Basically Black Bean Soup 8 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 medium Onion
- 1 medium Carrot
- 3 Garlic cloves
- 60 ml Extra-virgin olive oil
- 60 ml Red wine vinegar
- 1 7 -oz. tin chipotle chiles in adobo — or 2 Tbsp. hot sauce
- 450 g . dried black beans — not soaked
- 8 ml Dried oregano
- 15 ml . kosher salt — plus more
- 3 Limes
- 240 ml Whole-milk greek yogurt
- Cilantro — sliced avocado, crushed Fritos, finely chopped onion, lime wedges, and/or hot sauce (for serving; optional)

METHOD

1. Start by doing a little prep work. Peel and chop 1 onion and 1 carrot.
2. Peel 3 garlic cloves by smashing each firmly with the flat side of a knife to break into smaller pieces. Discard skins. The cool thing about prepping garlic for any kind of long-cooking preparation like this is that it will have plenty of time to break down and infuse the whol...
3. Heat ¼ cup oil in a large stock pot or Dutch oven over medium. Add onion, carrot, and garlic. Cook, stirring occasionally, until onion is golden, 5–7 minutes. Don't worry if the veggies start sticking to the bottom of the pan a little bit—that's a good thing! Those little brow...
4. Add ¼ cup red wine vinegar and cook, scraping up any brown bits from the bottom of the pot, until vinegar is reduced by about half.
5. Add 2 Tbsp. adobo sauce from can of chiles and stir to coat. (Feel free to add more adobo sauce if you're craving more heat and smokiness; just remember: You can always add more later, but you can't take any away.)
6. Add 1 lb. dried black beans, 1½ tsp. oregano, 1 Tbsp. salt, and 8 cups water. That's right: no boxed stock! The beans are going to create their own delicious broth as they simmer away. Bring up to a boil over high heat, then drop the heat down low so that the beans are just si...
7. Simmer, stirring every 30 minutes to prevent sticking, until beans are tender and creamy, 1½–2 hours. How long it takes will depend entirely on how fresh your beans are—the longer they've been sitting on the shelf, the longer they're going to take to cook. That's why we try to...
8. Meanwhile, assemble your garnishes. They're going to be the difference between an extremely simple—and delicious!—pot of black bean soup and something that feels fun and kind of fancy. The first thing we're going to make is a kind of creamy lime-yogurt to dollop on top. First,...
9. Season yogurt mixture with salt. Give it a taste and add another pinch of salt if it doesn't pop. Easy, and kind of fancy, non? Cut remaining 2 limes into wedges for squeezing over the soup.
10. Prepare any other (optional) garnishes you may like. Slice some ripe avocado. Put some Fritos or tortilla chips or corn nuts in a bowl. Pick some cilantro leaves. Chop some onion, or thinly slice some scallions. Shred some cabbage. If you ask us, the more garnishes, the better!
11. Taste and season soup with salt, if needed. Remember: Beans can handle quite a bit of salt, so don't be afraid to add more if it tastes kind of "meh." You can serve right away, but we usually like to let a bean soup like this hang out for at least a half hour after we've finis...
12. Do Ahead: Soup, without garnishes, can be made 1 week ahead; store in an airtight container and chill, or freeze up to 3 months.

2. Prick skin on duck legs all over with the tip of a paring knife. Rub legs with salt, making sure to massage into flesh and skin.
3. Place legs in a large bowl and cover with plastic wrap, pressing directly onto legs. Rest a plate on top of legs and weigh down with several 28-oz. cans. Chill at least 12 hours and up to 1 day.
4. Note: If you're going to cook the beans and ragout and combine tomorrow, soak the beans tonight. If not, just remember to soak them the day before you want to cook them.
5. Confit Duck Legs
6. Preheat oven to 250°. Evenly scatter thyme, garlic, peppercorns, and juniper berries (if using) across a large baking dish or roasting pan and add 2 Tbsp. water.
7. Remove duck legs from bowl. Rinse off salt and arrange legs, skin side down, over aromatics in baking dish. Cover dish tightly with foil and weigh down with a cast-iron skillet or a heavy baking dish. Bake until fat renders out of duck and legs are submerged, about 2 hours.
8. Carefully remove baking dish from oven and remove skillet and foil. Turn legs skin side up and nestle back into fat. Cover dish again with foil and continue to cook legs, unweighted, until duck meat is very tender and bones wiggle easily in joints, 2–2½ hours longer.
9. Let legs cool in fat until you can handle them, then transfer with tongs or a spider to a plate. Strain ¼ cup fat through a fine-mesh sieve into a small bowl and let cool. Cover and set aside for cooking the breadcrumbs. Strain remaining fat into an airtight container; cover a...

19. Do Ahead: Ragout and beans can be combined 2 days ahead. Keep chilled.
20. Temper and Season Ragout Mixture

22. Prepare Sausage and Breadcrumbs
23. Remove reserved duck meat and skin from refrigerator. Let meat come to room temperature.
24. Meanwhile, arrange skin in a single layer in an 8-qt. Dutch oven or other heavy pot (the same one you'll cook the cassoulet in). Cook over low heat, turning occasionally, until golden brown and crisp, 20–30 minutes. Using tongs, transfer skin to paper towels and blot away exce...

9. Prick the sausages and brown them under a hot broiler or in a skillet. Drain; cut larger sausages into 3- or 4-inch pieces.

10. Reduce the oven heat to 135°C. Gently stir up the skin that has formed on the beans. Place the sausages on top of the beans. Dust the bread crumbs on top of the beans and sausage. Bake the cassoulet for 1 more hour. The top crust should become a beautiful golden brown; if it i...

- 4 Bone-in — skin-on chicken thighs
- 1 large Yellow onion — chopped
- 5 ml Salt
- 3 clove Garlic — minced
- 1 can Chopped tomatoes
- 1 ml Garlic powder
- 2.5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 1.1 L Water — plus more as needed
- 480 ml Frozen yellow corn — thawed
- 360 ml Frozen lima beans — thawed
- 240 ml Frozen cut okra
- 1 Red bell pepper — seeded, diced
- 480 ml Cubed russet potatoes — 1/2-inch cubes
- 7 ml Brown sugar
- 5 ml Worcestershire sauce
- Cayenne pepper to taste
- 15 ml Apple cider vinegar
- 120 ml Sliced green onions

METHOD

1. Gather your ingredients.
2. Add sliced bacon to a dry soup pot and cook on medium-high until browned and almost fully rendered.
3. After bacon is about halfway cooked, move it to the outside of the pot and set pork chop into the middle of the pot. Cook on each side until lightly browned, about 2 minutes each.
4. Remove pork chop and add chicken thighs, skin side down, and also brown on each side. Browning is optional but it will add more flavor.
5. Remove chicken. Once the bacon has cooked, add onions and salt. Cook and stir until onions are soft and translucent, about 5 minutes. If the pot is getting too hot, lower heat to medium. Add garlic and cook until fragrant, 30 seconds to 1 minute.
6. Add diced tomatoes, and stir to deglaze the bottom. Increase heat to high, bring to a simmer, and stir in garlic powder and black pepper.
7. Add browned pork chop and chicken thighs back to the pot, along withany accumulated juices and water. Bring to a simmer, and reduce heat to medium-low, or low to maintain a steady but gentle simmer. Simmer until meat is very tender and falls of the bone, about 1 1/2 hours.

9. Add corn, lima beans, okra, red pepper, and potatoes, and stir to combine. Taste and add more salt if necessary.
10. Stir in brown sugar, Worcestershire sauce, and cayenne pepper. Let the pot come back to a simmer (you can raise heat to do this faster, but reduce back to medium-low to maintain a simmer).
11. Simmer until potatoes are tender, and everything is cooked to your liking, about 30 minutes more. Add water or chicken broth to the pot if it seems like things are getting too thick, but this is a stew, and should be fairly thick
12. Once done, stir in vinegar. Taste and adjust salt, if needed.
13. Serve with green onions and enjoy!

- 120 ml Sliced green onions — white and green parts separated
- 30 ml Packed dark brown sugar
- 30 ml Fresh thyme leaves
- 15 ml Minced habanero pepper
- 15 ml Cider vinegar
- 10 ml Minced fresh ginger root
- 10 ml Kosher salt
- 5 ml Freshly ground black pepper
- 5 ml Smoked paprika
- 2.5 ml Ground allspice
- 8 Bone-in — skin-on chicken thighs
- 45 ml Olive oil
- 1 large Yellow onion — diced
- 1 pinch Kosher salt
- 15 ml Brown sugar
- 960 ml Chicken broth
- 80 ml Ketchup
- 2 Bay leaves
- 240 ml Sliced carrot
- 240 ml Quartered baby bell peppers

METHOD

1. Whisk garlic, white parts of green onions, brown sugar, thyme, habanero, vinegar, ginger, salt, pepper, paprika, and allspice together in a large mixing bowl.
2. Make 2 cuts, about 1-inch apart, into the skin side of each thigh, perpendicular to the bone, cutting all the way down to the bone.
3. Add chicken thighs to marinade; mix until evenly coated. Cover and place in the refrigerator to marinate, at least 4 hours or up to 12 hours. If possible, flip thighs several times while marinating.
4. Remove chicken from marinade. Scrape off any chunks of marinade from chicken into the bowl and reserve for later.
5. Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a large, deep, heavy-bottomed skillet or Dutch oven over medium-high heat until almost smoking. Working in batches, brown the chicken all over, about 5 minutes per side. Transfer chicken to the marinade bowl; set aside.
6. Heat 1 tablespoon oil in the same pan over medium-high heat. Add onion and a pinch of salt; cook until golden brown, 3 to 5 minutes. Stir in 1 tablespoon brown sugar and cook until onions are dark brown and caramelized, 3 to 5 minutes more.
7. Add chicken broth, ketchup, and bay leaves to the pan; bring to a boil. Add carrots, bell peppers, browned chicken thighs, and reserved marinade.
8. Reduce heat to medium-low. Simmer, stirring occasionally, until chicken is tender and no longer pink in the center and sauce has reduced and thickened, 1 to 1 ½ hours. Skim excess fat that floats to the top; baste chicken occasionally with sauce.
9. Taste and adjust seasoning. Stir in green parts of green onions. Serve and enjoy!

4. Prepare the mushrooms: Slice the mushrooms in half lengthwise. Use a stainless-steel straw to poke out the 'eyes' and a knife to make two slits for the 'nose.' You can also add slits with a fork along the stem for extra detail.
5. Pat the beef dry with a paper towel and season with salt and pepper.

10. Add the beef broth, Worcestershire sauce, bay leaf, and sugar. Stir to combine, then bring to a boil.
11. Cover the Dutch oven with a lid, transfer to the preheated oven, and braise for 2 hours.
12. Remove the pot from the oven and add the carrots, potatoes, and mushrooms. Cover and return to the oven for about 1 more hour, or until the vegetables are tender, the broth is thickened, and the meat is tender.

Vegan Butternut Squash Soup 4 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 1 large Onion
- 3 Garlic cloves
- 1 2 " piece ginger
- A small handful of cilantro — with stems
- 1 large Butternut squash — 3 0.5–4 lb.
- 1 13.5 -oz. can unsweetened coconut milk — divided
- 30 ml . extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 ml Crushed red pepper flakes
- 15 ml . kosher salt — plus more
- 40 g Unsweetened coconut flakes
- 2 Limes

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 300°. Trim the ends off of 1 onion. Cut in half through root end, peel and discard skin, then coarsely chop. (No need to sweat the knife work here—it's all going to get blended anyway.) Transfer chopped onion to a medium bowl.
2. Using the flat side of chef's knife, smash 3 garlic cloves. Peel and discard skins, then coarsely chop. Transfer to the bowl with the chopped onion.
3. Using a spoon, peel 2" piece ginger. (We always like to use a spoon to peel ginger, which is way better for navigating all of those nooks and crannies than a vegetable peeler.) Thinly slice and add to bowl with onion and garlic.
4. Trim a handful of cilantro leaves with tender stems; set aside for serving. Coarsely chop remaining stems and transfer about ¼ cup chopped stems to bowl with onion. Clear your cutting board.
5. It's time to break down your squash! (We promise it's not as scary as it sounds.) Trim off both ends of 1 butternut squash, then cut through where the neck meets the bulb. (This makes it easier to peel.) Peel both pieces of squash with a vegetable peeler. Cut squash neck and b...

8. Add squash and give everything a stir to coat. Add 3 cups water, or enough to just submerge the squash, remaining coconut milk in can, and 2 tsp. salt, then stir to combine. Raise heat to high and bring soup to a boil.
9. Once soup is boiling, reduce heat to medium-low and simmer, stirring occasionally, until the vegetables are very tender, 12–14 minutes.

10. Meanwhile, prepare your garnishes. Spread ½ cup coconut flakes on a rimmed baking sheet. Toast in oven until golden brown, about 5 minutes. (If you can't find big coconut flakes, shredded is okay, too, but it will probably take less time to toast. Just make sure to avoid any p...

12. Holding the lid down with a folded kitchen towel, carefully blend soup, starting from the lowest speed and working your way up to high, until smooth and silky, 10–15 seconds. Transfer to a large bowl. Repeat, working in batches, until all soup is blended.
13. Wipe out Dutch oven and return to stove. Pour soup back into pot and heat over medium, stirring occasionally, until you can see steam rising from the pot. (You may be tempted to serve the soup straight from the blender, but it loses a lot of heat in the blending process and ge...

White Bean And Spring Vegetable Stew 8 servings

Bon Appetit · vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free

INGREDIENTS

- 450 g . dried large white beans (such as lima or gigante) — soaked overnight, drained
- 1 Onion — trimmed, peeled, halved through core
- 3 Ribs celery — trimmed, halved
- 30 g . dried shiitake mushrooms — about 10 large caps
- 8 sprig Parsley — plus 0.75 cup parsley leaves with tender stems
- 1 head Of garlic — halved, plus 1 garlic clove, finely grated
- 15 ml . plus 1 tsp. kosher salt — plus more
- 180 ml Plus 3 tbsp. extra-virgin olive oil — plus more for drizzling, divided
- 180 ml Mint leaves
- 1 bunch Radishes
- 1 bunch Medium-size asparagus — about 1 lb.
- 1 10 -oz. bag frozen peas — thawed
- 8 Thick slices country or sourdough bread
- 1 4 " piece fresh horseradish root — peeled
- 1 Lemon — cut into 8 wedges

METHOD

1. Preheat oven to 300°. Combine beans, onion, celery, mushrooms, parsley sprigs, halved head of garlic, 1 Tbsp. salt, 3 Tbsp. oil, and 2 qt. water in a large Dutch oven. Bring to a simmer over medium-high heat, cover, and transfer to oven. Bake until beans are fully cooked, tend...
2. Using tongs, fish out aromatics and discard. Season with salt. Be generous! Under-seasoned beans are barely worth eating. Let sit on stovetop, uncovered, until ready to serve.
3. While beans are cooking, make your pistou and prep the vegetables and garnishes. Using your sharpest knife, finely chop mint and ¾ cup parsley leaves. (A dull knife will just mash your herbs and cause them to turn dark around the edges.) Transfer to a small bowl. Add ¾ cup oil...
4. Trim and wash radishes, then slice as thinly as possible into coins (a mandoline really helps here). Transfer radishes to a small bowl, cover with cold water, and chill until ready to use.
5. Wash asparagus and trim woody stems by bending each spear near the cut end until you find the place where it wants to break naturally. Cut off tips, then cut each tip in half lengthwise. Slice now-tipless stalks crosswise into thin coins. Toss asparagus coins and tips and peas...
6. When you're almost ready to serve the stew, return beans to a gentle simmer over medium heat, taking care not to stir too much—you don't want to bust up those beans!
7. Generously drizzle oil into a large cast-iron skillet and heat over medium until shimmering. Working in two batches, fry bread slices until golden brown on both sides, about 2 minutes per side. Season with salt and transfer to a plate. (You may have to add more oil between bat...
8. When beans are simmering, add reserved asparagus and peas and cook, stirring gently, until asparagus coins are barely cooked but still bright green and crunchy, about 2 minutes.
9. Drain reserved radishes. Place horseradish root on a plate with a Microplane (the way you'd serve Parmesan). Bring Dutch oven full of stew directly to the table. Serve with fried bread, pistou, radishes, lemon wedges, and horseradish alongside.
