooden spoon, carefully break apart salmon fillets into smaller pieces and fold into rice mixture. Mix in remaining 2½ scallions, thinly sliced.
5. Transfer rice mixture to shallow bowls and serve with reserved scallion-soy dressing alongside for spooning over.

- 3 8 0.5x7 0.5" toasted nori sheets — divided
- 1 5 -oz. can tuna
- 30 ml . mayonnaise — preferably kewpie
- 5 ml . soy sauce
- 4 Umeboshi
- 80 ml Kimchi
- 4 g Diamond crystal or 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt
- 35 g Furikake or toasted sesame seeds

METHOD

1. Place 2 cups sushi rice in a large bowl and pour in cold water to cover by 2"–3". Gently swish around with your hands to rinse, then drain. Repeat process until water is almost clear (about 3 more times). Pour cold water over rice to cover by 1" and let soak 30 minutes (this w...
2. Combine rice and 2½ cups water in a medium saucepan and bring to a boil over high heat, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat to low, cover, and simmer rice until water is absorbed, 12–14 minutes. Remove from heat and let sit (still covered) 15 minutes. This will allow rice to st...
3. Meanwhile, cut three 8½x7½" toasted nori sheets into 3x1¼" strips with kitchen shears; set aside.
4. Prepare the fillings. Mix one 5-oz. can tuna, 2 Tbsp. mayonnaise, preferably Kewpie, and 1 tsp. soy sauce in a small bowl to combine. Place 4 umeboshi on a cutting board. Working one at a time, press a chef's knife against fruit until pit is exposed; pull out and discard. Set ...

5. Place 1 cup water in a small bowl and stir in ¾ tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton kosher salt. Dip your hands in the salted water, then scoop a little less than ■ cup rice into 1 hand. Form into a thick disk 3"–4" in diameter (keep remaining rice in pot covered). Create a ...

6. Place ¼ cup furikake or toasted sesame seeds on a small plate. Wrap bottom of each onigiri with a strip of reserved nori, then roll remaining exposed sides in furikake.

7. Do ahead: Onigiri can be made 2 days ahead. Tightly wrap and chill. Editor's note: This recipe was originally published in September 2020. For more Japanese recipes including miso-caramel glazed salmon, omusubi with mushrooms, and classic dashi with kombu and bonito flakes, ...

Open-faced Tuna Melt Sandwich

American · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Pouches white albacore tuna — drained
- 45 ml Primal kitchen™ avocado oil mayonnaise
- 10 ml Dijon mustard
- 30 ml Finely chopped red onion
- 10 ml Capers
- 30 ml Chopped cornichons
- 15 ml Lemon juice
- 1 ml Fresh or dried thyme leaves
- Sea salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 3 slice Whole wheat or whole grain bread
- 6 Thin slices tomato
- 3 large Slices gruyere — white Cheddar, or provolone cheese

METHOD

1. Set the oven to broil and move the rack to the highest position.
2. In a medium bowl, combine tuna, mayonnaise, mustard, red onion, capers, cornichons, lemon juice, thyme, salt, and pepper and stir thoroughly until combined. Leave the tuna in slightly large chunks, if possible.
3. Arrange bread on a baking sheet and spread mayonnaise on each slice. Divide tuna salad evenly among slices, then top each with 2 slices of tomato and 1 slice of cheese.
4. Broil tuna melts until cheese is golden brown and bubbling, 3 to 4 minutes. Serve warm.

Orange Balsamic Glazed Salmon

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 180 ml Marie's® balsamic vinaigrette
- 2.5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 30 ml Honey
- 10 ml Orange liqueur
- 1 large Navel orange
- 4 Salmon fillets
- Sea salt to taste
- 1 pkg Spring salad greens
- 450 g Slender asparagus - lightly steamed — chilled
- 1 small Fennel bulb — stalks and core removed, thinly sliced
- 1 pkg Shaved parmesan cheese

METHOD

1. Combine 1/4 cup Marie's Balsamic Vinaigrette, pepper, honey, and orange liqueur to make glaze. Zest orange and add to the glaze.
2. Slice peel off orange, removing all of white pith. Slice oranges into rounds, then into quarters. Reserve.
3. Preheat the oven's broiler. Cover a broiler pan with nonstick foil. Sprinkle salmon with salt. Broil salmon, brushing often with glaze until cooked, about 8 minutes. Do not turn.
4. Toss spring mix with asparagus, fennel, and remaining 1/2 cup Marie's Balsamic Vinaigrette. Divide among 4 plates and top with salmon. Garnish salads with orange pieces and Parmesan.

Orange Fish In Parchment 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 5 Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 1 small Indian green chile or serrano chile — finely chopped
- 1 3 " piece ginger — peeled, finely grated
- 15 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 2.5 ml Ground turmeric
- 4 8 -oz. fillets sea bass — 1"–1 0.5" thick
- Kosher salt
- Peel of 1 small clementine — finely chopped
- Cooked white rice and lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Place a rack in middle of oven; preheat to 450°. Mix garlic, chile, ginger, oil, and turmeric in a small bowl to make a paste. Place fish on a paper towel and pat dry. Season all over with salt. Using half of the paste, coat 1 side of each fillet. Place a 2-foot sheet of parch...
2. Transfer pouch to a rimmed baking sheet and bake 10–12 minutes. Turn off oven and let fish sit in oven 1 minute longer—the pouch should have puffed up at this point. Remove from oven, let pouch cool 1 minute, then open (be careful of the hot steam inside!).
3. Transfer fillets to plates and spoon juices from pouch over. Serve with rice and lime wedges for squeezing over.

Orange Salmon With Coriander 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 90 ml . coriander seeds — divided
- 1 large Orange — halved through equator
- 4 4–6 -oz. skinless salmon fillets
- Kosher salt
- 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 medium Shallots — halved through root end, thinly sliced lengthwise
- 60 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 30 ml . unsalted butter
- Cilantro leaves with tender stems — for serving
- A mortar and pestle or spice mill

METHOD

1. Coarsely crush 3 Tbsp. coriander seeds with a mortar and pestle or very coarsely grind in a spice mill; transfer to a plate. Finely crush (or grind) remaining 3 Tbsp. coriander seeds; transfer to a small bowl and set aside. (Alternatively, you can use 2 Tbsp. ground coriander.)
2. Thinly slice 1 orange half into rounds; remove seeds. Squeeze juice from other 1 orange half into a measuring glass until you have ¼ cup. Set aside separately.
3. Pat four 4–6-oz. skinless salmon fillets dry and season with kosher salt on both sides. Working one at a time, press fillets into coarsely crushed coriander to coat on 1 side. Transfer, coriander side up, to a large plate.
4. Heat 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil in a large skillet over medium. Arrange salmon, coriander side down, in pan and cook until golden brown underneath, about 3 minutes. Turn fillets over and cook until flesh is just opaque throughout, about 3 minutes. Transfer to a platter.
5. Add 2 medium shallots, halved through root end, thinly sliced lengthwise, to same skillet; season with salt. Cook, stirring often, until slightly softened, about 2 minutes. Add reserved finely crushed coriander and cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 1 minute. Stir in ¼ cup ...
6. Spoon sauce and orange slices over salmon; top with cilantro leaves with tender stems.

Orecchiette With Cauliflower, Anchovies, And Fried Croutons 6 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 large Head of cauliflower (28 to 30 ounces) — trimmed, cut into 1-inch florets
- 120 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 450 g Orecchiette (little ear-shaped pasta) or medium-size shell pasta
- 360 ml 1/3-inch cubes crusty country-style bread
- 3 medium Zucchini — trimmed, cut into 1/3-inch cubes (about 3 cups)
- 3 large Garlic cloves — chopped
- 7 Anchovy fillets — finely chopped
- 120 ml Chopped fresh italian parsley
- 80 ml (packed) freshly grated parmesan cheese plus additional for serving
- 30 ml Freshly grated pecorino romano cheese

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 218°C. Toss cauliflower florets with 1 tablespoon olive oil in large bowl to coat. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and spread in single layer on large rimmed baking sheet. Roast until cauliflower florets are tender and beginning to brown in spots, stirring occasi...
2. Cook pasta in large pot of boiling generously salted water until just tender but still firm to bite, stirring occasionally. Drain pasta, reserving 1 1/3 cups pasta cooking liquid. Set pasta and cooking liquid aside separately.
3. Meanwhile, heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in large deep nonstick skillet or large pot over medium-high heat. Add bread cubes and sauté until golden brown and crisp, 3 to 4 minutes. Transfer to small bowl and cool. Reserve skillet or pot.

4. Add 2 tablespoons olive oil to same skillet or pot and heat over medium-high heat. Add zucchini and garlic and sauté until zucchini is golden brown and crisp-tender, 3 to 4 minutes. Add cauliflower and anchovies and sauté until heated through, 3 to 4 minutes. Season to taste w...

5. Fried zucchini blossoms make a nice garnish for the pasta. Toss the blossoms in flour to coat, then fry them in a large skillet filled with 1/2 cup olive oil heated to 182°C just until they're golden. Drain the fried blossoms on paper towels before placing them on top of the p...

Orecchiette With Kale And Breadcrumbs 6 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Tuscan kale — or other variety (about 2 large bunches)
- Kosher salt
- 75 ml Olive oil — divided
- 240 ml Coarse fresh breadcrumbs
- 3 Garlic cloves — chopped, divided
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 30 ml (1/4 stick) unsalted butter
- 4 Anchovy fillets packed in oil — drained
- 1 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 450 g Orecchiette
- 60 ml Finely grated parmesan or grana padano

METHOD

1. Working in batches, cook kale in a large pot of boiling salted water until just tender, about 4 minutes. Using tongs, transfer to a rimmed baking sheet; let cool. Set aside pot with water. Squeeze out excess liquid from kale; chop leaves and finely chop stems; set aside.
2. Heat 3 tablespoons oil in a small skillet over medium heat. Add breadcrumbs and cook, stirring often, until beginning to brown, about 4 minutes. Add one-third of chopped garlic and cook, stirring often, until breadcrumbs are golden, about 3 minutes. Season with salt and pepper...
3. Heat butter and remaining 2 tablespoons oil in a large heavy pot over medium-low heat. Add anchovies, red pepper flakes, and remaining two-thirds of chopped garlic; cook, mashing anchovies with a spoon, until a paste forms, about 2 minutes. Add reserved kale and 1/2 cup water....
4. Meanwhile, bring reserved kale cooking liquid to a boil; add pasta and cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente. Drain, reserving 1 cup pasta cooking liquid.
5. Add pasta and 1/2 cup pasta cooking liquid to kale mixture and stir to coat. Increase heat to medium and continue stirring, adding more cooking liquid as needed, until sauce coats pasta. Mix in Parmesan and 1/2 cup breadcrumbs; toss to combine. Divide pasta among bowls, drizzl...

Our Backyard Grilled Garlic-butter Shrimp

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 small Bunch fresh italian parsley — stemmed and roughly chopped
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 450 g Fresh medium shrimp - shells on — rinsed
- Bamboo skewers
- 15 ml Seasoned salt — such as Lawry's®
- 120 ml Salted butter
- 3 clove Garlic — minced

METHOD

1. Place parsley and olive oil into a resealable plastic bag. Add shrimp, coat with the marinade, squeeze out excess air, and seal the bag. Marinate in the refrigerator for at least 2 hours. Soak skewers in water during the last 30 minutes or so.
2. Preheat an outdoor grill for medium-high heat and lightly oil the grate.
3. Remove shrimp from the marinade and thread onto skewers. Season generously with seasoned salt. Place parsley and remaining marinade in a grill-safe pan with butter and garlic.
4. Grill skewers until shrimp are pink and firm, about 3 minutes per side. In the meantime, place the grill pan on the grate; melt and simmer the butter-parsley mixture until butter is just golden-brown, 4 to 5 minutes.
5. Remove shrimp from skewers and drop into the butter-parsley mixture. Toss to coat. Serve immediately.

Oyster-cornbread Stuffing 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 480 ml Low-salt chicken broth
· 1 sprig Sage plus 1 tablespoon thinly sliced sage leaves
· 1 sprig Rosemary
· 450 g Breakfast sausage
· 55 g (0.5 stick) unsalted butter
· 2 medium Onions — finely chopped
· 360 ml Finely chopped celery
· 60 ml Finely chopped flat-leaf parsley
· 30 ml Finely chopped fresh thyme

· Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
· 4 Dozen small shucked oysters in their liquor — about 1 cup liquor
· 4 large Eggs — whisked
· 2.9 L Savory (not sweet) cornbread cut into 0.75-inch cubes — stale or toasted in a 300° oven until dry

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 350°. Combine broth, sage sprig, and rosemary sprig in a small saucepan; bring to a boil. Remove pan from heat and let stock steep until ready to use.
2. Meanwhile, heat a large skillet over medium heat and cook sausage, breaking it up with a spoon, until cooked through, 7–8 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer sausage to a large bowl, leaving any rendered fat in pan.
3. Melt butter in skillet; add onions and celery and cook until softened, about 10 minutes. Add onion mixture, sliced sage, parsley, and thyme to bowl with sausage. Mix well; season with salt and pepper. Add oysters with liquor, reserved broth (sprigs removed), and eggs; toss to ...
4. Spoon stuffing into a 3-qt. baking dish. If any liquid remains in bowl, drizzle ¼–½ cup over to moisten cornbread (amount varies depending on dryness of cornbread). Bake until browned and liquid is absorbed, 1 hour–1 hour 15 minutes, tenting with foil if top gets too dark.

Oysters Rockefeller Sandwich (po-boy) 3 servings

Southern American · Food Network · Contains Dairy, Contains Shellfish, Contains Gluten

INGREDIENTS

· 2 Sticks (16 tablespoons) unsalted butter
· 360 ml Diced onions
· 85 g Diced garlic
· 125 g Anise liqueur — such as Herbsaint
· 960 ml Half-and-half — plus more as needed
· 125 g Hot sauce
· 30 ml Granulated garlic
· 30 ml Granulated onion
· 15 ml Ground white pepper
· 15 ml Ground thyme
· 900 g Frozen spinach — thawed
· 480 ml Breadcrumbs — plus more if needed
· 150 g Grated parmesan — plus more if needed
· 375 g Yellow corn flour
· 125 g All-purpose flour
· 240 ml Lemon pepper
· 240 ml Creole seasoning
· 55 g Unsalted butter
· 30 ml Chopped garlic
· 1 Loaf french bread — about 3 1/2 feet long
· Vegetable oil — for frying
· 1 Quart shucked louisiana oysters
· Grated parmesan — for garnishing

METHOD

1. For the Rockefeller sauce: Melt 2 sticks of unsalted butter in a large skillet over medium heat.
2. Add the 1 1/2 cups diced onions and 3 ounces diced garlic to the skillet and cook until golden brown, about 10 minutes.
3. Carefully add the 4 ounces anise liqueur. (CAUTION: Skillet will flame up when using a gas range.)
4. Stir in 4 cups half-and-half, 4 ounces hot sauce, 2 tablespoons granulated garlic, 2 tablespoons granulated onion, 1 tablespoon ground white pepper, and 1 tablespoon ground thyme. Bring the mixture to a simmer.
5. Add the 2 pounds thawed frozen spinach and bring the sauce back to a simmer.
6. Turn off the heat. Stir in 2 cups breadcrumbs and 1 1/2 cups grated Parmesan.
7. Check the consistency of the sauce: if there's too much liquid, add more breadcrumbs and cheese; if it's too thick, add more half-and-half.
8. For the fry dredge: In a large bowl, whisk together 3 cups yellow corn flour, 1 cup all-purpose flour, 1 cup Creole seasoning, and 1 cup lemon pepper.
9. For the sandwich: Melt 4 tablespoons unsalted butter and 2 tablespoons chopped garlic in a small skillet.
10. Cut the French bread loaf. "Paint" the inside of the bread with the garlic butter.
11. Firmly press the inside of the bread down on a large skillet or flat-top grill to toast it.
12. In a large heavy-bottomed saucepan, pour enough vegetable oil to fill the pan about a third of the way. Heat over medium heat until a deep-frying thermometer inserted in the oil reaches 177°C (177°C). (Alternatively, a cube of bread will brown in about 3 minutes if you don't h...
13. Dredge the 1 quart shucked Louisiana oysters in the fry dredge. Deep-fry, in batches if necessary, until golden brown and firm to the touch, about 2 minutes.
14. Arrange the fried oysters on the inside of the toasted French bread.
15. Top the oysters with Rockefeller sauce and garnish with additional grated Parmesan.

Oysters With Brown Sugar–chipotle Butter 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 1 Garlic clove — finely chopped
· 1/4 Canned chipotle chile in adobo — finely chopped (about 1 teaspoon)
· 30 ml Unsalted butter
· 8 ml Bourbon
· 7 g Light brown sugar
· Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
· 2 Dozen oysters (such as blue point — Well Fleet, or Malpeque), freshly shucked, on the half shell, with liquor

METHOD

1. Mix garlic, chile, butter, bourbon, and brown sugar in a small bowl until smooth; season with salt and pepper.
2. Heat broiler. Spread a layer of kosher salt on a rimmed baking sheet (about 2 cups) and arrange oysters on top (the salt will prevent them from tipping over). Place about 1/2 tsp. butter mixture on each oyster.
3. Broil oysters until butter is melted and sugar is beginning to caramelize, about 3 minutes.
4. DO AHEAD: Butter can be made 2 days ahead. Cover and chill.

Oysters With Parmesan-polenta Crust 6 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 large Eggs — free-range and organic
- 120 ml Instant polenta
- 120 ml Freshly grated parmigiano-reggiano cheese
- 2.5 ml Fine sea salt
- 2.5 ml Ground espelette pepper or other mild ground chile pepper
- 1 Quart vegetable oil — such as sunflower oil
- 12 Freshly shucked oysters
- Fresh lemon wedges — for garnish
- Aïoli piquant or lime mayonnaise — for serving

METHOD

1. Place the eggs in a shallow bowl and whisk to blend. In a second shallow bowl, combine the polenta, cheese, salt, and pepper.
2. Pour the oil into the saucepan or deep-fryer to a depth of at least 2 inches. If using a deep-fry thermometer to take the temperature of the oil, attach it to the side of the saucepan. Heat the oil over medium heat to 191°C, or until a wooden chopstick inserted into the oil be...
3. When the oil has come to temperature, coat the oysters: Dredge the oysters first in the eggs, allowing any excess to drip back into the bowl, then in the polenta mixture, shaking off any excess. Arrange on a platter. (The oysters should be fried within just a few moments of co...
4. Fry the oysters in batches, about three at a time, until the breading is crisp, firm, and deep golden, 2 to 3 minutes. Remove with the wire skimmer and transfer to the paper towels to drain. Serve immediately with lemon wedges and aïoli or lime mayonnaise.

3. Heat remaining 4 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add remaining garlic; cook, stirring often, until pale golden, about 2 minutes. Add reserved clam broth and pasta liquid. Bring to a boil; boil until sauce is emulsified, about 1 minute. Add pasta and cook, s...

Paccheri Pasta With Shellfish, Squid, And Tomatoes 8 servings

Italian · Epicurious · Seafood, Dairy-Free

INGREDIENTS

- 3 medium Tomatoes — halved, seeds and cores removed
- 350 g Cleaned squid — bodies and tentacles separated
- 90 ml Extra-virgin olive oil — divided, plus more for drizzling
- 700 g Small shrimp — preferably head-on, peeled, deveined, shells and heads reserved
- 480 ml Dry white wine — divided
- 6 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 450 g Cockles or manila clams — scrubbed
- 450 g Mussels — scrubbed, debearded
- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 900 g Paccheri or other large tube pasta
- Kosher salt
- 15 ml Fish sauce — optional
- 240 ml Torn basil

METHOD

1. Grate tomatoes, cut side down, on the largest holes of a box grater into a medium bowl until only the skin is left. Finely chop skin and add to bowl.
2. Cut squid bodies in half lengthwise, then cut each half crosswise into 1/2" pieces. Place in a small bowl. Cut tentacles in half crosswise; add to bowl.
3. Heat 3 Tbsp. oil in a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot over medium-high. Add reserved shrimp shells and heads (if using). Cook, smashing down on shells and heads, until shells are beginning to brown, 10–12 minutes. Add 1 cup wine and cook until reduced by half and alcohol a...
4. Wipe out pot. Pour in remaining 3 Tbsp. oil and heat over medium. Add garlic and cook, stirring occasionally, until just golden, about 5 minutes. Add grated tomatoes and cook, stirring occasionally, until tomatoes thicken slightly and begin to stick to bottom of pot, 6–8 minut...
5. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, until just slightly under al dente, 6–8 minutes.
6. Using a heatproof measuring cup, scoop out about 1 cup pasta water. Transfer pasta to pot with sauce with a slotted spoon or mesh spider. Add reserved stock and bring to a boil. Reduce heat to a simmer and add shrimp and squid to sauce. Cook, tossing constantly and adding past...
7. Transfer pasta to a platter. Top with basil and drizzle with oil.

INGREDIENTS

- 3 Long thai chiles or 6 red thai chiles — sliced crosswise 0.25" thick
- 480 ml Distilled white vinegar
- 480 ml Dried bird chiles
- 450 g . fresh wide rice noodles or 8 oz. dried wide rice noodles
- 350 g . chinese broccoli or broccoli
- 30 ml . vegetable oil
- 2 large Eggs
- 2 large Garlic cloves — finely chopped
- 225 g . skinless — boneless chicken thighs or breasts, cut into 1" pieces
- 45 ml . dark sweet soy sauce — preferably healthy boy
- 30 ml . thin soy sauce — preferably healthy boy
- 10 ml . distilled white vinegar or apple cider vinegar
- 10 ml . salted soybean paste — preferably healthy boy; optional
- 2 g Granulated sugar — plus more for serving
- Freshly ground white pepper
- Fish sauce — for serving
- A glass jar with a lid
- A spice mill or mortar and pestle

METHOD

1. Combine chiles and vinegar in a small bowl or glass jar, cover tightly, and chill at least 2 day before using. Do ahead: Chiles can be pickled 2 months ahead. Keep chilled.
2. Toast chiles in a dry small skillet over low heat until brittle and slightly darker in color but not browned and blistered, about 4 minutes. Transfer to a plate and let cool. Grind in spice mill or with mortar and pestle to the consistency of coarse cornmeal. Do ahead: Chiles ...
3. If using dried rice noodles, bring a large pot of water to a boil over high heat. Add noodles and stir to separate and prevent sticking, then remove pot from heat. Let noodles sit until cooked through and no hard center remains, 8–10 minutes. Drain in a colander and rinse unde...
4. Trim about 1" off bottom of each broccoli stem. Remove stalks from tops and slice on a diagonal ¼" thick; set aside. If using chinese broccoli, cut tops into 2" pieces. If using broccoli, cut into 2" florets. Set aside, keeping separate from stalks.
5. Heat oil in a wok or a large nonstick skillet over high until shimmering. Crack eggs into pan; add garlic and cook, stirring, until eggs are almost set. Add broccoli stalks and chicken and cook, tossing often, until chicken is cooked through, about 2 minutes.
6. Add dark sweet soy sauce, thin soy sauce, vinegar, soy bean paste, ½ tsp. sugar, reserved noodles, and reserved broccoli florets, if using regular broccoli, and cook, stirring, until noodles absorb some of the sauce and are softened, about 1 minute. Continue to cook, undisturb...

Pan-fried Salmon With Cream-dill Sauce

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 Fillets salmon
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 20 ml Lemon juice
- 15 ml Butter
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 15 ml Dijon mustard
- 15 ml Chopped fresh dill
- 180 ml Heavy whipping cream

METHOD

1. Season salmon with salt and pepper and sprinkle with some of the lemon juice.
2. Heat a large skillet over medium-high heat. Melt butter and oil together in the hot skillet. Add salmon; pan-fry for 3 minutes. Flip and cook until salmon is almost cooked through, 3 to 5 minutes.
3. Sprinkle remaining lemon juice onto one side of the pan. Add mustard and dill and mix. Pour in cream, mix with a spoon, and tilt pan so sauce runs around the salmon fillets. Cook for a few minutes until sauce thickens. Season with salt. Serve salmon with sauce.

Pan-fried Tilapia

American · Allrecipes · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 Fillets tilapia fillets — or more to taste
- 1 pinch Cajun seasoning — or to taste
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 60 ml All-purpose flour
- 30 ml Salted butter
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 120 ml Chopped onion
- 60 ml White cooking wine
- 60 ml Capers

METHOD

1. Dry tilapia fillets and cut each in half. Season each fillet with Cajun seasoning, salt, and pepper. Dredge in flour to coat, shaking off excess.
2. Melt butter and oil in a large heavy skillet over medium-high heat. Pan-fry fish quickly, working in batches if needed, until edges appear white, 3 to 4 minutes. Flip and continue to cook until easily flaked with a fork, 3 to 4 minutes more. Remove to a plate and keep warm.
3. Heat the same pan over medium-high heat. Saute onion until soft, about 5 minutes. Pour white wine into the pan, reduce heat, and let simmer until reduced by about half, 5 to 7 minutes. Drizzle sauce over fish before serving and garnish with capers.

Pan-grilled Black Bass With Flavored Butters 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Broccolini or broccoli rabe
- Kosher salt
- 30 ml Unsalted butter
- 5 ml Finely grated lemon zest
- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 4 6 -ounce black bass or trout fillets or skinless cod or haddock fillets
- 240 ml All-purpose flour
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 90 ml Unsalted butter — room temperature
- Mâitre d'hôtel butter — Nasturtium Butter, and Chile Cilantro Butter (for serving)

METHOD

1. Cook broccolini in a pot of boiling salted water just until tender, about 3 minutes. Drain and transfer to a bowl of ice water; let cool. Drain and pat dry with paper towels.
2. Heat butter in a medium skillet over medium until foaming. Add broccolini, lemon zest, and red pepper flakes; season with salt and pepper. Cook, tossing, just until broccolini is warmed through and coated in butter.
3. Heat a grill pan over medium-high until hot but not smoking. Pat black bass fillets dry; this will help keep the fish from sticking to the pan while cooking. Place flour on a plate and season generously with salt and pepper (you are not seasoning the fish itself). Working one ...
4. Add fillets, flesh side down, to pan; they should sizzle upon contact. Cook just until grill marks appear and butter is browned, about 1 minute. Turn and cook, pressing gently so entire skin side is in contact with the pan's ridges, until skin is browned and crisp and fillets ...
5. Serve black bass fillets with broccolini and flavored butters, which will soften on contact with the warm fish.

Pan-roasted Halibut With Clamshell Mushrooms And Lemon Butter Sauce 2 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Olive oil
- 15 ml Butter
- 60 ml Clamshell mushrooms
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 2 Halibut fillets
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper — or to taste
- 60 ml Water
- 0.5 Lemon — juiced
- 20 ml Butter
- 15 ml Chopped flat-leaf italian parsley

METHOD

1. Heat oil and 1 tablespoon butter in a heavy skillet over medium-high heat until butter melts and begins to foam. Add mushrooms and a pinch of salt; sauté in hot butter and oil until golden brown, about 5 minutes. Push mushrooms to the edges to clear a space in the center of th...
2. Season halibut on each side with salt and cayenne pepper. Place halibut fillets in the center of the skillet and cook until fillets begin to flake, 3 to 4 minutes per side. Transfer halibut to a warm serving plate.
3. Pour water into the pan and bring to a boil while scraping the browned bits of food off of the bottom of the pan with a wooden spoon, until water is reduced by half, 1 to 2 minutes. Pour lemon juice into mushroom mixture and stir.

4. Stir butter and parsley into mushroom mixture. Stir constantly until butter melts and forms a sauce; remove from heat and season with salt and black pepper. Spoon sauce and mushrooms over halibut.

Panzanella 6 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 900 g Tomatoes
- 120 ml Extra-virgin olive oil plus more for drizzling
- 45 ml (or more) red wine vinegar
- 4 Garlic cloves — minced
- Fine sea salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1 Loaf stale bread (such as country — Pullman, or ciabatta), cut into 1'-thick slices
- 1 Red bell pepper — optional
- 1 Yellow bell pepper — optional
- 2 Fresh chiles — such as Fresno or red jalapeño; optional
- 120 ml Black olives — such as Kalamata or oil-cured
- 60 ml Salt-packed capers — soaked, rinsed, patted dry
- 4 Anchovy fillets packed in salt — soaked, rinsed, patted dry, finely chopped (optional)
- 1 large Bunch basil — leaves trimmed, stems discarded

METHOD

1. Bring a large pot of water to a boil. Using the tip of a paring knife, make two 1" cuts on the bottom of each tomato, forming an X. Add tomatoes to water and cook just until skin begins to peel back at each X, 30–40 seconds. Using a slotted spoon, transfer tomatoes to a large ...
2. Stir in 1/2 cup oil, 3 Tbsp. vinegar, and garlic. Season to taste with salt, pepper, and more vinegar, if desired.
3. Add bread to tomato mixture in bowl. Toss until bread is well coated and starts to absorb liquid. Let sit for 30 minutes.
4. Meanwhile, char bell peppers and chiles, if using, directly over a gas flame or in the broiler until blackened all over. Transfer to a resealable plastic bag. Close bag and let sit for 15 minutes. Remove peppers and chiles; peel, core, seed, and cut into 1/4" strips.
5. Add peppers, chiles, olives, capers, and anchovies, if using, to bread mixture. Massage with your hands until all ingredients are thoroughly combined and bread is broken down (it will break down differently depending on what kind is used; ciabatta tends to stay more intact tha...

- 120 ml Coarsely chopped parsley

METHOD

1. Combine 3 Tbsp. oil and garlic in a large skillet. Set over medium heat and cook, tossing occasionally, until garlic has softened but has not taken on any color, 2–3 minutes.
2. Add shrimp, paprika, and red pepper flakes, and increase heat to medium-high. Season lightly with salt and cook, tossing often, until shrimp is almost cooked through, about 2 minutes.
3. Add V8 Original 100% Vegetable Juice and butter and cook, still tossing, until reduced by half and you have a silky red sauce, about 2 minutes.
4. Remove skillet from heat. Finely grate zest from lemon half over shrimp, then squeeze in about 1 tbsp. lemon juice. Scatter parsley and toss once more.
5. Transfer shrimp to a platter and drizzle with plenty of oil.
6. Serve with thick slices of crusty bread.

Parchment-cooked Fish With Morels, Spring Garlic, And Thyme

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Fresh morel mushrooms
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 4 Pacific halibut fillets
- 7 ml Butter
- 120 ml Chopped garlic scapes
- 5 sprig Fresh thyme — leaves stripped and chopped
- 15 ml Canola oil
- 4 12 X20-inch pieces of parchment paper

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 177°C (175 degrees C).
2. Place morel mushrooms in a dry skillet over medium heat and sprinkle with salt and black pepper. Cook, stirring often, until the mushrooms release their juice and the juice evaporates, about 5 minutes.
3. Sprinkle halibut fillets with salt and black pepper on both sides.
4. Heat butter in a large skillet over medium-low heat and cook the halibut fillets until golden brown on the outside, about 2 minutes per side. Remove fish from skillet and set aside.
5. Cook and stir garlic scapes in the same skillet used to cook fish until fragrant, about 1 minute. Remove pan from heat and stir morel mushrooms and thyme with the garlic scapes until combined.
6. Fold a piece of parchment paper in half crosswise. Use scissors to cut a very large valentine-like heart shape out of the folded paper, as large as possible. Repeat with remaining parchment to make 4 large heart shapes.
7. Open the heart shapes; brush right sides of the hearts with canola oil.
8. Place 1/4 morel mushroom mixture in the left (unoiled) half of each heart. Place a halibut fillet on the mushroom mixture. Sprinkle fish with salt and black pepper.
9. Fold the oiled right half of the heart over the fish. Fold about 1/4 inch of parchment paper over, starting at the rounded end, and work your way down to the point, folding as you go. Fold the edge over a second time to enclose fish and mushrooms in a bundle with a double-fold...
10. Leave about 1/4 inch of the bottom point unfolded.
11. Use a straw inserted into the open bottom to blow air into the bundle, making it puff up like a small balloon. Twist the bottom closed to enclose the air.
12. Place parchment bundles on 2 baking sheets; don't let the bundles touch each other.
13. Bake in the preheated oven until fish is no longer translucent in the center, about 15 minutes.
14. To serve, plate each portion and carefully cut open the parchment to reveal the fish, mushrooms, and juices. Bundle will release hot steam when opened.

Pasta Burro E Alici (pasta With Creamy Anchovy-butter Sauce) 4 servings

Italian · Serious Eats · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Fresh — lightly-stale, or fully stale bread, cut into 3/4- to 1-inch pieces (see notes)
- 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 125 g (8 tablespoons; 115g) unsalted butter — divided
- 8 To 12 anchovy fillets (30 to 50g) — see notes
- 350 g Dried long pasta such as spaghetti — spaghettoni, or bucatini
- 5 ml Fresh lemon juice — plus finely grated zest of 1 lemon
- 120 ml Toasted breadcrumbs
- 1 Loosely packed cup (1/2 ounce; 15g) fresh parsley leaves and tender stems — finely chopped

METHOD

1. For the Toasted Breadcrumbs: If using fresh or lightly stale bread, adjust oven rack to middle position, and preheat oven to 163°C (165°C). (If using fully stale and dried bread, skip baking step.) Arrange bread in single layer on rimmed baking sheet, and bake until completely...
2. Combine breadcrumbs and 1 tablespoon (15ml) oil in a large skillet, and cook over medium-low heat, stirring and tossing occasionally, until crisp and golden brown, 8 to 10 minutes. Season lightly with salt. Transfer toasted breadcrumbs to reserved rimmed baking sheet, spread i...
3. For the Pasta: In a large skillet, melt 3 ounces (6 tablespoons; 85g) butter over medium-low heat. Add anchovies and cook, stirring and breaking up anchovies occasionally with a rubber spatula or wooden spoon, until anchovies have dissolved, about 4 minutes. Reduce heat on ski...
4. Meanwhile, in a large Dutch oven or wide-bottomed pot, combine 3 quarts (3L) of water and 2 teaspoons (8g) salt, and bring to a boil over high heat. Add pasta and cook, stirring frequently for first 30 seconds to prevent noodles from sticking.
5. Once pasta has cooked for 5 minutes, transfer 1 cup (240ml) of pasta cooking water to skillet; continue cooking pasta. Return skillet to high heat and bring to a boil, swirling pan and stirring constantly until cooking water emulsifies with butter-anchovy mixture, 1 to 2 minut...
6. Meanwhile, continue cooking pasta until it is softened on the exterior, but well shy of al dente and still uncooked in the center (about 3 minutes less than the package directions). Using tongs, transfer pasta to skillet, and reserve remaining pasta cooking water. Alternativel...
7. Increase heat to high and cook, stirring and tossing rapidly, until pasta is al dente and sauce is slightly thickened and coats noodles with a creamy glaze, 2 to 3 minutes, adding more pasta cooking water in 1/4 cup (60ml) increments as needed. At this point, the sauce should ...
8. Remove from heat, add remaining 2 tablespoons (30g) butter, lemon juice, and zest. Toss and stir rapidly to incorporate and emulsify butter into the sauce. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Divide between individual serving bowls, sprinkle with breadcrumbs and parsley, and...

Pasta With Anchovy Butter And Broccoli Rabe 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 1 3.5 –oz. jar oil-packed anchovies — drained, chopped
- 240 ml (2 sticks) unsalted butter
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1 bunch Broccoli rabe
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 2 Garlic cloves thinly sliced
- 350 g . campanelle or penne
- 85 g . pecorino or parmesan — finely grated, plus shaved for serving

METHOD

1. Mash anchovies into butter in a medium bowl; season with salt (if needed; taste first) and pepper.
2. Tear broccoli rabe leaves into 2” pieces; set aside. Thinly slice stems ¼” thick. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium. Add garlic and broccoli rabe stems and season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until stems are tender, about 5 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until al dente. Drain, reserving ½ cup pasta cooking liquid.
4. Add pasta, reserved broccoli rabe leaves, ¼ cup pasta liquid, and 3 Tbsp. anchovy butter to skillet (save remaining butter for another use). Cook, tossing occasionally and adding more pasta liquid as needed, until leaves are wilted and sauce coats pasta, about 4 minutes. Toss ...

Epicurious · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 1/2 Garlic clove — finely grated
- 60 ml Grated parmigiano
- 240 ml Packed fresh basil leaves
- 45 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- Finely grated zest of 1/2 lemon
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- Kosher salt
- 30 ml Unsalted butter
- 30 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 3 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 2 small Shallots — thinly sliced
- 120 ml White wine
- 24 Littleneck or manila clams — scrubbed
- 350 g Short tubular pasta
- 480 ml Corn kernels — from 3 to 4 ears

METHOD

1. In a blender or food processor, combine garlic, Parmigiano, basil, and oil and blend until very smooth, scraping down sides as needed and adding a tablespoon or two of water if needed to get things moving. Add lemon zest and season with salt and pepper. Set pesto aside (you sh...
2. Bring a large pot of water to a boil for the pasta and season it generously with salt. In a medium Dutch oven or large cast-iron skillet, heat butter and oil over medium-high heat. When butter is foaming, add garlic, shallots, and reserved basil stems and cook until mixture is...
3. Cook pasta until 1 or 2 minutes shy of al dente. Scoop 1 cup of pasta water into pan with clam sauce. Drain pasta and add to sauce along with half of the pesto. Add corn and bring mixture to a simmer. Cook, stirring, until liquid starts to thicken and pasta is al dente, about ...

Pasta With Shrimp In Tomato Cream 4 servings

Epicurious

INGREDIENTS

- Kosher salt
- 350 g Fusilli
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 450 g Shrimp
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 3 Scallions — thinly sliced (dark green portion kept separate)
- 3 clove Garlic — thinly sliced
- 240 ml Heavy cream
- 120 ml Chicken stock
- 120 ml Dry vermouth
- 120 ml Dry-packed sun-dried tomatoes
- 15 ml Tomato paste
- 240 ml Crumbled feta cheese
- 60 ml Chopped flat-leaf italian parsley
- 60 ml Fresh basil chiffonade

METHOD

1. Bring a large pot of water to a boil. Add 2 tablespoons of the salt and return to a rolling boil. Add the pasta and cook until al dente according to package directions.
2. While the pasta cooks, prepare the sauce: Heat the oil in a 12-inch skillet over medium-high heat. Season the shrimp with salt and pepper, add to the pan, and sauté until just cooked through, about 2 minutes. Remove and set aside in a large bowl.
3. Add the white and light green slices of scallions (reserve the dark green slices for garnish) and garlic to the pan and cook until softened, about 2 minutes. Remove and set aside in the bowl with the shrimp and cover.
4. Reduce the heat to medium. Stir in the cream, chicken stock, vermouth, sun-dried tomatoes, and tomato paste. Bring the sauce to a boil and simmer until the liquid has thickened and reduced by half, about 5 minutes. Return the shrimp mixture to the skillet and cook until heated...
5. Increase the heat to medium-high and add the pasta directly to the skillet, along with the feta, parsley, and half the basil. Toss everything together until the cheese begins to melt and the pasta is glossy with sauce. Season with salt and pepper.
6. Plate in bowls and garnish with the remaining basil and the scallion greens.

METHOD

1. Very thinly slice 1 large fennel bulb, fronds reserved, and 1 small red onion (if you have a mandoline, now's the time to use it). Place in a large bowl. Add 3 Tbsp. white wine vinegar, 3 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil, and 1 Tbsp. Dijon mustard, season with kosher salt, and tos...
2. Mix 1 Tbsp. plus 1½ tsp. smoked paprika, 2 tsp. light or dark brown sugar, 1 tsp. ground coriander, 1 tsp. garlic powder, 1 tsp. onion powder, 2 tsp. coarsely ground pepper, and 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton kosher salt in a small bowl to combine.
3. Season four 4–6-oz. skinless salmon fillets, patted dry, all over with salt. Brush remaining 3 Tbsp. Dijon mustard over all sides of salmon (about 2 tsp. per fillet). Sprinkle paprika mixture over, pressing to adhere.
4. Heat 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil in a large skillet over medium. Cook salmon, undisturbed, until a browned crust forms underneath, 6–8 minutes. Turn and cook until salmon is cooked through, about 3 minutes, depending on thickness of fillets.
5. Place 1 cup plain whole-milk yogurt in a small bowl; add a drizzle of oil and a big pinch of salt and stir to combine.
6. Spread yogurt mixture onto plates and place salmon on top; arrange reserved slaw around. Top with torn dill and fennel fronds; season with pepper.

Peruvian Ceviche 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 160 ml Fresh lime juice
- 2 Garlic cloves — smashed
- 15 ml (packed) chopped fresh cilantro leaves
- 1/2 Ají limo or habanero chile — seeded, halved lengthwise
- 0.5 small Red onion — chopped
- 120 ml Bottled clam juice
- Kosher salt
- 1 small Sweet potato — about 8 ounces
- 1 Ear of corn — husked
- 1/2 Ají limo or habanero chile — seeded, halved lengthwise
- 450 g Fluke — flounder, or sole
- 1 small Red onion — quartered and thinly sliced, divided
- Kosher salt
- Cilantro leaves

METHOD

1. Set a fine-mesh sieve over a small bowl. Purée first 4 ingredients and 4 large ice cubes in a blender until smooth. Add onion; pulse 3–4 times. Strain liquid into a medium bowl. Stir in clam juice, if desired; season with salt. Cover and chill.
2. Pour water into a large pot fitted with a steamer basket to a depth of 1 inch; bring to a boil. Add sweet potato, cover, and cook until just fork-tender, about 30 minutes. Transfer to a plate; let cool.
3. Meanwhile, add more water to same pot, if needed, to measure 1 inch; bring to a boil. Add ear of corn to pot and steam until crisp-tender, 2–3 minutes. Transfer to a plate; let cool completely.
4. Halve potato lengthwise. Using a small melon baller, scoop out potato balls and place them in a small bowl; set aside. Cut kernels from cob. Reserve 1/3 cup kernels (save extra kernels for another use).
5. Rub a large bowl with cut sides of chile; discard. Place fluke, 2/3 of onion, leche de tigre, and 4 large ice cubes in bowl; stir well. Let marinate for 2 minutes; remove ice. Fold in potato and corn; season with salt.
6. Using a slotted spoon, divide ceviche into small bowls or onto plates. Drizzle ceviche with leche de tigre from bowl; garnish with remaining onion and cilantro.

Pineapple-shrimp Stir-fry 4 servings

Asian · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 1 can Pineapple chunks in juice
· 120 ml Soy sauce
· 60 ml Rice vinegar
· 30 ml Sesame oil
· 15 ml Minced fresh garlic
· 15 ml Grated fresh ginger
· 5 ml Fish sauce
· 1 ml Dried red pepper flakes
· 30 ml Avocado oil
· 1 medium Red onion — cut into 1-inch chunks
· 1 medium Orange bell pepper — cut into 1-inch chunks
· 1 medium Red bell pepper — cut into 1-inch chunks
· 960 ml Broccoli florets
· 450 g Large shrimp
· 30 ml Cornstarch
· 30 ml Chopped cashews

METHOD

1. Measure out 1/4 cup pineapple juice from the can and add to a small mixing bowl. Set pineapple chunks aside and reserve any extra juice for another use or discard.
2. Add soy sauce, rice vinegar, sesame oil, garlic, ginger, fish sauce, and pepper flakes to the pineapple juice; stir until well combined. Transfer 1/4 cup of the mixture to a small bowl and leave the rest in the mixing bowl.
3. Heat a 12-inch nonstick skillet over medium heat. Add avocado oil to the hot skillet and heat until it shimmers, about 30 seconds. Add red onion and bell peppers; cook and stir for 1 to 2 minutes. Add broccoli; cook and stir for 1 minute.
4. Add the sauce from the mixing bowl and bring to a boil. Add shrimp and cook until they turn pink and begin to curl, 2 to 3 minutes.
5. Meanwhile, stir cornstarch into the sauce in the small bowl, mixing until there are no lumps. Slowly add to the skillet, stirring constantly. Add reserved pineapple chunks.
6. Cook until sauce thickens, 1 to 2 minutes. Remove from the heat and sprinkle cashews over top. Serve immediately.

Poached Cod With Tomato And Saffron 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 30 ml Olive oil
· 2 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
· 5 ml Aleppo pepper or 0.5 teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes
· 1 14.5 -ounce can whole peeled tomatoes — drained
· 60 ml Dry white wine
· 2 Bay leaves
· pinch Of saffron threads
· Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
· 4 5 -ounce skinless cod fillets

METHOD

1. Heat oil in a medium skillet over medium heat. Add garlic and Aleppo pepper and cook, stirring often, until fragrant (garlic should not take on any color), about 3 minutes.
2. Add tomatoes, crushing with your hands as you add them, wine, bay leaves, saffron, and ½ cup water. Bring to a boil, reduce heat, and simmer until flavors meld, 5–7 minutes; season with salt and pepper.
3. Reduce heat to medium-low; season cod with salt and pepper and place in skillet. Cover and cook at a bare simmer until cod is opaque throughout and beginning to flake, 5–7 minutes (thicker pieces will take longer to cook).
4. Gently transfer cod to shallow bowls and spoon poaching liquid over.

Poached Lobster With Vegetable Macedonia 4 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 2 Carrots with tops
· 3 Turnips with tops
· 2 Handfuls of french beans
· A handful of fresh peas
· 420 ml Of white wine
· 10 Black peppercorns
· A 1 1/2-pound lobster
· 2 Scallions
· 120 ml Greek-style yogurt
· An unwaxed lemon
· A pinch of piment d'espelette or hot paprika
· Salt

· Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Peel and wash 2 carrots with tops and 3 turnips with tops. Wash and de-string 2 handfuls of French beans. Cut these vegetables into very small dice (brunoise).
2. Shell a handful of fresh peas.
3. Heat salted water in a saucepan and prepare a bowl of water and ice cubes.
4. Immerse all the vegetables in the boiling water for 4 minutes, then drain and plunge them in the ice water. Drain once more, put in a large bowl, and set aside.
5. Pour 3 quarts of water and 1 3/4 cups of white wine into a large cooking pot. Add 10 black peppercorns and bring to a boil. Plunge a 1 1/2-pound lobster into the liquid, put on the lid, and cook for 5 minutes once it returns to a boil.
6. Take the lobster out and, as soon as it's not burning hot, shell the tail, elbows, and claws. Remove the black intestinal vein. Take the sand sac from the head and collect the coral.
7. Cut the shell of the head and tail in half lengthwise. Rinse and dry them.
8. Cut up the meat and add it to the bowl of vegetables.
9. Trim, wash, and finely chop 2 scallions and put them in a bowl. Add the lobster coral, 1/2 cup Greek-style yogurt, the juice of an unwaxed lemon, a little of its grated zest, and a pinch of Piment d'Espelette or hot paprika. Taste and correct the seasoning with salt and freshl...
10. Pour this sauce into the bowl of vegetables and lobster. Stir gently, then distribute this mixture into the shells of the half tails and half heads.
11. Arrange on a dish and keep cold until serving.

Poached Salmon With Avocado Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 2 8 -ounce skinless salmon fillets (preferably wild) — halved crosswise
· Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
· 20 Fresh tarragon leaves — torn
· 1 Quart vegetable broth
· 400 g Stringed trimmed sugar snap peas or snow peas
· 2 Ripe avocados — halved, pitted
· 240 ml Plain low-fat yogurt
· 15 ml (or more) fresh lime juice
· 2.5 ml Ground cumin
· 960 ml Arugula
· 20 Grape or cherry tomatoes — halved
· 15 ml Minced shallot
· 15 ml Plus 1 teaspoon olive oil
· 30 ml Thinly sliced fresh chives
· 4 Lime wedges

METHOD

1. Season fish with salt and pepper. Place in an 8x8x2" or 9x9x2" metal or glass baking dish. Scatter half of tarragon over fish. Let sit at room temperature for 10 minutes
2. Bring broth to a boil in a small pot. Pour over salmon to submerge. Let stand until cooked to medium-rare, 10–15 minutes. Using a spatula, transfer to a plate; chill.
3. Cook sugar snap peas in a pot of boiling salted water until crisp-tender, about 2 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer peas to a bowl of ice water. Let cool; drain. Cut larger snap peas in half on a diagonal.
4. Scoop avocado flesh into a food processor. Add yogurt, 1 Tbsp. lime juice, and cumin; purée. Season to taste with salt, pepper, and additional lime juice, if desired.
5. Spoon about 1/2 cup avocado purée into the middle of each plate. Mix remaining tarragon, peas, arugula, tomatoes, and shallot in a medium bowl. Drizzle with 1 Tbsp. oil; season with lime juice (if desired), salt, and pepper. Toss; divide among plates. Top with salmon and chive...

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 30 ml Butter
· 1.9 L Chopped leaks — well-rinsed
· 480 ml Chicken broth
· 700 g Salmon

METHOD

1. Trim the roots and leaves from the leeks, leaving the soft white stem. Chop the stem into sections and place in a colander over the sink, or in a bowl of water. Rinse the leeks very thoroughly, these are notoriously grainy vegetables and you don't want the dirt to end up in yo...
2. Once the leeks are tender pour in the chicken broth until it just covers the leeks. If you need a little more broth than the 2 cups called for, add a little more bit by bit. Then, add the salmon steaks on top, making sure they are separated a little. If there is skin on the sa...
3. Turn up the heat so that the broth is simmering. Place the lid on the pan and cook the salmon for 8 minutes. After that, check to make sure the steaks are cooked through. If not, continue cooking for 1-2 more minutes.

4. Divide the leeks between two plates. Serve one salmon steak on top of each bed of leeks. Sprinkle with salt and pepper to taste.

Prawn Moilee 4 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 6 Green chillies
- 55 ml (about 0.25 cup) vegetable oil
- 10 ml . mustard seeds
- 30 Fresh curry leaves
- 300 g (2 cups) spanish white onions — sliced (a little chunky is good)
- 15 g (1 tbsp.) garlic paste
- 15 g (1 tbsp.) ginger paste
- 10 ml . fine sea salt
- 5 ml . freshly ground black pepper
- 6 ml Ground turmeric
- 25 g (0.25 cup) fresh root ginger — cut into matchsticks
- 400 ml (about 2 cups) coconut milk
- 250 ml (about 1 cup) coconut cream
- 24 large Prawns
- 300 g (about 1 0.5 cups) medium tomatoes — cut into small bite-sized wedges
- Lemon wedges — to serve

METHOD

1. Remove and discard the stalks from the chillies, then slice each one into 3 or 4 long strips. Set to one side.
2. Place a large saucepan over a medium heat. Add 40ml of the oil, let it warm for a few seconds, then add the mustard seeds and 20 curry leaves. Let them crackle for a few seconds.
3. Add the onions and sauté lightly for 12–14 minutes, until soft but not coloured.
4. Add the garlic and ginger pastes, salt, black pepper and turmeric and sauté for 3 minutes, stirring regularly. Add the sliced chillies and ginger matchsticks and cook for 3 minutes.
5. Pour in the coconut milk and cream and simmer for 20 minutes, stirring occasionally.
6. While the curry is simmering, place a small frying pan over a medium-high heat and add the remaining 1 tbsp oil. Toss in the rest of the curry leaves and fry for 1 minute, until crisp. Drain on kitchen paper and set aside.
7. Add the prawns and tomatoes to the sauce and simmer gently for a further 5–6 minutes, until the prawns are cooked; do not overcook or they will be tough.
8. Serve scattered with the fried curry leaves, with lemon wedges on the side.

Puff Pastry Salmon (salmon Wellington) 2 servings

European · Tasty

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml Butter
- 2 clove Garlic — chopped
- 0.5 medium Onion — chopped
- 150 g Fresh spinach
- 5 ml Salt
- 5 ml Pepper
- 80 ml Bread crumbs
- 125 g Cream cheese
- 25 g Shredded parmesan cheese
- 30 ml Fresh dill
- 1 Sheet puff pastry — thawed to room temperature
- 1 Salmon fillet
- 5 ml Salt
- 5 ml Pepper
- 1 Egg — beaten

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 218°C (220°C).
2. In a pan over medium heat, melt butter. Add the garlic and onions, cooking until translucent, about 5 minutes.
3. Add the spinach, salt, and pepper, cooking until spinach is wilted, about 1 minute.
4. Add the breadcrumbs, cream cheese, parmesan, and dill, stirring until mixture is evenly combined. Remove from heat and set aside.
5. On a cutting board, smooth out the sheet of puff pastry. Place the salmon in the middle of the pastry and season both sides with salt and pepper.
6. Place several spoonfuls of the spinach mixture on top of the salmon, smoothing it out so that it does not spill over the sides.
7. Fold the edges of the puff pastry over the salmon and spinach, starting with the longer sides and then the shorter ends. Trim any excess pastry from the ends, then fold the ends on top. Flip the puff pastry-wrapped salmon over and transfer for a baking sheet lined with parchme...
8. Brush the beaten egg on the top and sides of the pastry. Score the top of the pastry with a knife, cutting shallow diagonal lines to create a crosshatch pattern.
9. Brush the top again with the egg wash.
10. Bake for 20-25 minutes, until pastry is golden brown.
11. Slice, then serve!
12. Enjoy!

Ramp Kimchi 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Ramps
- 4 large Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 45 ml Gochujang
- 45 ml Sugar
- 20 ml Kosher salt
- 15 ml Fish sauce
- 15 ml Reduced-sodium soy sauce
- 10 ml Finely grated peeled ginger
- 0.5 large Head napa cabbage — cut into 1" pieces (about 6 cups)
- 0.5 medium Daikon (japanese white radish) — peeled, halved lengthwise, thinly sliced into half-moons (about 1 0.5 cups)
- Cheesecloth

METHOD

1. Separate ramp stems and greens from bulbs; chop bulbs; set aside.
2. Whisk garlic, gochujang, sugar, salt, fish sauce, soy sauce, ginger, and 1 Tbsp. water in large bowl until smooth. Add cabbage, daikon, and reserved ramp bulbs, stems, and leaves and toss to combine. Massage vegetables with your fingers to lightly crush and release liquid.
3. Transfer mixture to a large glass jar, leaving at least 2" headspace. Pack down vegetables to eliminate air gaps and submerge in liquid. Cover jar with cheesecloth and secure with a large rubber band.
4. Let sit out of direct sunlight at room temperature, packing down vegetables once a day to keep submerged, until kimchi tastes tangy and releases bubbles when stirred, 3–5 days. Move to a smaller jar if needed; discard cheesecloth. Cover with a lid and chill.
5. Do ahead: Kimchi can be made 1 month ahead. Keep chilled.

Republic Of The Rio Grande Grilled Tuna And Grapefruit Supreme Salad 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 1/2 Texas red grapefruits
- 15 ml White wine vinegar
- 180 ml Olive oil
- 1 clove Garlic — minced
- 1 ml Salt
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 5 ml Minced jalapeño pepper
- 4 Tuna steaks — 6 to 8 ounces each
- 1.4 L Mixed salad greens
- 30 ml Chopped fresh cilantro leaves
- 8 Red onion slices

METHOD

1. Peel and segment 2 grapefruits; set aside. Squeeze the juice from the other half grapefruit into a measuring cup; it should yield about 1/4 cup of juice.
2. To make the salad dressing, combine the grapefruit juice, vinegar, oil, garlic, salt, freshly ground black pepper to taste, and minced jalapeño in a medium bowl; mix well. Cover and refrigerate the salad dressing.
3. Place the tuna steaks in a shallow dish. Pour 1 tablespoon of dressing over each piece of tuna. Turn the tuna in the marinade to coat. Cover with plastic wrap, or place all of the tuna steaks and marinade in a plastic bag, and refrigerate for 1 hour.
4. Light the grill. Remove the tuna from the refrigerator and allow to come to room temperature. Grill for about 4 minutes per inch of thickness for rare, 6 minutes for medium or until done to taste, turning at least once.
5. To serve, toss the greens with the salad dressing in a mixing bowl. Divide the dressed greens among 4 plates. Top each with a grilled tuna steak, then sprinkle with freshly ground black pepper. Spread grapefruit supremes over the top of the salad. Garnish with the cilantro and...

Rice Noodles With Shrimp And Coconut-lime Dressing 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 90 ml Unsweetened coconut milk
- 45 ml Fresh lime juice
- 25 ml Fish sauce
- 15 ml Finely grated shallot
- 15 ml Light brown sugar
- 60 ml Vegetable oil
- 225 g Dried rice stick noodles
- Kosher salt
- 350 g Peeled cooked deveined medium shrimp
- 1 Persian cucumber — very thinly sliced
- 480 ml Trimmed watercress
- 240 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems
- 1 Fresno — serrano, or Thai chile, very thinly sliced
- 70 g Crushed salted — roasted peanuts

METHOD

1. Whisk coconut milk, lime juice, fish sauce, shallot, and brown sugar in a small bowl until smooth. Gradually add oil, whisking constantly until emulsified; set aside.
2. Cook noodles in a large saucepan of boiling salted water according to package instructions until tender (you want them to be a little more cooked than al dente since they are served cold). Drain; rinse under cold water, then drain again.
3. Toss noodles, shrimp, cucumber, watercress, and cilantro in a large bowl with three-quarters of reserved dressing to combine and evenly coat; season with salt. Top with chiles and peanuts and drizzle remaining dressing over.
4. Do Ahead: Dressing can be made 1 day ahead. Cover and chill.

Rock Shrimp Pasta With Spicy Tomato Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 1 28 -ounce can whole peeled tomatoes — preferably San Marzano, drained
- 80 ml Olive oil — plus more for drizzling
- 0.5 medium Fennel bulb — fronds reserved, core removed, bulb thinly sliced
- 8 Garlic cloves — smashed
- 1 Fresno chile — very thinly sliced, divided
- 60 ml Dry white wine
- 350 g Strozzapreti or casarecce
- Kosher salt
- 450 g Rock shrimp or 1 small shrimp — peeled
- 30 ml Unsalted butter

METHOD

1. Set a fine-mesh sieve over a medium bowl. Working over sieve, squeeze tomatoes to release juices and break up flesh. Let tomatoes drain in sieve, collecting juices in bowl, until ready to use.
2. Heat ■ cup oil in a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot over medium. Cook fennel, garlic, and half of chile, stirring often, until garlic is golden and fennel is starting to brown around the edges, 5–8 minutes. Transfer fennel mixture with a slotted spoon to a small bowl.
3. Increase heat to high; cook drained tomatoes in same pot, stirring occasionally, until broken down and starting to brown, about 5 minutes. Add wine, scraping up browned bits, and cook until almost completely evaporated, about 1 minute. Add fennel mixture and collected tomato j...
4. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until very al dente, about 3 minutes less than package directions.
5. Using a spider or a slotted spoon, transfer pasta to pot with sauce; add shrimp and ½ cup pasta cooking liquid. Cook, tossing often, until pasta is al dente and coated in sauce and shrimp are cooked through, about 3 minutes. Thin sauce with more pasta cooking liquid if needed;...
6. Divide pasta among bowls. Top with fennel fronds and remaining chile and drizzle with oil.

Rock Shrimp Tempura (pan-fried) 4 servings

Asian · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Egg yolk
- 10 ml Chili-garlic sauce
- 5 ml Rice vinegar
- 1 ml Sea salt
- 2 dash Ground black pepper
- 45 ml Olive oil
- 180 ml Ice water
- 180 ml All-purpose flour
- 1 Egg yolk
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 450 g Rock shrimp

METHOD

1. To make the dipping sauce: Whisk egg yolk, chili-garlic sauce, rice vinegar, sea salt, and black pepper together in a bowl. Pour in 3 tablespoons oil slowly, whisking constantly, until sauce is creamy.
2. To make the batter: Whisk ice water, flour, and egg yolk together in a large bowl to make batter.
3. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Dip some shrimp in batter, letting excess drip off, and cook in hot oil until browned on both sides, 3 to 5 minutes. Drain on paper towels. Repeat with remaining olive oil and shrimp.

- 2 Lemongrass stalks
- 15 ml . virgin coconut oil
- 8 Makrut (thai) lime leaves or zest of 2 limes
- 2 13.5 -oz. cans unsweetened coconut milk
- 30 ml . fish sauce
- 5 ml . sugar
- 2 Limes — divided
- Cilantro leaves with tender stems — for serving

METHOD

1. Cut 1½ lb. skinless salmon fillet into 1" pieces. Place in a large bowl and season with 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton kosher salt.
2. Trim tough stems off 8 oz. mixed mushrooms (such as shiitake, oyster, maitake, and/or nameko). Slice shiitake mushrooms ¼" thick. Tear oyster, maitake, and/or nameko mushrooms into small clusters. Add to bowl with salmon.
3. Trim root end from ½ medium onion; peel and discard skin. Coarsely chop onion and transfer to a medium bowl. Smash, peel, and coarsely chop 3 garlic cloves. Transfer to bowl with onion.
4. Using a spoon or vegetable peeler, remove skin from one 3" piece ginger. (A spoon works well to reach all the nooks and crannies.) Thinly slice into rounds and add to bowl with onion.
5. Cut 1–3 red or green Thai or serrano chiles in half lengthwise (use 1 for mildly spicy, 2 for medium, or 3 if you want sweat beading on your forehead) and place in a small bowl.
6. Remove tough outer layers from 2 lemongrass stalks, revealing the softer, pale yellow stalk. Trim off top two thirds of stalk and discard (or save to use for tea). Slice lemongrass into thin rings, then finely chop; add to bowl with chiles.
7. Heat 1 Tbsp. virgin coconut oil in a large Dutch oven or other heavy pot over medium heat. Add onion, garlic, and ginger and cook, stirring occasionally, until softened and fragrant, about 3 minutes. Add chiles and lemongrass, 8 makrut (Thai) lime leaves or zest of 2 limes, tw...
8. Add salmon and mushrooms to pot, increase heat to medium-high, and return to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer, until salmon is just cooked through and starting to flake and mushrooms are softened, 8–10 minutes. Gently stir in 2 Tbsp. fish sauce and 1 tsp. sugar. Sl...
9. Ladle soup into bowls. Cut remaining lime into wedges. Tear or coarsely chop cilantro leaves with tender stems. Serve soup with lime wedges and cilantro on the side.

· 1 Boned — skinned salmon fillet
· 2.5 ml Smoked paprika
· 1 Egg — beaten
· 120 ml Mayonnaise
· 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
· 10 ml Dijon mustard
· 2.5 ml Dried dill

METHOD

1. Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add onion; cook and stir until translucent, about 5 minutes. Add mushrooms and 1 teaspoon garlic; cook and stir until mushrooms are soft, about 5 minutes. Season with salt and black pepper. Transfer onion and mushroom ...
2. Heat remaining 1 tablespoon oil in the same skillet. Add remaining 1 teaspoon garlic; cook and stir until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add spinach; cook and stir until wilted, 3 to 5 minutes. Season with salt and black pepper. Transfer to another bowl.
3. Preheat oven to 177°C (175 degrees C). Line a glass baking dish with parchment paper.
4. Dust work surface with flour. Lay 1 puff pastry sheet out on work surface; spread onion and mushroom mixture evenly across pastry, leaving a 1/2-inch border. Center salmon on top; sprinkle paprika over salmon and top with wilted spinach.
5. Cover with second puff pastry sheet. Fold over and crimp edges to seal. Brush top with beaten egg. Transfer to prepared baking dish.
6. Bake in the preheated oven until pastry is golden, 40 to 45 minutes. Let cool briefly, then slice into 4 portions.
7. To make the sauce: Whisk mayonnaise, lemon juice, Dijon mustard, and dill together in a small bowl.
8. Spoon sauce onto 4 plates and place a piece of salmon en croûte on each.

2. Meanwhile, place currants in a small bowl. Bring vinegar to a simmer in a small saucepan and pour over currants; let sit until plumped, about 30 minutes. Drain currants.
3. Spread nduja onto crackers and top with dill, chives, and pickled currants. Sprinkle with sea salt.
4. Do Ahead: Nduja can be made 2 days ahead. Keep chilled.

Salmon Niçoise 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Small purple potatoes
- Kosher salt
- 125 g Haricots verts
- 6 large Eggs — room temperature
- 30 ml Plus 0.25 cup olive oil
- 60 ml Drained capers — patted dry
- 450 g Skin-on salmon fillet
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 4 Anchovy fillets packed in oil
- 15 ml Whole grain dijon mustard
- 2 g Sugar
- 1 Lemon
- 0.5 medium Shallot — finely chopped
- 960 ml Frisée or mâche
- 60 ml Niçoise olives — pitted

METHOD

1. Place potatoes in a medium saucepan and add cold water to cover by 1". Bring to a boil, season with salt, and cook until fork-tender, 15–20 minutes. Transfer potatoes to a plate with a slotted spoon.
2. Return water to a boil and cook haricots verts in same saucepan until crisp-tender, about 2 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer to a bowl of ice water. Chill until cold, about 3 minutes. Transfer to paper towels and pat dry.
3. Return water in pot to a boil and cook eggs, 8 minutes. Transfer eggs to bowl of ice water and chill until cold, about 5 minutes. Peel; set aside.
4. Meanwhile, heat 2 Tbsp. oil in a small saucepan over medium-high. Add capers and cook, swirling pan occasionally, until capers burst and are crisp, about 5 minutes. Transfer capers with a slotted spoon to paper towels to drain. Let oil cool; set aside.
5. Preheat oven to 425■. Rub salmon all over with reserved caper oil and place on a rimmed baking sheet; season with salt and pepper. Roast until medium-rare (fish will be slightly translucent in the center), 10–12 minutes. Let cool.

Salmon Poke Bowl 1 servings

American · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml Sushi rice
- 240 ml Water
- 45 ml Rice vinegar
- 6 g Sugar
- 3 g Salt
- 225 g Wild-caught
- 30 ml Soy sauce
- 30 ml Lemon juice
- 0.5 avocado — thinly sliced
- 0.5 cucumber — halved lengthwise and thinly sliced
- 30 ml Pickled ginger
- 1 Green onion — thinly sliced
- 5 small Sheets nori
- 1 g Toasted sesame seeds
- 1 g Black sesame seeds

METHOD

1. Add the rice to a fine mesh strainer and submerge in a bowl filled with water. Shake the rice a few times to remove excess starch.
2. Transfer the rice to a medium pot and add 1 cup (240 ml) of water. Cover the pot and bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Once boiling, reduce the heat to medium-low and simmer for 10 minutes. Remove the pan from the heat and let stand for 15 minutes.
3. Remove the lid and fluff the rice with a fork or rice paddle. Transfer the rice to a large bowl.
4. Mix together the rice vinegar, sugar, and salt and pour over the rice while still hot. Gently fold the rice to incorporate. Cover and set aside until ready to assemble the bowl.
5. Using a very sharp knife, gently slice the salmon fillet into ½-inch (1 cm) cubes. It may be easier to slice if you place the salmon in the freezer for a few minutes to help it firm up.
6. Just before assembly, place the salmon in a bowl and season with the soy sauce and lemon juice.
7. To assemble, place a few spoonfuls of rice into a medium bowl (use any leftover rice for another poke bowl or sushi). Top the rice with the seasoned salmon, avocado, cucumber, ginger, green onions, nori sheets, toasted sesame seeds, and black sesame seeds.
8. Enjoy!

Salmon Rice Bowl With Green Curry Creamed Spinach 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 275 g . fresh (or frozen — thawed) spinach
- 2 g Diamond crystal or 0.25 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
- 4 4–6 -oz. salmon fillets — preferably skinless
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 10 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 3 Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 1 1 " piece ginger — scrubbed, finely grated
- 30 ml . unsalted butter
- 15 ml . all-purpose flour
- 45 ml . thai green curry paste
- 1 ml (or more) crushed red pepper flakes
- 300 ml Heavy cream — divided
- 30 ml . (or more) fresh lime juice
- Cooked jasmine rice — for serving
- 120 ml Store-bought fried shallots
- Cilantro leaves with tender stems and lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Cook 10 oz. fresh spinach in a medium pot of boiling salted water, stirring, just until wilted and bright green, about 1 minute. Drain well. (Or, drain 10 oz. frozen spinach, thawed.)
2. Wrap spinach in a clean kitchen towel and squeeze firmly over sink to expel as much liquid as possible. Transfer to a cutting board and coarsely chop.
3. Pat four 4–6-oz. salmon fillets, preferably skinless, dry with paper towels; season on both sides with kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper. Heat 2 tsp. extra-virgin olive oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Working in batches if needed, cook salmon, undis...
4. Wipe out skillet and reduce heat to medium-low. Cook 3 garlic cloves, finely grated, one 1" piece ginger, scrubbed, finely grated, and 2 Tbsp. unsalted butter, stirring often, until butter melts and foams, about 1 minute. When foam has subsided, add 1 Tbsp. all-purpose flour t...

Salmon Rice Bowls With Coconut Broth 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 45 ml . virgin coconut oil
- 120 ml Panko
- 2.5 ml . freshly ground black pepper
- 2.5 ml . smoked paprika
- 1 ml . cayenne pepper
- 6 g Kosher salt — divided
- 4 Salmon fillets
- 30 ml . mayonnaise
- 1 can Coconut milk
- 30 ml . finely grated ginger — from one 3" piece
- 5 ml . sugar
- 8 g Kosher salt — divided
- 15 ml . fresh lime juice
- 30 ml . virgin coconut oil
- 1 can Chickpeas — kidney beans, or black beans, drained, rinsed
- 1 bunch Curly kale — stems removed, torn into small pieces
- 960 ml Steamed rice
- Lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 204°C. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium until melted. Add panko, pepper, paprika, cayenne, and 1/2 tsp. salt. Cook, stirring constantly, until panko is golden brown, 2–3 minutes. Transfer to a paper-towel-lined plate. Wipe skillet clean; reserve for bean...
2. Line a quarter sheet pan or other small rimmed baking dish with parchment paper, then arrange salmon fillets skin side down; season with remaining 3/4 tsp. salt. Using a small spoon or offset spatula, spread mayonnaise across salmon, then sprinkle spiced panko over, pressing l...
3. Heat coconut milk, ginger, sugar, 1 tsp. salt, and 1/4 cup water in a small pot over medium and bring to a boil. Immediately remove from heat and stir in lime juice.
4. Heat oil in reserved skillet over medium until melted. Add beans and kale, then cover pan and cook, stirring once halfway through, until kale is wilted, 2–3 minutes. Season with remaining 1/2 tsp. salt and stir to combine.
5. Divide rice among bowls, then top with beans and greens mixture. Using a fish spatula, lift each fillet up off its skin—the skin will stick to the paper—and arrange in each bowl. Pour in coconut broth. Serve with lime wedges alongside.

Salmon Rillettes 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 480 ml Dry white wine
- 15 ml Minced shallot
- 450 g Skinless salmon fillet — preferably wild
- 85 g Smoked salmon
- 120 ml (or more) mayonnaise
- 30 ml Thinly sliced fresh chives
- 15 ml (or more) fresh lemon juice
- Fine sea salt and freshly ground white pepper
- 1 Baguette — thinly sliced, toasted

METHOD

1. Bring wine and shallot to a boil in a small saucepan over high heat. Reduce heat to low; add salmon. Gently poach until salmon is barely opaque in center, about 5 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer to a paper towel-lined plate to drain. Strain poaching liquid through a f...
2. Add smoked salmon, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, chives, and 1 Tbsp. lemon juice to salmon and shallot. Gently mix just to combine (salmon will break up a little, but do not overmix or a paste will form). Season to taste with salt, pepper, and more mayonnaise and lemon juice, if desired...
3. Serve rillettes cold with toasted slices of baguette.

Salmon Salad Niçoise 2 servings

French · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml Sherry vinegar
- 15 ml Freshly squeezed lemon juice
- 2.5 ml Dijon mustard
- 0.5 clove Garlic — minced
- 45 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 225 g Small red potatoes — cubed
- 0.5 bag Haricot verts or tender young green beans
- 0.5 medium Green bell pepper — cut into thin strips
- 7 Leaves bibb lettuce
- 8 Pitted kalamata olives — halved lengthwise
- 240 ml Cherry tomatoes — halved lengthwise
- 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- Salt to taste
- 150 g Cooked salmon — flaked
- 1 large Hard-boiled egg

METHOD

1. To make the vinaigrette: Combine sherry vinegar, lemon juice, Dijon mustard, and minced garlic in a small bowl; stir briskly. Whisk in olive oil, 1 tablespoon at a time, until well combined. Season with salt and pepper; set aside.
2. Place potatoes in a large pot and cover with salted water; bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer for 10 minutes. Add green beans and boil until beans are bright-green and tender crisp, 5 to 8 minutes.
3. Sieve out green beans and place in an ice bath to stop the cooking process. Drain and place in a large bowl.
4. Drain potatoes, cool slightly, slice in half, and add to the bowl with the green beans. Add bell pepper and drizzle vinaigrette on top; toss until vegetables are well coated.
5. Line a serving plate with lettuce leaves and arrange prepared potatoes, green beans, and pepper strips on top. Evenly place olive halves around the salad.
6. Lightly toss sliced cherry tomatoes with olive oil and salt; arrange around the plate. Place salmon on top of salad. Slice egg in half, and place one half of the egg on each side of the plate. Serve.

METHOD

1. Toss shallot, lemon zest, and lemon juice in a small bowl to combine; season with salt and pepper. Let sit 5 minutes.
2. Toss salmon, tarragon, and 1 Tbsp. chives in a medium bowl to combine. Drizzle with oil (just enough to barely coat the fish; about 2 tsp. should suffice), season with salt and pepper, and gently mix to coat. Add shallot mixture and toss to combine. Spoon over crackers and top...

Salmon Teriyaki 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Sake
- 60 ml Mirin — sweet Japanese rice wine
- 60 ml Soy sauce
- 15 ml Vegetable oil
- 4 6 -ounce skin-on — boneless salmon fillets (about 1 inch thick)
- Kosher salt

METHOD

1. Combine ½ cup sake, ¼ cup mirin, and ¼ cup soy sauce in a small bowl; set teriyaki sauce aside. → Wait, what is mirin, anyways?
2. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet over medium-high. Season 4 salmon fillets lightly with salt.
3. Working in batches and adding more oil if needed, cook, skin side down, until skin is brown and crisp, about 4 minutes. Turn and cook until other side is just beginning to brown, about 2 minutes. Transfer to a plate.
4. Pour off fat in skillet. Bring teriyaki sauce to a boil in skillet over medium heat. Cook until reduced by two-thirds, about 4 minutes. → Homemade teriyaki sauce is a complete game-changer
5. Add salmon, skin side up, and cook, spooning sauce over, until sauce is syrupy and salmon is just cooked through, about 2 minutes.
6. Transfer to platter and serve with white rice, noodles, or a simple salad.

Salmon Teriyaki Onigiri 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 375 g Short-grain sushi rice (preferably koshihikari) — rinsed until water runs clear
- 1 8 -oz. skin-on salmon fillet — about 1" thick
- Kosher salt
- 15 ml . potato starch or cornstarch
- 15 ml . plus 2 tsp. soy sauce or tamari
- 15 ml . dark brown sugar
- 15 ml . mirin
- 15 ml . cooking sake — plus more for pan
- 15 ml . vegetable oil
- 8 2 "-wide strips toasted nori

METHOD

1. Bring 2 cups short-grain sushi rice, rinsed until water runs clear, and 2½ cups water to a boil in a medium saucepan, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat to low, cover pan, and cook until water is absorbed, 12–14 minutes. Remove from heat and let sit (still covered) 15 minutes....
2. Meanwhile, pat one 8-oz. skin-on salmon fillet (about 1" thick) dry and season with kosher salt on both sides. Sift 1 Tbsp. potato starch or cornstarch through a fine-mesh sieve over salmon, turning to coat both sides. Stir 1 Tbsp. plus 2 tsp. soy sauce or tamari, 1 Tbsp. dark...
3. Heat 1 Tbsp. vegetable oil in a medium heavy skillet over medium-high. Cook salmon, skin side down, gently pressing down on fish with a spatula, until skin is golden brown, about 5 minutes. Turn over and cook until flesh side is browned, about 4 minutes. Add a splash of cookin...
4. Remove skin from salmon; discard or enjoy as a cook's treat. Transfer flesh to a medium bowl and flake with a fork. Spoon sauce over and mix, breaking up salmon, until incorporated and mixture is mostly homogeneous. Let salmon filling cool completely.
5. Set up a workstation with a small bowl of water, a small bowl of salt, cooked rice (it should still be warm but cool enough to handle), salmon filling, and eight 2"-wide strips toasted nori.
6. To make 1 onigiri, scoop ½ cup rice onto work surface. Dip your hands in water to moisten, then rub with a little salt. (This prevents the rice from sticking to your hands and also flavors the onigiri.) Cupping rice in your nondominant hand, make a shallow well in center of ri...
7. Place rice ball back on work surface and press to flatten slightly. Using the flat side of a wet chef's knife, gently push ball into a triangle shape. Wrap a strip of nori around 1 side. Repeat with remaining rice, salmon filling, and nori. Do ahead: Onigiri (without nori) can...

Salmon Wellington

British · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Salmon fillets
- 15 ml Kosher salt
- 1 ml Ground black pepper
- 360 ml Mayonnaise
- 120 ml Dijon mustard
- 5 ml Dried oregano
- 5 ml Chopped fresh basil leaves
- 10 ml Dried dill weed
- 5 ml Lemon zest
- 5 ml Chopped fresh thyme
- 180 ml Crumbled feta cheese
- 240 ml Frozen chopped spinach
- 1 pkg Frozen puff pastry — thawed
- 1 Egg white — beaten
- 15 ml Water
- Lemon wedges

METHOD

1. Pat salmon fillet dry with paper towels. Sprinkle salt and pepper on both sides of salmon fillet.
2. Mix mayonnaise, mustard, oregano, basil, dill, lemon zest, and thyme in a small bowl. Set aside ½ of the mixture for serving.
3. Spread remaining mixture on the top of salmon fillet.
4. Unfold puff pastry on a lightly floured surface. Use your fingers to even out the folds in the pastry.
5. Spread spinach in center of pastry in a rectangle the size of the fillet, and sprinkle with feta cheese.
6. Place salmon, mayonnaise-side down, on top of feta cheese.
7. Beat egg and water together in small bowl. Brush the edges of pastry with egg wash to ensure the puff pastry is “glued” together.
8. Lift edges of pastry and slightly stretch to enclose the salmon.
9. Pinch edges to seal. Place the bundle, seam-side down, on prepared baking sheet. Brush egg wash on tops and sides of pastry.
10. Cut several small slits in top of pastry to allow steam to escape.
11. Bake in preheated oven until pastry is golden brown, about 40 minutes. An instant-read thermometer inserted into the center of the salmon should be at least 63°C (62 degrees C). Let stand for a few minutes before serving.
12. Serve with reserved herb Dijon mixture and lemon wedges.

Salmon With Coconut Crisp 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 75 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided

Salmon With Hot Sauce Vinaigrette And Pickled Veg 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 5–6 -ounce skin-on — boneless salmon fillets
- Kosher salt
- 30 ml Vegetable oil
- 225 g Daikon — red radishes, carrots, and/or cucumbers
- 30 ml Seasoned rice vinegar
- 45 ml Mild hot sauce
- 30 ml Fresh lime juice
- Cooked rice — for serving
- 240 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems
- 60 ml Sliced chives

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 250°. Place salmon, skin side down, on a rimmed baking sheet; season with salt and coat flesh lightly with oil. Bake until just cooked through (flesh will flake easily but still be slightly firm in the very center), 20–25 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, place daikon or whatever vegetables you're using in a small bowl and season with salt. Massage gently with your hands to soften. Drain off any liquid that forms. Add vinegar and toss to coat. Cover and chill until ready to use (this will help vegetables stay firm).
3. Whisk hot sauce, lime juice, and 2 Tbsp. oil in a small bowl. Season vinaigrette with salt.
4. Divide rice among bowls. Break up salmon into pieces and arrange on top. Drizzle vinaigrette over. Add cilantro and chives to vegetables; spoon over salmon.

Salmon With Potato Salad And Horseradish Yogurt 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Small yukon gold potatoes — scrubbed, sliced 0.5-inch thick
- Kosher salt
- 700 g Skin-on salmon fillet
- 30 ml Olive oil
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 4 ml Caraway seeds — coarsely chopped
- 60 ml Olive oil
- 15 ml White wine vinegar
- 3 Scallions
- 15 ml Torn tarragon
- 15 ml Finely grated peeled horseradish
- 5 ml White wine vinegar
- Kosher salt
- 240 ml Plain greek yogurt
- 15 ml Olive oil
- Freshly ground black pepper
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 120 ml Vegetable oil
- 120 ml Mixed tender herb sprigs (such as parsley — tarragon, and sage)
- 15 ml Cornstarch
- Flaky sea salt

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 250°. Place potatoes in a medium pot. Pour in water to cover and add a few generous pinches of salt. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and gently simmer until a paring knife easily pierces potatoes, 20–25 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, place salmon in a large baking dish and coat with oil. Season both sides with salt and pepper; place skin side down and sprinkle with caraway. Bake until a cake tester or thin knife blade inserted laterally through fillet meets no resistance, 25–30 minutes. (Fish sh...
3. Whisk oil and vinegar in a bowl big enough to hold the potatoes. Whisk half of scallions and tarragon into dressing. Set remaining scallions and tarragon aside for serving.
4. Combine horseradish, vinegar, and a large pinch of salt in a small bowl; let sit 5 minutes. Whisk in yogurt and oil; season with salt and pepper.
5. As soon as potatoes are done cooking, drain and add to bowl with dressing. Toss to coat and season with kosher salt and pepper.
6. Heat oil in a large saucepan over medium. Toss herbs and cornstarch in a fine-mesh sieve. Test oil temperature by adding an herb leaf. The oil should sizzle intensely (it may spatter) and the leaf should darken on contact. Fry herbs in batches until crisp and vibrant green, ab...
7. Dress salmon with fried herbs and sea salt. Toss potatoes to redistribute dressing and top with sea salt and reserved scallions and tarragon. Serve salmon with potatoes and horseradish yogurt alongside.

- 6 6 -ounce salmon fillets with skin
- 30 ml Vegetable oil
- 3 Garlic cloves — minced
- 225 g Sugar snap peas
- 20 ml Chinese rice wine or dry sherry
- 720 ml Pea tendrils or pea sprouts — about 6 ounces
- 5 ml Asian sesame oil

METHOD

1. Line rimmed baking sheet with foil. Coat with nonstick spray. Whisk chili sauce, 2 tablespoons soy sauce, and 1 tablespoon ginger in small bowl. Place salmon fillets, skin side down, on prepared sheet. Spoon chili sauce marinade over and let stand at room temperature 30 minutes.
2. Preheat broiler. Spoon any marinade remaining on baking sheet over salmon fillets. Broil salmon without turning until browned in spots and almost opaque in center, 6 to 10 minutes, depending on thickness of fillet.
3. Meanwhile, heat vegetable oil in wok or heavy large skillet over medium-high heat. Add remaining 1 tablespoon ginger and minced garlic; stir until aromatic, about 30 seconds. Add sugar snap peas and stir until crisp-tender, about 2 minutes. Add remaining 1 tablespoon soy sauce...
4. Place 1 salmon fillet on each plate. Spoon warm pea mixture over salmon fillets and serve.

Salt And Pepper Fish 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml Short-grain sushi rice
- 8 Scallions — dark green parts and white parts separated
- 15 ml . finely grated peeled ginger — from about one 1” piece
- 45 ml . neutral oil — divided
- 700 g Skinless — boneless cod, cut into 2” pieces
- 15 ml . unseasoned rice vinegar
- 5 ml . sugar
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 30 ml . unsalted butter — cut into pieces

METHOD

1. Rinse rice in several changes of cold water in a medium bowl until water runs clear. Drain well, then transfer to a small saucepan. Pour in 1¼ cups cold water and bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Give rice a stir so grains don’t stick to the bottom. Cover pot and reduce ...
2. Meanwhile, thinly slice dark green scallion parts into rounds. Thinly slice white parts on a steep diagonal. Keep separated.
3. Mix ginger and 2 Tbsp. oil in a medium bowl. Add cod; season with salt and plenty of pepper (about 2 tsp.). Toss to coat.
4. Heat remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Add cod and cook, undisturbed, until golden underneath, about 2 minutes. Turn fish pieces, then scatter white scallion parts over. Cook, shaking the pan a bit, until fish is cooked through and some scalli...
5. Stir vinegar and sugar in a small bowl until sugar dissolves. Stir into rice. Add butter and sliced scallion greens; gently stir until butter melts. Season with salt.
6. Transfer rice to a platter and top with fish; pour any pan juices over.

Salt-baked Salmon With Citrus And Herbs 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 5–6 -lb. head- and tail-on salmon or arctic char — cleaned
- 2.9 kg Kosher salt (from about one 48-oz. box) — plus more
- 1 Grapefruit — thinly sliced
- 2 Lemons — thinly sliced
- 0.5 bunch Dill
- 0.5 bunch Tarragon
- 1 small Shallot — finely chopped
- 120 ml Dry white wine
- 175 g (1 0.5 sticks) chilled unsalted butter — cut into pieces
- 30 ml Crème fraîche
- 5 ml Finely grated grapefruit zest
- 5 ml Fresh grapefruit juice
- 5 ml Finely grated lemon zest
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- Kosher salt
- 240 ml Fresh parsley leaves with tender stems
- 80 ml Fresh dill leaves
- 80 ml Fresh tarragon leaves
- 30 ml Chopped capers
- 10 ml Caraway seeds
- Salmon will be closer to 5 lb.; arctic char closer to 6 lb. not all shops will have whole fish this large on hand; call ahead so they can order it.

METHOD

1. Place a rack in the center of oven and preheat to 400°. Season inside of salmon with salt. Stuff with one-third of grapefruit slices, lemon slices, dill sprigs, and tarragon sprigs.
2. Mix 10 cups salt and 1½ cups water in a large bowl, adding more water as needed, until mixture is the texture of wet sand. Spread a thin layer of salt mixture on a rimmed baking sheet roughly the same shape and size as fish.
3. Top salt mixture with another third of grapefruit and lemon slices and dill and tarragon sprigs; set salmon on salt bed and top with remaining citrus and herbs. Pack remaining salt mixture over fish, leaving head and tail peeking out.
4. Roast salmon until just cooked through (poke a paring knife or metal skewer though the salt and into the flesh; it should feel warm to the touch when removed), 40–50 minutes.
5. While salmon is cooking, simmer shallot and wine in a small saucepan until only 2 Tbsp. liquid remains, 8–10 minutes. Whisking constantly, add butter a piece at a time, incorporating completely before adding the next piece, to make a glossy, emulsified sauce.
6. Whisk crème fraîche, grapefruit zest, grapefruit juice, lemon zest, and 1 tsp. lemon juice into sauce; season with salt. Reduce heat to low and keep sauce warm while you finish the dish.
7. Remove salmon from oven and using a knife or the edge of a fish spatula, crack salt crust and remove (it should come off in large pieces); let salmon sit 5 minutes before serving.
8. Meanwhile, toss parsley, dill, tarragon, capers, caraway seeds, and remaining 2 tsp. lemon juice in a medium bowl; season herb salad with salt.
9. Serve salmon with beurre blanc and herb salad.

Scallop Aguachile 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 Tomatillos (about 6 ounces) — husks removed, rinsed, coarsely chopped
- 1 Serrano chile or jalapeño — seeds removed, chopped
- 30 ml Fresh lime juice
- 0.5 small White onion — thinly sliced into rings, divided
- 120 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems — plus more for serving
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 350 g Sea scallops — about 12
- 0.5 hothouse english cucumber — thinly sliced
- Olive oil — for drizzling
- Flaky sea salt

METHOD

1. Process tomatillos, chile, lime juice, half of onion, and ½ cup cilantro in a food processor until a not completely smooth, spoonable sauce forms (you should still be able to see flecks of cilantro). Season with kosher salt and pepper.
2. Thinly slice scallops crosswise into thirds so you’ve got three thin, round slices out of each scallop. Divide among shallow bowls and spoon some sauce over and around scallops. Top with cucumber, remaining onion, and more cilantro. Drizzle with oil and sprinkle with sea salt.

Scalloped Potato–crusted Rib Eye 6 servings

European · Tasty · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 medium White onion — finely diced
- 350 g Crimini mushroom — minced
- 960 ml Fresh spinach — chopped
- 20 ml Garlic — minced, divided
- Salt — to taste
- Pepper — to taste
- 900 g Boneless ribeye roast
- 45 ml Canola oil
- 225 g Prosciutto — sliced
- 60 ml Mayonnaise
- 2.5 ml Dried thyme
- 15 ml Lemon juice
- 2 large Russet potatoes — washed and peeled
- 200 g Grated parmesan cheese — divided, plus more for sprinkling

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 350■F (180■C).
2. Pour 1 tablespoon of oil into a medium skillet over medium heat and sauté the onion, mushrooms, and spinach for about 5-7 minutes, or until the onions begin to turn translucent. Add 1 tablespoon of garlic, salt, and pepper and cook, stirring occasionally, until all the liquid ...
3. Generously season the rib eye all over with salt and pepper. Heat the oil in a medium skillet over medium-high heat. Sear the meat for 3-5 minutes on all sides, until a crust has formed all over. Let rest on a wire rack for 10 minutes.
4. Arrange overlapping sheets of plastic wrap until you have a surface twice the length and width of the rib eye. Lay overlapping strips of prosciutto on the plastic in an even layer, making sure the prosciutto sheet is large enough to cover the rib eye. Spread the cooled mushroo...
5. In a small bowl, stir together the mayonnaise, remaining ½ tablespoon minced garlic, ½ teaspoon salt, the thyme, and lemon juice. Generously brush the rib eye with the garlic mayo, then place the rib eye in the center of the prosciutto-mushroom sheet.
6. Keeping everything even and tight, wrap the rib eye with the prosciutto, using the plastic wrap to help wrap it tightly and to seal the ends. Tuck the ends of the plastic wrap underneath the wrapped rib eye to keep its shape and chill in the refrigerator for 30 minutes.
7. Using a knife or mandoline, carefully cut the potatoes into slices ■-inch (3 mm) thick and lay on paper towels. Sprinkle the potato slices with salt and let sit for 10 minutes to draw out any excess moisture. Pat the potatoes dry.
8. Evenly sprinkle 1 cup (115 g) of Parmesan cheese over a parchment-lined baking sheet.
9. Arrange the potato slices in overlapping rows over the Parmesan until the pan is covered. Sprinkle the remaining cup of Parmesan evenly over the potatoes.
10. Bake for 30 minutes, until slightly golden and the potatoes are still flexible. Remove the potatoes from the oven and increase the heat to 400■F (200■C).
11. Place the chilled, prosciutto-wrapped rib eye in the center of the potato sheet. Fold the potatoes over the rib eye and peel back the parchment. Sprinkle Parmesan under the seam (it will help seal the potato layer) and all over the top.
12. Loosely cover the pan with foil and bake for 30 minutes. Remove the foil and bake for 20 minutes more, or until the potatoes are golden brown and the internal temperature of the beef is at least 57°C (57°C) for medium-rare. Rest for 10 minutes before slicing.
13. Enjoy!

Scallops With Apple Pan Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Granny smith apples
- 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 12 large Sea scallops (about 1 pound) — side muscle removed
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 15 ml Unsalted butter
- 60 ml Hearty sprouts (such as daikon or sunflower) or pea shoots

METHOD

1. Core 1 apple; cut into 1-inch cubes. Place in a blender with lemon juice and 1/4 cup water; purée until smooth. Strain juice through a fine-mesh sieve into a small bowl. Peel, core, and cut remaining apple into 1/4-inch cubes. Add to bowl. Set aside.
2. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Season scallops with salt and pepper. Working in batches, cook scallops until golden brown and just cooked through, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer to a plate; tent with foil to keep warm.

3. Add butter to skillet. Cook, scraping up browned bits from bottom of pan. Add reserved apple mixture and cook, stirring often, until juice is thickened and apple pieces are tender, about 4 minutes. Spoon over scallops; top with sprouts and season with salt and pepper.

Sea Scallops With Celery Root And Meyer Lemon Salad 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Meyer lemons — plus more for garnish, or 1 tablespoon finely grated lemon zest plus 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
- 10 ml Dijon mustard
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 15 ml Capers — soaked and drained if packed in salt, rinsed if packed in vinegar
- Fine sea salt — freshly ground black pepper
- 12 large Dry-pack sea scallops
- 15 ml Neutral oil
- 1.4 L Finely julienned peeled celery root — from about 1 softball-size celery root
- 60 ml Parsley leaves with tender stems
- Flaky sea salt

METHOD

1. Supreme lemons, reserving peel. Chop lemon flesh and transfer to a small bowl. Very finely chop peel until you have about 1 Tbsp.; add to bowl with chopped lemon. Juice remaining lemon and add 2 Tbsp. to lemon mixture, along with mustard, oil, and capers. (If you're working wi...
2. Season scallops with fine sea salt and pepper. Heat neutral oil in a nonstick pan over medium-high. Pat scallops dry and sear in pan, spacing scallops 1" apart (you may need to work in batches). Cook, undisturbed, until underside is caramel brown, about 1 minute. Turn scallops...
3. Toss celery root, parsley, and lemon mixture in a medium bowl. Season with fine sea salt and pepper, if desired. Serve salad with scallops; sprinkle with flaky sea salt and garnish with lemon wedges.

Seafood Boil 14 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 Lemons — halved
- 2 medium Sweet onions (such as vidalia®) — quartered
- 4 Serrano chiles — split in 1/2 lengthwise and seeds and membranes removed
- 2 head Garlic — peeled and halved
- 2 bunch Fresh thyme — tied with string
- 400 ml Seafood seasoning (such as old bay®) — or more to taste
- 30 ml Kosher salt
- 6 Bay leaves
- 1.4 kg Medium red potatoes
- 5 pkg Smoked kielbasa sausage — cut into 2-inch pieces
- 6 Ears sweet corn — halved
- 30 Littleneck clams — scrubbed
- 1.8 kg Jumbo shrimp — deveined
- 1.1 kg Alaskan king crab legs

METHOD

1. Fill a very large stockpot fitted with a basket insert with about 8 quarts of water, or about halfway full. Squeeze lemons into the water, tossing the halves in too. Add onions, chiles, garlic, thyme, seafood seasoning, kosher salt, and bay leaves; bring to a boil over medium-...
2. Stir potatoes into the pot and simmer for 15 to 20 minutes.
3. Next, add sausage and corn; cook another 5 minutes, making sure everything stays covered with the liquid.
4. Add clams and boil until they open, about 8 minutes. Toss in shrimp and shut off the heat. Cover the pot and let shrimp steep in the flavor for 10 minutes, adding crab in the last 5 minutes (press them into the liquid).
5. Drain and spread crab, shrimp, sausage, clams, corn, potatoes, and onions out on a newspaper-covered table or on three large serving trays. Sprinkle with a dusting of Old Bay or provide for individual use.

Seafood Chili

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Butter
- 4 Fresh tomatoes — diced
- 2 Bell peppers — chopped into 3/4 inch pieces
- 2 head Garlic — crushed
- 3 Green onions — chopped
- 1 can Kidney beans — drained
- 1 can Baby corn — drained and cut into bite-size pieces
- 2 stalk Celery — chopped
- 15 ml Chili powder
- 1 dash Lime juice — or to taste
- 1 can Whole peeled tomatoes — with liquid
- 225 g Cooked crabmeat
- 1 pinch Brown sugar — or as needed
- 1 can Hearts of palm — drained and cut into bite-size pieces
- 450 g Jumbo shrimp - peeled — deveined
- 450 g Sea scallops
- Sea salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Melt butter in large stockpot over medium-low heat; add tomatoes, bell peppers, garlic, and green onions. Cook and stir frequently until tomatoes have nearly liquefied, 30 minutes to 1 hour.
2. Stir kidney beans, baby corn, and celery into the tomato mixture; add chili powder and lime juice and season with salt and ground black pepper. Cover and cook on low, stirring occasionally, until celery is soft but still has texture, about 1 hour.
3. Stir crab meat and canned tomatoes with liquid into kidney bean mixture, breaking up tomatoes in thirds with a wooden spoon. Season with salt and pepper; add brown sugar if chili tastes too salty.
4. Stir shrimp, scallops, and hearts of palm into chili; cook until shrimp are bright pink on the outside and the meat is opaque, 2 to 3 minutes.

Seafood Risotto (risotto Ai Fruitti Di Mare) 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 600 ml Fish or vegetable stock
- 80 ml Olive oil
- 45 ml Unsalted butter
- 1 small Onion — minced (about 1/2 cup)
- 250 g Carnaroli or vialone nano rice
- 120 ml Dry white wine
- 8 small Clams — such as Manila
- 8 Mussels — scrubbed and debearded
- 125 g Squid
- 4 medium Sea scallops
- 120 ml Peeled — crushed
- 120 ml Loosely packed chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
- 2.5 ml Chopped garlic
- 15 ml Brandy
- 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 120 ml Freshly grated parmigiano-reggiano
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- N/a freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. 1. In a small saucepan, warm the fish or vegetable stock. Keep warm.
2. 2. In a large saucepan over moderately low heat, warm the olive oil. Add 1 tablespoon of the butter and the onion, and sauté, stirring occasionally, until tender (there should be no color), about 5 minutes. Add the rice and toast lightly for 1 minute without letting the rice o...
3. 3. Add the wine and cook until almost completely absorbed. Add most of the stock (it should come about 1/2 inch above the rice) and bring to a simmer. Cook the risotto, stirring occasionally, until the rice has absorbed some of the liquid, about 8 minutes.
4. 4. Add the clams, mussels, squid, scallops, and tomatoes, and continue cooking, stirring occasionally, until the seafood is cooked and the rice is al dente, about 6 minutes more. As the rice continues to absorb the liquid, add more as needed.
5. 5. Remove the risotto from the heat and add the parsley, garlic, brandy, olive oil, Parmigiano-Reggiano, if using, and the remaining 2 tablespoons butter. Stir well to release the starches and make the risotto creamy. Season to taste with salt and pepper, and serve immediately.

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml Butter — or to taste
- 30 ml Minced shallot
- 225 g Boneless — skinless sole
- 1 Skinless salmon fillet — chilled and cubed
- 125 g Shrimp - chilled — peeled, deveined
- 30 ml Plain dry breadcrumbs
- 4 large Egg whites
- 1 large Egg
- 10 ml Kosher salt
- 2 pinch Cayenne pepper — or to taste
- 30 ml Chopped italian parsley
- 30 ml Water
- 1 Lemon — juiced
- 30 ml Cold butter
- 15 ml Chopped italian parsley
- Salt to taste

METHOD

1. Melt 2 teaspoons butter in a skillet over medium-high heat. Saute shallots until soft and sweetened, about 5 minutes. Let cool to room temperature.
2. Combine sole, salmon, and shrimp in a food processor. Add bread crumbs. Pour in egg whites and whole egg. Season with kosher salt and cayenne pepper. Add the cooled shallots and parsley.
3. Cover processor and pulse on and off, starting with short pulses and transitioning to longer ones, until mixture is well blended and clumps together at the blade. Transfer mixture to a bowl, wrap in plastic wrap, and chill in the refrigerator for 1 to 2 hours.
4. Transfer 1/4 of the sausage mixture onto a piece of plastic wrap. Shape into a log with dampened fingertips. Roll in the plastic, twisting the ends to seal. Lay the log onto a piece of aluminum foil and roll it up. Twist the ends in opposite directions, but not too tightly. Fo...
5. Bring a pot of water to a simmer. Add the sausages and submerge them with a plate. Cover pot and simmer on low for 20 minutes.
6. Transfer sausages into a bowl of cold water to stop the cooking process. Let cool for 15 to 20 minutes. Remove from the water and refrigerate until ready to serve.
7. Peel foil off of the sausages over a piece of paper towel. Snip off 1 end of the plastic wrap and squeeze the sausage out through the opening. Trim off any unsightly chunks.
8. Melt remaining butter in a pan over medium heat. Cook sausages in the hot butter, turning until browned all over, 5 to 6 minutes. Reduce heat to medium-low and cover. Cook until an instant-read thermometer inserted into the sausages reads 60°C (60 degrees C), 5 to 6 minutes mo...
9. Pour water and lemon juice into the same pan and bring to a boil. Cook until reduced by 1/2, about 3 minutes. Reduce heat to low; add cold butter and parsley. Swirl pan until butter is melted; season with salt and swirl once more. Spoon sauce over the sausages.

- small Sprigs tarragon — for serving
- 0.5 crusty baguette — sliced, toasted (for serving; optional)
- Unsalted butter — room temperature (for serving; optional)

METHOD

1. Thinly slice half of fennel bulb; set aside. Coarsely chop other half. Heat 2 Tbsp. oil in a medium heavy pot over medium-low. Add chopped fennel, celery, leek, garlic, and bay leaf. Season with salt and pepper and cook, stirring occasionally, until vegetables are soft but hav...
2. Meanwhile, remove shells and heads from all but 2 prawns (keep shells and heads for making broth).
3. Once vegetables are soft, increase heat to medium and add prawn heads and shells and saffron (if using). Cook, stirring occasionally, until shells are bright pink, about 4 minutes. Add wine and bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer, stirring occasionally, until reduced by ha...
4. Remove from heat and purée mixture with an immersion blender until smooth (or let cool slightly and purée in batches in a blender). Strain broth through a fine-mesh sieve into a large measuring glass or bowl (you should have about 3½ cups).
5. Wipe out pot and heat 2 Tbsp. oil over medium. Add fennel seeds, reserved sliced fennel, and remaining tomatoes, crushing them with your hands. Season with salt and pepper and cook, stirring occasionally, until fennel is softened and seeds are toasted, about 5 minutes. Add bro...
6. Meanwhile, heat remaining 2 Tbsp. oil in a small skillet over medium-high. Season snapper and scallops with salt and pepper. Cook snapper, skin side down, pressing gently with the back of a spatula to ensure contact with pan, until skin is brown and crisp, about 4 minutes. Tur...
7. Cook scallops in same skillet (no need to wipe out) until golden brown and just cooked through, about 3 minutes per side; transfer to plate with snapper.
8. Slice squid bodies into ¼"-thick rings. Add cockles and mussels to pot with broth. Cook until they just start to open, then reduce heat to medium-low and add squid and all prawns, making sure they're submerged in the liquid. Simmer until cockles and mussels are opened and praw...
9. Divide seafood stew between bowls, placing a head-on prawn on top of each; nestle snapper and scallops into broth and scatter tarragon sprigs over. Serve with bread and butter alongside for dipping into broth, if desired. Do Ahead: Broth can be made 1 day ahead; cover and chill.

INGREDIENTS

· 30 ml Plus 1/2 cup olive oil
· 160 ml Thinly sliced trimmed ramp bulbs and slender stems plus 3 cups thinly sliced green tops
· 240 ml Freshly grated asiago cheese*
· 80 ml Marcona almonds
· 30 ml Chopped fresh tarragon
· 350 g Linguine
· 6 6 -ounce salmon fillets

METHOD

1. Heat 1 tablespoon oil in large nonstick skillet over medium heat. Add 2/3 cup ramp bulbs and stems to skillet and sauté just until soft but not browned, reducing heat if necessary to prevent browning, about 5 minutes. Transfer sautéed ramps to processor (do not clean skillet)....
2. Cook pasta in large pot of boiling salted water until just tender but still firm to bite, stirring occasionally.
3. Meanwhile, heat remaining 1 tablespoon oil in same large skillet over medium-high heat. Sprinkle salmon with salt and pepper. Add salmon to skillet and cook just until opaque in center, about 4 minutes per side.
4. Drain pasta, reserving 3/4 cup pasta cooking liquid. Return pasta to pot; add all but 1/4 cup pesto and toss to coat, adding enough pasta cooking liquid by tablespoonfuls to moisten. Season with salt and pepper. Divide pasta among plates. Top with salmon. Spread remaining 1/4 ...

Seared Salmon With Winter Vegetables And Kombu Broth 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 30 ml Vegetable oil
· 1 small Yellow onion — halved through root
· 1 bunch Small baby turnips (about 12 oz.) — greens torn into pieces, turnips peeled, quartered
· 3 large Shallots — sliced into rings
· 1 3 ” piece ginger — peeled, sliced 0.25” thick
· 85 g . kombu
· 15 ml Kosher salt
· 240 ml Dry vermouth
· 0.5 small Butternut squash (about 12 oz.) — peeled, seeded, cut into 0.5”-thick pieces
· 6 4 -oz. pieces skin-on salmon fillet
· Freshly ground black pepper
· 1 Lemon — halved

METHOD

1. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add onion, cut sides down, and cook, undisturbed, until dark brown, about 5 minutes.
2. Transfer onion to a large Dutch oven or other large pot and add turnips, shallots, ginger, kombu, 1 Tbsp. salt, and 8 cups water. Bring to a gentle simmer (do not boil or broth will be bitter) and cook until broth is light golden and onion is soft, 40–50 minutes.
3. Add vermouth to broth and simmer 5 minutes. Remove onion and kombu; discard. Add squash and simmer until just softened, 12–15 minutes. Add turnip greens and simmer, stirring occasionally, until tender, about 2 minutes.
4. Meanwhile, season salmon with salt and pepper. Heat remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Cook salmon, skin side down, until skin is very crisp, about 2 minutes. Turn salmon and cook 30 seconds longer (salmon will be rare; it will continue to cook in ...
5. DO AHEAD: Broth and vegetables (without turnip greens) can be made 1 day ahead. Reheat and add greens just before serving.

Seared Scallop Piccata 2 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 12 large Sea scallops — just over 1 lb. (U10s are the really nice big ones)
· 15 ml . kosher salt
· 5 ml . freshly ground black pepper
· 15 ml . vegetable or other neutral oil
· 30 ml . unsalted butter
· 60 ml Good dry white wine
· 60 ml Freshly squeezed lemon juice
· 30 ml . water
· 15 ml . shallot — very small dice
· 30 ml . chopped preserved lemon rind
· 15 ml . capers — rinsed thoroughly
· 10 ml . chopped fresh oregano
· 15 ml . chopped fresh flat-■leaf parsley

METHOD

1. Clean the scallops by removing the “foot,” the small adductor muscle on the side of the shellfish and pat dry with a paper towel. Season both sides with salt and pepper. Have a paper towel-■lined plate ready to go.
2. Place a large stainless-■steel or cast-■iron sauté pan over high heat and add your oil.
3. When the oil starts to shimmer, arrange your scallops in the pan, being careful not to place them close together. Make sure there is an inch between them; if your pan is not big enough to accommodate all 12, you will need to sear in two batches or two pans.
4. Lower the heat to medium-■high and sear for 1 minute without touching or moving the scallops.
5. Add 1 tablespoon of the butter to the pan. This will help brown the scallops, but you want to have already seared them and have them turning golden BEFORE you add the butter. Do NOT flip the scallops.
6. Sear for 1 more minute and turn off the heat. Remove the scallops from the pan, using tongs, and set them, seared side UP, on the paper towel-■lined plate.
7. Next, you are going to build your sauce in the pan. Turn the heat to medium and add the white wine, lemon juice, and water to the pan. Let the liquid come to a simmer.
8. Add the shallot, preserved lemon, capers, and oregano, simmer for 30 seconds, and add the remaining tablespoon of unsalted butter. Swirl around the pan to emulsify the butter and add the chopped parsley.

9. Turn off your heat and add the scallops back to the pan, uncooked side down. Let them hang out in the sauce for a minute and plate them, using tongs. Pour the sauce over the top of the scallops.

Seared Scallops 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 3 Lemons
- small Handful of chives
- 12 large Dry sea scallops
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- Extra-virgin olive oil or vegetable oil
- 45 ml Unsalted butter
- 10 ml Drained capers

METHOD

1. Cut 2 lemons in half and squeeze juice into a measuring glass or small bowl; you should have ¼ cup juice. Set aside. Using a paring knife, cut ends off remaining lemon to expose flesh. Upend lemon on a cut end and remove peel and white pith from lemons; discard. Cut between me...
2. Pull side muscle off scallops, if needed; pat dry. Season lightly on both sides with salt and pepper. Heat a large skillet, preferably stainless steel, over medium-high. Pour in oil to lightly coat surface (2–3 Tbsp.); heat until it shimmers and you see first wisps of smoke. S...
3. Pour off any oil in skillet and set over medium heat. Add butter and cook, swirling, until butter foams, then browns, about 2 minutes. Add reserved lemon juice and segments; energetically stir and swirl pan to emulsify sauce. Mix in capers and reserved chives and spoon pan sau...

Seared Scallops With Almond Vinaigrette 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Roasted almonds
- 75 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 15 ml (or more) champagne vinegar or white wine vinegar
- 15 ml Chopped fresh chives
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 8 large Sea scallops (about 9 oz.) — side muscle removed
- 15 ml Unsalted butter
- 2 sprig Thyme
- 30 ml Peach preserves
- Fresh herbs — baby arugula, or microgreens

METHOD

1. Finely chop almonds into small pieces but not into a powder. Mix almonds and 4 Tbsp. oil in a medium bowl. Whisk in 1 Tbsp. vinegar and chives; season vinaigrette with salt, pepper, and more vinegar, if desired.
2. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Season scallops with salt and pepper. Add to skillet. Cook until deep golden and caramelized, 2–3 minutes. Turn scallops; add butter and thyme. Cook, frequently tilting skillet and spooning butter over, until ...
3. Stir preserves and 1/2 tsp. water in a small bowl to loosen. For an appetizer, smear about 1/2 Tbsp. preserve mixture in center of each plate. For an entrée, smear 1 Tbsp. preserve mixture. Top with 2–4 scallops each. Drizzle some vinaigrette over. Garnish with herbs.

Sesame Seared Tuna And Sushi Bar Spinach Salad

Asian · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Baby spinach leaves
- 45 ml White sesame seeds
- 15 ml White sugar
- 15 ml Soy sauce
- 2.5 ml Mirin
- 60 ml Mayonnaise
- 10 ml White miso paste
- 15 ml Seasoned rice vinegar
- 2 Sushi-grade ahi tuna steaks
- Salt to taste
- 30 ml Black sesame seeds
- 10 ml Vegetable oil
- 15 ml Prepared ponzu sauce

METHOD

1. Place spinach in a dry pot set over medium-high heat and cook, stirring, until it just begins to wilt, 1 to 2 minutes. Transfer into a strainer to cool.
2. While spinach cools, toast white sesame seeds in a dry pan over medium heat until light golden brown. Transfer into a mortar and pestle and crush into a very coarse paste, leaving some seeds whole. Add white sugar, soy sauce, and mirin. Stir with a wooden spoon to combine and ...
3. Transfer cooled spinach to a towel and squeeze out any excess liquid. Chop roughly and add to a mixing bowl. Add the dressing and mix well. Cover and chill thoroughly before serving.

4. Mix mayonnaise, miso paste, and rice vinegar together for miso mayo sauce. Place in the refrigerator until needed.
5. Lightly salt tuna steaks, and then coat all sides well with as many sesame seeds as you like, pressing them lightly as you do.
6. Brush a nonstick pan with oil and place over medium heat. Sear tuna steaks in the hot pan for 30 to 45 seconds on each side, as well as each edges.
7. Slice and place tuna over the miso sauce. Brush tuna with ponzu and serve with spinach salad on the side.

Sesame-crusted Crab And Mango Tea Sandwiches 16 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 60 ml Plain yogurt
· 30 ml Vegetable oil
· 60 ml Fresh cilantro
· 60 ml Fresh mint
· 5 ml Kosher salt
· 1 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
· 0.5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
· 225 g Lump crabmeat
· 120 ml Mango
· 16 slice Pullman or white sandwich bread — cut 1/4-inch-thick, toasted
· 30 ml Sesame seeds

METHOD

1. Whisk yogurt and vegetable oil in a medium bowl. Stir in cilantro and mint, kosher salt, red pepper flakes, and black pepper. Fold in crabmeat and mango.
2. Thinly spread yogurt on one side of each slice of bread. Divide crab mixture among 8 slices; top with remaining bread, yogurt side down. Trim crusts. Cut each sandwich in half on a diagonal.
3. Place toasted sesame seeds on a plate, if desired. Dip one cut side of each sandwich in sesame seeds.

Sesame-crusted Salmon Bowls 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 120 ml Fresh lemon juice
· 90 ml . toasted sesame oil
· 30 ml . honey
· 30 ml . finely chopped pickled ginger
· 1 2 " piece ginger — peeled, finely grated
· 120 ml Plus 2 tsp. soy sauce
· 900 g . carrots — peeled, very thinly sliced lengthwise with a vegetable peeler
· 10 ml . diamond crystal or 1 0.25 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
· 4 Scallions — thinly sliced on a diagonal
· 4 5–6 -oz. skinless salmon fillets
· 90 ml . white and/or black sesame seeds
· 30 ml . vegetable oil
· Steamed white rice — for serving

METHOD

1. Whisk together ½ cup fresh lemon juice, 6 Tbsp. toasted sesame oil, 2 Tbsp. honey, 2 Tbsp. finely chopped pickled ginger, one 2" piece ginger, peeled, finely grated, and ½ cup soy sauce in a small bowl. Set dressing aside.
2. Toss 2 lb. carrots, peeled, very thinly sliced lengthwise with a vegetable peeler, and 2 tsp. Diamond Crystal or 1¼ tsp. Morton kosher salt in a large bowl to combine and let sit 15 minutes to allow carrots to release excess liquid.
3. Pour off any liquid that has accumulated in bowl; discard. Drizzle ¼ cup reserved dressing over carrots, add 4 scallions, thinly sliced on a diagonal, and toss to combine. Set carrot salad aside.
4. Pat four 5–6-oz. skinless salmon fillets dry with paper towels and season lightly with salt. Place on a large plate with a lip; drizzle remaining 2 tsp. soy sauce over and rub on both sides to coat. (Doing this will help the sesame seeds adhere to the salmon.)
5. Place 6 Tbsp. white and/or black sesame seeds on another large plate. Working one at a time, place salmon on top and turn to coat, pressing seeds to adhere.
6. Heat 2 Tbsp. vegetable oil in a medium skillet over medium. Working in 2 batches, cook salmon until golden brown and firm, about 5 minutes per side.
7. Transfer salmon fillets to plates and mound some steamed white rice and reserved carrot salad alongside. Serve with remaining reserved dressing.

Sexy Fish Stew 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 30 ml Butter
· 1 large Leek — cleaned and thinly sliced
· 120 ml Sliced shallots
· Salt
· 180 ml White wine
· 300 ml Chicken broth
· 450 g Baby red potatoes
· 120 ml Thinly sliced fennel bulb
· 1 pinch Cayenne pepper — or more to taste
· Salt and freshly ground pepper to taste
· 120 ml Heavy whipping cream
· 450 g Boneless rockfish filets
· 15 ml Chopped fresh tarragon

METHOD

1. Melt butter in a large saucepan over medium-low heat. Add leek, shallots, and ½ teaspoon salt; cook and stir until softened, 10 to 15 minutes.
2. Stir in wine, increase heat to medium, and cook for 2 minutes. Add chicken broth; bring to a simmer.
3. Add potatoes and fennel; simmer, stirring occasionally, until potatoes are nearly tender, about 10 minutes. Season with cayenne pepper, salt, and black pepper; stir in cream to combine.
4. Stir in fish and tarragon; cover and cook for 3 minutes. Stir gently, reduce heat to medium-low, and cook until fish flakes easily with a fork, about 5 minutes. Season with salt and black pepper.

Shaved And Seared Broccoli Salad 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 2 Zucchini — sliced lengthwise 0.25” thick
· Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
· 1 Garlic clove
· 5 ml . ground coriander
· 120 ml Olive oil
· 6 White or regular anchovy fillets packed in oil — drained
· 1 large Egg yolk
· 10 ml . crème fraîche
· 5 ml . finely grated lemon zest
· 30 ml . fresh lemon juice
· 80 ml (or more) olive oil
· Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
· 1 bunch Broccoli (about 1 0.5 lb.) — preferably with long stems
· Kosher salt
· 30 ml . olive oil
· 120 ml Baby greens or herbs (such as arugula — red mustard greens, basil leaves, or celery leaves)
· 35 g Pine nuts or shelled raw pumpkin seeds (pepitas) — toasted

METHOD

1. Prepare grill for medium-high heat. Season zucchini with salt and pepper and grill until tender and lightly charred, about 2 minutes per side. Let cool slightly, then blend zucchini, garlic, and coriander in a blender until smooth. With motor running, slowly add oil and blend ...
2. Blend anchovies, egg yolk, crème fraîche, lemon zest, and lemon juice in a blender until smooth. With motor running, slowly add oil and blend until dressing thickens, adding more oil as needed; season with salt and pepper.
3. Cut 12 4”-long florets from broccoli (you’ll need to cut through stalks). Cut remaining broccoli into bite-size florets; peel broccoli stalks and, using a mandoline or very sharp knife, thinly shave them (you should have about 1 cup).
4. Cook all florets in a large pot of boiling salted water until bright green, about 2 minutes. Drain and transfer to a colander set in a bowl of ice water; let cool. Drain; transfer to a paper towel–lined plate.
5. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Sear 4”-long florets until cut sides of stalks are golden, about 2 minutes per side. Set aside.
6. Toss shaved broccoli stalks and small broccoli florets with some of the dressing in a small bowl.
7. Spoon zucchini purée onto plates and top with broccoli; drizzle with some dressing and top with greens and pine nuts.
8. *DO AHEAD:*Zucchini purée and dressing can be made 1 day ahead. Cover and chill separately.

Shellfish Mixed Grill 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- Two 1 1/2-pound lobsters — bodies and tails split in half and gills removed (ask your fish monger to do this for you)
- 30 ml Butter
- Salt
- Freshly ground pepper
- 450 g Jumbo shrimp
- Extra virgin olive oil — for brushing
- 2 Dozen littleneck clams — scrubbed
- Tarragon-cilantro salsa verde — Sambal-Orange Vinaigrette and Chorizo-Lemon Butter , for serving

METHOD

1. Light a grill or preheat a grill pan. Arrange your grill so about half is set to high heat and half is set to moderate. Soak 6 to 8 bamboo skewers for about 15 minutes.
2. Twist off the lobster claws and use the base of a knife handle or a mallet to crack them. Arrange the lobster on a baking sheet and brush the cut sides of the bodies with some of the melted butter; season lightly with salt and pepper.
3. Thread 3 to 4 shrimp on each of the skewers, brush with olive oil, season with salt and pepper and add them to the baking sheet.

4. Grill the lobster claws over moderate heat, turning occasionally, for about 5 minutes. Add the lobster bodies to the hot side of the grill cut side down; grill just until the meat just starts to brown, about 3 minutes. Flip the lobster and transfer it to the cooler part of the...
5. Meanwhile, arrange the clams on the hot part of the grill, close the lid and grill until they pop open, 5 to 7 minutes. As each opens, transfer it to a bowl, trying to keep as much as the juice as possible.
6. Grill the shrimp over high heat until light brown grill marks form, 2 to 3 minutes. Flip and grill for 2 to 3 minutes longer, until cooked through. Transfer to the platter with the lobster and serve all of the seafood with the sauces.

Shrimp & Linguine With Piccata Compound Butter 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g . dried linguine
- 1 Stick salted butter — at room temperature
- 45 ml . fresh parsley leaves
- 1 large Lemon
- 550 g Shrimp
- 30 ml . salted butter
- 45 ml . capers
- 4 Garlic cloves
- 120 ml Dry white wine
- 5 ml . crushed red pepper flakes

METHOD

1. Zest and juice a large lemon. Roughly chop capers. Pull apart parsley leaves and roughly chop. Set aside.
2. Combine 1 stick of salted butter and all other ingredients, besides the lemon juice, together in a medium bowl. Mash the mixture with the back of a wooden spoon. Add lemon juice 1 tsp at a time until just incorporated but not wet, about 1 Tbsp total. Then, cover with plastic w...
3. Add salt to large pot of water and bring to a boil. Cook linguine to al dente package directions. Drain pasta, reserving 1/2 cup of the pasta water.
4. While the pasta cooks, season shrimp with salt and pepper.
5. Chop 4 cloves of garlic.
6. In a large Dutch oven, melt the 2 Tbsp of salted butter on medium-low heat. Add garlic and sauté until just fragrant, about 1 minute. Add the white wine, red pepper flakes, and several cracks of black pepper. Bring to a simmer and cook until wine is reduced by half, 2-3 minutes.
7. Once the wine is reduced, add the shrimp in an even layer and cook, stirring occasionally, until just opaque, 2 to 3 minutes.
8. Add the cooked linguine to the shrimp. Add the prepared piccata butter in evenly distributed dollops. Then, add ¼ cup of pasta water.
9. Toss vigorously with tongs until creamy and emulsified, adding more pasta water a bit at a time if needed. Season with salt and pepper to taste.
10. Divide between four plates.
11. Garnish with the reserved parsley, freshly cracked pepper, and serve.

- 375 g Cooked rice — or to taste
- 10 ml Sesame seeds

METHOD

1. Combine soy sauce, chicken broth, orange juice, fish sauce, rice vinegar, garlic powder, ginger powder, Sriracha sauce, and sesame oil in a large jar with a lid. Close and shake until sauce is well combined. Set aside.

2. Heat peanut oil in a large, non-stick skillet or wok over medium-high heat. Add garlic and ginger and cook, stirring, until garlic and ginger are lightly browned, 1 to 2 minutes. Remove from the hot oil with a slotted spoon and discard.

3. Add broccoli, onion, bell pepper, carrots, and snow peas to the seasoned oil and cook, stirring quickly, until vegetables are tender-crisp and brightly colored, 3 to 4 minutes. Remove to a plate and keep warm.

4. Add shrimp to the hot skillet and cook for 90 seconds. Turn shrimp and continue cooking on the other side until they are bright pink on the outside, the meat is opaque, and shrimp begin to curl into a 'C' shape, about 90 seconds longer.

5. Add stir-fried vegetables back to the skillet, and pour in sauce.

6. Mix together cornstarch and water in a small bowl and add to the sauce, stirring to remove any lumps. Keep stirring quickly, until thickener is incorporated into the entire dish. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly, then remove from heat.

7. Serve with hot, fluffy rice, and garnish with sesame seeds.

Shrimp And Cabbage Curry 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Red bell pepper — ribs and seeds removed, coarsely chopped
- 2 Red thai chiles or 1 small red fresno chile — seeds removed if desired, coarsely chopped
- 1 Lemongrass stalk — bottom third only, tough outer layers removed, finely chopped
- 4 Garlic cloves — smashed
- 1 4 " piece ginger — peeled, finely grated
- 30 ml . smoked paprika
- 10 ml . ground coriander
- 5 ml . ground cumin
- 5 ml . ground turmeric
- Kosher salt
- 45 ml . (or more) virgin coconut oil
- 0.5 medium Head of green cabbage — cut into 4 wedges through root end
- 1 13.5 -oz. can unsweetened coconut milk
- Kosher salt
- 450 g . large shrimp — shelled, deveined
- 4 Scallions — chopped
- 10 ml . finely grated lime zest
- 30 ml . fresh lime juice
- small Handful of torn tender herbs (such as cilantro — basil, and/or mint)
- Lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Blend red bell pepper, chiles, lemongrass, garlic, ginger, paprika, coriander, cumin, turmeric, and a couple of big pinches of salt in a blender until a smooth paste forms.

2. Heat oil in a large pot over medium-high. Cook cabbage until deeply browned on both cut sides, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer to a plate.

3. If pot looks dry, add another 1 Tbsp. oil. Add curry paste to pot (still over medium-high heat) and cook, stirring often, until paste is slightly darkened in color and beginning to stick to bottom of pot, about 5 minutes. Pour coconut milk and 2 cups water into pot and reduce ...

4. While the curry is cooking, coarsely chop cabbage.

5. Season shrimp with salt and add to curry. Cook, stirring, until shrimp are just cooked through, about 3 minutes. Remove pot from heat; stir in cabbage, scallions, and lime zest and juice.

6. Divide curry among bowls and top with herbs. Serve with lime wedges.

Shrimp And Coconut Curry With Rice Noodles 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- Kosher salt
- 1 3 -inch knob fresh ginger
- 1 Jalapeño
- 1 bunch Scallions — about 10
- 1 Lime
- 45 ml Vegetable oil
- 1 4 -ounce jar prepared green curry paste
- 2 13.5 -ounce cans unsweetened coconut milk
- 225 g Rice noodles
- 700 g Large shrimp — peeled, deveined
- 0.5 bunch Basil

METHOD

1. The first thing you want to do is get water boiling for your rice noodles. Fill a large saucepan three-quarters full with water and heat over high. When water starts to steam, add several large pinches of salt and cover.
2. Meanwhile, start to prep your other ingredients. Peel ginger with a vegetable peeler or spoon and slice as thinly as possible. Slice 1 jalapeño into thin rings and discard stem. Trim root ends from 1 bunch scallions. Starting at root end, cut white and light green parts into 1...
3. Heat 2 Tbsp. oil in a medium saucepan over medium. Add ginger, light parts of scallions, lime zest, and half of jalapeño. Cook, stirring often, until ginger and scallions are golden, 7–10 minutes. Season with salt.
4. Add 4 oz. curry paste and stir until paste starts to stick to bottom and is slightly darkened in color, about 3 minutes.
5. Add two 13.5-oz. coconut milk and stir to combine. Season with more salt, then reduce heat so mixture is barely simmering. Cook, stirring occasionally, until flavors are melded and curry is slightly thickened, 5–7 minutes.
6. Meanwhile, cook 8 oz. rice noodles in pot of boiling water according to package instructions. Drain noodles in a colander in the sink, rinse thoroughly under cold water, and shake off excess water. Drizzle with remaining 1 Tbsp. oil and toss to coat and prevent sticking.
7. Season 1½ lb. shrimp with salt and add to curry. Cook, stirring, until shrimp are cooked through, 2–3 minutes. Remove pot from heat and squeeze in juice from half of lime wedges.
8. Divide noodles among bowls, then ladle curry over noodles. Thinly slice remaining scallion greens and sprinkle over curry along with remaining jalapeño.
9. Pick basil sprigs and scatter over, then serve with remaining lime wedges alongside.

Shrimp And No-stir Grits 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 60 ml . unsalted butter — divided
· 5 ml . kosher salt — plus more
· 240 ml White corn grits
· 450 g . large shrimp
· 175 g . sharp white cheddar cheese
· 6 Scallions
· 2 Garlic cloves
· 85 g . bacon — about 3 medium slices
· 480 ml Cherry tomatoes
· 1 Lemon
· Hot sauce — for serving

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 325°. Bring 4½ cups water to a simmer in a large saucepan over medium-high heat. Add 3 Tbsp. butter and 1 tsp. salt and whisk to melt butter.
2. Slowly sprinkle 1 cup grits into saucepan, whisking constantly. As soon as water comes back to a boil, cover pot and transfer to oven. Set timer for 20 minutes.
3. Do a little prep while the grits are cooking. First, using a pair of clean scissors, insert one blade into head-end of shrimp and snip along backside all the way to the tail to expose the vein. Remove vein and peel shrimp (freeze the shells and save for stock!).
4. Grate 6 oz. cheese on the large holes of a box grater.
5. Trim 6 scallions on both ends, then cut crosswise into 1" pieces.
6. Smash 2 garlic cloves, peel, and finely chop.
7. Remove grits from oven (careful—handle will be hot!) and heat on stove over low. Uncover and whisk vigorously, scraping bottom, until mixture is smooth. Gradually add cheese, whisking constantly, until grits are smooth and creamy. Taste and season with more salt, then cover an...
8. Heat remaining 1 Tbsp. butter in a large skillet over low heat. Stack 3 oz. bacon slices, cut crosswise into ½" pieces, and add to skillet. Increase heat to medium-high and cook, stirring often with a wooden spoon, until fat is released and bacon is crisp around the edges, 5–8...
9. Add scallions and garlic to skillet and cook, stirring often, until scallions are softened and white parts are translucent and lightly browned, about 4 minutes.
10. Increase heat to high and add 1 pint tomatoes; season with salt. Cook, tossing occasionally, until tomatoes are starting to burst, about 2 minutes.
11. Add shrimp; season with salt. Cook, tossing often, until they turn pink and the thickest part of the spine (where you snipped to remove the vein) is opaque, about 2 minutes.
12. Remove skillet from heat and add 2 Tbsp. water. Cut 1 lemon into wedges and squeeze about 1 Tbsp. juice over shrimp. Press on back of tomatoes with a wooden spoon to release their juices and stir to combine.
13. Whisk grits again to smooth out. Spoon into shallow bowls. Top with shrimp mixture, then drizzle with hot sauce. Serve with remaining lemon wedges alongside for squeezing over.

1. Preheat oven to 375°. Finely grate zest of 1 lemon into a large bowl; set aside. Cut lemon in half. Toss 3 radishes, trimmed, thinly sliced, and 4 oz. sugar snap peas (about 1 cup), strings removed, thinly sliced on a diagonal, in a medium bowl to combine. Squeeze juice from a...
2. Place ¾ cup plain whole-milk yogurt in a small bowl and squeeze in juice from remaining lemon half. Drizzle in a little oil, add a pinch of salt, and mix together. Set yogurt sauce aside.
3. Add 2 large eggs, 2 garlic cloves, finely grated, 3 Tbsp. all-purpose flour, ½ tsp. baking powder, 1 tsp. Diamond Crystal or ½ tsp. Morton kosher salt, and 3 Tbsp. water to reserved lemon zest in bowl and whisk to combine. Mix in 4 scallions, thinly sliced, 12 oz. large shrimp...
4. Heat 2 Tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil in a medium ovenproof nonstick skillet over medium-high. Pour in shrimp batter and spread out to edges into a thin, even layer. Cook pancake until golden brown around edges, about 3 minutes. Transfer pan to oven; bake pancake until set, abou...
5. Cut pancake into wedges and top with dollops of reserved yogurt sauce, then scatter reserved salad over; season with freshly ground pepper.

Shrimp And Pimiento Cheese Grits 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
· 240 ml Medium-grind grits
· 240 ml Pimiento cheese spread
· 20 ml Sambal oelek
· 15 ml Olive oil

- 125 g Thick-cut bacon
- 450 g Large shrimp (about 20) — peeled, deveined
- 80 ml Parsley leaves with tender stems — chopped
- 10 ml Fresh lime juice

METHOD

1. Real Talk: This is the time to buy hardwood smoked thick-cut bacon to really impress your friends (if you don't see it stocked with the cold cuts, go to the butcher counter, smile wide, and ask nicely if they can slice some slab bacon for you). If bacon isn't your thing, just ...
2. Bring 2 tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper, and 4¾ cups water to a boil in a medium saucepan. Whisk in grits. Reduce heat to medium-low, cover, and cook, whisking occasionally, until grits are thick, tender, and creamy, 10–12 minutes. Increase heat to medium, stir in cheese and 2 tsp. s...
3. Meanwhile, heat oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Cook bacon, stirring occasionally, until crispy and golden brown, about 5 minutes. Transfer to paper towels. Do not eat all the bacon.
4. Increase heat to high and cook half of shrimp in same skillet until lightly browned and just cooked through, about 1 minute per side. Transfer to a medium bowl; repeat with remaining shrimp. Cut shrimp into ½" pieces; discard tails. Return shrimp to same bowl, then add parsley...
5. Divide grits mixture among bowls and top with shrimp mixture.

Shrimp And Pineapple Stir-fry

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Pineapple juice
- 60 ml Hoisin sauce
- 60 ml Low-sodium soy sauce
- 15 ml Sherry
- 15 ml Cornstarch
- 30 ml Vegetable oil
- 10 ml Sesame oil
- 450 g Large shrimp
- 480 ml Pineapple chunks — fresh or canned
- 1 medium Red bell pepper — cored and sliced vertically
- 1 medium Onion — vertically sliced
- 120 ml Snow peas
- 10 ml Minced garlic
- 1 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 2 medium Scallions — sliced diagonally
- 5 ml Sesame seeds

METHOD

1. Whisk pineapple juice, hoisin sauce, soy sauce, sherry, and cornstarch together in a small bowl until well combined; set aside.
2. Drizzle vegetable and sesame oils around the top of a wok or large skillet to coat the sides. Heat over medium-high heat for 1 minute. Pat shrimp dry with a paper towel and add to wok. Stir-fry for 1 minute on each side and transfer cooked shrimp to a clean plate.
3. Add pineapple, red bell pepper, onion, and snow peas to the wok, and stir-fry for 2 to 3 minutes. Stir in garlic and red pepper flakes, and cook until fragrant, about 30 seconds.
4. Return shrimp to the wok, and stir-fry an additional 2 minutes. Whisk stir-fry sauce a couple of times and pour over shrimp and vegetables, stirring constantly until thickened, about 1 minute.
5. Serve immediately, garnished with scallions and sesame seeds.

- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- Kosher salt
- Vegetable oil — for frying; about 8 cups
- Special equipment: a 4 0.5"-diameter cookie cutter; a deep-fry thermometer

METHOD

1. Mix warm lard, salt, vinegar, and 2 cups lukewarm water in a large bowl to combine. Gradually add 6 cups flour, mixing with a sturdy wooden spoon or your hands until a shaggy dough forms.
2. Transfer dough to a lightly floured surface and knead until mostly smooth and no dry spots remain, about 2 minutes. Wrap in plastic and chill at least 2 hours.
3. Do Ahead: Dough can be made 2 days ahead. Keep chilled.
4. Cut shrimp in half lengthwise, then finely chop (it's okay if some pieces get pasty). Set aside.
5. Heat 2 Tbsp. olive oil in a large saucepan over medium-high. Add reserved shrimp shells and heads (if using) and cook, smashing down on shells and heads occasionally with a wooden spoon, until pink and bottom of pot begins to brown, about 5 minutes. Add wine and cook until red...
6. Wipe out pan, add remaining 2 Tbsp. olive oil, and set over medium heat. Cook onion, stirring often, until softened but without taking on any color, about 5 minutes. Add garlic and cook, stirring, until softened, about 3 minutes. Add shrimp stock and reserved shrimp and cook, ...
7. Divide dough into 6 equal pieces. Cover all but 1 piece with plastic wrap and chill. Roll out remaining piece of dough to a 14" round about 1/16" thick.
8. Using cutter, punch out 6 rounds from dough. Place 1 Tbsp. filling in the center of each and brush water halfway around edge of each round.
9. Fold dry side of dough up and over filling to create a semicircle. Pinch edges to seal; crimp.
10. Transfer to a parchment-lined rimmed baking sheet. Repeat with remaining dough and filling. Chill 20 minutes.
11. Meanwhile, pour vegetable oil into a large heavy pot fitted with thermometer to come halfway up sides. Heat over medium-high until thermometer registers 350°. Working in batches and adjusting heat to maintain temperature, fry empanadas, turning often, until deep golden brown, ...
12. Do Ahead: Filling can be made 1 day ahead. Keep chilled.

Shrimp Foil Packets 4 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 240 ml Chopped fresh parsley
- 120 ml Olive oil
- 2 clove Garlic — minced
- 1 pinch Red pepper flakes — or to taste
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 450 g Uncooked medium shrimp
- 1 Sheet heavy-duty aluminum foil
- 1 Lemon — juiced

2. DO AHEAD: Achiote oil can be made 1 week ahead. Cover and chill.
3. Heat achiote oil and butter in a large skillet over medium heat. Add chiles, garlic, calamansi juice, and soy sauce and cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add shrimp, season with salt and pepper, and cook, tossing often, until shrimp are opaque throughout, about...

Shrimp In Adobo 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 6 Dried ancho chiles — stemmed
- 4 Garlic cloves
- 60 ml Apple cider vinegar
- 10 ml Kosher salt plus more for seasoning
- 2.5 ml Dried oregano
- 2.5 ml Ground cumin
- 2.5 ml Sugar
- 900 g Small or medium uncooked shrimp — preferably wild American peeled, deveined

METHOD

1. Heat a large dry cast-iron skillet over medium-high heat. Add chiles; toast, turning often, until just fragrant, about 1 minute. Let cool.
2. Using kitchen scissors and working over a medium bowl, cut chiles into 1-inch rings, reserving seeds. Cover chiles with 1/2 cup hot water; let soak, stirring occasionally, for 10 minutes.
3. Transfer chiles with seeds and soaking liquid to a blender. Add garlic, vinegar, 2 tsp. salt, oregano, cumin, and sugar and purée until a smooth, thick paste forms. Transfer adobo paste to a large bowl; add shrimp and toss until evenly coated.
4. Preheat broiler. Place shrimp on a rimmed baking sheet in an even layer. Broil, watching closely and stirring halfway through, until shrimp are just cooked through and are browned in spots, 4–5 minutes. Season with salt.

Shrimp Olivier 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 large Yukon gold potatoes (about 1 0.75 lb.) — peeled, cut into 0.25” pieces
- Kosher salt
- 2 medium Carrots — peeled, cut into 0.25” pieces
- 60 ml Fresh peas (from about 0.25 lb. pods) or frozen peas — thawed
- 450 g Peeled rock shrimp or bay shrimp
- 125 g Medium shrimp — peeled, deveined
- 4 Hard-boiled large eggs — finely chopped
- 4 Israeli-style pickles or 2 kosher dill pickles — cut into 0.25” pieces
- 1 small Sweet onion (such as vidalia) — finely chopped
- 120 ml Coarsely chopped fresh dill — plus sprigs for serving
- 180 ml (or more) parsley mayo — click for recipe

METHOD

1. Cook potatoes in a large pot of boiling salted water until just tender, 6–8 minutes. Remove with a slotted spoon; let cool.
2. Meanwhile, return water to a boil and cook carrots until tender, about 3 minutes; let cool in a colander set in a bowl of ice water. Drain, pat dry, and transfer to a large bowl. Repeat with peas, cooking until bright green, about 30 seconds; add to bowl with carrots.
3. Working in 2 batches, repeat (cook, cool, dry) with rock and medium shrimp, boiling until cooked through, about 1 minute for rock shrimp and 2 minutes for medium. Add rock shrimp to bowl with vegetables; place medium shrimp in another bowl.
4. Add potatoes, eggs, pickles, onion, and chopped dill to vegetables; toss well. Mix in Parsley Mayo, adding more to coat if needed. Top with medium shrimp and dill sprigs just before serving.
5. DO AHEAD: Salad (without dill) can be made 3 hours ahead. Cover and chill.

Shrimp Pad Thai For Four 4 servings

Epicurious

INGREDIENTS

- 80 ml Water
- 20 ml Prepared tamarind paste — preferably unsweetened
- 80 ml Palm sugar or packed dark brown sugar
- 80 ml Asian fish sauce
- 1 ml Salt
- 125 g (about 1 1/2 cups) fresh mung bean sprouts
- 2 Limes — each cut into 6 wedges
- 60 ml Salted dry-roasted peanuts
- 80 ml Asian fish sauce
- 80 ml Granulated sugar
- 80 ml Crushed red pepper
- Boiling water for soaking noodles
- 350 g Dried flat rice noodles
- 30 ml Chopped garlic
- 30 ml Chopped shallots or onion
- 350 g Peeled and deveined small or medium shrimp
- 3 large Eggs — beaten well
- 125 g (about 1 1/2 cups) fresh mung bean sprouts
- 2 bunch Scallions — greens only, cut into 1-inch pieces (about 1 cup)
- 120 ml Salted dry-roasted peanuts
- 75 ml Vegetable oil
- *tamarind paste tends to be a south asian product; it usually comes in a jar and is available in many supermarkets. its smooth texture makes it easier and faster to use than the traditional thai blocks of tamarind pulp that include the fruit's seeds and fibers. read the label carefully to see if the tamarind paste is sweetened or not; if the jar you purchase contains a sweetener — just use less sugar in your seasoning sauce.
- Equipment: large wok (preferably a 14-inch flat-bottom carbon-steel wok); large metal spatula or slotted spoon; tongs; small bowls or ramekins for assembling ingredients; colander for draining rice noodles

METHOD

1. In a medium bowl, combine the water, tamarind paste, palm or dark brown sugar, fish sauce, and salt and stir until the sugar is dissolved.
2. Place the bean sprouts, limes, and peanuts each in their own small bowl and arrange near the stove. Place the fish sauce, granulated sugar, and crushed red pepper each in their own small bowl and arrange on the dining table.
3. Bring a 5-quart saucepan of water to a full, rolling boil. Remove it from the heat and immediately add the rice noodles, making sure they are fully submerged in the water. Let the noodles soak for exactly 3 minutes (use a timer), occasionally lifting them up and pulling them a...

Shrimp Po' Boys

Southern · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 30 ml Kikkoman ponzu lime
- 15 ml Horseradish
- 5 ml Pickle relish
- 5 ml Minced garlic
- 2.5 ml Cayenne pepper
- 60 ml Melted butter
- 5 ml Minced garlic
- 4 French rolls — split and hinged
- 480 ml Vegetable oil for frying — or as needed
- 180 ml All-purpose flour
- 30 ml Creole seasoning
- 3 large Eggs — beaten
- 480 ml Kikkoman panko bread crumbs
- 900 g Jumbo shrimp
- 480 ml Shredded lettuce

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 177°C (175 degrees C).
2. Make the rémoulade: Mix mayonnaise, ponzu, horseradish, relish, garlic, and cayenne together in a bowl. Set aside.
3. Make the sandwiches: Mix melted butter and garlic together in a small bowl. Place rolls, split-sides up, onto a baking sheet. Brush the insides with garlic butter.
4. Cook in the preheated oven until toasted, 1 to 3 minutes. Remove from the oven and set aside.
5. Heat oil in a deep fryer or large saucepan to 182°C (182 degrees C).
6. Mix flour and Creole seasoning together in a bowl. Place beaten eggs into a second bowl and panko into a third bowl.
7. Dredge shrimp in flour mixture; shake off excess. Dip into beaten egg. Lift up so excess egg drips back in the bowl. Press into bread crumbs to coat both sides. Place breaded shrimp, unstacked, onto a plate.
8. Fry shrimp in batches in the preheated oil until breading is golden brown and meat is opaque, about 2 minutes per side.
9. Spread rémoulade onto rolls. Top with hot shrimp, then shredded lettuce.

Shrimp Scampi Pasta 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g . frozen large peeled — deveined shrimp
- Kosher salt
- 1 medium Onion
- 7 Garlic cloves — divided
- 2 Lemons
- 240 ml Parsley leaves with tender stems
- 45 g Panko — Japanese breadcrumbs
- 90 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided, plus more for drizzling
- 120 ml . (1 stick) unsalted butter — divided
- 2.5 ml Red pepper flakes
- 180 ml Dry white wine
- 450 g . fettuccine

METHOD

1. Thaw that shrimp! Place unopened 1-lb. bag of shrimp in a large bowl and fill with cool water. Place a heavy plate on top to submerge until thawed, about 45 minutes. If you're the kind of person who actually thinks about dinner more than a few hours before you're going to make...
2. This dish comes together quite quickly, so you're going to want to have all of your prep done before you start cooking. Peel 1 medium onion, then finely chop so that all pieces are about the size of lentils. Transfer to a medium bowl. Using a Microplane, grate 5 garlic cloves ...
3. Heat ¾ cup panko, 2 Tbsp. olive oil, and ¼ tsp. salt in a large Dutch oven over medium, stirring to coat panko.
4. Grate remaining 2 garlic cloves into pot and stir to combine. Cook, stirring often, until panko is golden brown, 3–4 minutes. Transfer panko mixture to a small bowl. Let cool. Wipe out any panko stuck to bottom of pot.
5. Heat 2 Tbsp. olive oil in pot over medium-high until just beginning to shimmer and you can see wisps of smoke. Cook shrimp, undisturbed, until golden brown on the underside, 2–3 minutes. Turn with tongs and continue to cook until shrimp is barely cooked through, about 15 secon...
6. Add onion mixture, 4 Tbsp. butter, 1 tsp. salt, and ½ tsp. red pepper flakes to pot and cook over medium-low heat, stirring frequently, until very fragrant and softened but not browned, about 2 minutes.
7. Add ¾ cup dry white wine and bring to a simmer. Cook, stirring occasionally, until most of the liquid evaporates, some of the harsh alcohol scent cooks off, and sauce is thick and glossy, 2–3 minutes. Remove from heat while you cook the pasta.
8. Drop 1 lb. fettuccine in boiling water and set a timer according to package directions for al dente. Scoop out 1½ cups pasta cooking liquid.
9. Pull off and discard tails of shrimp while pasta cooks, then cut each shrimp into 3 pieces.
10. Drain pasta and add to Dutch oven along with reserved pasta cooking liquid and remaining 4 Tbsp. butter and 2 Tbsp. olive oil. Cook over medium heat, stirring often, until well coated and glossy, about 3 minutes.
11. Remove pot from heat and stir in shrimp and reserved parsley.
12. Cut 1 lemon in half and squeeze juice into pot (it should be about 2 Tbsp.), stirring to combine. Taste and adjust seasoning for salt. Cut remaining lemon into wedges for serving.
13. Divide pasta among bowls. Drizzle with more olive oil. Top with reserved panko mixture. Serve with lemon wedges alongside.

4. Any leftover salad will keep in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 1 day.
5. Enjoy!

Shrimp Tacos With Cilantro-lime Crema

Mexican · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 900 g Large frozen peeled and deveined shrimp
- 7 ml Chili powder
- 5 ml Freshly minced garlic
- 2.5 ml Paprika
- 2.5 ml Ground cumin
- 2.5 ml Onion powder
- 2.5 ml Salt
- 2.5 ml Ground black pepper
- 1 ml Ground coriander
- 1 ml Grated valencia orange zest
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 30 ml Sour cream
- 1 Lime — zested and juiced
- 5 ml Chopped fresh cilantro
- 1 ml Garlic powder
- 1 pinch Salt and ground black pepper
- 20 Corn tortillas
- 2 Avocados — thinly sliced, or to taste
- 1 Red onion — finely diced, or to taste
- 0.5 bunch Fresh cilantro — chopped, or to taste
- 1 Jalapeno pepper — diced, or to taste
- 2 Limes — cut into wedges, or as needed

METHOD

1. Rinse defrosted shrimp under cold water, drain, and pat dry.
2. Combine shrimp, chili powder, garlic, paprika, cumin, onion powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon black pepper, coriander, and orange zest in a bowl. Mix well.
3. Heat olive oil in nonstick frying pan over medium-high heat. Add shrimp and cook until bright pink on the outside and the meat is opaque, 4 to 5 minutes on each side, depending on the size of the shrimp.
4. While shrimp cooks, prepare crema by whisking together sour cream, zest and juice of 1 lime, 1 teaspoon cilantro, garlic powder, and 1 pinch each of salt and black pepper.
5. Heat corn tortillas in either a pan or on a griddle over low heat, 1 to 2 minutes per side. Be careful not to let them burn. Set aside.
6. Assemble tacos by spreading 1 teaspoon crema across each tortilla, adding 3 or 4 shrimp, 2 slices of avocado, a sprinkle of fresh red onion, cilantro, and jalapeño. Serve with sliced limes to squeeze on top and extra crema on the side.

INGREDIENTS

- 0.5 small Red onion — thinly sliced
- 30 ml Fresh lime juice
- pinch Of sugar
- Kosher salt
- 0.25 medium Pineapple — peeled, cored, cut lengthwise into spears, then crosswise 0.5 inch thick (about 2 cups)
- 30 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 550 g Shrimp — peeled, deveined
- 15 ml Sriracha
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 8 Corn tortillas — warmed
- 1 Avocado — sliced
- 1 Jalapeño — very thinly sliced, seeds removed if desired
- 120 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems
- Lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Place a rack in the highest position in oven; heat broiler. Toss red onion, lime juice, sugar, and a pinch of salt in a small bowl; set aside.
2. Toss pineapple and 1 Tbsp. oil on a rimmed baking sheet and arrange in a single layer on half of baking sheet; reserve bowl. Broil pineapple until lightly charred around the edges, 5–8 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, toss shrimp, Sriracha, and remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in reserved bowl until shrimp are evenly coated; season with salt and pepper and toss again.
4. Remove baking sheet from broiler and use a spatula to turn pineapple pieces over. Arrange shrimp in a single layer on empty half of baking sheet. Broil until shrimp are cooked through on top, about 2 minutes. If your shrimp are opaque and springy to the touch, they're done. Re...
5. Drain soaking liquid from onion into bowl with shrimp and pineapple; set onion aside and toss shrimp and pineapple in pickling liquid.
6. Serve shrimp mixture with tortillas, avocado, jalapeño, cilantro, lime wedges, and reserved pickled onion for making tacos.

Shrimp With Fresh Corn Grits 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 3 Ears of corn — husked
· 480 ml Low-sodium chicken broth
· 240 ml Whole milk
· 180 ml Grits — not instant
· 30 ml Unsalted butter
· Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
· 60 ml Olive oil
· 2 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
· 2.5 ml Dried oregano
· 2.5 ml Hot smoked spanish paprika or 0.5 tsp. smoked paprika and a pinch of cayenne pepper
· 700 g Large shrimp — peeled, deveined, tails left intact
· Chopped fresh chives — for serving

METHOD

1. Grate 2 ears of corn on the large holes of a box grater over a medium bowl, catching as much juice as possible; set aside. Cut kernels from remaining ear of corn into another medium bowl; set aside.

2. Bring broth, milk, and 1½ cups water to a boil in a medium saucepan. Reduce heat so liquid is at a simmer and gradually whisk in grits. Simmer, whisking often, until grits are very tender, 20–25 minutes. Mix in butter and reserved grated corn; season with salt and pepper.

3. Fifteen minutes after you have added grits to saucepan, heat oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Cook garlic, oregano, and paprika, stirring, until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add reserved kernels and cook, stirring occasionally, until golden brown and beginning to p...

4. Serve shrimp and corn over grits topped with chives.

Shrimp With Mustard-lime Dipping Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Shell-on large shrimp
- Kosher salt
- 60 ml Plus 1 tbsp. old bay seasoning
- 3 Lemons — halved
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 30 ml Chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 30 ml Spicy brown mustard
- 5 ml Fresh lime juice

- 5 ml Light brown sugar
- 2.5 ml English mustard powder
- 2.5 ml Worcestershire sauce
- Hot sauce
- Kosher salt
- Lime wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Using kitchen shears and working one at a time, cut along the length of the backs of shrimp, cutting through shells and just deep enough into flesh to expose veins; remove veins.
2. Bring a large saucepan of salted water to a boil and add ¼ cup Old Bay seasoning. Squeeze lemon juice into water and add lemon halves to saucepan; return water to a boil. Add shrimp, reduce heat, and simmer until cooked through, about 3 minutes. Transfer to a bowl of ice water...
3. Just before serving, whisk oil and remaining 1 Tbsp. Old Bay in a medium bowl. Add shrimp and parsley and toss to coat.
4. DO AHEAD: Shrimp can be cooked 1 day ahead. Cover and chill.
5. Whisk mayonnaise, brown mustard, lime juice, honey, brown sugar, mustard powder, and Worcestershire sauce in a medium bowl; season with hot sauce and salt. Serve shrimp with dipping sauce and lime wedges.

Shrimp With Pickled Radishes 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 6 Red radishes — trimmed, thinly sliced
- 180 ml White wine vinegar
- 45 ml Sugar
- 5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 10 ml Kosher salt — divided
- 275 g Short-grain sushi rice
- 15 ml Dried hijiki
- 700 g Large shrimp — peeled, deveined
- 1 medium Shallot — finely chopped
- 60 ml Soy sauce
- 15 ml Plus 2 teaspoons gochujang
- 20 ml Unseasoned rice vinegar
- 15 ml Fish sauce
- 10 ml Honey
- 5 ml Toasted sesame oil
- 480 ml Baby mizuna or arugula
- 10 ml Toasted sesame seeds
- Gochujang can be found at korean markets and online.

METHOD

1. Place radishes in a small bowl. Bring white wine vinegar, sugar, red pepper flakes, ½ tsp. salt, and ¾ cup water to a simmer in a small saucepan over medium-high heat and cook, stirring occasionally, until sugar is dissolved, about 5 minutes. Immediately pour brine over radish...
2. Meanwhile, rinse rice until water runs clear (this removes surface starch and keeps rice from getting gummy). Combine rice and 1½ cups water in a medium saucepan, season with 1½ tsp. salt and let sit 30 minutes.
3. Bring rice to a boil. Reduce heat to low, cover, and cook until rice is tender, 18–22 minutes. Remove from heat and let sit (still covered) 10 minutes, then fluff with a fork; keep warm.
4. Soak hijiki in ½ cup cold water in a small bowl until softened, 10–12 minutes. Drain; set aside.
5. Bring a medium pot of water to a boil; season generously with salt. Add shrimp, cover pot, and remove from heat. Let sit until shrimp are cooked through, about 3 minutes. Drain and transfer shrimp to a bowl of ice water; let cool. Drain and pat dry; cut into ½" pieces. Set aside.
6. Whisk shallot, soy sauce, gochujang, rice vinegar, fish sauce, honey, and oil in a large bowl. Add reserved hijiki and shrimp to honey-gochujang dressing; toss to coat. Cover; chill 1 hour. Taste and season with more salt if needed.
7. Divide rice among bowls and top with shrimp mixture, drained pickled radishes, and mizuna. Sprinkle with sesame seeds.
8. Do Ahead: Radishes can be pickled 5 days ahead; keep chilled. Shrimp can be cooked 8 hours ahead; cover and chill.

Singapore Chilli Crab 4 servings

Asian · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Mud crab
- 3 Shallots
- Ginger — 1 in (2.5 cm)
- 3 Long red chillies
- 5 clove Garlic
- 30 ml Ketchup
- 5 ml Shrimp paste
- 30 ml Cooking oil
- 360 ml Chicken stock
- 360 ml Tomato puree
- 15 ml Rice wine vinegar
- 120 ml Sweet chili sauce
- 30 ml Soy sauce
- 30 ml Palm sugar
- 1 Egg
- 1 Spring onion
- 125 g Butter
- 1 bunch Coriander
- Fried bao dough — mantou

METHOD

1. Prepare the crab by removing the base flap, then pull off the head and clear out the cavity. Keep the head in a bowl. Moving to the body of the crab, remove the gills, which are an opaque brown colour on both sides of the crab. Using a sharp knife, cut the crab in half down th...
2. In a food processor, add shallots, ginger, red chillies, garlic, ketchup, and shrimp paste, then pulse until it comes together and forms a paste.
3. Heat oil in a wok over medium heat, then once it comes up to temperature fry add the chilli paste and cook for five minutes, stirring occasionally.
4. Add the crab pieces into the wok and stir until they are fully coated. Give the crab time to start turning orange, approximately 5 minutes.
5. Add the tomato puree, chicken stock, rice wine vinegar, sweet chilli sauce, soy sauce and palm sugar, then stir until completely mixed. The crab should be fully orange by now. Add a lid on top and allow the mixture to simmer for 15 minutes.
6. Remove the crab legs and head, and plate up on a shallow dish.
7. Add butter, spring onions, and egg. Let the egg sit for a minute before stirring, then give the sauce a quick stir. The sauce should thicken up quickly.
8. Pour the sauce on top of the crab and garnish with a few sprigs of coriander.
9. Enjoy!

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- 550 g Skinless cod fillet — cut into 4 pieces, patted dry
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 40 g All-purpose flour
- 60 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided
- 1 large Shallot — finely chopped
- 80 ml Dry white wine
- 12 Littleneck clams — scrubbed
- 2 medium Ears of corn — kernels cut from cobs (1–1 0.25 cups)
- 45 ml . unsalted butter — cut into pieces
- 60 ml Chopped parsley
- Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Season cod all over with salt and pepper. Sprinkle flour over a large plate and, working one at a time, press side of fillet where skin used to be into flour to thoroughly coat. (Coating the cod with flour before cooking prevents the flaky fillets from tearing; any bits left i...
2. When buying a big portion of cod or other skinless fish, you'll often end up with the skinny tail end. Keep it from overcooking by folding the tail end underneath itself to create a piece that's closer in thickness to the rest of the fillets. Then proceed to cook it as you wou...

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Garlic cloves — finely grated
- 80 ml Sherry vinegar or red wine vinegar
- 60 ml Coconut aminos
- 15 ml . fish sauce
- 6 g Sugar
- 70 g Almonds
- 45 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided
- 4 5–6 -oz. skin-on salmon fillets
- Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
- 0.5 medium Daikon radish (about 1 lb.) — peeled, halved lengthwise, thinly sliced on a diagonal
- 3 medium Carrots (about 8 oz.) — peeled, thinly sliced on a diagonal

METHOD

1. Cook garlic, vinegar, coconut aminos, fish sauce, and sugar in a small saucepan over medium-high, stirring occasionally, until reduced enough to coat a spoon, 7–9 minutes. Let cool.

2. Toast almonds in a dry small skillet over medium heat, tossing occasionally, until slightly darkened and fragrant, 5–8 minutes. Let cool, then coarsely chop.
3. Meanwhile, pour 2 Tbsp. oil into a cold large nonstick skillet. Season salmon with salt and pepper and place, skin side down, in oil. Set over medium heat and cook, pressing fillets gently with a spatula so skin makes good contact with the pan, until skin is browned and crisp,...
4. Combine daikon, carrots, almonds, half of the glaze, and remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in a medium bowl and toss to coat. Add a pinch of salt and toss again.
5. Serve salmon and pickled daikon and carrots with remaining glaze alongside.

INGREDIENTS

- 80 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 60 ml Harissa paste — our favorite is New York Shuk
- 1 Garlic clove — grated
- 1 Lemon — halved
- 1 2 -lb. skinless center-cut salmon fillet
- Kosher salt
- Mixed tender herbs (such as parsley — cilantro, dill, and/or chives; for serving)

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 135°C (135°C). Whisk oil, harissa, and garlic in a medium bowl. Pour half of harissa oil into a 2.5-qt. baking dish and swirl to coat. Thinly slice a lemon half and remove any seeds; scatter slices in dish.
2. Season salmon on all sides with salt and place in dish. Pour remaining harissa oil over salmon, spreading evenly over flesh with a pastry brush or spoon. Roast for 15 minutes. Remove from oven and baste fish with harissa oil pooled in dish. Return to oven and continue to roast...
3. Use a spoon to break up salmon into irregular pieces. Arrange salmon and lemon slices on a platter. Drizzle with any harissa oil left in dish, squeeze remaining lemon half over, and scatter some herbs around.

Smoked Fish And Rice Breakfast Bowl 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Unseasoned rice vinegar
- 60 ml Vegetable oil
- 45 ml Plus 1 teaspoon toasted sesame oil
- 45 ml Mirin
- 45 ml Tahini
- 15 ml Plus 1 teaspoon gochujang
- 5 ml Honey
- Kosher salt
- 275 g Cups gaba (sprouted brown rice) or brown rice
- Kosher salt
- 1 bunch Of swiss chard or kale — ribs and stems removed, coarsely torn (about 8 cups)
- 4 large Eggs
- 225 g Smoked salmon or mackerel
- 3 Scallions — thinly sliced
- 1 Avocado — sliced
- 240 ml Mixed tsukemono
- Shichimi togarashi — for serving; optional

METHOD

1. Blend vinegar, vegetable oil, sesame oil, mirin, tahini, gochujang, and honey in a blender until smooth. Season with salt and transfer to a small bowl. If mixture looks too thick, thin with a bit of water.
2. Do Ahead: Dressing can be made 1 day ahead; cover and chill.

3. Rinse and drain rice in a fine-mesh sieve several times until water runs clear. Let sit 20 minutes.
4. Combine rice and 2½ cups water in a medium saucepan, season lightly with salt, and bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low, cover, and simmer until rice is tender, 20–25 minutes. Remove from heat and let sit 10 minutes. Fluff with a fork; keep warm.
5. Meanwhile, heat greens and ¼ cup water in a dry large saucepan over medium. Cover pot and steam, shaking pan occasionally, until greens are wilted, 3–4 minutes for Swiss chard, 8–10 minutes for kale. Transfer greens to a plate and let cool.
6. Wipe out saucepan. Pour in water to a depth of 2" and bring to a boil, then reduce heat and bring to a gentle simmer. Crack an egg into a small bowl, then gently slide egg into water. Repeat with remaining eggs, waiting until whites are opaque before adding the next (about 30 ...

Smoked Fish Crostini 6 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

· 240 ml Cherry tomatoes
· 100 ml Olive oil
· 10 ml Fresh lemon juice
· 4 large Green or purple basil leaves — thinly sliced, plus small leaves for garnish
· Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
· 1 bunch Spring onions or scallions — trimmed
· 8 1/4 '-thick slices country-style rye bread
· 225 g Fresh farmer cheese (about 1 cup) — fromage blanc
· 225 g Smoked fish — preferably sablefish, deboned
· 120 ml Thinly sliced assorted cucumbers

METHOD

1. Combine tomatoes, 1 Tbsp. oil, lemon juice, and thinly sliced basil in a medium bowl. Season with salt and pepper; toss to coat. Let stand at room temperature for 30 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, build a medium-hot fire in a charcoal grill, or heat a gas grill to high. Trim dark-green parts from onions; reserve for another use. If using spring onions, halve them lengthwise. Place onions on a baking sheet. Drizzle 2 Tbsp. oil over and toss to coat. Season wit...
3. Grill onions, turning occasionally, until tender, 5-6 minutes. Transfer to a work surface to cool. Brush bread on both sides with remaining 4 Tbsp. oil; season with salt and pepper. Coarsely chop grilled onions and add to bowl with tomatoes.
4. Grill bread until toasted, about 1 minute per side. Cut toasts in half on a diagonal. Spread about 1 Tbsp. cheese onto 1 side of each toast half. Divide smoked fish evenly atop each toast.
5. Add cucumbers to tomato and onion mixture; toss to coat. Spoon over smoked fish. Garnish with small basil leaves. Serve immediately.

Smoked Fish Fritters With Beet Vinaigrette 8 servings

Smoked Oysters On Toast 8 servings

Epicurious · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 30 g (2 tablespoons) unsalted butter
· 4 Spelt or other multigrain bread slices
· 90 ml Deviled egg spread
· 120 ml Chopped egg whites — reserved from Deviled Egg Spread
· 0.5 stalk Blanched celery — diced (reserved from Deviled Egg Spread)
· 1 can Smoked oysters
· 30 g Smoked trout roe
· 10 ml Chopped fresh chives
· 1 Lemon — cut into 8 wedges
· Hot sauce

METHOD

1. Preheat the broiler with oven rack 5 inches from the heat. Line a baking sheet with heavy-duty aluminum foil.
2. Spread the butter evenly on both sides of the bread, and place on the prepared pan. Broil in preheated oven until deep golden brown, about 2 minutes per side.
3. Spread 1 ½ tablespoons Deviled Egg Spread onto each toasted bread slice. Sprinkle evenly with chopped egg whites and diced celery. Cut each slice into 4 triangles.

Smoked Paprika Salmon With Spinach 8 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 60 ml Orange juice
· 30 ml (plus 1 teaspoon) olive oil
· 10 ml Mccormick gourmet™ thyme
· 900 g Salmon fillets
· 15 ml Brown sugar
· 15 ml Mccormick gourmet™ paprika
· 5 ml Mccormick gourmet™ cinnamon
· 5 ml Grated orange peel
· 2.5 ml Mccormick gourmet™ sicilian sea salt
· 1 bag (10 ounces) fresh spinach leaves

METHOD

1. Mix orange juice, 2 tablespoons of the oil and 1 teaspoon of the thyme in small bowl. Place salmon in glass dish. Add marinade; turn to coat. Cover. Refrigerate 30 minutes or longer for extra flavor.
2. Preheat oven to 204°C. Mix brown sugar, smoked paprika, cinnamon, orange peel, remaining 1 teaspoon thyme and sea salt in small bowl. Remove salmon from marinade. Place in greased foil-lined baking pan. Discard any remaining marinade.
3. Rub top of salmon evenly with smoked paprika mixture. Roast 10 to 15 minutes or until fish flakes easily with a fork.
4. Meanwhile, heat remaining 1 teaspoon oil in large skillet on medium heat. Add spinach; cook 2 minutes or until wilted. Serve salmon over spinach.

Smoked Shrimp With Chile-lime Dipping Sauce 8 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 3.6 kg Jumbo (21 to 25 per pound) or extra-jumbo (16 to 20 per pound) shrimp
· 15 ml . salt
· 1 Tsbp. ground white or black pepper
· 15 Green bird's eye chiles — or 8 jalapeño or serrano peppers, sliced
· 15 clove Garlic
· 240 ml Fresh lime juice
· 5 ml . salt
· 5 ml . granulated sugar
· 60 ml Fish sauce
· 60 ml Coarsely chopped cilantro leaves and stems

METHOD

1. In a large bowl, mix the shrimp with the salt and pepper, coating them evenly. Cover and refrigerate for 3 hours.
2. Meanwhile, start the sauce: In a blender, combine the chiles, garlic, lime juice, and salt and blend until the bits are the size of a match head. Transfer to a small bowl, cover, and keep at room temperature.
3. Heat a smoker to 107°C. Rinse the seasoning off the shrimp and pat dry with paper towels. Place the shrimp in the smoker and smoke until they turn dark coral, 20 to 25 minutes.
4. While the shrimp are smoking, stir the sugar and fish sauce into the sauce, then taste and adjust the seasoning with more fish sauce if needed. Aim for sour and hot first, then salty and just a tad bit of sweetness. Stir in the cilantro.
5. Serve the shrimp with the sauce.

Smoked Steelhead Trout (salmon)

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 900 g Steelhead trout fillets
· 30 ml Olive oil
· 4 clove Garlic — chopped
· 20 ml Dried rosemary
· 240 ml Sugar-based curing mixture
· 1 Quart water
· Ground black pepper to taste
· 450 g Alder wood chips

METHOD

1. Rinse the fish fillets and place them in a shallow glass baking dish. Drizzle olive oil over the fish and season with garlic and rosemary. Rub the seasonings into the fish. Cover and refrigerate overnight.
2. Dissolve the curing salt in the water and pour into the dish with the fish. Let it marinate for 15 minutes per half inch of thickness.
3. Meanwhile, prepare your smoker for a four hour slow burn using charcoal. The temperature should be at 66°C (65 degrees C) before you get started.
4. Remove the fish from the brine and discard leftover liquid. Place each piece of fish onto a small piece of aluminum foil - just big enough to hold the fillet, and season with pepper to taste. Place them on the rack in the smoker. Sprinkle a handful of the soaked wood chips ove...
5. Increase the heat in the smoker (add more charcoal) to 93°C (95 degrees C) and let the fish smoke until the internal temperature of the fillets reaches 74°C (72 degrees C). Remove from the smoker and let rest for 20 minutes before serving.

Smoked Swordfish Tostaditas 8 servings

Smoky Sweet Chili Shrimp Skewers 4 servings

Asian · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Sweet chili sauce — such as mae ploy divided, plus 2 tablespoons, divided
- 15 ml Honey
- 15 ml Soy sauce
- 15 ml Fresh lime juice
- 8 ml Liquid smoke
- 2 clove Garlic — grated
- 1 Red bell pepper — cut into 16 1 in (2 cm) pieces
- 1 medium Red onion — cut in to 1 in (2 cm) pieces
- 16 large Shrimps — peeled, deveined, and tails removed
- 1 large Mango — peeled and cut into 16 1-inch (2 cm) pieces
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 2.5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 15 ml Fresh cilantro
- Lime wedge — for serving
- Wooden skewer — 10 in (25 cm)

METHOD

1. Soak the wooden skewers in cold water for at least 30 minutes before using.
2. Arrange one rack in the center and one rack in the upper third of the oven. Preheat the oven to 232°C (230°C).
3. Make the sauce: Add ¼ cup (60 ml) sweet chili sauce, the honey, soy sauce, lime juice, liquid smoke, and garlic to a small bowl and whisk to combine. Set aside.
4. Build the skewers: Onto each wooden skewer, thread 1 piece of bell pepper, 2–3 pieces of red onion, 1 shrimp, and 1 piece of mango. Repeat to make a second layer. Continue with the remaining ingredients and skewers.
5. Arrange the skewers on a rimmed baking sheet and season on both sides with the salt and pepper. Brush both sides of the skewers with the smoky sweet chili sauce.
6. Transfer to the center oven rack and bake for 5 minutes. Turn the oven to broil and move the pan to the upper rack. Broil for 3–5 minutes, until lightly charred in spots.
7. Remove the skewers from the oven and brush with the remaining 2 tablespoons of sweet chili sauce. Transfer to a platter, sprinkle with the cilantro, and serve with lime wedges alongside.
8. Enjoy!

Snapper In Packets With Squash, Date, And Lemon Compote 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Halibut — snapper, or cod fillets, skinned, boned, cut into 5 portions
- Kosher salt and freshly ground pepper
- 240 ml Squash — Date, and Lemon Compote
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 15 sprig Fresh thyme — divided
- 30 ml Chopped toasted hazelnuts
- Flaky sea salt — for serving

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 425°. Season fish with salt and pepper.
2. Cut 5 sheets of aluminum foil, approximately 18 inches long (or, if you are using parchment, fold each sheet of paper and cut it into an angular heart shape).
3. For each packet (except the lunch portion), place a heaping ¼-cupful of squash compote in the center of the aluminum sheet. Top compote with fish and drizzle with oil. Place 3 sprigs thyme on the fish and seal the packet. The goal is to seal tightly but leave a little airspace...
4. Bake packets until fish is opaque at the center, 14–16 minutes. Halibut and thicker black cod fillets will take closer to 20 minutes. Reserve packet of fish without compote for tomorrow's lunch.
5. Carefully open dinner packets; top with hazelnuts and season with flaky salt.

Snapper Sashimi With Seaweed And Fennel 6 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 10 ml Dried cut wakame seaweed
- 45 ml Fresh lime juice
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 5 ml Finely grated peeled horseradish
- 5 ml Soy sauce
- 5 ml Toasted sesame seeds
- small Pinch of sugar
- Kosher salt
- 0.25 small Fennel bulb — very thinly sliced on a mandoline
- 2 small Radishes — trimmed, very thinly sliced on a mandoline
- 225 g Skinless — boneless red snapper fillet, sliced 0.25 inch thick
- 120 ml Chervil leaves
- 5 ml Fennel pollen
- Flaky sea salt

METHOD

1. Soak wakame in 1 Tbsp. cold water in a small bowl to rehydrate, 5–8 minutes; drain. Combine lime juice, oil, horseradish, soy sauce, sesame seeds, and sugar in a medium bowl; season with kosher salt. Add fennel, radishes, and seaweed to dressing; toss to combine.
2. Arrange snapper on a platter. Spoon dressing and vegetables over and top with chervil and fennel pollen, if using; season with sea salt. Serve with lime wedges for squeezing over.

Snapper With Blistered Bean Salad And Chile Vinegar 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Habanero chile — seeds removed, finely chopped
- 1 small Garlic clove — finely chopped
- 120 ml Unseasoned rice vinegar
- 20 g Light brown sugar
- Kosher salt
- 2 small Red onions — cut through root ends into 8 wedges
- 400 g Sugar snap peas — strings removed
- 30 ml Olive oil — divided
- 450 g Green beans
- 4 6 -ounce snapper fillets
- 240 ml Torn basil leaves
- 70 g Crushed salted — dry-roasted peanuts

METHOD

1. Prepare a grill for medium-high heat. Put a large cast-iron skillet on grill to heat.
2. Meanwhile, stir chile, garlic, vinegar, and brown sugar in a small bowl until sugar is dissolved; season chile vinegar with salt. Set aside. Toss onions, sugar snap peas, and 1½ tsp. oil in a large bowl; season with salt.
3. As soon as skillet is hot, add vegetables and cook, stirring occasionally, until blistered and crisp-tender, 6–8 minutes for onions and about 4 minutes for sugar snap peas. Transfer to a platter.
4. Toss green beans and 1½ tsp. oil in another large bowl and cook directly on grill grate on one side until blistered, lightly charred, and crisp-tender, about 3 minutes. Transfer to platter with onions and sugar snap peas and toss to coat; drizzle reserved chile vinegar over.
5. Wipe out skillet with paper towels. Add 1 Tbsp. oil and set back on grill. Season snapper all over with salt and cook, skin side down, in skillet until skin is golden brown and crisp, about 4 minutes. Turn and cook just until cooked through, about 2 minutes.
6. Set snapper on top of bean salad and top with basil and peanuts.

- 100 g Baby spinach leaves — 5 to 6 cups
- 1 Avocado — peeled, pitted, coarsely chopped
- 5 ml Sesame seeds

METHOD

1. Whisk first 5 ingredients in small bowl. Season dressing to taste with sea salt and freshly ground black pepper.
2. Cook soba noodles in large saucepan of boiling salted water until tender but still firm to bite, stirring occasionally. Drain. Transfer to bowl of ice water to cool. Drain well; transfer to large bowl. Pour dressing over; toss to coat.
3. Heat vegetable oil in heavy medium nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Sprinkle salmon with sea salt and pepper. Cook until browned but still deep pink in center, about 3 minutes per side. Transfer salmon to plate; cool slightly. Wipe skillet clean. Add enough water to ski...

Soba Salad With Shrimp, Shiso, And Nori 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 small Shallot — quartered
- 450 g Large shell-on shrimp
- 5 ml Kosher salt plus more
- 225 g Soba
- 60 ml Mirin
- 60 ml Reduced-sodium soy sauce
- 45 ml Unseasoned rice vinegar
- 5 ml Finely grated peeled ginger
- 120 ml Torn fresh shiso or mint leaves
- 3 Toasted nori sheets — crumbled (about 1/4 cup), divided

METHOD

1. Place shallot, shrimp, and 1 teaspoon salt in a medium saucepan; add cold water to cover. Bring to a boil, reduce heat, and simmer gently until shrimp are pink, about 5 minutes. Drain; discard shallot. Transfer shrimp to a plate; let cool. Peel and devein shrimp.
2. Meanwhile, cook noodles in a large pot of boiling salted water until al dente; drain. Rinse under cold water; drain well. Whisk mirin, soy sauce, vinegar, and ginger in a large bowl. Add shrimp, noodles, shiso, and half of nori and toss to combine. Top with remaining nori.

Soba Soup With Shrimp And Greens 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g . large peeled — deveined shrimp, fresh or frozen
- 1 Sheet kombu — about 1 oz.
- 0.5 large Bunch or 1 small bunch mustard greens — kale, mature spinach, or Swiss chard (about 8 oz.)
- 10 Scallions
- 1 1 " piece fresh ginger
- Kosher salt
- 1 1 -oz. package bonito flakes
- 60 ml Mirin
- 75 ml . soy sauce — plus more for drizzling
- 15 ml . toasted sesame oil — plus more for drizzling
- 4 large Eggs
- 225 g . soba noodles
- 15 ml . toasted sesame seeds

METHOD

1. If your 1 lb. large peeled, deveined shrimp is frozen, defrost it—here's how. Meanwhile, soak 1 sheet kombu in 8 cups water in a large Dutch oven until soft and flexible, 15–20 minutes. (You'll probably notice a white layer of film on your kombu—don't rinse that off. It's a so...
2. While kombu soaks, remove leaves from ½ large bunch or 1 small bunch mustard greens, kale, mature spinach, or Swiss chard (discard or save the stems), wash, and coarsely chop. Thinly slice 10 scallions; set aside about one-third for serving. Peel 1 1" piece ginger. Bring a lar...
3. Make the dashi: After kombu has soaked, turn heat to medium. Once you see small bubbles around the edges, use tongs to remove kombu. Avoid bringing the water to a boil—it might make your dashi bitter. (As for the kombu, you can save it in the fridge to make another batch of da...
4. Add 1 1-oz. package bonito flakes, bring to a boil, and turn off heat. Gently push bonito flakes to submerge, then let stand 2 minutes without stirring. Carefully pour through a fine-mesh sieve into a medium bowl or large measuring cup, being sure to strain out any lingering f...
5. Wipe out Dutch oven and return to medium heat. Add chopped greens, remaining two-thirds of scallions, and ½ tsp. salt. Using a Microplane, grate in ginger. Pour in ¼ cup water and stir to combine. Cover and cook until greens are wilted, 4–5 minutes.
6. Add dashi, ¼ cup mirin, 5 Tbsp. soy sauce, and 1 Tbsp. toasted sesame oil and bring to a gentle simmer.
7. Carefully lower 4 large eggs into boiling salted water and set a timer for 6½ minutes. Fill up a small bowl with ice water. Immediately plunge eggs into ice bath when your timer goes off. This halts their cooking, keeping them in that gooey yolk state you're looking for. Let c...
8. Return salted water to a boil and add 8 oz. soba. Cook 4 minutes, then drain and rinse with cold water. Divide noodles among shallow bowls.
9. Finish up: Pinch tails off shrimp; season with salt. Add to pot and remove from heat. The shrimp will turn bright pink in the residual heat of the broth, a sign that they're cooked through. Taste and add more salt, if needed.
10. Divide broth among bowls with noodles. Slice eggs in half as you add to bowls. (If you're planning on having leftovers, store the broth, noodles, and uncut eggs separately.) Drizzle yolks with sesame oil and soy sauce. Sprinkle with reserved scallions and 1 Tbsp. toasted sesam...

- 12 Fresh oysters — shucked, chopped, drained (optional)
- 2 small Shallots — minced
- 15 ml Finely chopped flat-leaf parsley
- 12 Very thin slices lardo — optional

METHOD

1. Melt 2 Tbsp. butter in a large heavy skillet over medium heat. Add 3 bread slices and toast until golden and crisp, about 3 minutes. Add 1 Tbsp. butter to skillet; turn bread and toast until golden and crisp, about 3 minutes longer. Transfer toasts to a wire rack; let cool. Re...
2. Wipe skillet clean. Heat oil in skillet over medium-high heat. Add mushrooms and sauté, tossing frequently, until lightly colored but still firm, about 2 minutes. Season with salt and transfer one third of mushrooms to a plate. Add 2 Tbsp. butter and cream to skillet. Bring to...
3. Divide toasts among plates; spoon mushroom mixture over. Top with reserved mushrooms. Lay 2 slices lardo over each toast, if using. Serve immediately.

Sous Vide Lemon-butter Shrimp

Cajun & Creole · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Large shrimp
- 2.5 ml Creole seasoning — such as Tony Chachere's®
- 8 1/2 -inch wide strips lemon zest
- 3 sprig Fresh thyme
- 55 g Chilled butter

METHOD

1. Set up a large pot or water bath and place your sous vide cooker into the water. Set temperature to 57°C (57 degrees C) according to manufacturer's directions.
2. Combine shrimp and Creole seasoning in a bowl and toss to coat. Place shrimp in a single layer inside a large vacuum bag. Place lemon peel, thyme, and butter evenly on top. Seal the bag using a vacuum sealer.
3. Place bag into the water and set timer for 30 minutes.
4. Remove cooked shrimp from bag and serve. Sprinkle additional Creole seasoning on top, if desired.

Sous Vide Salmon 2 servings

Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Salmon fillet
- 1 Shallot — finely chopped
- 1 pinch Salt and pepper
- 5 ml Olive oil

METHOD

1. Fill a large pot with warm water. Attach a sous vide precision cooker to the pot and set temperature to 52°C (51 degrees C).
2. Place shallot into a plastic bag and lay salmon on top, skin-side down. Use a vacuum sealer to remove air and seal the bag, or use the water-immersion method. Once water temperature has reached 52°C (51°C), add the bag to the pot; set the timer for 45 minutes.
3. Remove the bag from the pot when the timer goes off. Remove salmon and pat dry. Remove and discard shallot.
4. Heat olive oil in a nonstick or cast iron skillet over medium heat until it shimmers. Add salmon, skin-side down, and sear for 1 1/2 minutes. Flip and sear for an additional 1 1/2 minutes.

Sous Vide Salmon With Lemon And Dill 2 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 1 -pound skinless — boneless salmon fillet
- Kosher salt
- 15 ml Coarsely chopped dill
- 5 ml Finely grated lemon zest
- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- A sous vide machine; a 1-gallon vacuum-sealable or resealable plastic bag

METHOD

1. Clip (or stand) sous vide machine to a tall, large pot. Fill pot with warm water to height according to manufacturer's instructions (keep in mind that fish when added will cause water to rise).
2. Season salmon with salt. Mix dill, lemon zest, and red pepper flakes in a small bowl to combine, then rub all over fish. Place salmon and any spices that fall off into bag and pour in oil.
3. Vacuum-seal or partially close resealable bag, getting as much air out as possible to keep bag from floating, and place in water bath. If using a resealable plastic bag, push down into water to submerge (this will push more air out of the bag) and fully close. To ensure proper...
4. Using a small clip, secure top edge of resealable bag to rim of pot, positioning it opposite the machine's water outlet; as the water circulates, it will help keep the bag submerged. If using a vacuum-sealed bag, you may need to set a small plate on top to prevent floating. Co...
5. Do Ahead: Salmon can be cooked in water bath 4 days ahead. Keep sealed in bag and chill, or freeze up to 1 month. Enjoy cold or reheat with sous vide machine at 100° until warmed through, about 1 hour, before serving.

- Coconut rice — click for recipe

METHOD

1. Smash turmeric, garlic, lemongrass, and 1 tsp. salt in a mortar with a pestle until a rough paste forms, 3–4 minutes.
2. Combine prawns and turmeric mixture in a medium bowl. Stir well, rubbing mixture into prawns. Let marinate at room temperature for 30 minutes, turning occasionally.
3. Pour oil into a wok or a large nonstick skillet to a depth of 1/2". Heat oil over medium heat until deep-fry thermometer registers 300°. Season prawns with salt; add to wok. Fry, turning occasionally, until cooked through and lightly golden, 4–6 minutes.
4. Using a slotted spoon, transfer shrimp to a platter. Skim crispy bits from oil and spoon over prawns. Serve with Coconut Rice.

Soy And Ginger Steamed Fish 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 6–8 -oz. skinless black bass fillets
- Kosher salt
- 1 4 X3" piece dried kombu — optional
- 30 ml . sake
- 30 ml . soy sauce
- 15 ml . mirin — sweet japanese rice wine
- 0.25 large Or 0.5 medium head of napa cabbage — stems thinly sliced crosswise, leaves torn if large (about 5 cups)
- 125 g . mixed mushrooms (such as shiitake — oyster, beech, and/or maitake), torn into pieces
- 1 2 " piece ginger — peeled, cut into thin matchsticks
- 15 ml . toasted sesame oil
- 2 Scallions — thinly sliced
- Cooked rice — for serving

METHOD

1. Slice fish into six pieces; season all over with salt.
2. Combine kombu (if using), sake, soy sauce, mirin, and ¾ cup water in a medium donabe or Dutch oven with lid. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat to low. Layer cabbage stems, then leaves in pot. Scatter mushrooms and ginger over, then place fish over mushrooms. Cover pot and stea...

Soy Honey-glazed Salmon And Asparagus 2 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 bunch Fresh asparagus — trimmed, or as desired
- 15 ml Reduced-sodium soy sauce
- 15 ml Honey
- 5 ml Olive oil
- 1 Salmon fillet
- Sea salt and ground black pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Place a steamer insert into a saucepan and fill with water to just below the bottom of the steamer. Bring water to a boil. Add asparagus, cover, and steam until slightly tender, 2 to 4 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, whisk together soy sauce and honey in a small bowl until glaze is smooth.
3. Set an oven rack about 6 inches from the heat source; preheat the oven broiler. Line a baking sheet with aluminum foil and brush with olive oil.
4. Place salmon fillet and steamed asparagus on the prepared baking sheet; season with salt and pepper.
5. Cook under the preheated broiler for 5 minutes. Drizzle 2/3 of the glaze over salmon and asparagus. Continue broiling until fish flakes easily with a fork, 3 to 5 minutes. Drizzle remaining glaze over salmon.

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2.9 kg Clams
- 90 ml Olive oil divided
- 120 ml Dry white wine
- 3 Garlic cloves — sliced, divided
- 3 small Dried chiles — crumbled, divided
- 450 g Spaghetti or linguine
- Kosher salt and freshly gound black pepper
- 45 ml Chopped flat-leaf parsley

METHOD

1. Place clams in a sink filled with cold water. Scrub shells well with a coarse brush to remove any sand. Drain water and soak clams in clean water, repeating until water remains clean.
2. Heat 2 Tbsp. oil in a large pot with a lid over medium heat. Add ¼ cup wine, 1 garlic clove, and 1 chile. Add half of clams, cover, and cook over high heat, shaking pan frequently, until clams open (keep lid on pot so heat is not released, making cooking time longer). As soon ...
3. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until tender but al dente; drain, reserving 1 cup pasta cooking liquid.
4. Heat remaining 2 Tbsp. oil in pot with lid over medium heat. Add remaining 1 garlic clove and remaining 1 chile; stir until garlic is fragrant and light golden, 1–2 minutes. Return clams and their juices to pot; toss to coat and remove from heat. Add pasta and toss to coat eve...

Spaghetti With Clams And Sun Gold Tomatoes 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian

INGREDIENTS

- Kosher salt
- 1.4 kg . small clams — preferably littleneck (about 30), scrubbed
- 350 g . spaghetti
- 60 ml Extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for drizzling
- 8 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 240 ml Dry white wine
- 30 ml . white or yellow miso
- 350 g . sun gold tomatoes — halved, divided
- 60 ml . unsalted butter — cut into pieces
- Freshly ground pepper
- 120 ml Torn basil — plus more for serving

METHOD

1. Partially fill a large bowl with cool water, add a handful of kosher salt, and swish with your hand to dissolve. Add 3 lb. small clams, preferably littleneck (about 30), scrubbed; let sit 15 minutes to expel any grit. Carefully drain and rinse. Repeat with a fresh bowl of cool...
2. Cook 12 oz. spaghetti in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until 1 minute short of al dente. Drain, reserving 1 cup pasta cooking liquid. Set pasta aside.

3. Meanwhile, heat ¼ cup extra-virgin olive oil in a medium Dutch oven over medium. Cook 8 garlic cloves, thinly sliced, stirring, until golden, about 30 seconds. Pour in 1 cup dry white wine, add reserved clams, and increase heat to medium-high. Cover and cook, until clams are o...

4. Reduce heat to medium and stir in 2 Tbsp. white or yellow miso to dissolve. Add 6 oz. Sun Gold tomatoes, halved; cook, pressing occasionally with spoon to help break open, until some of the tomatoes burst and release their juices, about 4 minutes.

5. Add 4 Tbsp. unsalted butter, cut into pieces, remaining 6 oz. Sun Gold tomatoes, halved, and reserved pasta and cook, tossing and adding reserved pasta cooking liquid ¼-cupful at a time if needed, until pasta is al dente and has soaked up some of the sauce (it will thicken as ...

6. Divide pasta and clams among bowls. Drizzle with oil and top with more basil.

Spaghetti With Lobster Pomodoro 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- Kosher salt
- 2 1 0.25-lb. live lobsters
- 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 30 ml . ghee or unsalted butter
- 0.25 small Red onion — thinly sliced
- 3 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 2 sprig Basil
- 1 14 -oz. can whole peeled san marzano tomatoes
- 350 g . spaghetti
- 125 g . nduja — broken into small pieces
- Tarragon and parsley leaves — for serving

METHOD

1. Bring a large pot of salted water to a rolling boil. Working one at a time, cook lobsters 3 minutes, then transfer to a large bowl of ice water. Let cool just until you can comfortably handle them, about 1 minute.

2. Twist off claws where the knuckles meet the body (it's easier than you think—just twist!).

3. Return claws to pot of boiling water. Cook 2 minutes (leave bodies in ice water). Add claws back to ice water and let both claws and bodies cool completely. (The lobsters are intentionally undercooked at this point but will finish cooking in the sauce.) This method cooks the m...

4. Remove bodies and claws from ice water. Twist tails off bodies with your hands; discard heads (you won't get enough meat to make it worth your time). Working with 1 tail at a time, place on a cutting board and, using a chef's knife or cleaver, cut lengthwise all the way throug...

5. Heat oil and ghee in a large skillet over medium. As soon as ghee is melted, add onion and a pinch of salt and cook, stirring occasionally, until softened, about 5 minutes. Add garlic and cook, stirring occasionally, until garlic is very soft, about 5 minutes. Add basil and as...

6. Meanwhile, cook pasta in another large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until very al dente (about 1 minute less than package directions).

7. Using tongs, transfer pasta to skillet with sauce, then add nduja and a splash of pasta cooking liquid and reduce heat to medium-low (high heat can cause the sauce to break). Cook, tossing gently and adding splashes of pasta cooking liquid as needed to get sauce to cling tight...

8. Add chilled lobster meat to pasta and cook, tossing gently, just until lobster meat is warmed all the way through, about 2 minutes.

9. Divide pasta among bowls and top with tarragon and parsley leaves.

10. Do Ahead: Lobster can be cooked 1 day ahead; keep chilled. Tomato sauce can be made 3 days ahead. Let cool; cover and chill. Reheat over medium before using.

Spaghetti With Mussels And White Beans 6 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 30 ml (1/4 stick) unsalted butter
- 60 ml Olive oil — divided

- 2.5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 1 28 -ounce can whole peeled tomatoes
- 450 g Spaghetti
- Kosher salt
- 1 15 -ounce can cannellini (white kidney) beans — rinsed
- 240 ml Dry white wine
- 900 g Mussels — scrubbed
- 60 ml Chopped flat-leaf parsley

METHOD

1. Heat butter and 2 tablespoons oil in a large heavy pot over medium-low heat. Add garlic and red pepper flakes and cook, stirring often, until beginning to brown, about 2 minutes. Add tomatoes with juices, crushing tomatoes lightly with your hands. Increase heat to medium-high....

2. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until al dente. Drain pasta, reserving 1 1/2 cups pasta cooking liquid.

3. Add beans and wine to sauce. Cook, stirring often, until wine has almost evapor-ated, about 4 minutes. Add mussels and 1/4 cup pasta cooking liquid. Cover; cook, stir-ring occasionally, until mussels open, about 4 minutes (discard any that do not open).

4. Add pasta and 1/4 cup pasta cooking liquid to mussels and stir to coat. Reduce heat to medium and continue stirring, adding more cooking liquid as needed, until sauce coats pasta. Divide among bowls. Drizzle with oil; garnish with parsley.

Spanish Octopus 2 servings

Spanish · Allrecipes · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Yellow onion — coarsely chopped
- 3 clove Garlic — peeled and crushed
- 1 large Bay leaf
- 7 ml Smoked spanish paprika
- 7 ml Kosher salt
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 120 ml White wine
- 1 pcs Spanish octopus
- 30 ml Olive oil
- .333 cup braising liquid
- 15 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 15 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- Salt to taste
- 1 pinch Cayenne pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Place onion, garlic, bay leaf, paprika, salt, and 1 tablespoon olive oil into a saucepan. Cook and stir over medium-high heat until onions start to soften, about 5 minutes. Add white wine to create the braising liquid. Bring to a simmer.
2. Transfer octopus into braising liquid, turning to coat with the liquid. Cover; reduce heat to low. Simmer 20 minutes and turn octopus over. Continue cooking until octopus is tender, another 40 to 45 minutes.
3. Remove from heat; transfer octopus to a large bowl. Pour braising liquid over octopus. Place bowl above a bowl of ice water to cool to room temperature.
4. Cover bowl with plastic wrap when octopus and liquid are cool. Refrigerate until thoroughly chilled, at least 2 hours or overnight.
5. Transfer octopus to a work surface and mop off braising juices with paper towels; remove as much of the purple skin as you want. Cut octopus into 3 or 4 serving-size pieces. Brush with olive oil.
6. Transfer braising liquid to saucepan. Bring to a boil; remove from heat. Strain out solids; transfer liquid to a mixing bowl; let cool about 10 minutes. Stir in lemon juice, extra-virgin olive oil, salt, and cayenne pepper to make the serving sauce.
7. Heat a grill pan or outdoor grill to high heat. Transfer octopus pieces to grill. Cook until flesh is seared, almost charred, 3 or 4 minutes. Turn and cook other side until dark brown, caramelized, and heated through, another 3 or 4 minutes. Transfer to a platter.
8. Slice octopus into fairly thick diagonal slices. Place on a serving dish. Spoon braising liquid mixture over the top. Dust with a bit of cayenne pepper, if desired.

Spicy Honey-chipotle Salmon Bowl

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 480 ml Low-sodium chicken broth
- 5 ml Butter
- 120 ml Brown rice
- 360 ml Chopped fresh green beans
- 1 medium Sweet potato — chopped
- 15 ml Olive oil
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 15 ml Honey
- 5 ml Ground dried chipotle pepper
- 2.5 ml Granulated garlic
- 2 Frozen salmon fillets with skin
- 15 ml Chopped toasted pecans

METHOD

1. Bring chicken broth and butter to a boil in a saucepan. Add rinsed brown rice and reduce heat to medium-low. Cover and simmer until rice is tender and liquid has been absorbed, 45 to 50 minutes. When finished, remove from the heat, cover, and keep warm.
2. Meanwhile, preheat the oven to 204°C (200 degrees C). Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.
3. When the rice has about 30 minutes left, combine green beans, sweet potato, olive oil, salt, and pepper in a bowl; toss to combine. Transfer to the prepared baking sheet, separating green beans on one side and sweet potatoes on the other.
4. Combine honey, chipotle pepper, and garlic in a bowl; season to taste with salt and pepper. Brush mixture onto frozen salmon and place on top of the green beans, skin-side down (this step is important.)
5. Roast in the preheated oven until vegetables are soft and salmon flakes easily with a fork, 30 to 35 minutes.
6. Remove from the oven. Divide rice between 2 bowls. Top each bowl with vegetables and a salmon fillet. Sprinkle toasted pecans over top.

2. Tear off leaves from cabbage until you get down to the crunchy white part. Rip outer leaves into 2" pieces. Thinly slice core crosswise until you have about 6 cups; reserve remaining cabbage for another use. Toss in a large bowl with daikon, carrots, and reserved scallion tops...

Spicy Lobster Pasta 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 350 g Spaghetti
- Kosher salt
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 30 ml Unsalted butter
- 1 large Shallot — finely chopped
- 5 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 450 g Cherry and/or sun gold tomatoes
- 450 g Picked cooked lobster meat or cooked large shrimp
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 5 ml Finely grated lemon zest
- Lemon wedges — for serving

METHOD

1. Cook spaghetti in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until al dente. Drain, reserving 1 cup pasta cooking liquid (the secret to silky sauce).
2. Meanwhile, heat oil and butter in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Cook shallot and red pepper flakes, stirring often, until shallot is softened, about 2 minutes. Add tomatoes and cook, stirring often, until tomatoes are soft and juicy, 5–8 minutes.
3. Add lobster meat to skillet and toss to coat. Add pasta and ½ cup reserved pasta cooking liquid; season with salt and pepper. Cook, tossing constantly and adding more reserved pasta cooking liquid as needed, until sauce thickens and coats pasta, about 2 minutes.
4. Serve pasta topped with lemon zest, with lemon wedges alongside for squeezing over.

Spicy Marinated Vegetables And Sardines On Toast

Epicurious · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 8 ml Coriander seeds
- 2.5 ml Fennel seeds
- 8 small Any color carrots (about 6 ounces total) — scrubbed
- 2 small Shallots — peeled
- 1 small Serrano chile
- 80 ml Sherry vinegar
- 6 Radishes — trimmed
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 1/2 Baguette — split in half lengthwise
- 1 Garlic clove — peeled
- 180 ml Mayonnaise
- 3 can Sardines in water — drained
- 1 Lemon
- A spice mill or mortar and pestle

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 218°C. Toast coriander and fennel seeds in a dry small skillet over medium heat, tossing often, until fragrant, about 2 minutes; let cool. Coarsely grind in spice mill or with mortar and pestle; transfer to a medium bowl.
2. Using a mandoline, shave carrots, shallots, and chile into thin rounds; transfer to bowl with spices. Add vinegar and season with salt. Using your hands, massage mixture 20–30 seconds (this is just to get the flavors to meld faster). Let sit 10 minutes.
3. Shave radishes on mandoline into bowl with carrot mixture and add 2 Tbsp. oil. Toss to combine and let vegetables sit another 5–10 minutes.
4. Meanwhile, tear baguette halves into 4" pieces and place on a baking sheet. Drizzle with oil and bake until golden brown and edges are lightly charred, 5–8 minutes. Remove toast from oven and rub cut sides with garlic; season lightly with salt. Spread a layer of mayonnaise ove...

Allrecipes · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 1 head Broccoli — cut into florets
- 45 ml Olive oil
- 2 pinch Salt to taste
- 0.5 pkg Linguine pasta
- 6 Anchovy fillets in olive oil — drained
- 3 clove Garlic — thinly sliced
- 2.5 ml Red pepper flakes
- 1 pinch Ground black pepper to taste

METHOD

1. Set an oven rack about 8 inches from the heat source and preheat the oven's broiler. Toss broccoli in a bowl with 1 tablespoon olive oil and salt; spread on a large baking sheet.
2. Broil in the preheated oven until broccoli is tender and beginning to brown, 5 to 10 minutes.
3. Bring a large pot of lightly salted water to a boil. Cook linguine at a boil until tender yet firm to the bite, about 11 minutes.
4. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large skillet over low heat. Add anchovies, garlic, and red pepper flakes; cook and stir until anchovies dissolve into the oil, 3 to 5 minutes. Season with pepper. Mix in roasted broccoli.
5. Drain pasta and return to the pot. Add broccoli-anchovy mixture and mix well. Drizzle remaining olive oil on top.

Spicy Pasta With Shrimp And Tomatoes 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Olive oil
- 450 g Large shrimp (about 20) — peeled, deveined
- 350 g Fideo — vermicelli, or angel hair pasta
- 1 medium Red onion — chopped
- 45 ml Fish sauce

Spicy Salmon Hand Rolls 10 servings

Japanese · Bon Appetit · Pescatarian

INGREDIENTS

- 5 Square toasted nori sheets
- 1 3.2–4 -oz. can spicy salmon or tuna — such as Fishwife
- 60 ml Mayonnaise
- Cooked sushi rice — for filling
- 1 Avocado — thinly sliced
- 0.5 medium Cucumber — cut into matchsticks
- Gochugaru (coarse korean red pepper powder) or other mild red pepper flakes — for serving

METHOD

1. Cut 5 square toasted nori sheets in half to make 10 rectangles.
2. Place one 3.2–4-oz. can spicy salmon or tuna in a medium bowl, reserving any oil in the can.
3. Stir in ¼ cup mayonnaise and 1 Tbsp. reserved oil with a fork, breaking up and coating the salmon.
4. Working one at a time, set nori sheets, shiny side down, on a surface with a long side facing you.
5. Place a spoonful of cooked sushi rice on the left side of the nori; spread evenly into a square to fill the left third of the sheet.
6. Top the rice with a small spoonful of dressed salmon, then a few slices from the avocado, and pieces from the cucumber, arranging in a diagonal line that points up to the upper left corner of the nori.
7. Fold the bottom left corner of the nori up and over the fillings, then continue to roll up to form a cone.
8. Pat the edge with a bit of water and gently press to seal.
9. Sprinkle exposed filling with gochugaru.

Spicy Salmon Jerky 12 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1.4 kg Salmon fillet
- 240 ml Soy sauce
- 30 ml Molasses
- 30 ml White sugar
- 30 ml Worcestershire sauce
- 30 ml Lemon juice
- 10 ml Liquid smoke flavoring
- 20 ml Ground black pepper
- 12 dash Hot sauce (such as tabasco®) — or more to taste

METHOD

1. Slice salmon into 4 equal sections, width-wise. Rotate each section 90 degrees and slice lengthwise, about 1/4-inch thick. Remove pin bones with needle-nose pliers. Don't slice bony sections near center of fillet.
2. Whisk soy sauce, molasses, sugar, Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice, liquid smoke, black pepper, and hot sauce together in a large glass or ceramic bowl. Add salmon and toss to evenly coat. Cover the bowl with plastic wrap and marinate in the refrigerator for 4 hours.
3. Remove salmon from marinade and shake off excess. Pat salmon dry using paper towels. Discard remaining marinade.
4. Place salmon strips in a dehydrator; run according to manufacturer's instructions until desired doneness reached, about 6 hours. Check every few hours for doneness.

3. Stir in cod, shrimp, and reserved chorizo and continue to simmer until fish and shrimp are cooked, about 5 to 7 minutes.

4. Ladle into serving bowls. Serve with fresh chopped green onions, chopped cilantro, and lime wedges.

Spicy Tuna Mayo Onigiri 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 375 g Short-grain white sushi rice — rinsed until water runs almost clear
- 6 Scallions — dark green and pale green parts only, thinly sliced
- Finely grated zest of 1 large lemon
- 2 5 -oz. cans oil-packed tuna — drained
- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 15 ml . plus 2 tsp. sriracha
- 10 ml . soy sauce — preferably low-sodium
- 5 ml . diamond crystal or 0.5 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
- 60 ml (or more) furikake

METHOD

1. Bring 2 cups short-grain white sushi rice, rinsed until water runs almost clear, and 2½ cups water to a boil in a medium saucepan, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat to low, cover pan, and cook until water is absorbed, 12–14 minutes. Remove from heat and let sit (still covered...

2. Meanwhile, using a fork, mix 6 scallions, dark green and pale green parts only, thinly sliced, finely grated zest of 1 large lemon, two 5-oz. cans oil-packed tuna, drained, ½ cup mayonnaise, 1 Tbsp. plus 2 tsp. sriracha, 2 tsp. soy sauce, preferably low-sodium, and 1 tsp. Diam...

3. Set up a workstation with a small bowl of water, a small bowl of kosher salt, cooked rice (still in pan), tuna filling, and eight 6" squares of plastic wrap.

4. To make 1 onigiri, line an 8-oz. ramekin or bowl with a square of plastic wrap. Dip your hands in water to moisten, then rub with a little salt. (This prevents the rice from sticking to your hands and also flavors the onigiri.) Scoop ½ cup rice into your nondominant hand (keep...

Spicy Tuna Roll 4 servings

Fusion · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 375 g Sushi rice — cooked
- 60 ml Seasoned rice vinegar
- 4 Half sheets sushi grade nori
- 1 can Tuna — drained
- 20 ml Mayonnaise
- 8 ml Sriracha
- 1 Green onion — thinly sliced
- 5 ml Sesame oil

METHOD

1. Season the sushi rice with the rice vinegar, fanning and stirring until room temperature.
2. On the rolling mat place one sheet of nori with the rough side facing upwards.
3. In a small bowl, combine tuna filling ingredients. Set aside.
4. Wet your hands and grab a handful of rice and place it on the nori. Spread the rice evenly throughout the nori without smushing the rice down.
5. Arrange, in a horizontal row 1 inch (2.5 cm) from the bottom, a large spoonful of the tuna filling.
6. Grabbing both nori and the mat, roll the mat over the filling so the extra space at the bottom touches the other side, squeezing down to make a nice tight roll. Squeeze down along the way to keep the roll from holding its shape.
7. Transfer the roll onto a cutting board. Rub a knife on a damp paper towel before slicing the roll into six equal portions.
8. Enjoy!

Squid And Fennel Pasta With Lemon And Herbs 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan

INGREDIENTS

- 75 ml Olive oil
- 450 g Squid — bodies and tentacles
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1 large Fennel bulb — thinly sliced lengthwise, plus 2 tablespoons fronds
- 2 Garlic cloves — thinly sliced
- 4 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 0.5 lemon — seeds removed, very thinly sliced, divided
- 350 g Linguine or fettuccine
- 120 ml Parsley leaves with tender stems

METHOD

1. Heat 2 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet over high. Working in 2 batches, season squid with salt and pepper and cook, stirring often, until cooked through, about 3 minutes (don't overcook or it'll get rubbery). Transfer to a small bowl.
2. Reduce heat to medium-high and heat 2 Tbsp. oil in skillet (no need to wipe out). Add fennel slices, season with salt and pepper, and cook, stirring occasionally, until golden brown and soft, 10–12 minutes (some nicely browned bits should be stuck to skillet). Add garlic, red ...
3. Meanwhile, cook pasta in a large pot of boiling salted water, stirring occasionally, until al dente. Drain pasta, reserving 1 ½ cups pasta cooking liquid.
4. Add pasta to skillet along with 1 cup cooking liquid. Toss, scraping up any browned bits; season with salt and pepper. Cook, tossing and adding more cooking liquid as needed, until sauce coats pasta, about 3 minutes. Add squid and give it all another toss to combine.
5. Toss parsley, fennel fronds, remaining lemon slices, and remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in a small bowl; season with salt and pepper. Serve pasta topped with salad.

Steamed Fish In Clay Pot 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 840 ml Fish stock — dashi, low-sodium chicken broth, or water
· 275 g Black rice
· 180 ml Dry white wine
· 2 6 -inch-long pieces dried ashwagandha root or 2 teaspoons ashwagandha powder — or the equivalent of 4 servings
· 1 3 X3-inch piece kombu
· 2 Bay leaves
· 30 ml Dried hijiki or arame seaweed
· Kosher salt
· 2 6–8 -ounce black bass or red snapper fillets
· 150 g Trumpet or shiitake mushrooms — halved
· 480 ml Pea shoots
· 2 Red radishes — finely grated
· 30 ml Finely sliced mint leaves

METHOD

1. Combine stock, rice, wine, ashwagandha, kombu, bay leaves, and hijiki in a clay pot or small Dutch oven. Season lightly with salt, depending on whether your stock is already seasoned (it reduces as the dish cooks, which will concentrate the saltiness). Bring to a boil, then re...
2. Season fish with salt. Uncover pot, lay mushrooms over rice mixture, then lay fish, skin side up, over mushrooms. Cover pot and steam until fish is opaque and rice is beginning to crisp on bottom of pot, 6–8 minutes.
3. Scatter pea shoots around fish and top with radishes and mint. Serve right from clay pot.

Steamed Fish With Ginger

Chinese · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g Halibut fillet
- 5 ml Coarse sea salt or kosher salt
- 15 ml Minced fresh ginger
- 45 ml Thinly sliced green onion
- 15 ml Dark soy sauce
- 15 ml Light soy sauce
- 15 ml Peanut oil
- 10 ml Toasted sesame oil
- 60 ml Lightly packed fresh cilantro sprigs

METHOD

1. Pat halibut dry with paper towels. Rub both sides of fillet with salt. Scatter the ginger over the top of the fish and place onto a heatproof ceramic dish.
2. Place into a bamboo steamer set over several inches of gently boiling water, and cover. Gently steam for 10 to 12 minutes.
3. Pour accumulated water out of the dish and sprinkle the fillet with green onion. Drizzle both soy sauces over the surface of the fish.
4. Heat peanut and sesame oils in a small skillet over medium-high heat until they begin to smoke. When the oil is hot, carefully pour on top of the halibut fillet. The very hot oil will cause the green onions and water on top of the fish to pop and spatter all over; be careful. ...

Steamed Fish With Lime And Chile 2 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 large Garlic cloves — crushed
- 30 ml Chopped cilantro stems plus cilantro leaves for garnish
- 15 ml Chopped green thai chiles
- 30 ml (or more) fresh lime juice
- 30 ml Thai fish sauce
- 15 ml Sugar
- pinch Of freshly ground white or black pepper
- 1 Whole head-on black bass or rainbow trout (1 1/2–2 pounds) — cleaned, scored to the bone on both sides in 1' intervals
- 30 ml Low-salt chicken broth
- 1 Lime — cut into thin rounds
- Steamed jasmine rice

METHOD

1. In a clay mortar, lightly pound garlic, cilantro stems, and chiles with a wooden pestle until a coarse paste forms. Add 2 Tbsp. lime juice, fish sauce, sugar, and pepper; mix with a spoon to combine. (Alternatively, pulse in a mini-processor until a loose paste forms.) Set sau...
2. Place fish on a plate that will fit inside the steamer with some wiggle room; pour reserved paste over. In a wide pot, add water to a depth of 1". Bring to a boil. Transfer fish on plate to steamer. Set steamer over pot and pour chicken broth over fish. Cover; steam fish until...
3. Using 2 large spatulas, transfer fish to a serving platter. Spoon juices on plate in steamer over fish. Drizzle with lime juice, if desired. Garnish with lime slices and cilantro leaves. Serve with steamed rice.

Steamed Fish With Potatoes And Anchovy Butter 2 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 700 g Small potatoes (such as creamers) — halved
- 10 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 8 g Diamond crystal or 1 tsp. morton kosher salt — plus more
- Freshly ground pepper
- 2 Dover sole or flounder fillets — 4–7 oz. each
- 125 g (1 stick) unsalted butter
- 5 Oil-packed anchovies — finely chopped
- 60 ml Drained capers
- 1 medium Lemon — halved, divided
- Finely chopped chives — for serving

METHOD

1. Pour water into a medium heavy pot to come 1" up sides. Scatter 1½ lb. small potatoes, halved, over a heatproof plate that fits in pot with at least a ½" gap around sides. Drizzle 2 tsp. extra-virgin olive oil over; sprinkle with 1½ tsp. Diamond Crystal or 1 tsp. Morton kosher...
2. Season 2 Dover sole or flounder fillets (4–7 oz. each) all over with salt. Carefully uncover pot and arrange fillets over potatoes (it's okay if there is some slight overlap). Cover pot and steam until fish is cooked through, about 4 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, heat ½ cup (1 stick) unsalted butter in a small saucepan over medium, stirring constantly, until it foams, then browns, about 4 minutes. Immediately remove from heat and stir in 5 oil-packed anchovies, finely chopped, and ¼ cup drained capers. Squeeze in juice from ...
4. Uncover pot and, using kitchen towels to prevent burns, carefully remove plate. Very carefully tip plate on its side above pot or sink to drain off excess moisture. (You can tip plate and use a paper towel to blot away any excess water.) Drizzle warm anchovy butter over fish a...

Steamed Mackerel With Green Chile Dashi 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 4 4 -ounce boneless — skinless mackerel fillets
- Kosher salt
- 2 Dried shiitake mushrooms
- 1 4 X4-inch piece kombu
- 1 0.5 -inch piece ginger — finely grated
- 1 Garlic clove — finely grated
- 45 ml Mirin
- 30 ml Soy sauce
- 1 ml Mild red pepper flakes
- 120 ml Very thinly sliced peeled daikon
- 120 ml Spinach (or kale — cilantro, or parsley), trimmed
- 0.5 jalapeño — seeded, chopped
- Cilantro leaves — for serving

METHOD

1. Season fish generously with salt (but don't go crazy). Let sit 20 minutes to absorb seasoning.
2. Meanwhile, mix mushrooms, kombu, ginger, garlic, mirin, soy sauce, red pepper, and 2 cups water in a medium saucepan fitted with a steamer insert or bamboo steamer. Bring to a simmer over medium heat, discard kombu, and continue to simmer, adjusting heat as needed, until flavo...
3. Rinse fish and pat dry. Scatter daikon across bottom of steamer insert and lay fish over. Steam fish, maintaining an active simmer in liquid (err on the side of less heat if you aren't sure), until fish is just opaque at the center and a tester inserted into the thickest part ...

4. Transfer fish to a plate. Discard mushrooms, then carefully pour steaming liquid into a blender. Add spinach and jalapeño. Remove cap from hole in lid, cover opening with a kitchen towel, and start blender on lowest speed to prevent hot liquid from splashing out the top like a...
5. Divide fish, daikon, and broth among bowls. Top with cilantro.

- 30 ml Chopped green onion
- 30 ml Dry bread crumbs
- 2.5 ml Seafood seasoning — such as Old Bay®

METHOD

1. Cut a slit through the middle of each salmon fillet, about 2/3 the length of the fillet; set aside.
2. To make the seafood filling: Mix crab, shrimp, mushrooms, mayonnaise, Parmesan cheese, lemon juice, green onion, and bread crumbs together in a bowl.
3. Shape 2/3 of the stuffing mix into 2 large mounds on the prepared sheet pan. Spread open the fillets and place one over each mound. Fill in the top of the slits with remaining stuffing. Season each fillet with seafood seasoning.
4. Bake in the preheated oven until salmon flakes easily with a fork and stuffing is hot, about 30 minutes.

- Tamarind concentrate — often labeled “concentrate cooking tamarind” can be found at Asian and Thai markets.

METHOD

1. Whisk buttermilk and mayonnaise in a medium bowl; season with salt and pepper. Add onions and toss to coat; let sit 15 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, fit a large saucepan with thermometer; pour in oil to measure 2". Heat over medium-high heat until thermometer registers 375°.
3. Whisk flour and chili powder in a shallow dish; season with salt and pepper. Working in batches, remove onion from buttermilk, letting excess drip back into bowl, toss in seasoned flour, and fry, turning occasionally, until golden brown and crisp, about 4 minutes. Transfer to ...
4. Whisk vinegar, oil, fish sauce, honey, and tamarind in a large bowl; season with salt and pepper. Add cabbage, scallions, basil, mint, and peanuts and toss to combine.
5. Serve slaw topped with crispy onions.

Tandoori Octopus 6 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 2 -lb. whole octopus — cleaned, or 1-lb. precooked octopus tentacles
- 30 ml Coarse sea salt or kosher salt
- 15 ml White peppercorns
- 30 ml Peanut or vegetable oil
- Kosher salt
- 15 ml Tandoori powder or seasoning

METHOD

1. Rub octopus with sea salt to season it, then rinse well to remove excess. Place octopus and peppercorns in a large pot and fill pot with cold water; bring to a boil. Cook, uncovered, until octopus can be easily pierced with the tip of a knife, 45–55 minutes.
2. Invert a large bowl inside an even larger one, creating a dome. Drain octopus and place on inverted bowl so tentacles hang down. Chill at least 2 hours. Cut tentacles from octopus; discard head. Thinly slice tentacles crosswise into ½”-thick pieces.

3. Heat 1 Tbsp. oil in a large skillet over high heat. Add half of octopus; season with kosher salt. Cook until lightly browned and almost crisp, about 2 minutes per side. Sprinkle with 1½ tsp. tandoori powder and toss to coat. Wipe out skillet and repeat with remaining oil, octo...
4. DO AHEAD: Octopus can be boiled 1 day ahead. Cover and keep chilled.

Tasmanian Ocean Trout With Sautéed Mushrooms And Hollandaise Sauce 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 6 large Egg yolks
- 60 ml (about) water
- 30 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 240 ml (2 sticks) chilled unsalted butter
- Coarse kosher salt
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 45 ml Butter
- 8 2 -ounce skinless tasmanian ocean trout or salmon fillets — each about 2 1/2x1 1/2x3/4-inches
- 225 g Hon shimeji mushrooms or oyster mushroom clusters

METHOD

1. Whisk egg yolks, 2 tablespoons water, and lemon juice in metal bowl. Add butter. Place bowl over saucepan of barely simmering water; whisk constantly until smooth and instant-read thermometer inserted into mixture registers 71°C, about 15 minutes. Season to taste with salt and...
2. Preheat oven to 149°C. Coat small rimmed baking sheet with 1 tablespoon butter. Sprinkle fish on both sides with coarse salt and pepper. Arrange fish on prepared baking sheet. Roast fish until just barely opaque in center, 10 to 12 minutes.
3. Meanwhile, melt remaining 2 tablespoons butter in medium nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Add mushrooms; sprinkle with coarse salt and pepper and sauté until brown and tender, about 5 minutes.
4. Whisk 1 tablespoon of simmering water from saucepan into hollandaise. Place bowl with hollandaise over same saucepan with barely simmering water and whisk just until warm and smooth, adding more hot water by teaspoonfuls if sauce is very thick.
5. Divide sauce among 4 plates. Stack 2 fish fillets atop sauce on each. Top with mushrooms and serve.

Tasty Tuna Patties

Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 2 can Tuna in water — drained
- 2 large Eggs
- 180 ml Dry bread crumbs
- 20 ml Grated parmesan cheese
- 20 ml Finely diced celery
- 2.5 ml Lemon juice
- 2.5 ml Seafood seasoning
- 2.5 ml Dijon mustard
- 0.5 ml Ground black pepper
- 0.5 ml Dried dill weed
- 15 ml Oil — divided

METHOD

1. Combine tuna, eggs, bread crumbs, Parmesan cheese, celery, lemon juice, seafood seasoning, mustard, pepper, and dill in a bowl; stir gently until fully and evenly combined. Shape mixture into 4 patties.
2. Heat oil in a nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. When oil is hot, gently lay 2 tuna patties into the skillet. Don't over crowd - only add as many patties as comfortably fit with room to flip them.
3. Cook tuna patties until golden brown, 3 to 5 minutes per side, adjusting the heat as needed if they're cooking too quickly. Repeat with remaining patties, adding remaining oil as needed.

Tekka Don No Poke 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 60 ml Japanese soy sauce
- 15 ml Plus 1 teaspoon mirin
- 10 ml Toasted sesame oil
- 1 To 2 teaspoons tobanjan (chile bean sauce) — preferably a Japanese brand
- 5 ml Granulated sugar
- 450 g Sushi-grade tuna
- 0.5 medium Hass avocado — peeled, pitted, cut into 1/2-inch pieces
- 1.1 kg Cooked short-grain white rice or cooked — vinegared short-grain white rice, warm
- 1 Nori seaweed sheet
- 60 ml Thinly sliced fresh shiso leaves (also called japanese mint and perilla) or scallion greens
- 5 ml Toasted sesame seeds

METHOD

1. Combine the soy sauce, mirin, sesame oil, tobanjan, and sugar in a medium mixing bowl and stir until the sugar dissolves. Add the tuna and avocado to the bowl, toss well, and set aside to marinate for a few minutes but no more than 5 minutes.
2. Divide the rice among 4 wide bowls. Top each bowl with the tuna and avocado, leaving the sauce behind. Then drizzle the sauce over the tuna and avocado. Tear the nori into small pieces and scatter some over each bowl; top with the shiso and sesame seeds. Eat right away.

Teriyaki Salmon And Kale Sheet Pan Supper 4 servings

Epicurious · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 large Bunch kale
- 15 ml Olive oil
- 4 Salmon fillets
- Kosher salt and black pepper
- 120 ml Store-bought teriyaki sauce

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 218°C. Strip the stems and center ribs out of the kale leaves and place the leaves on a baking sheet. Discard the ribs and stems. Tear the leaves into smaller chunks.
2. Drizzle the kale with olive oil and toss, making sure the oil lightly coats all the pieces.
3. Nestle the salmon among the kale leaves, skin side down (if your fillets have skin) and sprinkle them with salt and pepper. Drizzle a couple of teaspoons of teriyaki sauce over each fillet and brush it to lightly coat the surface.
4. Bake for about 10 minutes, shaking the pan once to make sure the kale doesn't burn. (It should brown a little around the edges.)
5. Warm the remaining teriyaki sauce in the microwave for about 15 seconds and pour it over each piece of salmon, letting it sit for a couple of minutes before serving. (I can't even wait for a plate!)

Teriyaki Shrimp Noodles 4 servings

American · Allrecipes

INGREDIENTS

- 225 g Fresh udon noodles
- 80 ml Soy sauce
- 60 ml Mirin

- 720 ml Cilantro leaves with tender stems
- 720 ml Basil leaves — plus more for serving
- 30 ml Virgin coconut oil or vegetable oil
- 36 Littleneck clams (about 4 pounds) — scrubbed
- 225 g Rice stick noodles
- 0.5 lime
- Kosher salt

METHOD

1. Purée chopped chile, ginger, lemongrass, garlic, fish sauce, brown sugar, and 3 cups water in a blender until smooth. Transfer curry to a small bowl. Reserve blender (no need to clean).
2. Purée coconut cream, cilantro, 3 cups basil, and ¼ cup ice water in blender until very smooth; set herb purée aside.
3. Heat oil in a large saucepan or small pot over medium-high. Add clams, cover, and cook until clams open, 5–7 minutes. Uncover and transfer opened clams to a medium bowl, reserving cooking liquid in saucepan. If any clams are still closed, cover and cook a few minutes longer, t...
4. Add curry base to saucepan and bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer 10 minutes to let flavors meld.
5. Meanwhile, cook noodles according to package directions. Drain and rinse under cold water. Divide among bowls.
6. Using a slotted spoon, transfer clams to noodle bowls. Pour any accumulated clam-cooking liquid into curry mixture and stir in herb purée; bring to a boil. Immediately remove from heat and squeeze in juice from lime. Taste and season with salt if needed. Ladle curry over clams...

Toast Skagen (swedish Shrimp Toast) 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

· 0.25 small Bunch dill
· 0.25 medium Red onion
· 1 12 -oz. bag frozen cooked peeled — deveined, tail-off small shrimp (preferably North Atlantic), thawed
· 1 Lemon
· 45 ml . mayonnaise — preferably hellmann's or best foods
· 30 ml . crème fraîche
· 1 g Kosher salt — plus more
· Freshly ground black pepper
· 30 ml . unsalted butter
· 4 slice White bread — such as Pepperidge Farm
· 20 ml . bleak fish or whitefish roe — optional

METHOD

1. Finely chop tender sprigs from ¼ small bunch dill to yield ¼ cup.; place in a large bowl. Set some larger sprigs aside for serving.
2. Finely chop ¼ medium red onion (you should have about 3 Tbsp.) and add to bowl with dill.
3. Thoroughly pat dry one 12-oz. bag frozen cooked small shrimp, thawed, with a kitchen towel or paper towels. Coarsely chop half of the shrimp. Place all shrimp in bowl with onion and dill.
4. Using a Microplane, finely grate zest of 1 lemon into bowl, then cut lemon in half and squeeze juice of one half through your hand or a fine-mesh sieve into a small bowl; you should have 1 Tbsp. Add lemon juice to bowl with shrimp and mix gently with a rubber spatula to combin...
5. Add 3 Tbsp. mayonnaise, 2 Tbsp. crème fraîche, and ¼ tsp. kosher salt to shrimp; mix gently to coat. Season with freshly ground black pepper and more salt if needed. Cover with plastic wrap or transfer to an airtight container and cover. Chill at least 30 minutes and up to 1 h...
6. When ready to serve toast, melt 2 Tbsp. unsalted butter in a large skillet over medium-low heat. As soon as butter is sizzling, arrange 4 slices white bread in pan and cook, turning a few times to allow both sides to absorb some butter, until golden brown, about 4 minutes.
7. Transfer toast to plates and top with shrimp salad. Spoon 1 tsp. bleak fish or whitefish roe (if using) over each toast and top with reserved dill leaves. Serve with reserved lemon wedges for squeezing over.

Toasted Freekeh And Salmon Salad 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

· 325 g Cracked freekeh
· 0.5 large Onion
· 1 head Garlic — halved crosswise
· 2 sprig Thyme
· 1 sprig Rosemary
· 1 Bay leaf
· Kosher salt

- 450 g Skin-on center-cut salmon fillet
- 15 ml Vegetable oil
- 120 ml Olive oil
- 5 ml Finely grated lemon zest
- 60 ml Fresh lemon juice
- 60 ml Plain whole-milk greek yogurt
- 4 Persian cucumbers — cut into rounds
- 120 ml Finely chopped fresh dill
- 120 ml Finely chopped fresh mint
- 120 ml Finely chopped fresh parsley
- An 8" square piece of cheesecloth

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 375°. Toast freekeh on a rimmed baking sheet until lightly browned, 5–8 minutes.
2. Bundle onion, garlic, thyme, rosemary, and bay leaf in a piece of cheesecloth; tie closed with kitchen twine. Drop sachet into a large pot of salted boiling water, add freekeh, and cook until al dente, 15–20 minutes. Drain; spread out freekeh on a rimmed baking sheet to cool.
3. Season flesh side of salmon with salt. Heat vegetable oil in a large skillet over medium-high and cook salmon, starting skin side down, until golden brown, about 4 minutes per side for medium-rare. Transfer salmon to a platter and let rest 15 minutes.
4. Whisk olive oil, lemon zest, lemon juice, and yogurt in a large bowl. Add cooled freekeh, season with salt, and toss to coat. Mix in cucumbers, dill, mint, and parsley. Divide among plates. Flake salmon into bite-size pieces and arrange over freekeh.
5. Do Ahead: Freekeh can be cooked 1 day ahead. Transfer to airtight container and keep chilled.

Triple Citrus Tuna Steak

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 medium Oranges — juiced
- 1 medium Lime — juiced
- 1 medium Lemon — juiced
- 60 ml Diced red onion
- 30 ml Minced habanero pepper
- 5 ml Cider vinegar
- 5 ml Minced garlic
- 1 pinch Dried oregano
- 120 ml Cubed mango
- 60 ml Diced red onion
- 15 ml Minced fresh cilantro
- Salt and ground black pepper to taste
- 2 Tuna steaks
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 150 g Kettle-cooked potato chips
- 30 ml Unsalted butter
- 15 ml Sweet chili sauce
- 240 ml Hot cooked jasmine rice

METHOD

1. Prepare marinade: Whisk orange juice, lime juice, lemon juice, red onion, habanero pepper, vinegar, garlic, and oregano together in a bowl large enough to hold the tuna steaks.
2. Prepare salsa: Combine mango, red onion, cilantro, salt, and pepper in a separate bowl. Set aside.
3. Prepare tuna: Sprinkle tuna with salt and pepper. Place in the bowl with the marinade and turn to coat. Marinate for about 30 minutes.
4. While tuna is marinating, crush potato chips as fine as possible in a blender. Transfer to a bowl.
5. Remove tuna from the marinade and press into the crushed chips until both sides are well coated.
6. Heat heavy-bottomed nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Add butter and heat until butter melts and foam subsides. Add tuna and sear for 2 to 3 minutes on each side. Remove from the skillet.
7. To serve, top tuna with chile sauce and serve with jasmine rice and mango salsa.

Tropical Tuna Ceviche 4 servings

Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Fresh tuna steaks — diced
- 1 Navel orange — halved, divided
- 1 Grapefruit — halved, divided
- 2 Lemons — halved, divided
- 6 Limes — halved, divided
- 15 ml White vinegar
- 30 ml Olive oil
- Kosher salt — to taste
- 2 Cucumbers — diced
- 0.25 red onion — diced
- 0.5 red bell pepper — seeded and diced
- 0.5 orange bell pepper — seeded and diced
- 1 Jalapeño — seeded and diced
- 360 ml Diced mango
- 1 Avocado — peeled, pitted, and diced
- 60 ml Fresh cilantro — chopped
- Tostadas or tortilla chip — for serving

METHOD

1. Add the diced tuna to a large bowl and squeeze in the juice of half of the navel orange, half of the grapefruit, 1 lemon, and 3 limes. Add the white vinegar and mix until the tuna is evenly coated. Refrigerate for about 1 hour to “cook” the tuna, then drain any excess liquid.
2. Squeeze the juice from the remaining orange half, remaining grapefruit half, remaining lemon, and remaining 3 limes into the bowl with the tuna. Add the olive oil and season with salt to taste.
3. Add the cucumbers, red onion, red and orange bell peppers, jalapeño, mango, avocado, and chopped cilantro to the bowl with tuna and mix until everything is evenly distributed.
4. Serve the ceviche over a tostada or with tortilla chips for scooping.
5. Enjoy!

Trout Chowder 6 servings

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 2 Onions — finely chopped, divided
- 1 Skin-on trout — boned
- 1 bottle Light-colored beer

Tuna Egg Salad Bento Box

American · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 can Water-packed tuna — drained and flaked
- 120 ml Canola mayonnaise
- 1 Hard-boiled egg — chopped
- 30 ml Finely chopped sweet onion
- 30 ml Chopped hamburger dill pickle chips
- 1 ml Salt
- 2 Tomatoes
- 1 Banana — sliced
- 30 ml Lemon juice
- Toothpicks
- 1 can Pineapple chunks — drained
- 6 Strawberries
- 2 Carrots — divided
- 2 Cucumbers — divided
- Black olives
- 1 Hot hard-boiled egg — peeled

METHOD

1. Combine tuna, mayonnaise, chopped egg, onion, pickle chips, and salt in a bowl to make tuna-egg salad.
2. Place tomatoes on a flat work surface. Cut slits from the top towards the bottom to make partial wedges. Fill tomatoes with tuna salad.
3. Dip banana slices in lemon juice. Thread a toothpick through a banana slice, pineapple chunk, and strawberry. Repeat assembling kebabs with the remaining fruit.
4. Cut 1 carrot and 1 cucumber into 3/4-inch circles. Cut each carrot slice into the shape of a tulip using a small knife. Trim cucumber slices into leaves. Thread a leaf through a toothpick; insert a tulip on top. Repeat with the remaining leaves and tulips.
5. Cut the other carrot and cucumber into 1/2-inch slices. Cut out mini carrot and cucumber flowers using a mini flower-shaped vegetable cutter.
6. Place the hot egg in a heart-shaped egg mold; close the lid slowly and tightly. Soak the mold in a bowl of cold water for 10 minutes. Remove egg and drain on a paper towel.
7. Arrange tuna-egg salad, fruit kebabs, tulips, carrot and cucumber cut-outs, and heart-shaped eggs in a bento box.

1. Rinse and drain rice in a fine-mesh sieve several times until water runs clear. Let sit 30 minutes.
2. Combine rice and 2 cups water in a medium saucepan, season lightly with salt, and bring to a boil. Reduce heat, cover saucepan, and simmer until rice is tender, 18–22 minutes. Remove from heat and let sit 10 minutes. Fluff with a fork; keep warm.
3. Meanwhile, soak hijiki in ½ cup cold water in a small bowl until rehydrated and softened, 30–35 minutes. Drain and mix in a clean small bowl with 1 Tbsp. mirin, 1 Tbsp. soy sauce, and ½ tsp. sesame seeds; let sit 5 minutes. Drain.
4. Whisk vinegar, sugar, 1 ½ tsp. kosher salt, and 2 Tbsp. water in another small bowl. Toss cucumber with a pinch of salt in another bowl and squeeze to expel excess water. Add cucumber and jalapeño to brine and let sit at least 10 minutes and up to 1 hour to pickle.
5. Soak scallions in a medium bowl of cold water until they begin to curl, about 10 minutes. Drain and squeeze dry.
6. Combine citrus juice, white soy sauce, oil, remaining 2 Tbsp. mirin, and remaining 2 Tbsp. soy sauce in another small bowl; set ponzu aside.
7. Whisk mayonnaise and chili paste in a final small bowl to combine; set spicy mayo aside.
8. Toss tuna, hijiki, drained pickles, scallions, and ponzu in a large bowl; season with salt.
9. Just before serving, toss avocado into tuna mixture. Divide rice among bowls and top with tuna mixture, a dollop of spicy mayo, more sesame seeds, and some tobiko, if using.

- 8 Corn tortillas — warmed
- 1 large Avocado — thinly sliced
- 2 Limes — cut into eighths
- 1 dash Hot sauce — or to taste

METHOD

1. Heat oil and butter in a large pan over medium-high heat. Add tomatoes, onion, and garlic. Saute until tomatoes release all their juices, about 3 minutes. Add tuna, salt, and cumin. Saute for 1 minute. Stir in eggs and cilantro; cook until eggs are set, 3 to 5 minutes.
2. Spoon 3 tablespoons of the tuna mixture onto each corn tortilla. Top each with a slice of avocado, lime juice, and hot sauce.

Tuna Tartare 4 servings

Bon Appetit

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Mayonnaise
- 1 Serrano or fresno chile or jalapeño — finely grated
- 350 g Highest-quality tuna fillets
- 10 ml Toasted sesame oil
- 2 Scallions — thinly sliced
- 20 ml Unseasoned rice vinegar
- 15 ml Soy sauce

1. Working in batches, pulse button and shiitake mushrooms in a food processor until finely chopped. Transfer to a medium bowl.
2. Working in batches, pulse tofu in food processor until pea-size. Transfer to a small bowl.
3. Pulse onion in food processor until very finely chopped. Transfer to another small bowl.
4. Heat ¼ cup oil in a large pot over medium. Cook mushrooms, stirring occasionally, until browned and shrunken by about one third, 8–10 minutes. Transfer mushrooms back to their bowl. Wipe out pot.
5. Heat remaining 3 Tbsp. oil in pot over medium. Add onion and garlic and cook, stirring occasionally, until onion is tender and browned around the edges, 8–10 minutes.
6. Add gochujang, five-spice, cumin, and tofu to pot and cook, stirring, until tofu and onion are coated, about 2 minutes. Pour in wine and cook just until alcohol smell has burned off, about 1 minute. Add oyster sauce and 4 cups water and return mushrooms to pot. Partially cover...
7. Whisk vegetable oil and sesame oil in a small bowl to combine, then brush cut sides of each English muffin with oil mixture.
8. Heat a large nonstick skillet over medium-high. Cook English muffins, cut sides down, until golden brown underneath, about 1 minute. Transfer to plates, arranging cut side up.
9. Spoon some mushroom mixture onto bottom halves of English muffins (you may have a bit extra) and top with scallions, cilantro, and sesame seeds. Close up sandwiches.

Vegetable And Shrimp Lumpia 16 servings

Asian · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 120 ml Water — plus 1 tablespoon, divided
- 3 clove Garlic — minced
- 2 large Fresno chiles — minced
- 50 g Sugar
- 80 ml Rice vinegar
- 10 ml Kosher salt
- 15 ml Cornstarch
- 2 large Carrots — peeled
- 225 g Green beans — trimmed
- 15 ml Vegetable oil
- 1 small Yellow onion — diced
- 3 clove Garlic — minced
- 5 ml Fresh ginger
- 450 g Shrimp — peeled
- 15 ml Fish sauce
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 5 ml Pepper
- 15 ml Rice vinegar
- 480 ml Bean sprout
- 16 Lumpia wrappers
- Egg wash — for brushing
- Canola oil — for frying

METHOD

1. Make the sweet chili sauce: In a small pot over medium heat, mix together ½ cup (120 ml) of water, the garlic, Fresno chilies, sugar, rice vinegar, and salt. Bring to a boil, then reduce the heat to low and simmer for 2 minutes.
2. In a small bowl, whisk together the cornstarch and remaining tablespoon of water.
3. Whisk the cornstarch slurry into the sauce until fully incorporated. Continue to simmer for 1 minute, or until the mixture has thickened. Remove from the heat and let cool.
4. Make the lumpia: Julienne the carrots. Cut the green beans on the diagonal.
5. In a large skillet, heat the vegetable oil over medium-high heat. Add the onion and cook for 3 minutes or until slightly tender.
6. Add the garlic and ginger, and continue cooking for 2 minutes more, until fragrant.
7. Add the carrots and green beans, and toss to combine. Add the shrimp, fish sauce, salt, pepper, and rice vinegar, and cook for 2 minutes or until shrimp is pink.
8. Add the bean sprouts, toss to incorporate, and remove the pan from the heat.
9. Lay out a lumpia wrapper in a diamond shape and spoon 2 tablespoons of filling onto the bottom of the wrapper, leaving about 1½ inches (4 cm) of space from the bottom point.
10. Fold the bottom point over the filling, then fold in the edges to create an envelope shape. Roll the wrapper toward the top point. Brush the top point with egg wash and finish the roll to seal the end. Repeat with the remaining wrappers and filling.
11. In a large, deep skillet, heat 1 inch (2.5 cm) of canola oil to 149°C (150°C).
12. Carefully add 4-5 lumpia at a time to the hot oil. Fry on each side for 1-2 minutes, or until golden brown. Note: If the lumpia are cooking too quickly or burning, reduce the heat. Remove the lumpia from the oil and drain on a wire rack or paper towels.
13. Garnish with cilantro and serve with the sweet chili sauce.
14. Enjoy!

Vegetable Kimchi 2 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 900 g Crunchy vegetable of choice (such as daikon — radishes, kohlrabi, cucumbers, carrots, or green beans)
- 45 ml Kosher salt
- 15 ml Sugar
- 10 Scallions — cut on a diagonal into 1-inch pieces
- 80 ml Gochugaru (coarse korean red pepper powder) — or 4 0.5 teaspoons crushed red pepper flakes, ground in a spice mill
- 45 ml Finely chopped garlic
- 30 ml Fish sauce
- 15 ml Finely chopped peeled ginger
- Two 1-quart glass jars

METHOD

1. Toss vegetables, salt, and sugar in a large bowl. Let sit at room temperature at least 1 hour and up to 3 hours to allow juices to release.
2. Add scallions, gochugaru, garlic, fish sauce, and ginger; toss until well coated. Divide kimchi between jars, making sure to distribute liquid evenly and leaving 1" headspace. Eat immediately or let sit on countertop 2 days to allow fermentation to begin before refrigerating. ...
3. Do Ahead: Kimchi can be made 2 months ahead. Cover and chill. Open occasionally to release accumulated gas.

INGREDIENTS

- 4 small Shallots — thinly sliced
- Kosher salt
- Zest and juice of 1 makrut (thai) lime or 1 regular lime
- 2 Makrut (thai) lime leaves — thinly sliced, or zest and juice of 1 regular lime
- 2 Lemongrass stalks — bottom third only, tough outer layers removed, thinly sliced
- 2 Long red chiles (such as holland or fresno) — finely chopped, seeds removed if you prefer less heat
- 1 1 0.5" piece ginger — peeled, cut into matchsticks
- 1 Garlic clove — thinly sliced
- Palm sugar or brown sugar
- Sunflower oil or other neutral oil — for drizzling
- 45 ml . virgin coconut oil or sunflower oil — divided
- 0.5 leek — white and pale green parts only, thinly sliced
- 2 small Shallots — thinly sliced
- 1 Long red chile (such as holland or fresno) — thinly sliced, seeds removed if you prefer less heat
- 1 ml Ground turmeric
- 1 Bok choy — coarsely chopped
- 550 g Cooled cooked jasmine or basmati rice
- 30 ml . kecap manis — sweet soy sauce
- 20 ml . light soy sauce
- 5 ml . tomato purée
- 2.5 ml Unseasoned rice vinegar or white wine vinegar
- Kosher salt — freshly ground white pepper
- 2 large Eggs
- Homemade or store-bought fried shallots — for serving
- 1 Scallion — thinly sliced on a diagonal
- Kerupuk or prawn crackers — optional

METHOD

1. Place shallots in a small bowl and sprinkle with a generous pinch of salt. Let sit at least 15 minutes. This will take the raw edge off them.
2. Mix makrut lime zest and juice, makrut lime leaves, lemongrass, chiles, ginger, and garlic in a small bowl to combine. Add shallots and add palm sugar to taste. Taste and season with more salt and/or lime juice if needed. Drizzle with oil; set aside.
3. Heat 2 Tbsp. oil in a large wok or skillet over medium. Add leek and shallots and cook, stirring, until just softened, about 5 minutes. Add chile and turmeric and cook, stirring, 2 minutes, then add bok choy and cook, stirring, 1 minute.
4. Add rice to pan and cook, breaking up any clumps with a wooden spoon and stirring to combine well, until rice is warmed through. Add kecap manis, soy sauce, tomato purée, and vinegar and stir well to combine, then stir in sambal matah. Remove fried rice from heat and season wi...
5. Meanwhile, heat remaining 1 Tbsp. oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium. Crack eggs into pan and cook until whites are partially cooked, 2–3 minutes. Tilt pan and spoon hot oil over egg whites until fully cooked (I like my yolk runny, but cook yours to your liking). Seas...
6. Divide fried rice between plates and top with fried shallots, scallion and a fried eggs. Serve with crackers if desired.

Vegetables And Sardines On Toast 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 8 ml Coriander seeds
- 2.5 ml Fennel seeds
- 8 small Any color carrots (about 6 ounces total) — scrubbed
- 2 small Shallots — peeled
- 1 small Serrano chile
- 80 ml Sherry vinegar
- Kosher salt
- 6 Radishes — trimmed
- 30 ml Olive oil
- 0.5 baguette — split in half lengthwise
- 1 Garlic clove — peeled
- 180 ml Mayonnaise
- 3 3.75 -ounce cans sardines in water — drained
- 1 Lemon
- A spice mill or mortar and pestle

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 425°. Toast coriander and fennel seeds in a dry small skillet over medium heat, tossing often, until fragrant, about 2 minutes; let cool. Coarsely grind in spice mill or with mortar and pestle; transfer to a medium bowl.
2. Using a mandoline, shave carrots, shallots, and chile into thin rounds; transfer to bowl with spices. Add vinegar and season with salt. Using your hands, massage mixture 20–30 seconds (this is just to get the flavors to meld faster). Let sit 10 minutes.
3. Shave radishes on mandoline into bowl with carrot mixture and add 2 Tbsp. oil. Toss to combine and let vegetables sit another 5–10 minutes.
4. Meanwhile, tear baguette halves into 4" pieces and place on a baking sheet. Drizzle with oil and bake until golden brown and edges are lightly charred, 5–8 minutes. Remove toast from oven and rub cut sides with garlic; season lightly with salt. Spread a layer of mayonnaise ove...

Veggie Roast And Tuna Salad 2 servings

Vietnamese Coconut-caramel Shrimp (tom Rim)

Vietnamese · Allrecipes · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 450 g Uncooked medium shrimp
· 15 ml Salt
· 30 ml White sugar
· 60 ml Coconut water
· 5 ml Maple syrup
· 30 ml Olive oil
· 1 dash Sesame oil
· 1 Shallot — minced
· 3 clove Garlic — minced
· 30 ml Fish sauce
· 15 ml Chopped fresh chives

- 3 large Eggs — beaten
- 480 ml Panko breadcrumbs
- 2 Boneless — skinless chicken breasts, halved and pounded thin
- 90 ml Vegetable oil
- 6 large Shrimps — peeled and deveined
- 240 ml Pineapple juice
- 160 ml Water
- 15 ml Soy sauce
- 60 ml Teriyaki sauce
- 275 g Brown sugar
- 5 ml Lemon zest
- 45 ml Lemon juice
- 60 ml White onion — minced
- 30 ml Pineapple
- 30 ml Whiskey
- 2.5 ml Cayenne
- 45 ml Fresh parsley
- 6 medium Red skin potatoes — quartered
- Cold water — as needed
- 45 ml Unsalted butter
- 240 ml Heavy cream
- 15 ml Kosher salt
- 5 ml Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 177°C (180°C).
2. Drizzle the halved head of garlic with the olive oil and season with ½ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper. Wrap the garlic in foil.

3. Bake for 40–50 minutes, until the garlic cloves are golden and tender. Set aside to cool.
4. Season the chicken on both sides with 1 teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon pepper.
5. Add the eggs and panko to 2 shallow dishes.
6. Coat the chicken breasts in the eggs, then dredge in the bread crumbs, making sure bread crumbs adhere to the chicken.
7. Heat 3 tablespoons of vegetable oil in a large skillet over medium heat until shimmering. Working in batches to avoid overcrowding the pan, add the chicken to the hot oil and cook until golden brown on both sides and cooked through, 5–8 minutes. Remove the chicken from the pa...
8. Season the shrimp with ¼ teaspoon pepper and ½ teaspoon salt. Coat the shrimp in the eggs, then dredge in the bread crumbs, making sure the bread crumbs adhere to the shrimp.
9. Heat the remaining 3 tablespoons of oil in the same pan over medium heat. When the oil is shimmering, add the shrimp to the skillet and cook for 2–3 minutes per side, or until golden brown. Remove the shrimp from the pan and set aside. Wipe out the pan to remove any remaining ...
10. Make the whiskey glaze: Squeeze the cloves from one half of the roasted garlic head into a medium bowl. Using the back of a fork, mash the garlic cloves into a paste. Add the pineapple juice, water, soy sauce, teriyaki sauce, and brown sugar. Whisk until the sugar dissolves.
11. Pour the sauce into the same skillet and bring to a simmer over medium heat. Once simmering, whisk in the lemon zest and juice, onion, crushed pineapple, whiskey, and cayenne. Gently simmer for 20–30 minutes, or until the sauce is thick and syrupy.
12. While sauce is cooking, make the mashed potatoes: Add the potatoes to a large pot and cover with cold water by 1 inch (2 ½ cm). Bring to a boil over high heat and cook until fork-tender, about 20 minutes.
13. Drain the potatoes and return to the warm pot. Add the remaining half head of roasted garlic cloves. Mash into the potatoes with a potato masher or wooden spoon. Add the butter and cream and stir to incorporate. Season with the remaining salt and pepper.
14. Return the chicken and shrimp to the skillet and turn to coat in the sauce. Transfer the chicken and shrimp to plates with a few spoonfuls of the mashed potatoes and garnish with the parsley.
15. Enjoy!

· 1 bunch Radishes — trimmed, halved
· Kimchi — cooked white rice, and lettuce (for serving)

METHOD

1. Line a rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper and coat evenly with 1 Tbsp. oil. Place rack in middle and top third of oven and set baking sheet on middle rack. Preheat oven to 375°.
2. Whisk egg white, a pinch of salt, and 1 tsp. water in a small bowl until frothy. Pat fish dry inside and out with paper towels. Season fish all over, including cavity, with salt. Stuff cavity with one fourth of scallions, half of sliced garlic, and half of chiles.
3. Place fish on a large plate or another rimmed baking sheet, brush with egg white mixture, and sprinkle with 2 Tbsp. sesame seeds, patting gently to adhere. Turn over and repeat on opposite side, with egg white and another 2 Tbsp. sesame seeds. Transfer fish to preheated baking...
4. Meanwhile, toast remaining 2 tsp. sesame seeds in a small skillet over medium-high heat until golden and fragrant, about 4 minutes. Transfer to a medium bowl and add doenjang, gochujang, honey, and remaining 1 Tbsp. oil. Finely grate in 1 garlic clove and whisk to combine. (Th...
5. Whisk vinegar and 2 Tbsp. ssamjang in a large bowl. Add radishes and remaining sliced scallions, garlic, and chiles. Toss to combine.
6. Remove fish from oven; heat broiler. Broil fish on top rack until sesame seeds are golden, about 4 minutes. Remove fish from oven and gently turn over by sliding fish to one side of baking sheet and using parchment and a fish spatula to turn it. Season other side of fish with ...

Whole Grilled Fish With Lime 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 1 5 -pound — two 2 1/2-pound, or three 1 1/2-pound head-on fish, such as gray or pink snapper, black sea bass, or branzino, scaled, gutted
· Kosher salt
· 60 ml Olive oil plus more for oiling and drizzling
· 2 Limes or 5 key limes (preferably from mexico) — thinly sliced, plus 1/4 cup fresh lime juice
· 0.5 bunch Each basil and cilantro — stems and leaves separated

METHOD

1. Build a medium-hot fire in a charcoal grill, or heat a gas grill to high. Score fish: Cut 1 slash lengthwise down to the bone, then crosswise in 2 places, spacing apart; repeat on other side. Season fish cavity and skin with salt; drizzle fish with 1/4 cup oil. Stuff some of t...
2. Clean and oil grill grate well. Grill fish, resisting the urge to turn it, until skin is nicely crisp and charred and flesh is flaky and opaque down to the bone. (This can take 6–15 minutes, depending on size of fish. Don't mess around with it until it's ready.) Place a metal ...
3. Place fish on a serving platter; drizzle oil and lime juice over. Garnish with reserved lime slices, basil leaves, and cilantro.

Whole Grilled Salmon With Chanterelles 8 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 60 ml Unsalted butter
· 30 ml Grapeseed or vegetable oil
· 450 g Chanterelle mushrooms or other wild mushrooms
· 2 sprig Thyme
· 2 Garlic cloves — smashed
· Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
· 1 4–5 -pound whole salmon — preferably sockeye or coho, cleaned, scales removed
· Kosher salt — freshly ground pepper
· 1 Lemon — thinly sliced
· 4 sprig Dill
· 4 sprig Thyme
· 2 sprig Tarragon
· 45 ml Olive oil

METHOD

1. Heat a large skillet, preferably cast iron, over medium-high. Add butter and oil and swirl pan until butter is melted. Add mushrooms, thyme, and garlic and season with salt and pepper. Cook, tossing often, until mushrooms are golden brown and tender, 5–8 minutes; set aside.
2. Prepare a grill for medium-low heat. Using a sharp knife, make a slit along belly of salmon, running from rib cage to tail. Turn salmon on its back and cut along both sides of backbone without piercing through skin on other side. Carefully remove backbone without tearing skin,...
3. Carefully place fish on grill grates and grill, uncovered, until flesh on bottom side is mostly opaque but still slightly translucent in the center, 12–18 minutes. Carefully turn fish and cook on the other side to the same doneness, 8–10 minutes. Transfer fish to a clean rimme...
4. Place skillet with chanterelles directly on edge of grill to reheat while you portion the fish. Remove strings and peel back skin from salmon; discard. Break flesh of top fillet into large pieces and transfer to a platter. Discard aromatics and remove skin from bottom fillet, ...

Wolfgang Puck’s Tomato Risotto With Shrimp 4 servings

Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 90 ml Olive oil
- 10 ml Garlic — minced
- 15 ml Shallot
- 240 ml Arborio rice
- 60 ml Dry white wine
- 480 ml Chicken stock — boiling
- 400 g Tomato soup
- 90 ml Unsalted butter
- 25 g Parmesan cheese — freshly grated
- Kosher salt — to taste
- White pepper — freshly ground, to taste
- 8 large Shrimps — peeled, deveined, tails on, butterflied
- 60 ml Green peas
- 15 ml Fresh parsley leaf — for garnish

METHOD

1. In a medium skillet, heat 3 tablespoons olive oil over medium heat. Add the shallots and 1 teaspoon minced garlic, and sauté until soft, but not brown.
2. Add the rice and sauté until well-coated with the oil. Deglaze the pan with the wine and reduce until the pan is almost dry.
3. Using a 4-ounce (115 g) ladle, add one ladle of boiling stock to the rice. Stir the rice until the stock is absorbed and the rice is almost dry. Continue adding stock 1 ladle at a time until the rice is tender, but still firm. It should be moist and creamy, but not runny.
4. Add the tomato basil bisque and stir to combine.
5. Remove the risotto from the heat, and stir in the butter and the Parmesan cheese. Season with salt and pepper.
6. Heat the remaining 3 tablespoons of olive oil in a medium skillet over medium heat. Add the remaining teaspoon of minced garlic and the shrimp. Season with salt and white pepper. Add the peas and cook until the shrimp is pink and opaque, 4-5 minutes.
7. Remove the shrimp from the heat and sprinkle with parsley. Divide the risotto between 2 warm serving plates. Top each with half the shrimp and peas. Serve immediately.
8. Enjoy

Yellowtail Crudo With Citrus And Avocado 2 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

- 1 Avocado
- 1 Garlic clove — chopped
- 15 ml Crème fraîche or sour cream
- 2 Serrano chiles — seeded, finely chopped, divided
- 30 ml Fresh lime juice
- Kosher salt
- 125 g Sashimi-grade skinless
- 10 ml Olive oil
- 5 ml Fish sauce
- 5 ml Finely chopped shallot
- 2.5 ml Finely grated peeled ginger
- 2.5 ml Yuzu kosho
- 1 Radish — trimmed, thinly sliced
- Cilantro leaves with tender stems and thin fancy crackers or crispbread — for serving
- Yuzu kosho can be found at japanese markets and some specialty foods stores.

METHOD

1. Mash avocado with garlic, crème fraîche, half of serranos, and 1 Tbsp. lime juice in a small bowl until mixture is mostly smooth; season with salt.
2. Hold your knife at a 45° angle and slice fish with the grain into ½" slices (use a sharp blade and aim for one long, clean stroke). Cut each slice crosswise into ½" pieces.
3. Combine oil, fish sauce, shallot, ginger, yuzu kosho, remaining serrano, and remaining 1 Tbsp. lime juice in a medium bowl. Add yellowtail, season with salt, and gently toss crudo to combine.
4. Spread avocado mixture on plates. Top with yellowtail, radish, and cilantro. Serve with crackers.

Yum Phonlamai 4 servings

INGREDIENTS

- 15 ml . small dried shrimp — optional
- 20 g Unsweetened shredded coconut
- 4 Garlic cloves
- 2 Red thai chiles — coarsely chopped
- 60 ml . fresh lime juice
- 20 ml . granulated sugar
- 20 ml . fish sauce
- 2 Apples — preferably Pink Lady, cored, cut into 1" pieces
- 2 Asian pears — cored, cut into 2" pieces
- 1 small Shallot — thinly sliced into rings
- 240 ml Red grapes
- 60 ml Coarsely chopped cilantro
- 60 ml Mint leaves — torn if large

METHOD

1. If using, toast dried shrimp in a dry small skillet, tossing occasionally, over medium heat until slightly lighter in appearance and a little crispy, about 4 minutes. Transfer to a cutting board; reserve skillet. Coarsely chop and lightly smash to tenderize; set aside.
2. Add coconut to reserved skillet and toast over medium heat until light golden and fragrant, about 2 minutes. Transfer to a small bowl; set aside.
3. Smash garlic to a coarse paste with a mortar and pestle. Add chiles and lightly smash (the finer you pound the chiles, the spicier the dressing will be). Mix in lime juice, sugar, fish sauce, and 2 Tbsp. water. (Or, finely chop garlic and salt, then chiles, on a cutting board ...
4. Toss apples, pears, shallot, grapes, cilantro, mint, and reserved dried shrimp (if using) in a large bowl to combine. Add dressing and toss to coat. Top with reserved toasted coconut.

Yuzu Ponzu Salmon With Crispy Rice 12 servings

Asian · Tasty · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 40 ml Rice wine vinegar
- 15 ml Sugar
- 5 ml Kosher salt
- 325 g Cooked short-grain white rice — warm
- 360 ml Avocado oil — for frying
- 45 ml Kewpie mayonnaise
- 6 ml Yuzu kosho
- 5 ml Yuzu extract
- 2.5 ml Sesame oil

· 2.5 ml Soy sauce
· 225 g Sushi-grade salmon — finely chopped
· 30 ml Scallions
· 5 ml White sesame seeds
· 5 ml Black sesame seeds
· Jalapeño — thinly sliced (optional)
· Ponzu sauce

METHOD

1. Make the sushi rice: In a small bowl, whisk together the rice wine vinegar, sugar, and salt until the sugar dissolves.
2. Pour the vinegar mixture over the warm rice and fold with a spatula until the liquid is absorbed.
3. Line an 8 x 5-inch container with plastic wrap, then add the sushi rice and press down in an even layer. Fold the plastic wrap over rice to cover, then freeze for 1 hour.
4. Meanwhile, make the yuzu ponzu salmon: In a medium bowl, whisk together the kewpie mayonnaise, yuzu kosho, yuzu extract, sesame oil, and soy sauce until combined.
5. Add the salmon and scallions to the bowl with the mayonnaise mixture. Mix until evenly coated. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate until ready to serve.
6. Fry the sushi rice: Heat the avocado oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat until the temperature reaches 191°C (190°C).
7. Remove the sushi rice from the freezer and cut into 12 even rectangles. Discard any loose pieces of rice.
8. Carefully add 3–4 of the rice rectangles at a time to the hot oil. If the oil splatters, cover the skillet with a lid until it subsides. Cook for 3–4 minutes, or until golden brown, then flip and cook until golden brown on the other side, 3–4 minutes more. Transfer to a wire r...
9. Transfer the salmon mixture to a zip-top plastic bag and snip an ½-inch opening in one corner.
10. Gently pipe the salmon on top of each piece of crispy rice. Sprinkle each piece with the toasted white and black sesame seeds and top with a slice of jalepeño, if using.
11. Serve immediately with ponzu sauce for dipping.
12. Enjoy!

Za'atar Fish And Chips 4 servings

Bon Appetit · gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

· 1 small Red onion — finely chopped
· 60 ml . apple cider vinegar — divided
· Kosher salt
· 700 g Small yukon gold potatoes — halved or quartered lengthwise
· 90 ml . extra-virgin olive oil — divided
· 1 1 0.25-lb. skinless — boneless cod fillet, preferably in 1 piece
· 15 ml . za'atar
· 180 ml Pitted castelvetrano olives
· 120 ml Coarsely chopped mint
· Za'atar — a blend of sumac, dried herbs, and sesame seeds, can be found at Middle Eastern markets, specialty foods stores, and online.

METHOD

1. Place racks in upper and lower thirds of oven; preheat oven to 425°. Mix onion, 2 Tbsp. vinegar, and a big pinch of salt in a small bowl to combine; let sit at least 10 minutes and up to 1 hour. Drain off vinegar and discard.
2. Meanwhile, toss potatoes and 3 Tbsp. oil on a large rimmed baking sheet; season with salt, then toss again. Arrange in a single layer. Roast on top rack, undisturbed, until browned and crisp underneath, 20–25 minutes. Turn potatoes over and reduce oven temperature to 325°. Pla...
3. Stir olives, mint, remaining 2 Tbsp. vinegar, and remaining 2 Tbsp. oil into pickled onion. Serve cod and potatoes topped with olive mixture.

Zesty Halibut And Green Beans 4 servings

Tasty

INGREDIENTS

· 15 g Kosher salt — plus more to taste
· 450 g Fingerling potato
· Olive oil — to taste
· 10 ml Freshly ground black pepper — plus more to taste
· 45 ml Mccormick® zesty spice blend — divided
· 4 Halibut fillets — about 1 inch (2.5 cm) thick
· 900 g Green beans — stems trimmed
· 120 ml Fresh basil — finely chopped
· 1 Lemon zest
· 1 Lemon juice
· 60 ml Extra virgin olive oil
· Kosher salt — to taste
· Freshly ground black pepper — to taste

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 450■F (230■C). Arrange the oven racks the top third and bottom third of the oven.
2. Bring a large pot of salted water to a boil. Add the potatoes and cook until fork-tender, about 20 minutes, then drain.
3. Transfer the potatoes to a rimmed baking sheet and gently smash so they flatten halfway. Drizzle a generous amount of olive oil over the potatoes, then season with salt, pepper, and 1 tablespoon of the Zesty spice blend. Spread on a baking sheet and set aside.
4. In a small bowl, mix together 2 tablespoons of the Zesty spice blend, 1 tablespoon salt, and 2 teaspoons pepper. Gently the pat halibut fillets dry with a paper towel. Season the fillets on all sides with spice mixture.
5. Arrange the halibut and green beans in a single layer on a rimmed baking sheet. Drizzle olive oil over the fish and green beans. Sprinkle salt and pepper over the beans and toss to coat. Turn the fish over to ensure all sides are coated in olive oil.
6. Place potatoes on the top rack of the oven and the fish and beans on the bottom rack. Roast until the potatoes are crispy, the fish is opaque in the center, and the beans are crisp but tender, 15-18 minutes.
7. Meanwhile, make the sauce: In a medium bowl, mix together the basil, lemon zest, and lemon juice. Drizzle in the olive oil and stir to incorporate, then season with salt and pepper.
8. To serve, divide the halibut, potatoes, and green beans among plates. Spoon the sauce over the fish and beans.
9. Enjoy!
